Chapter 2612

After dinner, Lilly dragged Siena to her room.

“Siena, I have so much to tell you; let’s sleep together tonight!” Lilly invited.

After a brief hesitation, Siena nodded, “Okay!”

It could be seen that Lilly really regards her as a friend, and the feeling she had when she was a child returned immediately.

After the children entered the room, Wesley walked towards the study room.

Shea followed curiously.

“Husband, what are you going to do?”

Wesley replied: “I remember we had a camera at home before; did you put it in the study room?”

Shea thought for a while, then nodded: “It seems so.

Husband, what do you want a camera for? Do you take pictures? You can take pictures with your mobile phone! The pixels of mobile phones are so high now.”

If you don’t really love photography and just take pictures as an amateur, the pixels of mobile phones can indeed meet the needs of ordinary people.

“The photos taken by a professional camera are better and clearer. Isn’t my daughter going out to play with Siena? I’ll take the camera to them and see if they need it.” Wesley explained his intentions.

Shea: “Husband, you are really thoughtful. But if it were me, I wouldn’t want to bring a camera. It’s too heavy.”

“Well. They are young; maybe they are not afraid of being tired.” Wesley found the camera without any trouble and came out.

The camera was probably new, the battery was sufficient, and the functions were intact.

After the inspection, Wesley went to his daughter’s room with the camera.

“Lilly, Dad knows that you are very happy that your good friend is here. Dad also allows you to go out to play, but Dad has only one request: to avoid going out during the day as much as possible. Early morning or evening is fine.” Wesley considered that

Lilly could not be exposed to the sun, so he made this request.

Siena knew that Lilly couldn’t bask in the sun, so she nodded quickly: “Uncle, don’t worry, I won’t let Lilly bask in the sun. Let’s go out at night.”

“Siena, you are really sensible. No wonder Lilly has been thinking about you.” Wesley said, handing the camera to them, “Since you finally got together, you can take more photos as souvenirs.”

As Lilly took the camera, she said, “Thank you, Dad. I didn’t even think of it.”

Wesley: “It’s just a little heavy.”

“It’s okay!” Lilly accepted the camera happily, “I’ll sleep with Siena tonight, you don’t need to worry about us. I’ll just entertain her.”

Lilly was also afraid that Siena would feel uncomfortable.

“Well. If you have anything to tell us anytime.”

Wesley explained one more sentence before leaving the room.

Coming out of the room, Wesley dragged Shea back to the master bedroom.

“Shea, have you noticed that Siena looks a bit like Elliot?”

Shea was taken aback for a moment, then nodded dully:

“Don’t tell me I haven’t noticed her yet, but once you say it, she does look a bit like Elliot.”

“Well, let’s not say this in front of her. Let me find a way to verify it.” Wesley’s brain was running at high speed.

Now Avery and Elliot were not in the country, but Layla was still there.

Wesley could find a way to let Siena and Layla do a genetic test. If they were related, he could ask Avery and Elliot to go back to Aryadelle, and then do a further paternity test with Siena.

Thinking of this, Wesley’s chest couldn’t stop heaving rapidly.
