

When His Eyes Opened

Chapter 2617

Chapter 2617

Robert nodded: “I will graduate in the future, and I want to work here with my brother.”

Avery and Elliot were stunned.

Robert’s heart was beating wildly with fright, and his buttocks had already started to move slowly towards his brother Hayden.

“That’s it!” Avery said, “I thought it was a big deal! You want to work in your brother’s company, that’s fine! But you haven’t graduated from university yet, maybe when you graduate, your mind will change. This is in advance. Don’t rush to make a decision.”

Elliot had a different idea from Avery.

He kind of minds.

“Why don’t you want to work at Dad’s company?”

After Elliot asked this question, Robert sat down next to his brother Hayden, wanting him to talk for him.

As a result, Hayden stood up directly, intending to separate the relationship.

“I let him learn how to repair cars before, just to make him quit. I don’t want him to come to work in my company after graduation.

Of course, if he cries and begs me to take him in, as a brother, I can't refuse anymore." Hayden showed his attitude.

Robert had always been trained as the future successor of the Sterling Group.

It's not that Elliot was biased; he insisted on doing this. It's that Hayden and Layla didn't like Sterling Group. Hayden knew that if Robert insisted on following him in the future, then there would be no successors to the country that his father had built so hard all his life, and he couldn't bear it.

That's why he asked Robert to learn how to repair cars. Originally, Hayden wanted Robert to retreat in the face of difficulties. But who knows, Robert didn't cry tired at all, but studied very seriously.

This also changed Hayden's view of Robert who grew up in this greenhouse a lot.

Although Robert looked weak, he was actually very resilient.

"Hayden, this matter has nothing to do with you." Avery said, "Your brother Robert has the right to choose, and we will respect his choice."

Hayden nodded, put down his coffee cup and magazines, and left.

In the living room, Avery, Elliot and Robert were left. Robert's body trembled slightly, feeling like a sinner, I'm sorry dearest father!

He even wanted to plop down right away, kneel down in front of his father, and beg him to forgive him.

Just when he was about to do this, Avery's phone screen lit up. She picked up her phone and stood up from the sofa.

"Let's chat! I'll go and have a rest." Avery wanted the father and son to chat alone.

She knew that what Elliot cared about was that the children didn't want to stay with him. But this kind of thing cannot be forced.

Avery went up to the second floor with her mobile phone.

After returning to the room, she turned on her phone and checked the message.

She saw Wesley sent her a picture of a girl.

She subconsciously thought it was Maria.

But when she clicked on the picture, she immediately found that it was not.

Not Maria, who was this?

Why did Wesley send her this?
