Chapter 2592

“All right! Let me give you the contact information!”

Cyrus said, took out his mobile phone, Show Siena.

Lucas saw the two of them so close, his face was gloomy, and he strode back to the auxiliary building.

“By the way, Second Young Master, did the person surnamed Seguin give you my mother-in-law’s bracelet? He took away my mother-in-law’s bracelet before and said he would return it to me after paying off the debt. I’ll send him a message today, he ignored me.” Siena asked.

Cyrus didn’t help her pay off the debt, and he didn’t know what kind of bracelet it was: “No!” After saying this, Cyrus returned to the car, “I’ll drive the car in first, otherwise my elder brother and I will be in the car later and Dad’s car can’t go in.”

Siena watched Cyrus drive into the yard of the main building.

She had already finished asking all the questions she wanted to ask, and she got the answer, and also added Cyrus’s contact information. In the future, she only needed to return the money to him when she made money.

Thinking of this, she carried the fruit and walked towards the auxiliary building.

Entering the auxiliary building, she saw Lucas eating in the dining room, with a surprised expression on her face: “Young Master, you are back! I didn’t even see you back.”

Siena carried the fruit to the kitchen and put it down, then walked towards the dining room.

“Young master, the second young master helped me pay off the debt. So I went to find the second young master just now.”

Siena told Lucas about this.

Lucas looked down at the rice and dishes in front of him, and said casually: “He’s so kind to you!”

“He must be looking at me with pity! My mother-in-law has worked in the Hogan family for many years.

The second young master has seen me when I was a child.” Siena explained.

Lucas felt as if he had knocked over the five-flavored bottle, and asked, “How do you know that he paid you back?”

“He told me several times before that he would help me pay back the money. But I refused.” Siena continued to explain,

“Although the second young master is not bad, but the second young master likes to quarrel with you. So I don’t want to owe the second young master money.”

Lucas did not expect that Cyrus would approach Siena in private, saying that he wanted to help Siena pay back the money.

He didn’t know what Cyrus was thinking.

“Young Master, don’t be angry. I will return the money with interest to the second young master in the future. I have to pay back the money I owe others and the money I owe him. It’s just that I owe him money, and he can let me read so that I can pay back after finishing college, so I can relax a lot now.” When Siena said this, she breathed a sigh of relief, “Finally, I don’t have to think about finding a job during the summer vacation.”

Lucas could feel her pressure relieved a lot.

After eating, Lucas deliberately asked: “Did you get your mother-in-law’s bracelet back?”

He had strong self-esteem and wanted to say directly, “I paid you back the money”, but he couldn’t open his mouth.

Moreover, Siena had already determined that Cyrus helped her pay it back, and Cyrus shamelessly took credit for it. He only found it ironic and didn't want to get involved.

Siena shook her head: "Second young master didn't know that person took away my mother-in-law's bracelet, so I didn't ask that person for it. I asked that person about the bracelet, but he didn't answer me. I suspect that he has already taken the bracelet and sold it."

"Are you going to let it go like this?" Lucas asked and then wiped his mouth with a tissue.

Siena: "Otherwise, I have nothing to do. I don't know where that person lives. If I call the police, what if he retaliates against me in the future? I'm about to take the big exam, and if I get into trouble at this time..."

"Indeed. If you lose it, you lose it, nothing is as important as your final exam." Lucas interrupted her and stood up from the dining chair.

"Young Master, are you angry again?" Siena saw that his face was not good, and immediately asked, "I know you have a bad relationship with the second young master, I will not go to him if I have nothing to do."

"You don't have to tell me these things. As long as you cook well every day, I don't care about the rest." After Lucas finished speaking, he strode into the bedroom.

Siena watched Lucas walk away, feeling a little disappointed.

Before today, the relationship between the two of them had improved a little. Unexpectedly, the second young master Cyrus helped her pay back the money, which made Lucas angry again.

How much would she like to return the money owed to the Second Young Master right now! It's a pity that she didn't have that much money.

Reason told her that the debt owed to Cyrus should be repaid after she formally enters work, and she should save tuition fees for college now.

Thinking of this, she quickly adjusted her mood.

In the bedroom, Lucas took out a square cardboard box from his bag.
