

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 926

Chapter 926 Harold pursed his lips tightly. Recently, George had been repeatedly telling him that their mommy was in a bad mood, and he had asked him not to offend her. He had seen his mommy sternly correct the servants a few times when they did something wrong.

Once, he heard the servants privately discuss how his mommy was getting increasingly bad tempered. He wanted to refute them, but he could not do it because he also felt that his mommy was becoming less and less like the mommy who used to love and pamper him unconditionally.

Alden had mentioned that their mommy would be back to normal following a new year and new atmosphere.

But why did he sense that things were getting worse? "Mommy, did you really break Aunt Jasmine's finger?" Harold opened his mouth and softly asked.

The relaxed atmosphere that Adina had tried to create instantly froze.

"That woman isn't your aunt," Duke said indifferently. "She insulted your late grandma and your mommy. Having her finger broken is the price she has to pay."

Harold pursed his lips and did not look into the issue again.

The gloomy atmosphere in the car lasted until they arrived at the mansion. When they watched the countdown show at night, the children did not seem very interested either. Melody was the most innocent kid, but even she looked gloomy when she sat on the couch in silence.

Adina sighed deeply.

The mistress of a family had a big impact on the family unit. Now that she was the way she was, all of her children dared not even speak loudly.

Melody had initially been autistic, but she was finally behaving like an ordinary kid. Would her autistic worsen again after Adina frightened her?

"I'm a little sleepy, so I'll go upstairs and rest. Enjoy the show."

Adina got up and headed to the bedroom.

Duke stared at the television as he pursed his lips tightly. He had been trying to keep the Winters family the same as it was in the past, but the sensitive children were already aware of everything.

Despite that, they never cried or made a fuss. Besides, they also tried to create happiness and harmony in the family with him.

However, once Addy's emotions were triggered, the kids would automatically hide in their own shells.

Even George and Alden, who were the most sensible, had slowly become quiet over the past half a month.

Duke got up and walked to the cabinet before he opened it and took out four boxes. He carried the boxes and placed them in front of the children. "These are your New Year presents." Harold's eyes finally lit up. "Did you prepare these for us, Daddy?" "It wasn't me. It was your mommy." Duke flashed him a faint smile. "Open it and see if you like it."

Harold quickly unboxed the gift. It was a smart remote-control aircraft, and it was an assembly model that could transform. It was the toy that he had been longing for all this time.

"Wow! I love Mommy!" Harold jumped around on the couch. "This toy is a limited edition. How did Mommy buy it?"

Duke chuckled. "It's good that you like it."

"Wow! Princess Aisha's dress!" Melody took out a gown from her box and held it against her body. "This dress is gorgeous. It's more beautiful than all the Princess Aisha dresses I've ever seen."

Duke's voice was gentle. "Your Mommy made this dress herself. It has more than two hundred gems, all of which were sewn on by her." Melody appeared to be really touched. "Can I go and thank Mommy?"

Duke carried her. "You can do it tomorrow. Mommy's resting now." George unboxed his gift box next. It was an oil painting, and he could immediately tell that his mommy had painted it.

Alden's gift was a laptop. It had the best configuration, and many features that were essential for a hacker had been installed.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 927

Chapter 927 "Mommy," Alden murmured

His mommy did not allow him to be a hacker in the past, so he had to hide his laptop under the bed

Was his mommy supporting him to continue as a hacker now that he was turning five

"Since you've received your New Year gifts, it's time for bed "Duke carried Melody upstairs." Daddy will tell you some bedtime stories "I love you, Daddy!"

Melody kissed Duke on the cheek, and Duke's heart melted Since Addy needed some time to hjusti, he would company the children during this time

If the children actually got hurt, Addy might not be able to forgive herself for the rest of her life.

At 12 00 am, they heard the sound of firecrackers outside the window over and over again When the kids finally fell asleep, Duke returned to the master bedroom

Adina was sitting by the balcony, and there were a few empty beer cans in front of her Her gaze was dazed, and she looked slightly tipsy

Duke walked over before he grabbed a beer can from her hand and drank it.

"What are you doing? Don't grab my beer!"

Adina's expression darkened as she grabbed the beer back

Duke chuckled and said, "Why are you so protective of your food like a squirrel. You're so adorable."

Adina looked at him and seemed dumbfounded

She was not protecting her beer She was clearly angry

It seemed as if no matter how she tried, this man could still find her poolside "It's a new year " Duke held her and said, "My New Year wish is for our family to always be together and never be separated forever"

Then, he heard Adina's tipsy voice "It's unlikely for us to stay together forever George, Harold, and Alden will get married Even Melody will get married. It'll only be the two of us in the future"

“Just the two of us sounds pretty good too ” Duke smelled the back of her neck, and it was filled with a lani alcoholic smell “We haven’t enjoyed a proper time alone since we got married Onuriley grow up, the Two of us will travel the world Wr’ll go wherever we want, and I’ll be frering”

“Ok

Adana Iraned on him before she slowly closed her eyes and fell asleep Filmworks would constantly bloom in the sky outside the window, but they would fizzle out soon after

Duke suddenly felt a little sad

He pursed his thin lips and carried Adina to bed. Then, he went to the bathroom and got some water to wipe her body.

IT

It was already 2:00 am by the time he was done

He made a call to Ascrialia to wish Mabel a happy new year before he lay down beside Adina.

Early the next morning of the new year, someone played firecrackers outside, and the crackling was nonstop,

Adina opened her eyes lazily, and she was met with Duke’s black eyes. She chuckled, “Why are you still dawdling in bed?”

Duke held her in his arms. “Aren’t you dawdling in bed too? Do you want me lo dress you?”

“No.” Adina covered her chest.

This man had also offered to help her dress previously, but as lie put her clothes on, he started to touch her

JULI

She still needed to visit Jones Corporation and attend the executive meeting today, so she could not have such marks on her body Adina jumped off the bed and hid in the restroom.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 928

Chapter 928

"Happy New Year, Daddy. Moinmy!"

When they opened the room door, the four children gave their New Year wishes at the same time.

Adina's mood became brighter She handed out four small gifts that she had hidden behind her. "Happy New Year to you too. May you grow up healthily"

"Thank you for the gift, Mommy!"

The kids took the gifts and appeared ecstatic

Duke walked over, and he sounded bright and happy as well "You're already five years old, so I prepared some gifts for you."

He handed them four documents, which he took out from the drawer

Harold was the first to jump up excitedly, "Wow, Daddy! You're finally letting me managed company!"

George had been working on the family business since he was three, and Harold had been longing for it too Now, he could finally have his own company

"What about you, Mel? What's your gift?" Harold leaned over "Wow, it's a palo shop Daddy's so generous to you!"

He then looked at George and Alden's gifts again. Each of them received a company too

The boy's face instantly fell "Now George and Al have two companies, but I only have one I really don't know why I should be excited."

"If you can manage this company well, I'll give you another subsidiary company by the end of the year, but..." Duke looked at him and indifferently said, "If it suffers losses in the first quarter, I'll pass the company to George for him to manage" Harold immediately stood up straight "Daddy, don't worry. I'll manage it well."

Adina subconsciously chuckled and said, "If there's anything you don't know, you can come and ask me."

"Thank you, Mommy!" Harold grinned and held Adina's hand "Mommy, let's go downstairs and eat breakfast"

After they had their breakfast, Beale and his family came to visit.

Although Mabel had already gone to Ascalia, their tradition on the first day of the new year was to come and visit them They did it every year

"Uncle Beale, Aunt Mandy, Happy New Year!" the children greeted them politely

Despite their previous contact with Mandy, they did not want to stir up too much trouble in their new year

"Wow. you're such good kids." Mandy gave them some gifts and suddenly sighed. "I thought Mabel would come back for New Year's I really had high hopes Addy, it's New Year's, so the family should reunite Why didn't you go to Ascalia and bring your mother in law back"

Adina gently rolled her eyes. "Aunt Mandy. you haven't even sorted out matters in your own family. Why are you bothering us?"

Mandy was speechless, and her smile froze. "How could you talk to me like that? I'm just concerned about Mabel living alone abroad on New Year's. Duke, tell me, am I wrong for saying that?"

"Aunt Mandy, you better worry about your own family," Duke said indifferently. Mandy choked. She lowered her voice and coldly said, "You're so unfilial, You're such an ungrateful brat."

"Aunt Mandy, I heard that Uncle Samson did not come home this year. Is this true?" George asked innocently. "Ever since Uncle Samson got married, I haven't seen him at all. I heard from the servants that it's because your relationship with Aunt Judy isn't good. So, Uncle Samson no longer comes home because he doesn't want Aunt Judy to be offended. I wonder if that's also called being unfilial?"

In an instant, the living room became silent. Mandy's expression was extremely interesting

The matter regarding her son was her biggest sore spot. Ever since he got married, he had seemingly disappeared. He would only send her wishes through text during every festival each year.

George's words undoubtedly rubbed salt into her wound. "Stop it." Beale glared at Mandy and apologetically said, "Duke, Addy, it's New Year's Day, so I won't bother you further. If you have the time, please drop by my house in the afternoon for food and a gathering."

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 929

Chapter 929 He dragged Mandy out by force.

When she got outside, she swung Beale's hand away "The young ones insulted your wife, but you didn't defend me!"

"Didn't that happen because you tried to make a fuss?" Beale said helplessly. "Could Adina, the daughter-in-law, decide on sending Mabel abroad? It was obviously Duke's order. You're an outsider. Why do you bother so much?"

"An outsider? Why am I an outsider?" Mandy said angrily. "I'm Duke's aunt!"

"And I'm his uncle!" Beale replied coldly "That's enough. Let's go home and stop interfering with their family matters!"

The car door was pulled open, and Beale got in. Mandy snorted and could only leave together with him.

A while later, Duke drove his car out as well.

Adina was sitting in the passenger seat while gently applying her dusty rose lipstick.

"Do you really not want me to accompany you?" Duke held the steering wheel and asked.

Adina pursed her red lips. "There's no need. I can handle such a trivial matter. You can hang out in Winters Corporation for a while before you come and pick me up."

He drove the car smoothly on the street, and they soon reached the biggest business center in Sea City. That was where the Jones Corporation building was located.

Adina pushed the car door open and stepped out. She turned around and waved. "Remember to come and pick me up."

She then leisurely walked toward Jones Corporation in her high heels.

It was an off day in Jones Corporation on the first day of the new year, so there were not many people in the company. Only an old man guarded the entrance to the lobby. Bethal, as it may be, it was a very important day for Jones Corporation. It was the end of the succession contest. That meant the results for who would become the next heir of Jones Corporation would come out today

The meeting room on the top floor was fully seated,

Mr. Jones sat in the main seat, while Dillon and Zhenny sat on either side of him. Daniel and Jasmine Lien sat next to them respectively.

Aside from the members of the Jones family, there were also many executives and shareholders in the meeting room, and the atmosphere was a little heavy.

"It'll be 10:00 am in another five minutes. It looks like Addy isn't coming." Zhenny glanced at the time and said indifferently, "Let's begin."

Daniel frowned. "We agreed to officially start at 10:00 am, so we should wait for another five

"Is it necessary to wait further?" Jasmine smiled faintly. "The petrochemical project's future profits are estimated to reach $5,000,000,000, but they will only reach $2,000,000,000 at most for your resort project. It's a complete defeat, and the winner is clear." Mr. Owen nodded and said, "It doesn't matter whether Ms. Daugherty is here or not. It won't change the confirmed result."

"Just announce it," Mr. Jared said. "Once the heir is confirmed, there will also be plenty of procedures. Let's not waste any time."

There was a glint in Mr. Jones' haggard eyes. This capable man was experienced in business, but he was old. He could not salvage the current situation. A month ago, he had handed everything to his granddaughter who returned to the Jones family, hoping that she would be able to survive the challenges. But he had overestimated the girl's ability.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 930

Chapter 930 How could a girl in her early twenties stand against the whole company?

Zhenny had even managed to suppress Dillon and Daniel, two well-known members of the Jones family.

Mr. Jones had helped Daniel openly and secretly, yet he could not salvage something that was predestined.

It looked like Jones Corporation would really go to Jasmine.

She was also a member of the Jones family. However, her True family name was Yackley, and she was still a descendant of the Yackley family

After Evren married Zhenny, he engaged in a lot of affairs outside, so the Jones family and Yackley family ended up falling out. If a member of the Yackley family became the head of the Jones family, the Yackley family might laugh at the Jones family behind their backs

Mr. Jones sighed deeply

He bet and paid, but since things had progressed to such a point, he was left with no choice

Just as he raised his hand to gesture for the meeting to start, the meeting room door was opened

"I heard a lot of noise from the inside while I was out there. What are you talking about?" Adina smiled and walked in. "It's the new year. I'm here to wish you a Happy New Year. After the meeting, I'll treat you to a meal."

Jasmine curled her lips into a sneer. "You don't think that you can salvage the situation if you buy everyone a meal, do you? How funny."

Adina glanced at Jasmine indifferently before she walked over and sat in the chair that Daniel had pulled out for her.

"Alright, let's begin the meeting," Mr. Jones said in a deep voice, sounding slightly helpless

Jasmine raised her chin proudly. She picked up some documents, got up, and said, "First of all, I'll report on the petrochemical project. At the beginning of last month, the company invested $2,000,000,000 into the project, and it was mainly used for... During that period, we secured in-depth collaborations concerning the project with several national enterprises. After our professional team's evaluation, the potential for project development is huge, and profit can reach $5,000,000,000. It will even go up to $10,000,000,000 in five years. Once the petrochemical project is developed, it can contribute to the petrol industry in Sea City..."

Following her report, there was a long round of applause in the meeting room

It was already the best S+ project, to begin with. After it became part of the assessment, Zhenny nearly put all of the company's resources into this project, so it was actually not surprising that the project could earn $5,000,000,000 in three years.

Adina then gave Daniel an encouraging look.

Daniel took a deep breath and stood up

He had established his project in a month, and his experience over the past month was comparable to his experience in the past five years,

Although the project was not as good as the petrochemical project, it was his pride, and he had confidence in it

“After my sister and I took over the resort project, the company invested $1,000,000,000 into it, and we convinced Winters Corporation-”

Daniel only managed to get through one sentence before Jasmine heartlessly interrupted him. “Daniel, just report your project’s estimated profit and future influence.”

“What’s the rush?” Adina chuckled. “If you’re in a hurry to celebrate the new year, you can step our first.”

Jasmine choked on her words in hatred, but she suppressed her anger very quickly.

Well, Adina would not be arrogant for much longer

Once the result was announced, she would be the next heir of Jones Corporation

Jones Corporation would be handed over to her and her mother. Then, she would announce that b*tch, Adina’s banishment from the Jones family!

Daniel’s voice resounded in the meeting room After his presentation on the resort project, everyone in the meeting room could not remain calm for a long time.

While its estimated profit was only about $2,000,000,000, earning a profit of $2,000,000,000 in three years was a terrifying number for a small resort. The petrochemical project consumed a lot of resources, but the longer it went on, the smaller its profit would be The resort, on the other hand, would grow in fame and profit as time went by

Nobody ever paid attention to this project in the past, but when they listened to the report, they realized that they had truly underestimated Adina.

Madam Winters’s Fight For Her Children Chapter 931

Chapter 931 They just changed the plan slightly and increased the investment a little. The A-level project had instantly become an S-level project. No wonder Winters Corporation was willing to invest Clap!

Mr. Jones took the lead, and the others in the meeting room also clapped along “Daniel, you’ve matured.” Mr. Jones was incredibly pleased.

He had always felt that this grandson was not very capable and that he would not be able to help him rise in the ranks.

Today, he finally realized that his grandson was not that bad. Daniel was just in his early twenties, yet he could get things done so beautifully.

However, Mr. Jones' relief did not last even a minute before he became gloomy again,

Even though his grandson was outstanding, Jones Corporation would be handed over to someone else

When Jasmine saw Mr. Jones' gloomy expression, her breathing became slightly uneven. She was also a child of the Jones family. Why could she not become the heir of Jones Corporation? She had to impress her grandpa!

"Can we announce the result now?" Zhenny asked indifferently

There had been a rating sheet in front of everyone the whole time. After both presentations ended, the assistants collected the rating sheets

The calculation of the result took less than ten minutes. In the blink of an eye, the chairman's assistant was walking toward the main seat with the result in hand

"The comprehensive scores are out. The candidate, Jasmine Yackley, scored eighty five points." The assistant paused for a while before he resumed. "The candidate, Adina Daugherty scored seventy-nine points. Ms. Yackley wins!"

"Congratulations, Ms Yackley!"

"I hope you can lead Jones Corporation to new heights!"

"You're so capable even at such a young age. Jones Corporation has hope!"

Zhenny's subordinates quickly congratulated her, and the meeting room was full of joy.

"It's alright, Addy." Dillon said in a casual manner. "You and Daniel are capable. At worst, we'll just start over again. I'll invest in your start-up company"

Adina chuckled

She looked at the lively crowd over there and calmly said, "It's not over yet. Why are you in such a hurry to celebrate?"

She was not loud, but her fierce aura made the meeting room instantly fall silent.

Jasmine suddenly chuckled and smiled arrogantly.

It was a smile that only a winner could give. She put her hands on the table and nonchalantly said, "Addy, if you have anything else to say, just say it."

It was Adina's last chance to speak in an executive meeting in Jones Corporation, so it did not hurt for her to listen.

Adina leaned back in her chair and pushed a document in front of her out. "Daniel, please read the contents for everyone here."

Jasmine instantly narrowed her eyes. "What's this?"

For some reason, she had a bad feeling.

Adina tapped on the table indifferently. "You'll find out after you hear it." Daniel picked up the document with suspicion, and his expression immediately changed. He appeared to be in disbelief.

He turned sideways and looked at Adina. "Addy, is this true?"

"Will I have brought this over without proof? Read it out" Daniel nodded and read out the first word.

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 932

Chapter 932 "On the evening of February 7th, a third party survey re-estimated the oil field, and its reserves were at least one-half less than disclosed..."

Everyone slowly heard Daniel's voice in the meeting room. Zhenny immediately stood up. "Nonsense! Someone fabricated this fake news. You dare bring it to the executive meeting of Jones Corporation to embarrass us! Daniel, stop reading!"

"Since it's fake news, why are you so agitated, Aunt Zhenny?" Adina remained calm and relaxed. "Daniel, continue. Let everyone know about the interesting things that have happened to Jones Corporation's oil in the past month." Zhenny slowly clenched her fists.

Meanwhile, Jasmine's complexion gradually turned pale.

She was in charge of the project, so she knew better than anyone what had happened in the past month.

However, did her mom not say that she had taken care of it with money? How did this news travel to Adina?

If Daniel read the news out, she might not be able to keep the position of heir, which she had just obtained

“I don’t have time to listen to you reading lake news here!” Jasmine said coldly. “The meeting’s disinised.”

“We can wait for another ten minutes.” Mr Jones appeared Imposing “Even if it’s fake news, it’s about fones Corporation. There’s no harm in listening to it”

Daniel continued reading with Mr Jolies’ permission.

“On the morning of February Bth, the authority for testing visited the project site and was personally received by Ms. Zhenny Jones, the CEO of Jones Corporation. The matter was left unresolved.

“On the night of February loth, a piece of electrical equipment in Oil Field No. 1 started leaking, kalling two workers and injuring three workers at the site ”

When Mr. Jones heard that, his expression instantly changed

If something went wrong with the surveying of the oil field, they would not have to bear any moral condeinnalion

But there were dead people now

The news never reported on the incident, and it just ended up being suppressed like that.

“This is getting ridiculous!” Zhenny’s expression Turned cold “Today is the first day of the new year, but you’re makang us listen to such nonsense This isn’t very appropriate, is it. Addy?”

Adina cukkled

Streflipped open the document in front of her and ilirew it to the center of the meeting table ”

All the photos of the scene, physical evidence, and victim interviews are here. Aunt Zhenny. would you like to see me in court?”

The people at the meeting table raised their heads and looked at the document. Photos, surveilliance, interviews, injury identification... Everything that should be present was these Zhenny's face was filled with hostility.

It turned out that this bitch was well prepared.

"I've investigated the cause of the accident. The on site equipment was old equipment that had been eliminated in the gos, but they were delivered to the construction site without maintenance." Adina curled her lips into a sheer "Aunt Zhenny, the company allocated $ 2,000,000,000. Why would you not have the money to buy new equipment? Or did you use all the money to bribe the testing officer and suppress negative news?"
"Nonsense!"

Madam Winters's Fight For Her Children Chapter 933

Chapter 933 Zhenny slammed the table and stood up. Her expression was full of anger
"The evidence is here, Aunt Zhenny. Are you still accusing me of talking nonsense?"
Adina stood up as well.

She might have been petite, but her aura was extremely powerful

She then chuckled and said, "Aunt Zhenny. you really did everything in your power to make Jasmine the heir of Jones Corporation First of all, you gathered all of the company's resources and allocated them to Jasmine so that Daniel wouldn't even think about lighting back Second of all, you claimed ownership of the petrochemical project and got everyone in the company to develop it. That way, Jasmine's chances of securing the heir position were almost overwhelming

"However, the resort project unexpectedly had a new breakthrough Even so, that breakthrough was useless because it was still incomparable to such a heavy industry At the same time, something went wrong with your project "Adina tucked her hair behind her ear and went on "The original survey showed a reduction by half, and you panicked, so you messed up our project

"Then, an accident happened on the site of your project, and it involved deaths You probably spent a lot of money to suppress the news and comfort the victims' families so that they wouldn't make a fuss, right? But there are people who don't give in for money Now that the evidence is here, everyone should be aware of the truth"

Zhenny's complexion turned completely pale,

Over the past month, she had planned everything well with her far sighted vision, and she felt her hard work pay off when the result was announced

Yet, this bitch decided to knock her down when she was proudest.

The hit caught her off guard, and she could not find an excuse to explain

“You b*tch! This is fake news and fake evidence!” Jasmine lost her cool and started yelling in the meeting room. “Don’t believe her! She just wants to prevent me from being heir! She’s ab #tch! She has her tricks!”

Adina chuckled and shook her head.

“What are you laughing at?” Jasmine glared at her. “I’m laughing because people here trust Mdm Jones so easily.” Adina’s gaze turned cold, and she also changed her way of addressing Zhenny. “If the huge Jones Corporation is handed to a person like Jasinine Yackley, the shares in your hands will become a stack of waste paper within three years. Are you willing to pay such a huge price to support Mdm Jones?” The shareholders’ expressions changed Zheniny was indeed capable, but Jasmine As they got along in the past month, they clearly saw how incapable Jasmine was.

At first, they thought that Jasmine was still young Once she grew older, she would become krisible and slowly gain the skills to manage Jones Corporation

However, there was Adina, who was just two years older than Jasmine, and Daniel, who was younger than Jasmine. Each one of their was more outstanding than Jasmine

It seemed that they had been blind to be so supportive of Jasmine previously

“Zhenny, what else do you have to say”Mr Jones became extremely solemn. “If you insist on this being fake news, I’ll invite a third party to investigate it.”

Zhenny inoved her lips, but she could not utter a single word

If a third party got involved in the investigation, she would not be able to hide any of the things she had done.

If a big deal was made out of it, she and Jasmine would no longer be able to work in Jones Corporation

“It looks like you’ve admitted to il “Mr Jones’ eyes were full of disappointment “Twelve years ago, I personally handed Jones Corporation to you and appointed you as the CEO thought that the company would rise to new heights under your leadership Unexpectedly. you became ridiculous and sellish to such an extent just to make your daughter the next heir. Those two human lives will now be etched into Jones Corporation’s legacy from now on.”

What Mr. Jones said silenced those in the meeting room Many of them were old directors who had established the company with Mr Jones
