Chapter 2576

At 9 o'clock in the morning, Siena finished her breakfast, arranged the dishes, and came out of the kitchen.

She planned to read for a while, and while waiting for Lucas to come back, she waited for the Teacher to come.

Not long after, someone knocked on the door.

Siena walked to the door and opened it, and saw Cyrus Hogan.

“Second Young Master.”

Siena didn't understand why Cyrus always liked to run auxiliary building.

If Lucas was at home, she would never dare to let him in.

Now that is was not at home, she dare not let him in.

“I'm right!” Cyrus said, opened the door and entered the living room, “I said he won't come back last night.”

“Second young master, do you come to see me?” Siena didn't want to talk about Lucas with him.

But Cyrus insisted on talking about this topic.

“Siena, I know Lucas is good to you, so you protect him very much.” Cyrus sat down on the sofa and said calmly, “But listen to my advice, don't be hostile to him. Practical fantasies.” Siena saw that Cyrus insisted on talking about this, and insisted on persuading her, so she didn't speak.

If Cyrus was not allowed to finish speaking, he might feel uncomfortable.

Cyrus said: “My brother is ignorant, and he has nothing but a good face! Every penny he spends now is given by my father. Once he leaves the Hogan family, he will be nothing.”

Cyrus continued: “For a person like Lucas, even after graduating from university, it will be difficult to find a decent job. Even if he stays in Hogan's company, he can't do much. My father knows it well, so the request for him is very simple, that is, he uses his appearance to find a wealthy daughter, so as to ensure that his future life will not be too downcast. Siena, this kind of man who can only eat soft food in the future, are you sure you still like him?”

Cyrus's words let Siena's face and ears were red, very embarrassing.

For some reason, everyone in the Hogan family thought that she liked Lucas and had plans for Lucas. Just because she was poor, everyone speculated about her like this.

Although she was a maid of the Hogan family, she can't always put her self-esteem on the ground for them to trample on.

“Second young master, I never said that I like young master Lucas. I clean up his house and cook for him every day, just because I get the salary paid by the Hogan family. Like other maids of the Hogan family, I take money for home service. I don't know why you think I like Young Master Lucas, because you think I have no other way out except clinging to him? Second Young Master, I study hard every day, and I will be admitted to university. When I am admitted to university and graduate successfully, I will no longer be a maid for others.”

Siena's eyes were scarlet, and she said what she wanted to say in one go.

Cyrus looked at her in surprise, and the corner of his mouth raised a curve to cover up his embarrassment:

“Very good! I don't think you are that silly and sweet. Take the job of serving Lucas as a springboard. When you go to university, you will have more job opportunities. Although the scars on your face are scary, as long as you wear a mask, you will be fine. As long as you are willing to work, there are still many opportunities.”

“Yes ” Siena followed his words, “As long as I am willing to do things, I will definitely not starve to death. So Second Young Master, please don’t make fun of me and Young Master Lucas in the future. I am not the daughter of a rich family, I can’t afford to support Young Master Lucas, I can’t afford to climb high.”

Outside the door of the auxiliary building, Lucas’s face became extremely pale when he heard the conversation between the two of them.

He was holding a cake in his hand, and his finger bones were turning white because he was holding it too tightly.

He had told Siena not to let Cyrus enter the auxiliary building, so Siena didn’t take his words to heart at all.

Moreover, what she said to Cyrus just now made Lucas feel sick!

She just used this job as a springboard. When she enters university and has more job opportunities, she will never be a maid again!

Fortunately, Lucas thought about her before, fearing that she would not be able to find a job in the future, so he kindly promised her that she could be a maid by his side in the future...

No wonder Lucas was shocked when he heard this. It turned out that he despised the profession of nanny from the bottom of his heart.

What hurt him the most was her last sentence.

— I'm not the daughter of a rich family, I can't afford to support Young Master Lucas, and I can't afford to climb high.

In her eyes, Lucas was an unlearned, incompetent, soft-bodied man who could only live by marrying a wealthy family in the future!

'Bang'!
