

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2614

Chapter 2614

Wesley did not expect her to cooperate so much, and was slightly taken aback.

“Dad, why didn’t you tell me if you wanted white hair? I have it all over my head! Pull out mine as much as you want!” Lilly said.

Wesley: “Lilly, Dad doesn’t want yours. Because your white hair is different from other people’s white hair.”

Lilly said resentfully, “Okay!”

“Dad! What about mine?” Maria joined in the fun and came over.

Wesley couldn’t laugh or cry: “Dad saw the white hair on Siena’s head, so I suddenly remembered this research that Dad did...

Dad doesn’t need a lot of white hair!”

Shea knew her husband’s mission, so she immediately pulled Maria away.

Wesley spread out the crispy ponytail.

Her jet-black hair fell over her shoulders.

Wesley worked hard to find the white hair on Siena’s head.

Unfortunately, no.

Wesley secretly took a deep breath before casually pulling out a black hair.

“Dad, show me Siena’s white hair.” Lilly was curious about the difference between Siena’s white hair and her own, so she made this request.

Wesley had never been so flustered. because he had never deceived others so blatantly in his life.

“Lilly, if you want to see white hair, you can look for it on Siena’s head.” Wesley said this as he walked into his study room.

Lilly looked at the back of her dad leaving in a hurry, said a little ‘oh’, then walked to Siena’s side and raised her hand to pluck Siena’s hair.

“Siena, your hair grows really well.”

Siena reached out and touched her hair, but she couldn’t find anything good.

Wasn’t all the hair like this?

“I didn’t even know I had white hair!” Siena whispered.

“I didn’t see it either.” Lilly searched hard on Siena’s head, but no matter how hard she searched, she couldn’t find the white hair.

“Maybe my dad pulled out the only white hair on your head. Let’s go.”

Siena couldn’t stop laughing, “What a coincidence! It happened that there was only one, and your dad found it.”

“It’s such a coincidence. He has very good eyesight.”
Shea smiled and covered her husband, “Siena, do you want a new hairstyle? Our family has a card in the barber shop, and Lilly can take you there.”

“Okay! Mom, I’ll take her there now!” Lilly was reminded. She immediately pulled Siena aside and went out.

Maria went to the room to get the camera, and chased him out.

“Be careful when you go outside! Be careful!” Shea followed the children to the door and explained.

“Mom, don’t worry! I will always send you a message to report the situation.” Lilly changed her shoes and promised her mom.

Shea sent them downstairs, told the driver to follow them at any time, and then watched them go.

.....

Wesley called Layla.

Layla answered the phone and said, “Uncle Wesley, I heard that Lilly’s good friend Siena is here. I still have a little impression of this name!”

“Well, Layla, are you at the company or at home now? Wesley asked, “If you’re not busy right now, then come over to my place.”

The driver of the family car took the three children out, so Wesley could only call Layla to come over.

“I’m not busy, I’ll go there now.” Layla happened to be on the way, ready to drive home. Now she answered Wesley’s call, so she turned around at the intersection ahead and drove towards Wesley’s house.

After the car turned around, Layla realized that she forgot to ask Wesley what was the matter.

Wesley had never looked for Layla alone.

This made Layla curious.

Layla dialed the phone to Wesley: “Uncle Wesley, what are you looking for? You don’t usually call me, but you suddenly called me. I’m a little flustered now.”

□ □ □