Chapter 2598

Lucas got out of the car and saw Siena standing in the yard. Siena eyes quickly swept across his face.

“Young Master, the meal is ready.” Siena immediately walked up to Lucas and asked, “How are you doing with your make-up lessons? We got the mock test results today, and I did good in the test.”

Lucas: “Are you able to take the University of Thopiavelle?”

“It’s a bit uncertain.” Siena said shyly, “I’m not 100% sure. So I plan to work for another month, then resign and concentrate on preparing for the exam.”

Siena told Lucas her plan, hoping that Lucas could understand her decision.

“Young Master, when I resign, you can ask Auntie Perry to cook for you. Auntie Perry cooks delicious food.” Siena recommended to him.

Lucas strode into the living room and changed his shoes.

Siena stood beside him changing shoes.

“I will go abroad in half a month. The visa has already been issued.” Lucas told Siena his decision, “After half a month, you can resign and concentrate on preparing for the exam. I can ask my dad to pay you a month’s salary.”

Siena was a little surprised, and shook her head violently at the same time: “No need, young master.

Just pay as long as I work. I can go to work outside to earn living expenses during the summer vacation. When the time comes, the tuition fee can be borrowed from the bank.”

Seeing that Siena had plans, Lucas didn’t say anything.

“Young master, you are leaving in half a month, so suddenly!” Siena was a little bit reluctant, “Then you will go abroad in the future, will you come back once a year?”

“I don’t want to come back even once.” Lucas walked towards the dining room after washing his hands.

“Okay! If you go abroad, if you’re happier outside, then you stay abroad.” Siena put the food on the table, then sat next to him, watching him eat, “Young Master, I thought about it for a while, It is indeed better for you to go abroad.

Otherwise, in Thopiavelle, your father will force you to do things you don’t like, and you will only be more unhappy.”

Lucas looked at her with a smile on his face.
In her impression, she was either crying or laughing.
“Young Master, I’m a bit reluctant for you to go abroad... because it’s so rare that there is someone who doesn’t dislike me and is willing to talk to me... Young Master, I will always remember you.” Siena said sincerely, “I was admitted to University of Thopiavelle, and I will call you to announce the good news.”

Lucas did not answer.

Siena quickly thought of the time difference between Thopiavelle and Eozambiulle, so she quickly corrected:
“I still won’t call you because there is a time difference between the two countries. I will send you a message. Whether you reply me or not, I will tell you any happy things in the future.”

Lucas: “I will change the sim card when I go abroad.”

Siena froze for a moment: “...then will you tell me the new number?”

Lucas: “No.”

Siena: “...”

The atmosphere suddenly became awkward. Siena was a little sad.

Lucas ate sullenly.

“Young Master, I plan to visit Yonroeville during the summer vacation.” Siena thought of this when Lucas was about to finish eating, “I’m here, and I can’t find any information about my mother at all. If I go to Yonroeville, perhaps more information can be found.”

“You decided to go to Yonroeville in person just to connect with Yonroeville’s network?” Lucas felt that her behavior was a bit stupid.

“That’s right! I don’t have any relatives in Yonroeville. Even if I have relatives, they wouldn’t be able to associate with me. So I went to Yonroeville just to find out about the past.” Siena blushed slightly, “I checked the air ticket to Yonroeville, and it only costs more than $200, which is not too expensive. I originally planned to go by myself, but my head teacher felt that it’s not safe, so he asked me to go with the tour group.”

After hearing her words, Lucas put down the bowl and chopsticks, and reached out to her: “Give me the phone.”

Siena was stunned for a moment, without asking why, she took out her mobile phone and handed it to him.

After Lucas took her phone over, she unlocked it naturally...

“Master, you... how do you know my lock screen gesture password?” Siena stared blankly.
