Chapter 2587

Siena brought the water basin and put it in front of Lucas.

“Young master, what I said to the second young master before was not true. You know, people are easy to talk back when they are angry. I think as long as you work hard, you will never be worse than the first young master and the second young master.”

Lucas finished washing his hands, and said coldly: “I don’t care about your evaluation of me.”

“It’s good. Master, you should be like this. Concentrate on studying and don’t care what others say.” Siena put the basin aside, serve him soup, “Young Master, eat more. Otherwise, I would be ashamed to take your family’s salary.”

Lucas: “You only come to cook one dinner a day. It was so easy.”

Lucas’s appetite was not too big, usually two dishes and one soup were enough for a crispy meal.

“Young Master, are you good at foreign languages?”

Siena asked him when he had eaten a bowl of rice and started to drink soup, “If you go to Eozambiulle, you have to learn the language there.”

Lucas glanced at her.

“Young Master, my foreign language grades are not bad...but my oral English is very poor. So I can’t teach you. After all, when you go abroad, oral English is more important. You can ask your father to hire a foreign language teacher for you to study foreign language.” Siena suggested.

“What do you think I’m going to do today?” Lucas asked, Siena suddenly understood.

“Young Master, I’m really happy for you to see your change.” Siena said, “Young Master, I’ve made up my mind. After you go abroad, I won’t work in the Hogan family.”

Lucas didn’t answer.

“My class teacher told me today that after I go to college, I can get a loan from the bank. No interest is charged. So I should study hard in college and not work part-time.” Siena told Lucas her plan, “Young master, I really thank you very much. The past few months should have been the most difficult period in my life. Thank you for not despising me, thank you for taking care of me.” When Siena talked about the emotional part, her eyes couldn’t stop getting wet.

Lucas didn’t know how to answer the conversation, so he drank the soup in suspense.

“Young Master, drink another bowl! Today’s radish is very sweet.” Siena wiped away her tears, took the empty bowl in her hand, and filled it for him.

After Lucas drank two bowls of soup, he was ready to go back to his room.

Siena’s mobile phone rang, which made Lucas stop in his tracks.

Siena put down what she was doing, took out her mobile phone, and after looking at the caller ID, she answered the call in trepidation.

“Uncle, I haven’t get my salary this month. When I get, I’ll transfer the money to you immediately.” Siena lowered her voice.

“I heard that you are still planning to go to college.

When you go to college, how can you pay me back?

You must pay back all the money before September, otherwise, you don’t want to go to college!” The man threatened viciously.

“I see, I will find a way to return the money to you as soon as possible... My mobile phone battery is going to fully discharge, so let's not talk about it." After Siena finished speaking, she hung up the phone.

Her phone did say low battery.

There was still 10% of the electricity, enough to support her until she comes home from get off work.

She ran home every day after get off work, and she didn't need to use her mobile phone.

After Siena finished talking on the phone, she was stunned for a few seconds.

"Give me the phone, and I'll charge it." Lucas's voice suddenly came from behind, bringing Siena back to her senses.

"Oh..." Siena actually wanted to say no, even if the phone was turned off, it would be fine, but her body reflexively handed the phone to him.

Lucas took her mobile phone to charge, and Siena began to think about going out to find more work during the summer vacation, trying to pay off the money owed during the summer vacation.

Lucas took her mobile phone to her room, and after charging it, she wanted to turn on the screen.

— but had a screen lock.

Her screen lock was the pattern-luck.

He tilted her mobile phone screen slightly under the light, so he saw her drawing password.

After unlocked the pattern-luck, he turned on her screen and clicked on her call history.
