An hour later, Lucas sent Piper out.

After Piper got into the car, the silver luxury car drove away quickly.

Lucas walked back to the auxiliary building in a few steps.

Seeing Siena standing blankly in the yard, the expression on Lucas's face froze.

"What are you doing!" Lucas reached out and patted the snow off her head, "Isn't it cold outside?"

Siena came back to her senses: "Young Master, I saw Miss Lawson. She is so beautiful."

"You stayed outside all the time just to see her?" Lucas dragged Siena back into the room.

"It's not exactly like that... You're eating at the main building tonight, and I don't have to cook dinner, I'm bored!" Siena's face and nose were flushed from the cold.

After entering the room and turning on the heater, her skin became red and itchy.

"You are really stupid." Lucas looked at her useless appearance, couldn't help but cursed, and regretted it after cursing, "If you catch a cold, who will serve me?”

Siena immediately grinned: “I wear so much, I won’t catch a cold. Although it’s snowing outside, it’s not windy. It’s cold when it’s windy! If it’s windy, I won’t watch the fun outside.”

“The gate of the main building is closed tightly, what’s the excitement you see?” Lucas teased, “Do you want to save more money?”

Siena nodded without thinking, “Young Master, what can I do?”

“You can live here from now on! Isn’t Mrs. Cooper also a live-in nanny? This can save rent and living expenses.” Lucas explained, afraid that Siena might misunderstand, “I want to eat supper at night, so I can ask you to cook it.”

“Oh!” Siena hesitated.

It’s not that she couldn’t be a live-in nanny, but her situation was a bit troublesome.

“What are you hesitating for? You don’t want to?”

Lucas didn’t expect Siena to hesitate.

After struggling for a while, Siena explained: “Young Master, it’s not good for me to live here. I’m afraid your father will misunderstand. I don’t want to make another mistake and trouble you. If you want to eat late at night, I can stay upto late night and later go back.”

“My dad said that kind of ugly thing to you?” Although Lucas was asking, he already had a certain result in his heart.

“Young Master, the main reason is that we are about the same age, and I was too careless before, so it’s normal for them to misunderstand. It’s better for me to live in my own rented house.” Siena said, smiling at Lucas, “If you want to eat supper, tell me anytime. “

“I ate too much tonight, so I won’t eat supper.” Lucas sat down on the sofa and looked at her, “Have you studied hard these few days?”

Siena: “I have it!”

Lucas: “So have you been looking for a job these days?”

“I took the manual job. It was introduced to me by my mother-in-law who had a good relationship with my mother-in-law before.

It’s just that I don’t earn much.” Siena said truthfully, “Young Master, thank you for letting me come back to work. You are my benefactor, I will.....”

“When you stay with me, the more I feel of my dog.” Lucas didn’t want to hear her thank you, so he interrupted her, “Every time you come, I felt that my dog is waiting for me wagging his tail. He is with me all the time.”

Siena: “Young Master, I know the feeling you said. I depended on my mother-in-law for life, and now my mother-in-law is gone, I go home every day, and I am alone. Sometimes I feel really lonely. There is no one to talk to me, so I like talking to you.”

Lucas: “So I treat you well, you don’t have to think too much.”

“Okay! Young master.” A bright smile rose from the corner of Siena’s mouth, “I really appreciate you being so kind to me.

Whether it’s because I’m like your dog or for other reasons.”

Lucas was a little tired.

Siena immediately put her schoolbag on her back, picked up the garbage bag, and left the auxiliary building.
