Chapter 2569

Avery: “.....”

Avery laid down and covered the quilt.

“Honey, you can’t betray!” Elliot also laid down, raised his long arms, and turned off the light.

“What am I betraying? You have too much imagination.” Avery grabbed the corner of the quilt and covered him.

“Did Eric really not seduce you?” Elliot put his arms around her waist.

“Didn’t you stand at the door and hear me when I was talking on the phone with him?” Avery smiled. “Or you would secretly ask him behind my back.”

“I wouldn’t do such sneaky things.” Elliot said proudly, “If I go to him secretly, I’m afraid I won’t be able to help him.”

“Husband, don’t do this.” Avery said pitifully, “If you go to fight with him at your age, I’m afraid of you because you can’t beat him.

If you get hurt, I will feel sorry for you.”

Elliot: “Wife, I’m not that fragile.”

Avery: “Although men have a young heart until death, you also have to be realistic. As you grow older, the loss of calcium in your body accelerates, and you can no longer be as aggressive as you were when you were young. If something happens, it will take a long time to recover. It may take a long time to recover to a normal state. The gain outweighs the loss. If you asked the bodyguards to do it, I wouldn’t be so worried. Don’t have nothing to do by yourself, do you hear me?”

Elliot: “Okay, wife, I will remember.”

“But if you call the bodyguards to find Eric together, I will know.” Avery put her arms around him, touched his face with her hand, and said, “You go to work at the company tomorrow! Or we go on a trip.”

Anyway, Elliot couldn’t be left idle at home.

Elliot: “Robert hasn’t started school yet! I want to wait until Robert starts school before going to work.”

“Robert hasn’t started school yet, and I haven’t seen you playing with him!” Avery said.

“I’m not interested in car repair.” Speaking of this, Elliot’s heart ached again, “If Robert insists on becoming a car mechanic in the future, what should I do with my huge family business?”

Avery: “Being a car mechanic... It’s not impossible. As long as Robert can accept it.”

“Then who will inherit my company?” Elliot asked this heart-wrenching question.

Layla took over Tate Industries, Hayden established his own business kingdom in Bridgedale, planned to settle in Bridgedale, and would only visit Aryadelle during the holidays.

Avery: “Let it be taken care of by a professional manager! It would be nice to pay him dividends every year. This way he has money to spend, and he doesn’t have to bear as much pressure as you. How good is it?”

Elliot: “...”

“Okay, husband, don’t be anxious. You have just finished worrying about your daughter’s marriage, and now you are starting to worry about Robert’s career. Let yourself go!” Avery coaxed.

“Well, sleep.” Elliot didn’t want to disturb Avery’s rest. After Avery breathed evenly, Elliot opened his eyes and looked at the dim room with countless thoughts in his mind.

He was not interested in the universe or whether there were mysterious spaces beyond the universe. He just wanted to live his own life and take care of the lives of his children.

He couldn't help but reflect on the majority of his life. Along the way, the ups and downs he had experienced, and those who had helped him and those who had betrayed him...

Haze was the most disappointed.
