Chapter 841

Selena had not spoken to him for two days.

So why did she suddenly call him?

However, David still answered, "Okay, I'll be out immediately."

Just as David was about to go out and have a look, the phone in his pocket rang.

David took out his phone and took a look.

It was from Killer, the first deputy captain of Red Flame Mercenaries.

'Did something happen in Dark Cape?'

David quickly picked up the phone and asked, "Killer, what's the matter?"

"Captain, two forces are fighting on Dark Cape Peak in Dark Cape. It looks like a war is about to begin. One side is Somerland, led by Mason, and the other is a combination of several major forces led by the Chris family. Now it's being broadcast live worldwide.

You should turn on the television now and watch," Killer said anxiously.

Killer already knew when Somerland's major families and Mason had just arrived at Dark Cape, but he did not immediately notify David.

He wanted to see what these people wanted to do before deciding.

It did not take long for the Chris family from Falconia to bring their people over.

They were about to start a war.

Killer realized the seriousness of the matter, so he quickly called David.

When David heard what killer said, he was shocked.

Then, he quickly asked, "Killer, are you for real?" "Absolutely! Now it's being broadcast live all over the world. It's being broadcasted on televisions, computers, mobile phones, and above most large plazas. You will know if you look," Killer replied affirmatively.

"Okay, I got it. Immediately evacuate everyone nearby. This combat level here is too destructive."

"Roger that."

David hung up the call with Killer.

After that, he hurried to the living room.

As soon as he entered the living room, David was attracted by the live broadcast on the television. He spotted the thin old man standing before Marlon at a glance.

If he could stand in front of Marlon, the peak God Ranker, did this mean the old man was the grandmaster that had woken up in the Chris family?

The partial Super-God? As for the other three around Marlon, they should be the peak God Rankers of the other three major forces. Selena and Celia saw David's unpleasant expression and asked worriedly, "David, what's wrong?"

David's mind was in chaos at this time.

No one ever told him about the Chris family's arrival.

He had absolutely no idea what was going on. With an unpleasant expression, David took out his phone and called Julia.

The call just got through and before Julia could speak, David asked directly and loudly, "Jules, what's going on?"

"D-David, Great-grandpa didn't want me to tell you. He thinks it'll be perilous this time.

The enemy didn't come in peace. He asked you to hide and not to be impulsive. You should only come out after you break through peak God Rank. That way, there will still be hope for Somerland,” Julia cried over the phone.

“When did this happen?” David asked through gritted teeth.
“I received news this morning that Great-grandpa has brought people from the major families of Somerland to Dark Cape to stop the enemies. As for the live broadcast, I don’t know what happened. The Chris family should be behind it. The purpose of this is to show the world how strong they are and then conquer the world effortlessly.”
“I got it,” David said. “David, please don’t be impulsive. The enemy’s strength is beyond imagination. Listen to Great-grandpa and hide! Don’t go, otherwise we really have no hope, and Great – grandpa’s painstaking efforts will be in vain,” Julia entreated piteously. She did not expect the Chris family to actually do the global live broadcasts. Even if David rushed over now, the battle might have already ended. Once the enemy discovered him, he would die in vain after facing so many powerful enemies.
If David were to die, there would be no hope left for Somerland.
Although Julia hoped that David could save her Great grandpa, he should do it only if it was within his ability.
He did not have to do it if it would kill him.
He might as well hide and wait until he was strong enough to avenge Great-grandpa.

Chapter 842 “Jules, I’m sorry.”
David hung up the phone.
Julia was relieved to hear David’s apology.
She thought David was apologizing for his inability to save her Great-grandpa. This way, David would not go and get himself killed.
Although David failed to create a miracle and Julia was a little disappointed, as long as he was alive, she would be okay.
There was hope for the future.
Temporary avoidance was not because of inner cowardice, but it was for the future rebirth.
She believed that David would be able to achieve this soon. However, David was not thinking of the same thing at this time.
He apologized for being too selfish.
He failed to notify Mason in time that he had broken through the peak God Rank and reached partial Super – God rank.
If Mason died today, David would never have another day of peace.
The old man was fighting for a way out for David using his own life.
“David, are you alright?” Celia asked worriedly. Selena looked at him equally worried.
“I’m fine. Celia, you two should rest at home. I’m going out to take care of something,” David replied with a wry smile.
After speaking, David hurriedly turned and left. By the time the two girls finally reacted, David had disappeared from the living room.
Selena and Celia quickly chased out.

When David went outside the villa, he did not worry about anything else and immediately soared into the air. After he reached an altitude of about a thousand meters, he quickly activated his extreme speed exclusive to a partial Super-God and flew in the direction of Dark Cape.

At this moment, for David, time was life.

It was possible that if he was a second late, Mason might lose his life to the enemy. He had the strength of a partial Super-God.

Naturally, he knew the gap between a peak God Ranker and a partial Super-God. Without any exaggeration, even if the five peak God Rankers joined forces, they would not be able to pose a threat to him unless they caught him off guard in a sneak attack. It was also possible that he would defeat each and every one of them.

Mason was now in danger of losing his life at any time and it was all because of him. If only he had told Mason earlier that he had already broken through to the partial Super-God rank. How could this happen?

Thus, David had to go all out and could no longer hide any trace of strength.

The extreme speed of partial Super-God broke through the air resistance.

The moment when David exerted his full power, he caused a massive explosion.

The sound emanated from the air, shrouding the entire Capital City in a huge gas explosion. It did not go away for a long time. Celia and Selena had just got to the door. Boom!

A massive gas explosion could be heard.

Both of them were startled.

They looked around for David, but David was not there.

They only saw a meteor streak across the sky and disappear in the blink of an eye.

Capital City was a long way from Dark Cape, but David was fast.

He was moving at speeds almost invisible to the naked eye.

I'm A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang Chapter 843

Chapter 843 Wherever he went, the clouds would be directly cut in half by the airflow he created.

From the ground, the sky seemed to be cut open by a knife, and one could see how fast he was.

A plane would be like a tortoise compared to him.

Dark Cape.

Dark Cape Peak.

Mason stood quietly at the top of Dark Cape Peak, watching the enemy's team of a hundred people.

He did not speak or move.

Behind him were hundreds of people from the major forces of Somerland.

Somerland had an advantage in numbers.

However, the difference in their strength was miles apart.

A peak God Ranker was against four peak God Rankers and also someone halfway to God Rank.

It was already a death sentence to Somerland.

The only difference was it was up to the enemy to determine how they wanted

Somerland to die.

When Bourne saw that everything was ready, he stepped out.

This step made Mason's heart beat violently.

'Are we starting?

'Come on then!

'Let me see how different a super-peak God Ranker really is!'

Then, Mason also took a step forward and flew to the front to face Bourne.

The two were only a few hundred meters apart.

For a supreme powerhouse at peak God Rank, they would be able to approach each other in the blink of an eye.

Mason was ready to meet death vehemently. Unexpectedly, Bourne ignored him.

Instead, he said to hundreds of cameras, "Everyone who is watching the live broadcast, hello! First of all, I want to tell you that what you are watching is not a movie or TV series, but a global live broadcast. This is happening in real-time at Dark Cape Peak in Dark Cape. My name is Bourne Chris, and I was the grandmaster of the Chris family as well as a member of the Chris family four hundred years ago. Now, I have just woken up."

After Bourne said this, everyone in Somerland's team except Mason was taken aback.

It was not just them, the tens of billions of people worldwide watching the live broadcast were all shocked. Everyone already knew that this was the live broadcast, and some people had already guessed the location.

However, how could someone from four hundred years ago survive until today?

Was this a joke?

Although the human lifespan had been greatly extended, there was no way anyone could live for four hundred years.

This completely changed their worldview.

"I know you have a lot of doubts, so let me explain. My family arranged for the global live broadcast, and the purpose is to let everyone see the strength of the Chris family.

"Because from today, the Chris family will be the most significant force in the world, and if all the other forces want to continue existing, they must rely on the Chris family, obey our arrangements, and serve us as their master. Otherwise, they can only perish.

"I know that my words alone will dissatisfy many of you, and that's why we're going to this global live broadcast today. Next, I will show you how the Chris family is going to do this. We will establish our prestige with Somerland, and if you think you can surpass Somerland, you can try to oppose me."

After Bourne finished speaking, he looked at Mason and asked, "You are Mason Stefani of Somerland, right?"

"That's right," Mason replied.

"Don't you have someone named Silver Face in Somerland? Tell him to come here. Don't say I didn't give you a chance."

"There is no Silver Face in Somerland, just me."

"Oh? I didn't expect Silver Face to be a coward. I wonder how he got to this point."

"You talk too much nonsense," Mason interrupted directly.

"You're asking for death!"

Bourne narrowed his eyes, and his super-peak God Ranker's energy surged towards Mason.

Mason only felt an enormous pressure overwhelming him.

He tried his best to resist but still staggered a few steps backward.

On the other hand, the people of the major forces behind him felt like this energy was a superpower from heaven..

They could not even resist.

'What's going on?'

Everyone looked at the thin figure in the distance with horror on their faces.

Especially the late God Rankers.

Their feelings were more intuitive.

A peak God Ranker's energy was definitely not this strong. In other words, this skinny old man named Bourne had surpassed peak God Rank.

'How... How are they going to fight him?'

The people of several major forces looked at each other.

They could all see the disbelief in each other's eyes

I'm A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang Chapter 844

Chapter 844 The people from Somerland's horrified expression satisfied Bourne.

"Mason, I'll give you two choices. First, kneel in front of me and announce in front of people worldwide that Somerland will submit to my family from today onward, and will be our slave forever and never betray us. Second, I will destroy you with my own hands, while Somerland will also be destroyed. You choose , " Bourne said with a contemptuous smile.

His words did not just echo across Dark Cape Peak, it also echoed in the ears of all Somerlanders watching the live broadcast.

They could not believe their eyes.

T

Somerland's legendary old man, Old Master Stefani, had been scared into staggering several steps backward by a mere look from a thin old man.

Mason was like a god-like figure in the hearts of Somerlanders.

Now, they felt as if their faith was being crushed.

Countless hot-blooded young people stared at the thin old man on the screen with blood-red eyes.

They wished they could tear him to pieces.

The old man even wanted all of Somerland to be slaves to the Chris family for the rest of their lives.

He had to be dreaming. Somerland would never agree to that!

Countless Somerlanders were screaming, but their voices could not be heard.

"Come on, let me see if a super-peak God Ranker is as powerful as the legend claims."

Mason was expressionless.

Although he knew he was not Bourne's opponent, he had no choice.

Even if he died, he had to tear a piece of meat from the opponent. As for kneeling down, surrendering, and being a slave forever?

Impossible!

There were no cowards in Somerland!

Bourne looked at Mason with a frown.

It was not easy to become a peak God Ranker, and usually, these people would greatly value their lives. He thought Mason would choose the first option without hesitation.

He did not expect him to choose the latter option.

“Mason, you have to think clearly. It was not easy to get to this point. Are you sure you want to choose that option? Do you know the consequences of doing this? Somerland will be ruined because of your wrong choice.”

“Go ahead! You underestimate the Somerlanders . I just want to tell you one thing-there are no cowards in Somerland! What you have done to me in Somerland today will definitely be returned to you a hundredfold in the future.”

There are no cowards in Somerland!

That statement triggered the countless Somerland hot blooded youngsters watching the live broadcast.

Mason convinced not just them, but even the major forces behind Mason.

Initially , after they realized the enemy’s strength, they resented Mason in their hearts because Mason had deceived them and led them down this dead end.

Otherwise, they would still have a chance of gaining asylum.

When worse came to worst, they would bring their family back into hiding and continue to live in seclusion.

It would be better than coming here to die. Yet, after hearing what Mason said, they stopped blaming Mason.

Everything this old man did was for the billions of people in Somerland.

He wanted to give them a happy life, and he did not even care if he had to give up his own life to achieve that.

He had given everything. Therefore, they admired and looked up to this old man of noble character and unquestionable integrity.

“You’re hilarious. You want to give it back to us a hundredfold? Mason, you think too highly of Somerland. Besides, I won’t give Somerland a chance to make a comeback at all.” “Really? Then we’ll wait and see.”

Mason stopped talking after that.

Bourne narrowed his eyes at Mason.

When he saw the determined look in Mason’s eyes, he knew that Mason came here with the determination to die.

Bourne hesitated too.

Another peak God Ranker of Somerland had not shown up.

(Where is he?

‘Is he hiding in the dark?’

Bourne would not hesitate if he were still at his peak.

It would have been too easy for him to kill a peak God Ranker when he was at his peak.

However, he had not recovered yet.

Although it was not too difficult to kill Mason, he would not take action unless he had to.

It was because if he fought Mason now, he would delay his eventual return to his peak.

I’m A Quadrillionaire by Xiruo Huang Chapter 845

Chapter 845

He did not want to see this.

Moreover, a peak God Ranker was fighting with the determination to die, so Bourne had to be careful. If not, he would be injured.

By then, the gains would not make up for the losses. Initially, he thought he would quickly subdue the Somerlanders if he showed his strength as a super-peak God Ranker as he did with the other three major forces. Unexpectedly, Mason was not afraid of death at all.

When Bourne thought about the tens of billions of people watching live and the other three families behind him, he seemed to have no choice but to take action today.

'Let the world feel the horror of super-peak God Ranker!'

"Spread out, back away!" Bourne yelled at the hundreds of helicopters in the air.

After he opened his mouth, all of the helicopters began to retreat and expand the effective combat area.

At the same time, the hundreds of people behind Bourne also began to retreat quickly.

A super-peak God Ranker was no joke.

The aftermath alone could kill most of them.

"You should also step back and find an opportunity to escape as best you can. Today, I, Mason Stefani, have let you down. However, I still hope that you can do your best to help if you encounter a Somerlander being bullied in the future. I will be very grateful for that." Mason turned around and bowed to the people of the major forces.

"Old Master Stefani, you don't have to blame yourself. We should be the ones apologizing for failing to help Somerland. Don't worry, as long as we can escape from this place today, we will do our best to help the Somerland people in the future," Delmont said solemnly.

"That's right. Old Master Stefani, please rest assured that as long as we don't die today, we will do our best to help the Somerlanders in the future."

The rest spoke in succession.

"Thank you very much for that."

Mason bowed again.

Then, he turned to face Bourne.

The two stood opposite each other.

The hearts of all Somerlanders watching the live broadcast leaped to their throats.

Once Mason was defeated, Somerland would be doomed.

Of course, some people were about to jump for joy, and these were the people of the Haran family. They suffered too many losses by Mason's hands, and no one would be happier than them to see Mason die. Now that they had decided to start the battle, Bourne also stopped talking nonsense.

After the helicopters equipped with cameras were far enough, he directly emitted his energy with all his strength.

Boom!

Powerful and unparalleled energy soared into the sky.

The clouds scattered thousands of meters in the sky as a hurricane started to blow across Dark Cape Peak. Everyone's faces were hurting from the strong wind. Even if the hundreds of helicopters were far enough, they were still affected by Bourne's energy and they struggled to remain stable.

Mason faced Bourne's energy up close.
His loose clothes flapped loudly in the wind like an ordinary person facing a 6 or 7-force gale.
Mason knew he was no match for Bourne after feeling his energy.
He had no choice other than to fight.
Boom!
He also released his peak God Ranker energy to the extreme.
Tens of billions of people were staring at this battle with a huge disparity in strength.
A peak God Ranker and a partial Super-God.
Although the partial Super-God had not recovered to his peak and was still weak, a peak God Ranker was not comparable to him.
Just when Bourne's energy had reach its extremes and he was about to kill Mason in one fell swoop...
Boom!
A blast of air came from dozens of kilometers away.
It was deafening and everyone's eardrums hurt from the vibration.
Then, it directly interrupted Bourne's energy that was about to peak.
