

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2531

Chapter 2531

Master Hogan didn't expect his son to make such a request.

"Lucas, you are so kind to her, so you can't be in love with her?" Master Hogan got a headache, "Not to mention that she is an orphan now, just her looks, are you sure..."

"Why do you want to insult her?" Lucas held back his anger, "You found one woman after another outside, and your own private life is in such a mess, who do you care who I like?!"

"You—" Master Hogan, if it wasn't For the sake of the daughter of the Lawson family, he's afraid he'll pick up the whip and beat him again at this moment, "I don't care if you can, don't make the daughter of the Lawson family angry later! I'll send someone to get Siena back!"

"I don't care what you say, but what you do." Lucas said, flung his long legs and jumped off the bed.

Master Hogan looked at his ruffian look, and his liver hurt from anger.

But looking at the mottled dark red bloodstains on his back shirt, he couldn't help but continue to ask: "Did you rub the medicine on the wound on your back? How about I rub some medicine on you!"

"I said not to be here hypocrisy, don't you understand? If you follow my request, I will naturally go to see the daughter of the Lawson family, and you can go out now!" Lucas took a T-shirt from the suitcase and prepared to take a bath.

Master Hogan: "Okay! I'm going out! You remember to eat the porridge."

.....

Forty minutes later, Siena was taken to Hogan's house.

The bodyguard who picked her up only said that she would resume her job at Hogan's house, without saying the reason.

So when she came to Hogan's house, she immediately went to the auxiliary building to find Lucas.

"Master, why didn't you reply to my message? I sent you three messages, but you didn't reply to any of them." Seeing Lucas, Siena asked, "Don't you know that is my number? "

Lucas glanced at Mrs. Perry who was standing beside him: "You don't have to come here anymore."

Mrs. Perry nodded and backed out.

"Young Master, how did you get me back?" Siena sat down opposite Lucas and asked in a low voice, "Have you reconciled with your father?"

Lucas: "Accompany that girl for dinner."

Siena: "..."

"Why don't you talk?" Lucas handed over the empty cup, "Go and pour me a glass of water."

"Oh, good." Siena immediately picked up his cup and went to fetch water, "Young Master, did you agree?"

"I don't agree, can you come back?" Lucas picked up the phone and checked the time.

In half an hour, Lucas had to go to the main building.

"Young Master, I didn't expect you to be so kind to me. I'm so touched!" Siena held a glass of warm water and handed it to Lucas, "You can spend a while with that rich lady, and don't talk to others."

Lucas frowned, feeling unspeakably awkward.

"Young Master, that Miss has taken a fancy to you, which shows that she has good vision. She must be a very good girl. Even if you two can't get married in the future, it's good to be friends." Siena expressed her opinion.

"You really think so?" Lucas asked.

Siena nodded sharply, with a sincere face: "Young Master, I hope you are happy."
