I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 861

She once heard her great-grandpa say that although a peak God Ranker was much stronger than ordinary people in terms of vitality and physique, they were still human.

If they were destroyed, they would still die.

'No, Great-grandpa will not die.

David won't die either.

'He is so powerful.

'He will definitely protect Great-grandpa.'

Julia's tears began to flow frantically.

Time passed minute by minute.

People began to come back to their senses slowly. Countless people worldwide watching the live broadcast began to curse.

Just now, Bourne said so many high-sounding and righteous statements.

He asked David to focus on the bigger picture and let him go, which made most of the viewers believe him.

They thought he was genuinely considerate of everyone's wellbeing

However, what Bourne was doing showed his narrow minded and stubborn character.

If such a person controlled the world, would they still have a day of peace?

"How shameless ! He's so shameless. He shouldn't have let him go just now, he should have just killed him!"

"It'd be too easy to kill him just like this. He should be allowed to experience all the torture and then be sliced with a thousand cuts."

"It is such an insult to human beings that this kind of despicable villain is still alive! Why didn't God just kill him?»

Countless people were cursing Bourne. However, Bourne could not hear them.

Even if he could, he would not care.

At this time, Bourne was looking at David's previous location with excitement.

His plan was successful.

Just before the sneak attack, he had been watching David.

Both of them were partial Super – Gods, so only he could see David's movements clearly.

Bourne was sure that David did not escape from the attack, which meant David was still there.

A partial Super-God was still mortal.

Even if David was a partial Super – God, he would surely die after getting hit by numerous armor-piercing rounds and small shells.

'Haha!

'My plan was successful.

"There is still only one partial Super-God left in the world now.'

Bourne got excited.

The reason why he had this crazy plan was because he wanted to attack and kill David.

The decision was made after seeing David's true face.

Bourne knew he was no match for David.

David was too young, and he was the one sent by God to save the world.

Even if the earth successfully survived the catastrophe, David would get the credit.

If there was a chance to truly break through to Super-God Rank, it would definitely belong to David and not Bourne.

If he could not, then his body that was going to decay soon would never fully recover and his lifespan would also not increase, which meant he would die in a few decades.

Hence, why not take a gamble?

If he killed David, he would receive David's luck.

After the earth survived the catastrophe, Bourne would have the slightest chance of breaking through.

If they could not get through the catastrophe, then the tens of billions of people on the earth should die with him!

It had to be said that Bourne was absolutely out of his mind at this moment.

Four hundred years ago, he chose to go to sleep for the slightest chance of survival.

Four hundred years later, he could not miss the chance now that he had seen it.

He would not care even if he was torn to pieces.

There were tens of billions of people who were going to die with him anyway.

Bang bang bang bang bang!

The fire coverage of seventy or eighty heavy-duty helicopters lasted for nearly five minutes before it ended.

The area where David was located was a mess, and the ground sank at least two or three meters deep.

This showed how powerful the firepower of these aircrafts were.

It was such a powerful attack, so as long as someone was within this range, their corpse would also be utterly destroyed.

The people on the scene and the tens of billions of people watching the live broadcast were all staring at David's previous location. Their eyes never left the spot.

Because of the smoke and dust, no one could see what was happening in that area.

However, was it possible for David to survive this strong firepower?

No one thought David had any chance of surviving.

However, everyone wanted to witness another miracle.

To them, David was a miracle worker.

Celia and others had long been numb.

They were staring blankly at where David was on the screen, but their tears had stopped flowing.

They felt as if their souls had left their bodies.

David was dead.

Selena's dearest father and grandfather were dead.

Julia's dearest great-grandfather, Mason, was also dead.

They did not know how to face this reality.

Bourne was excited.

Finally, he had killed Silver Face, the only person that could outperform him.

Everything David had would belong to him.

The core of the Chris family was also very excited.

As long as Silver Face was dead, no one would be a threat to the grandmaster, and their family would still be at the top of the world.

As for the other three major forces, they each had different thoughts.

They did not want the Chris family to dominate the world because the Chris family was too overbearing.

This would make life worse for them in the future.

If someone could restrain Bourne, then it would be best. Compared to the Chris family, these three forces actually hoped that Somerland could achieve the final victory.

This was because somerland had no ambition of taking over the world and had always pursued the idea of peaceful coexistence.

It was in everyone's interest for Somerland to win in the end.

It was a pity that Silver Face, the only one who could suppress Bourne, was killed by Bourne's trap.

They were all powerful martial artists. However, they would not survive the intensity of this attack if they did not escape at once.

No one could stop the Chris family's ambition of taking over the world.

Soon, all the heavy-duty helicopters were out of ammunition.

Without the continuous firing, the smoke and dust began to dissipate slowly.

Everyone held their breath and stared at the spot nervously, not even daring to blink.

The scene was getting clearer.

The spot where David was also slowly appeared in everyone's eyes.

When the smoke cleared and the dust receded, everyone saw what had happened...

'What?'

Bourne was stunned.

The three major forces were stunned.

The major forces far away from Somerland were stunned.

The tens of billions of people watching the live broadcast were also stunned.

What was happening?

They saw David and more than a dozen leaders from Somerland's major forces standing quietly in place without having taken the slightest bit of harm. There were also countless bullets and various shrapnel piled up around them. There seemed to be some force field protecting everyone and blocking all attacks.

That scene was too shocking.

Countless people were stunned watching all this.

They were rendered speechless for a long time.

No one knew how David made it this far.

Bourne believed that even in his prime, he would not be able to do this.

If he were suddenly attacked by this powerful firepower and did not escape the attack range immediately, he would be dead.

This was because a partial Super-God was still mortal.

That was why he dared to carry out this crazy sneak attack plan to replace David and become the chosen one.

He wanted to seize the chance to break through. Now, it seemed...
