

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2611

Chapter 2611

Siena was silent.

“Why don’t you come in?” Shea asked after seeing them still at the door after entering the house.

“Mom, Siena is a little embarrassed. I’ll wait outside with her!” Lilly said, and then she said to Maria, “Go and help mom with the luggage.”

Maria immediately ran to help.

After a while, the servant of Foster’s family came out with the luggage and talked to Shea: “Since Lilly’s good friend is here, I should treat her well. I will tell Layla when she comes back.”

“I’ll call Layla.” Shea said politely, “Thank you for your hard work.”

“It’s not hard.” The servant came out carrying the luggage. When passing by Siena, he stared at her: “This is Lilly’s good friend, right?”

“Yeah! Isn’t she so cute? She’s just as adorable as our little Lilly. If she weren’t an adult now, I’d like her to be my daughter as well.” Shea boasted.

Shea did not have a job, so she had more patience taking care of the children.

“This little girl is really fresh, a bit like...” The servant got stuck in his throat when he said this because Elliot’s face appeared in his mind.

When the servant saw Siena for the first time, he only felt that she was very beautiful. After a few more glances, he could see the familiar feeling.

Because the servant didn’t say anything later, Shea said goodbye to the servant after closing the trunk door.

Brooks’s house.

After Wesley received a call from his wife, he quickly got up and prepared a few special dishes.

He still had a little impression of Siena.

When Lilly first arrived at their home, she always mentioned Siena.

Not long after, Shea returned home with her three children.

Wesley immediately asked them to wash their hands and prepare to eat.

“It smells so good, Dad!” Maria exclaimed when she entered the bathroom.

“Siena, eat more later. I remember you having a round face when you were young, but now you have lost a lot of weight.” Lilly whispered to Siena.

“Wouldn’t anyone else come over from your house?” Siena asked vigorously.

“Uh... my grandparents come to visit us occasionally. They live in the old house.” Lilly thought for a while and replied, “No one will come except my grandparents.”

Siena breathed a sigh of relief.

After washing their hands, everyone sat down and began to eat.

Wesley was afraid that Siena would be restrained, so he took the serving chopsticks and kept picking up vegetables for Siena: “Here, treat it as your own home. Don’t feel restrained. If you need anything, feel free to tell us. “

“Thank you, uncle; you don’t have to pinch it for me, I can’t eat so much.” Siena said, taking a peek at Wesley.

Wesley looked very gentle, and he looked like a refined man.

Wesley also took a look at Siena.

At this glance, Wesley was stunned.

Because Wesley was very familiar with Elliot’s appearance, after seeing Siena, he immediately thought of Elliot.

“Siena, besides your mother-in-law, do you have other family members?” Wesley asked casually.

“No more. My mother-in-law also passed away.” Siena didn’t know what was going on in Wesley’s mind, so she replied calmly.

“Oh, you can stay at our house for a while longer!” Wesley said, “We all like you very much.”

“Thank you.” Siena was not very nervous at first, but after meeting Wesley, she began to panic.
