"Is Mia famous?" David turned to the servant and asked.

He noticed how these servants who had followed Pavan got a little excited when they saw Mia.

"Master David, Mia is one of the four fairies in the Milky Way, nicknamed the Dance Fairy. She can make people happy and addicted to her dance. It's rumored that she once made someone break through another realm on the spot with just her dancing. She's sought after by countless young people, and at the same time, she is often a guest of many older generations. If you can invite the Dance Fairy to any party, she will definitely bring more fun to it."

'Oh?'

Hearing this, David looked at Mia.

'She's an entertainer.'

'So, she's equivalent to a world-class diva on Earth, right?'

'However, Mia is not that simple either since she is a beginner Stellar Ranker.'

"To thank you for your help, why don't I dance for you to relieve your fatigue?" Mia suggested.

She wondered how a big shot like David would have never heard of her name, but Mia did not ask about this.

She figured that David should be a cultivator who only concentrated on training and was not at all concerned about other worldly matters.

That was why he had this kind of combat power at such a young age, easily outshining all the talents on the surface of the Milky Way.

Many major forces had someone like this as each had their own sets of enemies.

Everyone knew that destruction pursued the great. If a force revealed that they had someone with devilishly high talent, the other hostile forces would surely find a way to get rid of them.

Thus, they would usually train these people secretly and not make them public until they could stand independently.

David must be one such person.

David thought for a while and said, "Okay! Dance for me, and let me see if the Dance Fairy, one of the four fairies, is really worthy of her name."

Mia started getting ready after she heard David agreeing.

She found a room to change.

Then, the other women took out their instruments and started arranging them.

Those were their money makers. Therefore, they would bring the instruments anywhere they went.

Soon, Mia came out in a long bright-colored dress. All of the colors were blended together, and it looked stunning.

The sleeves were long, and the dress was also long, reaching all the way to the floor.

One would like it at first sight.

Mia's tall, slim figure coupled with gorgeous face captured the hearts of many men before she even started dancing

Mia walked to the center of the hall and nodded to the women, hinting to them that she was ready.

Ding!

The crisp sound of the first instrument resonated across the room.

Then, more than ten instruments started producing music.

Mia started dancing in the center of the hall.

Every move displayed her lithe body, making her look like a gorgeous butterfly.

Everyone was mesmerized by her.

On the contrary, David watched Mia dancing at the hall's center with his eyebrows furrowed.

He could sense something wrong with his mind power.

At this moment, there seemed to be a magic spell on Mia's body that would make people unconsciously drown in her.

However, this magic spell would not hurt anyone. Instead, it would make their hearts feel refreshed.

It seemed that the legends were not baseless. This dance could indeed accelerate the audience's speed time.

However, it was also limited.

If the audience watched her daily, they might not gain any huge effects. As expected of the Dance Fairy, no wonder she was acknowledged by so many. This was a well-deserved reputation.

Of course, this did not do anything to David.

His mind power was too strong, so how would he be affected by this?

After the song ended, Mia stopped moving

However, except for David, the audience still could not return to their senses for a long time.

They were still immersed in the dance from earlier.

Mia deserved to her title of the Dance Fairy among the four fairies.

Her dancing was indeed very infectious, and it would make the audience subconsciously indulge in it.

Clap clap!

David took the lead in applauding.

His applause also tugged the others back to their senses.

Clap clap clap!

There was thunderous applause at the scene.

Mia also bowed politely to David.

“Not bad! Not bad! As expected of Dance Fairy, you really live up to your reputation. Your dance is very contagious; at the very least, you are the best dancer who dances with your soul I have ever seen,” David said without hesitation.

Mia's dance could make her audience clear their heads and feel comfortable . At the same time, she might even promote a slight increase in strength. Although David did not know what kind of person she was, he was sure that Mia was not heartless because such a person could never dance such a refreshing dance.

“Thank you for your compliment, Master David. My dance is inferior in front of you,” Mia replied softly.

She was not humble. Instead, she had been watching David the entire time she was dancing.

David's eyes stayed clear the entire time and did not look mesmerized like the others.

He was not even the slightest bit affected.

Mia had met this kind of person before, but all of them were big shots with terrifying strength.

‘It seems that David is not as simple as he appears,’ Mia thought to herself.

“Mia, you are too humble. I wonder, where're you heading? I can drop you off if it's on the way,” David asked.

“Master David, I am going to Planet Boundless to dance for Lord Burke to celebrate his breakthrough to Universe Realm,” Mia replied.

“Is Planet Boundless on our way?” David turned to the commander of the Octagon next to him and asked.

The commander was taken aback, and he was a little confused.

‘You only said you wanted to go to the center of the Milky Way, but you didn't say where you wanted to go to!

‘I don't even know where you are going.

‘So how will I know if it's on the way or not?’

However, the commander did not dare to say anything.

All he could say was, “No, Master David.” “Master David, please give us a ride. In order to celebrate his breakthrough to Universe Realm, Lord Burke of Planet Boundless has invited a lot of talents and big shots to his planet. This banquet will be huge. If you have time, you can go and have a look. I believe you won't be disappointed,” Mia said quickly. She was a little afraid that David would abandon them halfway. What would they do then?

If they were to fly in the void, they would be directionless. Plus, it would be very slow and dangerous.

David looked at the commander's confused look and realized he had asked the wrong question. He only wanted to go to the center of the Milky Way, but he did not specify where. The center of the Milky Way was so huge, and David wanted to go to the most prosperous place to spend money.

Since a lot of big shots were going to Planet Boundless, it would be easier to spend money there, right? Hence, he decided to head to Planet Boundless first.

“Alright, we'll send Mia to Planet Boundless first. I haven't come back in a long time, so it'll be good for me to meet those talents and big shots,” David said.

“Yes, Master David! If there's nothing else, I'll go back to the control room,” the commander said respectfully.

“Go ahead,” David said with a wave of his hand.

Then, the commander left the hall with the other operators.

"Thank you, Master David !" Mia sincerely thanked him.

She could sense something from David's words as well,

David was most likely a direct descendant of the major who went out to explore many years ago.

Many forces would let their direct descendants go out to see the world and venture after they reached a certain age.

A flower could not grow in a greenhouse.

David said he had not been back for years, so this should probably be the case. It's just that Mia had no idea which force David belonged to.

Mia went through all the major forces in her mind, but she did not seem to remember a Lidell family. Of course, David could also be giving her a fake name.

Another situation was that David did not belong to any family.

Either way, David had the required strength. He reached partial Universe Realm at such a young age.

"Mia, I've been exploring outside these years. So I don't know much about what has recently happened in the Milky Way. I'm wondering if you can have a chat with me to tell me about the recent events in the Milky Way," David asked.

Although he could find some information about the Milky Way on the Internet, the Milky Way galaxy was too large, and he did not know where to start.

Thus, he could only grasp some of the most basic situations.

If only someone could explain it to him, he could save a lot of time and learn some things that were not available on the web.

"I am honored to be of service, Master David," Mia replied with a smile. She naturally would not refuse a chance to talk to David alone.

Moreover, David just saved them.

If David did not show up, they would have ended up in a horrible situation.

After the rest of them left, Mia went to change.

It was very inconvenient to wear her dancing clothes. After a while, she returned to the hall in her new set of clothes.

"Mia, you must be tired too. Come have some tea," David said.

After that, he poured some tea for Mia.

Mia was not humble at all. She sat directly opposite David and took a sip of the tea after picking up the cup.

"This is such good tea. Thank you, Master David!

As one of the four fairies in the Milky Way, Mia had seen a lot of things.

She had tea and alcohol with many strong people at Universe Realm.

So, despite being grateful to her savior who was at partial Universe Realm, she was not scared of him.

After a while, David asked, "Mia, I wonder if you know about the Tuffin family?"

"The Tuffin family? One of the eight prominent families of the Milky Way Empire?" Mia asked in shock.

"That's right," David replied casually.

Mia looked at David. After she recomposed herself, she said, "Not really. I've never interacted with people from the Tuffin family. I've only heard basic information about them from other people."

"Tell me about them."

Mia replied after thinking about it, "They are one of the eight prominent families of the Milky Way Empire, and they are very powerful. However, their ranking has dropped in recent years, and now they are in the last place among the eight prominent families. The Dallarosa family just announced they want to replace the Tuffin family's place as one of the eight prominent families. As for whether they'll succeed, it's hard to say."

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 982

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 982

"Why? Since the Dallarosa family dares to say that they want to replace the Tuffin family, they should have a certain degree of confidence. Otherwise, their family's reputation will definitely be greatly affected if they fail. For these major forces, prestige and dignity are sometimes more important than anything else," David asked suspiciously.

"Master David, you have no idea. The Tuffin family has been one of the eight prominent families for so many years, and their background is profound. Although their strength has declined in recent years, they are still better off than ordinary folk even after suffering a loss. In addition to that, Grandmaster Tuffin is still alive. With him around, the Tuffin family won't fall. The Dallarosa family dares to say this because they are connected to the Allaband family through marital relations, and the Allaband family and the Tuffin family are mortal enemies."

"You mean the Allaband family that's ranked third among the eight?" David asked.

"Exactly! The Allaband and Tuffin family have a long standing feud. If Grandmaster Tuffin were not alive and didn't deter the Allaband family from acting rashly, the Allaband family would have wiped out the Tuffin family long ago," Mia replied.

David fell into deep thought.

This information was important. Also, he could not find news of this on the Internet.

When he was on Earth, David had scoured the Internet for all information on the Tuffin family.

However, he did not find anything regarding the feud between the Allaband and Tuffin families.

The Allaband family was the third superfamily among the eight prominent families. So, they were definitely more powerful than the Tuffin family, who was about to be disqualified from the eight prominent families.

However, the Tuffin family had a terrifyingly strong grandmaster around, so the Allaband family did not dare to do anything.

Now, the Earth was also a mortal enemy of the Tuffin family.

As the saying went, 'the enemy of my enemy is my friend.

Hence, David figured he could utilize this.

As for how he was going to do it, he did not know yet.

He decided to learn more about the Allaband family first.

He wanted to know what this family was about.

If it were a wicked family beyond redemption, David would just let them fight with each other.

He could collaborate with them to deal with the Tuffin family if they were a reputable and upright family.

Of course, this possibility of this being the case was tiny.

Which of these major forces would not prioritize interest?

They would not miss out on any chance to benefit their family.

"Mia, is Grandmaster Tuffin really that strong that he can deter the Allaband family, the third among the eight prominent families? I don't think they're scared of Grandmaster Tuffin, right?" "Grandmaster Tuffin has been living for millennia, so he's one of the Milky Way's magnates. Naturally, he's very strong. Even though the Allaband family has someone who can go against him, they don't want to have a battle with the Tuffin family that'll result in both sides losing, even if they're not scared of Grandmaster Tuffin. This is because a third party might benefit from this fight. Of course, they will not give up on any chance they can to knock each other down."

'I see!'

David understood now.

'How strong will someone be if they've lived for millennia?'

How should I crack this?'

David felt that things had gotten challenging. Hence, he had to increase his strength as soon as possible.

Next, David asked a lot of questions about the situation in the Milky Way Empire. Mia would answer anything she knew. As long as she knew the answer, she would explain it to David patiently while giving him her opinions.

David also learned a lot from this interaction.

He soon understood the situation in the entire Milky Way.

As time passed, the two would sit together for brief chats every day. With that, they gradually became closer.

When Mia asked how old David was, David did not dare to tell her the truth because he was worried he would scare her.
