Chapter 3451

"Oh really?

"She's this unreasonable?

"Well then...

Harvey York showed a calm expression.

"So, where's your respectable Mrs. Lee now?"

Dillon Lee frantically twitched his eyes. At this point, he had no choice but to spill the beans.

"She's in Flutwell's Shangri-La Hotel.

"It's Mrs. Lee's birthday today.

"I was planning to take you down as a present for her..."

Dillon's face worsened in an instant.

He would not have done such a thing if he knew who was the man before him!

What a joke!

"The truth of her daughter's injury isn't even out yet.

"She blamed an innocent young woman for it, yet she isn't willing to give a statement about it..."

"How is she not ashamed of herself?"

Harvey calmly crossed his arms while walking outside.

"If that's the case, we'll have to visit Mrs. Lee's birthday banquet..."

Dillon's eyes frantically twitched after hearing Harvey's words. He had no choice but to keep kneeling on the ground while he trembled uncontrollably. He would not even dare to say a single word at this moment.

***

Half an hour later, at Flutwell's Shangri-La Hotel.

Harvey strode to the entrance with his arms crossed.

Dillon followed closely behind while trembling incessantly. He wanted to say something, but he would not even dare to say a word.

After walking past the luxurious and elegant-looking hall, Harvey came to a marble hallway.

A door covered in jewels was found at the end of the hallway leading to the VIP banquet hall.

It was said that Mrs. Lee was celebrating her birthday here.

Her daughter was still resting at the hospital...

But her banquet was the most important thing for her.

The banquet was not just to celebrate her birthday. She was using the opportunity to meet some of the prominent figures she normally would not be able to. That way, she would be able to keep her status and identity as one of Flutwell's upperclassmen.

Compared to the banquet, her daughter's life meant nothing to her.

The door to the hall was sealed shut, but there were a few tables right outside.

Other than a few souvenirs, eight ritual girls were waiting for the guests coming in late.

Harvey calmly glanced at the girls. He could not see Mrs. Lee, so he decided to go inside the hall on his own.

"Stop!"

"Who are you?!"

"Do you have an invitation?!"

Screams could be heard from behind when Harvey was about to enter the hall.

Harvey turned around and saw a tall woman with a plastic face fiercely glaring at him.

Utter disdain was showing on her face when she saw Harvey going inside empty-handed.

"Who are you?!"

"Who invited you here?!"

"Don't you know that the wife of Longmen's Flutwell branch leader is having her birthday party right now?!"

"Nobodies like you have no right to be here!"

The woman then coldly glared at Dillon.

The best disciple of Flutwell's Longmen branch had his head down while showing a depressed look, so it was natural that he was unrecognized at that moment.

She treated Harvey and Dillon like two beggars coming for food.

"I'm giving you three seconds! Get out of here right now!"

"If not, I'll get people to break every single one of your limbs!"

The woman then clapped her hands before a few people wearing robes showed up from the corner of the hallway.

Chapter 3452

Harvey York did not say a word as he calmly looked through his phone for pictures of the group of people who beat up Xynthia Zimmer.

Vivian Hall compiled the screenshots of everyone, including Mrs. Lee to Harvey, along with their information.

After viewing the screenshots, Harvey raised his head and looked at the bossy-looking woman.

"You're Stella Miller, a disciple of Longmen's Flutwell branch and Mrs. Lee's personal subordinate?"

"Oh? You actually figured out my identity? It looks like you did some homework after all!"

Stella felt extremely proud when Harvey pointed out that she was Mrs. Lee's subordinate.

"Since you know that already, why don't you just get out of here?!"

"I can cripple both of you with just a single word!"

"How dare you country bumpkins come here pretending to be rich?!"

"Take a look at yourselves! Do you think you have the right to beg for food here?!"

Naturally, as Mrs. Lee's subordinate and personal secretary, Stella knew exactly what kind of people were worthy of attending the birthday banquet.

She could tell that someone like Harvey did not have the invitation.

The ritual girls were showing disdain on their faces. Their beautiful eyes were filled with ridicule when they glared at Harvey.

They thought that he was a joke.

This was an exclusive event! The guests' identities would be checked over and over again just to be sure.

A bunch of nobodies had no right even to set foot inside.

'Who do they think they are?'

"This guy dresses so blandly. He doesn't look like those young masters or princes covered in jewelry at all.'

Stella and the others were utterly looking down on

Harvey and Dillon at this moment.

Harvey looked back and glanced at Dillon, who had his head down.

"Don't you people have manners?"

"Did you already forget Longmen's rules?"

Dillon would not dare say a word after hearing those words.

Stella and the others could not help but scoff after hearing Longmen's name mentioned.

"Longmen? A country bumpkin's trying to show off with that name?"

"Don't you know that Mrs. Lee herself is the wife of Longmen's Flutwell branch leader?"

"All thirty-six branches of Longmen highly respect us!"

"I don't care if you country bumpkins are related to Longmen! You have no right to enter this place!

"If you want to join the banquet, you'd at least have to be a branch leader of Longmen!

"Are you?!"

"Now I'm not," replied Harvey calmly.

"Heh! You think you have a chance in the future or something?" cut Stella with an odd tone.

"Tch! Take a look at yourself in the mirror! Are you trying to be a branch leader even though you look like that?

"You won't get the chance even if you're reborn ten times over!

"Leave! You're an eyesore!"

Harvey frowned. He was extremely displeased with Stella's attitude, but he still managed to calm himself down.

"You laid your hands on Xynthia too, haven't you?"

"Xynthia?"

Stella stood frozen for a moment before she came to her senses.

"So, you're here for that b*tch!

"What?"

"You guys still haven't had enough? Do you want more?"

"You really are miserable people!"

"Just tell me if you hit her or not," replied Harvey calmly.

Harvey was not planning to let Mrs. Lee off the hook in the first place.

Obviously, he would not let go of the people who went for Xynthia either.

Chapter 3453

"Oh? Someone in Flutwell actually dares to question me?"

Stella Miller scoffed before disdainfully glaring at Harvey

York.

"That's right! I hit her! Not only did I slap her around a few times, but I also kicked her!"

"What?"

"You think I didn't do enough?"

"Let me tell you something! That little b*tch was the one who went against Mrs. Lee!"

"She didn't even respect her one bit!"

"She doesn't respect her elders!"

"She totally deserved this!"

"We're not even done yet!"

"When the banquet's over, we'll take up on Xynthia Zimmer in the hospital!"

"Mrs. Lee said that we'll make her regret coming into this world if she still doesn't kneel and apologize!"

"What? A country bumpkin like you is trying to save the damsel in distress?"

"Do you think you're some kind of hero?"

"Are you angry for that little b*tch?"

"Do you think you even have the right to do something like that?"

Stella

chuckled while clapping her hands before a few disciples of Longmen's Flutwell branch showed up.

Those towering people looked as if they were going to chase Harvey and Dillon Lee out of the place.

The guest stepped back while they were laughing their stomachs off.

It was their first time seeing someone poor show off to this extent.

In their eyes, people like these had no right even to lick their boots.

Dillon trembled. He knew that Harvey had a terrifying identity, but he would not dare say a word about it.

Stella and the others were showing colder glares after seeing Dillon shiver continuously.

'As expected from a country bumpkin. He's already scared off by a few Longmen disciples.'

"They would've kneeled on any other occasion if that were the case.'

'It's only natural, after all. Longmen's outer disciples are pretty strong.'

'It's right for them to be this scared.'

Without a second thought, Stella's gaze turned cold as ice.

Some people pulled out their phones to take pictures. They were hoping to see Harvey and Dillon kneel in front of everyone.

Harvey calmly glanced at everyone before him.

"That's a pretty good gaze, country bumpkin!

"So scary! So cold! I can feel the murderous intent from here!

"You must've been previously cast as a security guard from Wolsing's Academy of Motion Pictures, right? You sure do know how to act!

Stella pridefully glared at Harvey.

"If you keep staring at me like that, I might just die of horror! Hahahaha..."

Harvey sighed.

"She has no right for me to take action."

Dillon froze after hearing those words. He knew in an instant that it was his time to perform.

Without Harvey's order, Dillon took a step forward and swung his right hand instantly.

Slap!

A resounding slap could be heard.

Stella was sent flying while she screamed in pain. Her plastic face was a little deformed at this moment. Even a tooth came right out of her mouth.

Dillon instinctively looked at Harvey after the slap. After seeing no reaction from him, Dillon stepped forward again.

Slap slap slap!

Stella was being slapped around.

The Longmen disciples were also sent flying with palm prints on their faces. Soon after, blood was trickling from the corners of their mouths.

Dillon was the top disciple of Longmen's Flutwell branch. It was relatively easy for him to beat up a few disciples from the same organization.

Chapter 3454

"You..."

"How dare you hit me?!" Stella Miller furiously screamed with her distorted face.

"Do you know who I am?!"

"You're no good at all. Your junior's questioning you right now. Aren't you supposed to do something about it?" said Harvey York calmly.

Dillon Lee coldly chuckled before grabbing Stella by the collar and slapping her around again.

Dillon did not hold anything back to show his loyalty to the head of Longmen's Law Enforcement.

Soon after, Stella's face was as swollen as a pig's. Her exquisite-looking face was completely deformed. She could not even speak properly at this point.

"Come... Hurry..."

The Longmen disciples struggled to get back up...

But before they could, they were all kicked away by Dillon.

At the same time, he even broke every single one of the disciples' knees with a fierce look on his face.

Screams of pain could be heard when the disciples completely lost their strength to fight. They could not even stand back up anymore.

"You're... Dillon?!" exclaimed a Longmen disciple after recognizing that face.

"Are you insane, Dillon?!"

"This is Mrs. Lee's birthday banquet! Not only did you not bring the present you said you would, but you're also causing trouble here?!"

"Do you have a death wish or something?!"

"Enough yapping!"

Dillon wasted no time knocking out the disciple with a single kick.

Harvey was quite impressed by Dillon's clear view of things and his ruthlessness.

A man like him would be a good subordinate. He would take care of anyone if he were told to.

Harvey calmly walked toward Stella, whose face was utterly distorted at this moment.

"How's this for the invitation?"

"If this isn't enough, I can show it to you once again."

"You..."

Stella trembled when she looked at Harvey's calm gaze.

She was filled with fear, especially after Dillon's identity was revealed.

She knew full well what Dillon and his team were set out to do...

But then, his face was completely swollen. Dirt and dust covered his entire face to the point where almost no one could even recognize him. More importantly, he also became the lackey of his enemy...

Stella realized that Harvey's identity might have been quite extraordinary.

Even though she was horrified, she remembered that Dillon had pursued her in the past...

She glared back at Harvey's domineering look.

At this very moment, her pride would not allow her to submit in front of anyone.

"I don't care who you are!"

"You're dead for causing trouble at Mrs. Lee's birthday banquet!"

"Not just you, Xynthia Zimmer will be dead too!"

"And you, Dillon!"

"How dare you betray Mrs. Lee, especially when she trusts you so much?!"

"Your life will be a living hell! This is a cardinal sin!"

Harvey sighed.

"Looks like your junior here doesn't have a clear view of things."

"Why don't you show her the invitation again?"

Dillon let out a wretched chuckle before kicking Stella aside.

Chapter 3455

Screams of pain could be heard all across the hallway.

Stella Miller's chest implants were flattened by the kick.

Harvey York turned around and strutted toward the end of the hallway. He could not be bothered by these people any longer.

Soon after, he reached the entrance of the banquet.

Laughter and gossip were heard through the crack of the door.

Dillon Lee kicked the door open without Harvey saying a word, as if he was actually his lackey at this point.

The kick alone was earth-shattering.

Not only did this mean that Mrs. Lee's banquet was being trashed...

This also meant that Dillon had no way back at this point.

All the guests looked toward the entrance after hearing the crashing sound.

The beautiful host in charge of the birthday banquet was speaking with enthusiasm...

But she immediately froze when she looked in front of her. She could not even continue saying her lines anymore.

Mrs. Lee was not the most prominent figure of Flutwell...

But her husband was the highest-ranked branch leader of Longmen out of all thirty-six branches.

Many young masters of Flutwell also had nominal titles as Longmen disciples.

The people who came to the birthday banquet were not at the top of Flutwell's upper social circle but were still very prominent figures.

Nobody expected that someone would walk into such a high-class banquet this arrogantly. This was just unbelievable.

"Who are you?!"

"How dare you cause such a big commotion here?!"

The dozen Longmen disciples in charge of maintaining order instantly charged forward.

The other guests showed odd looks when they saw the sight. Naturally, everyone saw Stella and the others lying right outside the entrance.

'They're completely disrespecting Mrs. Lee!'

Mrs. Lee, who was about to cut her birthday cake, showed a gaze as cold as ice.

She seemed indifferent as she held her glass while showing Harvey a deathly glare.

She did not recognize Harvey's face, but she knew that he was done for!

This was her birthday banquet. The people who came here were all deeply connected with Longmen.

Many experts showed up here, along with other rich and powerful people.

Whether to show off in front of the upper social circle or sell a favor, those people would not hesitate to trample on the country bumpkins.

Harvey completely ignored the crowd and crossed his arms as he walked inside.

Harvey was not fazed at all when faced with the fierce – looking Longmen disciples.

People could not help but be impressed by Harvey after seeing that...

But more were showing playful expressions on their faces.

They felt that Harvey was either high or outright insane.

'How dare he cause this much trouble at such an event?!'

'He's not just arrogant at this point!'

'He has a death wish!'

Many people here belonged to Longmen.

To put it bluntly, those people were disciples of Mrs. Lee's husband!

With just a single word, Harvey would be destined to die horrible death!

Chapter 3456

Harvey York did not mind everyone gazing at him at all,

He waved his hand, gesturing to a frightened waiter to come over before casually taking a glass of champagne to clear his throat.

"I'll give you a chance for the sake of this champagne here, Mrs. Lee.

"Get out of here right now, and I can consider not crippling you."

Mrs. Lee coldly scoffed with disdain showing in her eyes.

She did not know who Harvey was, so she thought he was just an arrogant brat instead of some prominent figure.

She believed that many people here would be able to deal with him.

"Aren't you impressive, Mrs. Lee?"

"Didn't you previously get people to deal with me?"

"Why are you hiding now?"

Harvey held his glass and walked toward the platform.

"You're the wife of Longmen's Flutwell branch leader!

"You are really disappointing!"

"How dare you?!"

"Who do you think you are?!"

A middle-aged man stood up and removed his suit, revealing his lean muscles before ferociously walking toward the platform.

"Do you think you can just insult Mrs. Lee like that?!"

"I'm warning you! Kneel and apologize right now, or you're dead!"

Harvey calmly looked at the man with a faint smile on his face.

The man felt like he was being mocked at that moment. He fiercely screamed and stomped on the ground before he flew right toward Harvey with his fist extended like a cannonball.

Sounds of ridicule could be heard from all over the place.

"He's done for! This ignorant fool's dead! Doesn't he know that everyone here is a trained martial artist?"

"That must be Senior Foster, right? His Golden Shield move is impenetrable!"

"It's said that even a dozen people might be unable to break his defenses!"

"This fool's so unlucky! Senior Foster respects Mrs. Lee the most! He won't stop until he completely crushes him!"

Many people were excitedly watching the show. A few beautiful women were crossing their arms, waiting for the moment Harvey would be sent flying.

Slap!

Harvey wanted no time swinging the back of his palm forward the moment Senior Foster was right before him.

The fierce-looking man was sent flying before crashing onto the ground.

The crowd froze in an instant. They were all filled with disbelief.

The beautiful women's jaws dropped so hard that a whole egg could fit inside their mouths.

At this moment, a dozen Longmen disciples in charge of security came to their senses.

They charged forward without anyone giving them an order.

After all, Harvey was not just disrespecting them at this point.

Harvey did not need to take any action then. Dillon Lee rushed right before him, blocking the disciples' path.

The disciples were all lying on the ground, paralyzed after a heated battle. They had no strength left even to stand

1. up.

The crowd gasped. They came to their senses soon after.

They thought that

Harvey was only acting this arrogantly because he had a strong bodyguard with him.

But because Dillon's face was covered in dust and dirt, nobody could tell who he was even though he seemed quite familiar.

Chapter 3457

Mrs. Lee could not help but squint after seeing the sight.

She was shocked to see Harvey York's bodyguard taking out every single person who came his way, but she was not that fazed by it anyway.

After all, she believed that authority and firepower meant more than martial arts in the modern world.

Soon after, Mrs. Lee sent a message to bring a dozen armed bodyguards.

"You're still not coming out at this point?" asked Harvey calmly, as if he did not see Mrs. Lee.

"Do you want me to drag you out on my own instead?"

"What are you trying to do here, young man?!"

An elderly man in a black suit stood up with a righteous look.

"Have you thought of the consequences of doing such a thing?!"

"What am I trying to do?" replied Harvey.

"I'm only here to claim a statement.

"I can tell everyone right now that this is a personal grudge!

"I'm here only for Mrs. Lee's statement today.

"Yesterday, during a game of Script Murder in Flutwell's Film City, Larisa Lee, Mrs. Lee's daughter, was hurt because a prop firearm went off by accident!

"Mrs. Lee didn't seek the truth, nor did she ask for a statement from Film City.

"Instead, my innocent sister-in-law was blamed! Mrs. Lee didn't even hesitate to beat her up!

"She even told people I was the one who loaded a live bullet into the prop firearm, hurting her daughter as a result!

"Then, she sent people after me.

Harvey calmly looked at his surroundings.

"She beat up my sister-in-law and came for me soon after. If I weren't strong enough, I would've been dead by now, wouldn't I?"

"It's only natural that I'm here asking for a statement, right?"

Everyone looked at each other in silence. They were less confrontational at this point.

After all, if everything that Harvey said was true, then Mrs. Lee was at fault.

That said, people would only support whoever was closer to them in this day and age.

Who would stand up for some nobody under those circumstances?

The elderly man felt a little awkward before he coldly scoffed.

"Even if Mrs. Lee did do things a little extreme out of love for her daughter..."

"You can't be causing trouble like this here!

"You can report this to the police or go to court..."

"But you can't just break the law!"

"Violence is not the answer!

"Not only will your actions make things worse, but your entire family will also be shunned for this!

The elderly man was showing a righteous look on his face.

In his eyes, Harvey was at fault for breaking the law!

Slap!

Harvey immediately appeared right before the elderly man and slapped him in the face.

The elderly man screamed in pain before vengefully picking up a wine bottle on the ground while gritting his teeth.

"You little b*stard! You'll pay for this..."

Slap!

Harvey immediately sent him flying with another slap.

"Even if I got emotional and hit you as a consequence; you're not allowed to cause trouble!

"You can call the cops or go to court..."

"But, you can't break the law and cause your family to be shunned!" replied Harvey without hesitation.

Chapter 3458

"You..."

The elderly man was so angry that he almost coughed up blood.

Harvey York completely ignored him and glanced at the crowd.

"You're still not coming out now, Mrs. Lee?"

"That's right. I hit your sister-in-law.

After seeing Harvey expose the entire truth and beat up the guests without hesitation...

Mrs. Lee knew that she could not just keep silent at that moment.

She leaned on the couch and lit a thin, long cigar while squinting at Harvey.

"But, she chose the script herself. She got unlucky.

"It doesn't matter who loaded the prop firearm...

"She was the one who pulled the trigger!

"She has to bear the consequences for my daughter's injury!

"What happened last night was just a lesson. It's just the beginning.

"If anything happens to my daughter, you and your sister-in-law will be buried six feet under!

Mrs. Lee then showed a derisive expression on her face.

"You can't get a statement from me.

"At this point, you can't even protect yourself!

Mrs. Lee clapped her hands before a dozen bodyguards with firearms walked out amongst the crowd.

They took off the safeties of their firearms and pointed them right toward Harvey.

"Look out, Sir York!" exclaimed Dillon Lee instinctively before crushing a wine bottle and swinging it forward.

Swoosh swoosh swoosh!

Glass shards flew right toward the bodyguards' wrists.

The bodyguards screamed in pain before dropping their firearms to the ground.

Bang bang bang!

Some firearms went off as soon as they hit the ground, hitting a few bodyguards.

The bodyguards fell to the ground, paralyzed. They were constantly twitching as they held their feet.

The guests stepped back while covering their mouths in disbelief.

Nobody figured things would turn out this way.

The bodyguard beside Harvey also seemed pretty capable. He took out every single bodyguard with just a single arm swing. No ordinary man would be able to do such a thing.

The guests soon understood where Harvey found the courage to cause this much trouble at Mrs. Lee's birthday banquet.

Mrs. Lee squinted while her eyes twitched slightly. The domineering look on her face was showing a hint of fear.

She soon realized that Harvey would be very troublesome to deal with.

Harvey slowly walked forward while completely ignoring the injured people lying on the ground.

His gaze was as cold as ice, causing the temperature of the entire hall to drop.

"Oh? That's a pretty decent bodyguard you have there.

"No wonder you have the guts to show off here!

"That said, don't you know that there's always someone better?

Mrs. Lee came to her senses before she let out a cold chuckle.

"Get them, Bulldog!"

Mrs. Lee would not use such a trump card if she were not desperate.

"What?! Bulldog?!"

"The best fighter of Flutwell's Longmen branch?!"

"He's been with Mrs. Lee the entire time?!"

"Branch Leader Lee sure loves his wife!"

"This kid's finished! He's going against Bulldog here!"

"He won't be able to beat him even with ten lives!"

The crowd was shocked after hearing Mrs. Lee's words. They were shocked that Mrs. Lee had such a trump card, but they were also surprised at how unlucky Harvey was.

Chapter 3459

Many people have heard of the name Bulldog before this.

Not only was he extremely strong, but he also had contributed exponentially to Branch Leader Lee's cause.

He would usually be seen following beside Branch Leader

Lee...

But it was clear that Mrs. Lee was adored after seeing Bulldog by her side.

Of course, this meant that Harvey York was done for!

Swoosh!

A figure flew out from the upstairs corner as soon as Mrs. Lee was done talking.

His movements were swift. He came right before Harvey and Dillon Lee almost instantly.

Without wasting a single second, he threw a terrifying punch right toward Dillon.

Bulldog did not hold back. He wanted to use Dillon to serve as an example.

He wanted everyone to know that whoever dared oppose Mrs. Lee had no choice but to perish!

Swoosh!

The punch was filled with murderous intent. A terrifying aura was crackling around him, as if he was a violent beast. At this moment, everyone was completely shocked by his power.

The guests instinctively shook their heads, thinking that Harvey would die or be badly injured.

Dillon showed a horrible expression. He had no chance to back down at this point.

Since he had already picked a side, he could only use all his might to throw a punch!

Bam!

Under the crowd's gaze, Dillon and Bulldog's fists collided.

Dillon's body trembled before he was sent flying with blood spurting out of his mouth.

Everyone could clearly see his face the moment he crashed onto the ground.

"Dillon?! You b*stard!"

"How dare you ruin Mrs. Lee's birthday banquet for an outsider like him?!"

"Do you have a death wish or something?!"

A lot of people recognized Dillon then. After being in shock, they understood why Harvey was able to act this arrogantly.

After all, the top disciple of Flutwell's Longmen branch was fighting on his side.

Everyone questioned why Dillon would suddenly switch sides after being loyal to Mrs. Lee for so long...

But it did not seem like it would make a difference after he was completely beaten up.

Mrs. Lee was a little surprised before she let out a cold chuckle. For the time being, she decided to deal with the traitor later.

Then, she calmly glanced at Harvey with curiosity.

"I don't know how you managed to get this traitor to fight for you, kid..."

"But, at this point, nobody else can protect you.

Harvey calmly glanced at Dillon. He was pretty talented, but it only got him this far.

"No need to look at him. He'll suffer even if he doesn't die. Longmen always has their way with traitors!

Mrs. Lee then wretchedly chuckled while pointing at Harvey.

"Get him, Bulldog!"

Bulldog scoffed while sizing up Harvey.

"I don't know where you found all this courage to provoke Mrs. Lee..."

"But it doesn't matter now.

"You're as good as dead!"

Bulldog pounced forward with his fist aimed right toward Harvey.

He planned to take out Harvey the same way he did Dillon. Slap!

Harvey wasted no time slapping Bulldog's fist with the back of his palm.

Bulldog's arrogant expression instantly froze.

A surge of power could be felt from Harvey's slap at this very moment...

Chapter 3460

Bulldog's hand cracked before it twisted all over the place like a pretzel.

"Aaagh!"

Bulldog screamed in pain when he was sent flying, crashing into a few people before he landed on the ground.

Cold sweat was profusely dripping down his face!

He was completely crippled!

Mrs. Lee and the guests were shocked when they saw the sight.

'How did he get crippled so suddenly?'

'Bulldog's supposed to be invincible, yet he couldn't even take a single hit from Harvey?'

'Is this real?'

"What happened?"

"What's going on here?!"

"Is this guy really that scary? He crippled Bulldog with just a single slap!"

"Am I seeing things?"

"Did Bulldog underestimate his opponent?"

"Maybe he got hurt when he fought Dillon!"

"That must be it! This wouldn't have happened if that wasn't the case!"

The guests frantically rubbed their eyes after seeing Harvey cripple Bulldog effortlessly.

They saw it with their own eyes, but they could not bear to accept that fact.

Bulldog was a well-known fighter for many years. He sent Dillon flying without effort, yet he could not defend himself against Harvey.

The slap was way beyond everyone's expectations.

"Who are you?!"

Bulldog almost broke a tooth at this moment.

He tried his best not to scream. He was frantically twitching while looking at his disfigured arm.

"I know every single expert in Flutwell!"

"But I don't even know you!"

Harvey calmly glanced at Bulldog.

"Since you're blinded by the truth, I'll give you a chance to live."

A simple glance was enough to make Bulldog shiver.

He immediately understood that he was no different than a fly to the man in front of him.

He would easily be slapped to death if the man wanted to.

Obviously, Harvey was holding back.

Bulldog would not dare make any sudden moves, no matter how resentful he felt.

He knew that he would actually die if he were to challenge Harvey again.

"Who are you?!"

After seeing Bulldog defeated so easily...

Mrs. Lee's expression worsened in an instant.

At that moment, she knew why Dillon would switch sides.

Harvey's strength was way beyond her imagination!

"Does it even matter?"

Harvey showed a calm expression on his face.

"Don't you think the thirteen slaps and seventeen kicks you dealt to my sister-in-law are more important than that?"

"What do you want?"

Mrs. Lee showed a horrible look on her face.

She never expected Harvey would know details like that.

"I'm giving you one minute.

Harvey looked at the Rolex watch on his wrist.

"Give me a statement that I'll be happy with.

"If not, Longmen's Flutwell branch will have a brand new branch leader."

Mrs. Lee gave out a cold chuckle.

She forced herself to stop trembling before slowly blowing out a puff of smoke.

"You're saying that you also have connections in Longmen?"

"Then, you should know just how powerful the Lee family is in Longmen!

"Are you pitting my husband against me? Are you even worthy?" 1
