I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 851

The onlookers had their eyes glued to the scene.

Tens of billions of people watching the live broadcast stared fixedly at the screen.

It was much better than any television show or movie.

There were no special effects, and the combat was all done in real-time.

Boom!

Another violent collision.

Still, David had the upper hand.

Once again, Bourne was pushed back hundreds of meters by David.

"Haha! Old man, you are already old; now, it is the youngsters' world. Accept reality! Let me kill you, and remember not to insult Somerland in your next life!" David guffawed and said.

David became unreasonable once he had the upper hand.

After he retook his position, he chased after Bourne again.

As he watched Silver Face charging at him, Bourne sighed silently in his heart.

He did not expect to encounter such an opponent right after waking up.

If he had known earlier, he would have rested a little longer and only come out once fully recovered.

He was too careless.

He thought he was the only partial Super-God on earth, so he could do whatever he wanted.

However, he did not expect another one to be hiding out here.

He could not let this go on.

His opponent was clearly at his peak.

Therefore , Bourne could only fight with everything he got.

As for the result, he should not think about that right now.

It was because his nearly decaying body would not be able to take it anymore if he continued to receive more blows.

Boom!

Bourne let go of himself completely.

He also charged toward David quickly.

The two met again.

Boom!

The violent collision sounded again.

However, this time it was even.

No one gained the upper hand.

David did not expect this old man to hide his strength, but he was not afraid.

Boom boom boom boom boom!

The two fought from the air to the ground.

Then, from the ground to the clouds.

Wherever they were, there would be a mess spanning a few kilometers that was caused by the aftershock of the battle.

The crowd of onlookers and the helicopter also retreated repeatedly for fear of being affected by the battle between these two peerless powerhouses.

Bourne was seasoned.

Meanwhile, David had materialized mind power helping him, so he was not much inferior to Bourne.

However, he only used his mind power to sense his opponent and did not use any substantial mind power to fight.

Now was an excellent opportunity to gain combat experience. It would be hard to find another chance like this if he missed it.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 852

David was strong, so the more he fought, the braver he became.

Before Bourne fell asleep, he was nearly two hundred years old. His body was about to decay, and now he had not yet recovered to his peak.

The longer the fight, the more damage he would suffer.

The two seemed to be fighting evenly.

However, in reality, the scales of victory had gradually shifted in David's favor.

Bourne could not hold on any longer.

He was in a difficult situation, and he could not stop halfway.

This was also because David would not give him this chance to do so.

The naked eye could not capture the battle between the two.

Whether it was the people watching in-person or the people watching the broadcast in front of the screen, all they could hear was a loud crash.

Then, they would look toward the place that was being destroyed.

Nearly 100 high-definition cameras were continuously shooting without missing a single spot, yet they still could not find the two of them. Occasionally, several units would be destroyed after being affected by the fight.

Bang!

David caught Bourne off guard and was punched directly into Dark Cape Peak, creating a big hole in the mountainside.

Dark Cape Peak was trembling.

Then, David charged into the big hole with his extreme speed before Bourne could get out.

He shot straight into the hole.

Boom!

Another loud sound.

David charged straight through Dark Cape Peak with Bourne in front of him and appeared diagonally from the other side.

The top of the entire Dark Cape Peak was instantly destroyed and fragmented.

Gravel flew all across the sky,

A few more helicopters were unfortunately hit by gravel, resulting in a crash that caused the pilots to plummet to their death.

Mason and the major forces from Somerland had already withdrawn from Dark Cape Peak when the two started fighting. Otherwise, this blow would have killed most of them.

David did not stop after dragging Bourne through Dark Cape Peak. Instead, he pushed Bourne to the ground again at lightning speed.

In doing so, he created a large pit with a diameter of more than ten meters and a depth of twenty or thirty meters.

All the people in the world watching were stunned by that one move.

'Was this something done by a human?'

'Ordinary small missiles can't even reach such power, right?'

'The highest peak of Dark Cape, Dark Cape Peak, was destroyed, and he even caused such destructiveness on the ground.'

'Martial artists are so powerful.'

'How amazing.'

At the same time, it also inspired countless people to practice martial arts.

Even if you were too old to practice, they could let their children or grandchildren practice martial arts.

What if they had the talent?

Would they have a chance to be as strong as the two?

This was also the first time martial artists showed their strength in front of the world.

Ordinary firearms were useless to them, and they were just like props to martial artists.

Moreover , David and Bourne were the strongest two in the world right now.

Not only could they turn into a meteor, but they could also do earth-shattering and significant things.

After today, the whole world would see a wave of ordinary folks around the country practicing martial arts.

The scene soon quieted down.

After the two hit the ground together, they never emerged.

After a while, a figure flew out of the big hole in the ground and hovered in the air.

When everyone looked over, it was not Silver Face, but a thin old man.

As Bourne hovered in the air, he was almost naked.

His clothes could not withstand this level of combat.

Various wounds on his body were exposed; some were so deep that his bones were visible.

However, he did not care.

He also held a silver mask in his hand.

'Isn't that Silver Face's mask?

'Did he kill Silver Face?'

The hearts of everyone in Somerland , including Mason, people from the major forces, Julia, Celia, and Selena, immediately tensed.

Celia grabbed Selena's hand. Her eyes were filled with tears, and it looked as if she was going to cry from anxiety.

Julia also screamed. Then, she covered her mouth and stared at the screen, her tears dripping onto the table.

Some of the masters who watched the scene did not understand.

David clearly had the upper hand just now.

He blasted Bourne into Dark Cape Peak, then charged over to give Bourne the final blow.

So why was Bourne the first to come out now?

Indeed, the older they were, the more experienced they were.

Bourne had lived for nearly two hundred years after all.

Although they did not know Silver Face's age, he would not be too old.

When everyone was speculating whether Bourne killed Silver Face...

Woosh!

A figure shot out from the big hole and stood across from Bourne.

At this time, David was also in tatters, but he was in much better shape than Bourne.

The mask on his face had fallen off, revealing David's true face.

Everyone was stunned when they saw this young and handsome face.

This chapter is provided by naijdate.com. Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

It was because his face was too young.

He looked like he was only in his twenties!

The tens of billions of ordinary people watching the live broadcast might not quite understand this, but the masters on the scene knew very well.

A young man in his early twenties was a super-peak God Ranker.

This was entirely beyond their cognition. They had practiced hard since childhood and were already considered very outstanding if they could become God Rank guardians by the age of forty or fifty.

Many people remained only at peak Dragon Rank until they died.

A super-peak God Ranker at the age of 20?

There had never been such a record in history.

Plus, wasn't that David Liddell, the captain of the Somerland Discipline Team?

David was Silver Face?

The major forces in Somerland went crazy. The most excited were the people from the King family.

It was because Selena once said that David was the son-in-law of the King family.

A son-in-law who was a super-peak God Ranker?

What did this mean?

The King family was going to rise to prominence!

Delmont was excited, but Augustus was even more excited.

His son-in-law turned out to be a peerless powerhouse at super-peak God Rank.

"Augustus, you have given birth to a good daughter! From now on, the King family will be handed over to you. I hope you can continue leading the King family to create glory," Delmont patted Augustus on the shoulder and said.

Augustus was overjoyed. Not only had he obtained a peerless and powerful son-in-law, but he also took a firm seat as the head of the King family.

'Haha! How amazing!

'Selena is making me so proud!'

While some people were excited, of course, others were heartbroken.

Ted, Taylor , and the rest of the members of the Krums were heartbroken.

Initially , David won the title of number one among the younger generation in Somerland at the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland.

According to the rules, Lorraine was going to marry David, but David rejected her.

Hence, they did not pursue the matter. From the looks of it now, what had they missed?

They missed out on a super-peak God Ranker as their support.

They missed out on an opportunity for the Krums to take off.

If only they insisted on having Lorraine marry David.

Who would dare to mess with the Krums in the future?

Even Lorraine, who was watching the live broadcast, was stunned.

David is Silver Face?

'And he's also a peerless powerhouse at super-peak God Rank?

'Why didn't I insist on marrying him at the grand event of the chosen ones?

'I waited thirty years for an unparalleled hero to marry me, didn't I? David was the unparalleled hero she had been waiting for, and only David was worthy of her.

Unfortunately, she did not seize the opportunity.

At this moment, Lorraine felt that her heart was about to stop beating.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 854

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 854

While Lorraine could not breathe from the heartache , all those who attended the grand event of the chosen ones in Somerland were shocked and dumbfounded when they saw that familiar, young, and handsome face.

The younger generation of these various forces could not understand no matter how hard they tried.

David was in his early twenties.

How did he get to this stage?

Not only did they need to look up to David's achievements now; even people like their elders and ancestors needed to look up to David.

They were the same age or even older than David, yet they were miles away from him.

The people who had interacted with or befriended David were secretly feeling happy. For example, Charles, Clinton, Goldie, and her siblings were all incoherent with excitement.

After today, with David's strength and status, a single word from him could change their fate and benefit them forever.

Of course, people like Silva, who had been at odds with David, would like to hide and never see David again.

Celia, Selena, and Julia were temporarily relieved after seeing David safe and sound.

In reality, Celia did not pay special attention to David's status and strength. She only hoped that David could be safe.

She still felt distressed after seeing the tattered clothes on David's body.

It was such an intense battle and collision.

Even if David had the upper hand and was in much better shape than Bourne, he was still covered in wounds.

After all, Bourne had lived very long and was experienced.

This chapter is provided by naijdate.com. Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

Even though David had his mind power to assist him, he was too young, and he was tricked at the last second.

The two stood face to face in the air.

Neither of them continued the fight.

David's chest was heaving rapidly.

He was still trying to catch his breath.

Just now, he was careless, so he suffered some pretty heavy damage.

Now, his back was still burning with pain.

Originally, he blasted Bourne into Dark Cape Peak

without giving the opponent a chance to react. Then, he immediately rushed in to give the opponent the final blow in one fell swoop.

It was relatively smooth in the beginning.

Since Bourne's breath began to weaken, David thought he had reached his limit.

He crashed into Bourne at extreme speed, pushing him into Dark Cape Peak and onto the ground.

David was already at his terminal velocity.

If he successfully landed the blow on Bourne, in Bourne's current state, he would have lost at least half of his combat power.

David also relaxed a little and felt he was going to win.

However, at the last moment, when they were about to hit the ground.

Bourne suddenly exerted some force.

He grabbed David, turned him over, and switched positions with David.

Initially, David was the one pushing Bourne into the ground, but now, Bourne ended up pushing David into the ground.

Since it happened too fast, before David could return to his senses, his back had already crashed into the hard ground.

The heavy crash made David feel as if his bones had fallen apart. Pain overwhelmed his body.

Luckily, his body was refined once again after racing partial super-God rank. It was much stronger than when he was at peak God Rank.

If not, even if he did not die, he would be seriously injured if he was still a peak God Ranker.

After Bourne pushed David into the ground, he reached out to pull David's mask away from his face before leaving quickly.

Therefore , everyone saw David gaining the upper hand and forcing Bourne into a dead end.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 855

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 855

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 855

In the end, it was Bourne who came out first.

This was because Bourne caught David off guard.

David's breathing had already calmed while he was in the air, and he could not help but feel annoyed.

This battle was the toughest one he had ever faced.

Even when fighting Marlon, he did not suffer such a big loss.

He was still too careless.

It was completely avoidable if he had been alert at the time.

Moreover, he still had not used his materialized mind power.

This loss could be regarded as a wake-up call for David.

In battle, no matter what, one could not relax as long as the enemy was not dead.

Even if they appeared to be dead, you had to confirm their condition firsthand.

Otherwise , you might be the one injured or even killed.

'I must pay attention to this issue in the future.'

David made a decision in his heart.

As he was looking at David's young face, Bourne took a long time to recover.

This chapter is provided by naijdate.com. Visit naijdate.com for daily update.

He recalled back when he broke through to become a partial Super-God, he was almost a hundred years old!

On the other hand, this face was only in his twenties, but he had already reached this stage.

'How Incredible!

Bourne could only describe this in two words.

He always thought his awakening was a chance given to him by God to save the world.

As long as he successfully survived the catastrophe on Earth, he might be able to go further and become the first Super-God Ranker.

Only by breaking through to become a real Super-God Ranker could his decaying body be rejuvenated and his lifespan be extended.

This was his only chance.

Now, only after seeing Silver Face's true face did Bourne realize that the young man in front of him was the real favorite of this era while he was just a stepping stone for David.

Bourne was a little disheartened for a while.

He thought he was the main character.

However, when the real main character stood in front of him, he realized he was just the side antagonist.

This huge gap was difficult for the old man to accept. The breath on his body was also rapidly weakening. At this time, Bourne had no intention of continuing the fight.

He knew that even if he continued, it would be in vain.

Silver Face was at his peak, so he was very strong.

Even after Bourne purposely hid his true strength and caused Silver Face to suffer such a heavy blow, Silver Face still bounced back in a very short time.

Meanwhile, Bourne was just a dying old man whose body was about to decay.

He was no longer at his peak.

He would not be David's opponent if he continued fighting. Silver Face might even kill him right here.

“Silver Face, I didn’t expect you to reach a height that countless people cannot reach in their entire lives at such a young age. You win, I admit defeat. In the future, the Chris family will work for you, and we will never dare to have a single complaint,” Bourne said with a sigh.

Countless Somerlanders watching the livestream started cheering. Mason and the forces of Somerland behind him breathed sighs of relief.

Meanwhile, Celia and Selena started crying from joy.

Julia laughed and cried all by herself to release the excitement in her heart.

Bourne had admitted defeat, so it meant that Somerland had won this battle.

Now, the world would bow down to Somerland.

Even if Somerland did not have the ambition to take over the world, this did not stop everyone worldwide from respecting the country. As a Somerlander, they could not begin to describe this pride.
