

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2600

Chapter 2600

There was a lot of information about Elliot Foster.

Siena opened the first encyclopedia about him. Next to his character relationship list, there was Avery Tate's photo and name.

Under the name, the word 'wife' was written.

Next to Avery Tate's photo was a photo of their son. Their son was Hayden Tate, the owner of Dream Maker Group.

Siena flipped down casually, and saw the history of the rise of a business empire.

Siena quit Encyclopedia and looked at Elliot's photo on the screen, tears streaming down her face.

She could almost conclude that her biological father was Elliot.

Because she and Elliot looked a lot alike.

But when she thought of the murder of the Jobin family, she couldn't help but feel uncomfortable, hated!

When Lucas came back from a walk at night, she saw Siena sitting in the dining room, motionless as if enchanted, but her eyes were red, as she had just cried.

The expression on her face was also very sad, as if stimulated.

"What's the matter?" Lucas walked to the chair opposite her and sat down, looking at her face, "Have you found the information you want to know?"

Listening to Lucas's voice, Siena came back to her senses: "Yes, young master, thank you!"

After Siena said this, she stood up and began to clean up the dishes on the table.

Lucas saw that the rice in her bowl was barely touched, and the dishes on the table were also the leftovers from his previous meal, not missing.

"You haven't eaten yet! Are you going to go back hungry?" Lucas called to stop her, "You shouldn't have eaten in the rented house, right?"

Siena looked down at her bowl and saw that she hadn't eaten, so she sat down again and began to eat.

"Do you know who your biological parents are?" Lucas asked, seeing her devastated look.

Siena responded: "It's useless to know. The more you know, the sadder it is. No wonder my mother-in-law never let me ask."

Seeing her sad tone, Lucas didn't continue to ask.

After Siena quickly finished her meal, she took the plate to the kitchen.

Lucas looked at her mobile phone on the table. For a moment, he really wanted to take her mobile phone over to see what she had searched just now.

But reason made him hold back.

This was Siena's privacy, and Siena might not be willing to let others know her privacy.

Half an hour later, Siena cleaned up the kitchen and was ready to leave work.

"Young Master, thank you today!"

Seeing that the expression on her face was still heavy and sad, Lucas didn't know what to say.

Siena put her schoolbag on her back, carried the garbage bag, and strode out of the auxiliary building.

Not long after Siena left, Master Hogan came to the auxiliary building.

"Lucas, are you sure you're leaving in half a month? Have you told Piper?" Master Hogan asked after thinking about it.

"You care about her so much, just tell her no!" Lucas sat down on the sofa, picked up the water glass, and drank water.

"Okay! I've already told her. She feels sorry, but she also understands that you have higher pursuits. She said that she will go to Eozambiulle to find you when she has time." Master Hogan asked again, "Are you with me? Did Siena say it?"

"She said it. When I left, she also resigned from the Hogan family."

Master Hogan was a little surprised: "Why did she resign from the Hogan family? I didn't drive her away! Our family has one more servant, and we can afford it. Her mother-in-law has worked in our house for many years, and she also stays with us for many years...Besides, for your sake, as long as she doesn't ask to leave."

"She is from Yonroeville." Lucas interrupted his father, wanting to know how much his father knew about Siena.
