

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2605

Chapter 2605

If you want to succeed in learning, you have to work harder than others, so you can be better than others." The class teacher taught.

"Teacher, I understood." After talking on the phone, Siena went to the bathroom to wash up.

She looked at herself in the mirror, took a deep breath, and decided to start a new life today.

As long as there are no accidents, she should be admitted to University of Thoplavelle.

After working so hard for so long, she finally got a good result.

In her heart, she was very excited and very happy.

She carefully removed the scar on her face.

She looked at her real self in the mirror, and she tried to raise the corners of her mouth to give herself a smile.

In the future, it would definitely get better and better.

.....

Aryadelle.

Summer vacation was coming.

Foster family.

Everyone began to discuss where Robert would work during the summer vacation.

In fact, this topic had not been brought up, after all, there was still half a month before the summer vacation.

It was Robert who offered to go to his brother Hayden's place during the summer vacation.

Elliot frowned when he heard Robert's words. Like last winter vacation, go to Hayden's to repair the car?

Elliot either couldn't accept Robert learning car maintenance, or he was afraid that Robert would take this as his main job in the future.

"Shouldn't you go to Dad's company to practice? If you don't want to go to Dad's company, you can also go to my company!" Layla said, "Who doesn't know that you said you want to go to brother's company, but you actually want to run to play."

Robert: "I haven't seen my brother for a long time, I want to go to my brother's place..."

The older Robert grew up, the more he adored his brother Hayden.

Avery said: "Do you want to go, does your brother accept? You must agree with your brother."

Robert: "Of course my brother wants me to go! I won't quarrel with him."

Avery: "Okay, as long as your brother accepts then you can go if you want!"

Elliot and Layla looked at Avery.

"Mom, are you pampering Robert too much? He should learn to do something serious and help Dad share his worries." Layla expressed her thoughts.

"Robert doesn't care about this, so it's useless to force him." Avery said, "Your father's company is always busy. Robert hasn't graduated yet, so don't put him under so much pressure. Not everyone is like your brother Hayden. In that way, both studies and work can be taken into account. You see, when you were in school before, we didn't let you work."

Layla was persuaded.

With Avery helping Robert to speak, Robert immediately felt a lot easier.

"Sister, are your 52 blind dates finished?" Robert asked concerned after eating, "Are you satisfied?"

Layla glared at Robert: "Don't gloat. My today, maybe it will be your tomorrow."

During this time, Layla chatted with some men and met a few.

Those men were all rich, good, and polite to Layla.

Layla was so dazzled that she didn't know who to choose. So her current progress was still 0.

"I'm not in a hurry! Men can get married later, hehe!" Robert said sarcastically.

"A man who can marry later is a man like my brother Hayden who has a successful career. Are you?" Layla said.
