

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2608

Chapter 2608

At eight in the morning, Siena came to G-Temple.

Her impression of G-Temple was actually very vague. After all, she was young at that time, and she only had a relatively clear memory of the Buddhist temple where she lived.

But the feeling G-Temple gave her had not changed.

She had no home since she was a child, so G-Temple was one of her homes.

At this point, the temple has only recently opened.

After Siena entered the temple, she asked the staff member who opened the door, "Is Mrs. Jimenez still here?"

"Do you have an appointment with the teacher?" asked the staff after a brief pause.

Siena shook her head: "No. There is a Buddhist monastery in the back, that has adopted many children. I lived here when I was a child."

"What's your name? The name you used to have here."

"My name is Siena."

"Okay, wait a moment." The staff turned and walked quickly towards the backyard.

Siena wanted to wait where she was, but as the staff walked, her feet kept leading her to the backyard.

After a while, Mrs. Jimenez came out from the meditation room in the backyard.

Seeing her, Siena immediately strode over to her.

"Master!"

The expression on Mrs. Jimenez's face was a little surprised at first, and then a smile appeared on her face.

"Are you really Siena? You came alone? Where's your mother-in-law?" Master Jimenez looked at Siena's face from a close distance, and she could vaguely see her childhood appearance on Siena's face.

“My mother-in-law passed away last year.” Siena held Master Jimenez’s hand and said, “I have just been admitted to university, so I came to see you during the holiday.”

“Hey, where do you live now? Are you alone? Do you have any difficulties?” Master Jimenez took her hand and led her out through the backyard door, chatting while walking.

Siena: “I’m in Thopiavelle. I’m renting a house. Don’t worry, I’m not in trouble. I just came to see you.”

“You still remember me, I’m very happy. It’s just that you came here from Thopiavelle, isn’t it quite far?”

“It’s not far. You can go there quickly by plane. How is your health?” Siena asked.

Master Jimenez smiled and said, “I’m fine. In two years, I’m going down the mountain.”

“Are you going home? Did your family let you go home?”

Master Jimenez nodded, unwilling to continue this topic, so she asked, “Do you remember your childhood friend Lilly? She often came to see me, and often asked me, “Have you been here long?”

Siena was stunned, and her footsteps stopped: “Does she really remember me?”

“Of course. She has never forgotten you. Since you have come all the way this time, you can meet her. Do you need her number? I can give it to you.” Master Jimenez said enthusiastically, “She is still the same as when she was a child, very kind and enthusiastic, you don’t have to be afraid.”

Siena hesitated. She wanted to see Lilly, but she was worried that after meeting Lilly, she would get into trouble that she shouldn’t have gotten into.

It was Avery who led Lilly down the mountain. She was afraid that Avery and Elliot would find her.

Although they were not sure that they were the murderers in the Jobin family termination case, they were not afraid, just in case.

Seeing Siena’s hesitation, Master Jimenez knew what she meant, so she didn’t continue this topic.

At 9:00 a.m.

Shea brought Lilly and Maria to the temple.

After Lilly entered the temple, she carried the gift and walked towards the backyard.

“Sister, wait for me!” Maria chased after her.

“Maria, you should exercise more. I don’t walk fast.” Lilly stopped and waited for her sister.

When a master saw them, she immediately called out to Lilly.

“Little Lilly, your childhood friend Siena is here! She is chatting with Master Jimenez on the back mountain now.”
