

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1114

Chapter 1114 The voice traveled below through the speaker of the Milky Way Battleship.

Soon, there was a reply, and it was an old voice.

"I got it. Tell the Dallarosa family to come down to talk." "Yes, Grandmaster," Oron replied respectfully. Then, he said to the Dallarosa family, "Lord Fidel, the grandmaster is asking for you."

"You're hilarious, Lord Orson. We juniors won't dare to interfere in the business between the grandmasters," Fidel said with a grin.

'What a joke!

'What if I get killed after I go down to talk to Grandmaster Tuffin?

'How aggrieved would I be?!'

Then, the hatch of the Dallarosa family's Milky Way Battleship opened.

Soon, a figure flashed by, and it was gone in a blink of an eye. Clearly, the Dallarosa family's powerhouse was here. No one knew what the grandmasters talked about down there.

Since they did not have permission to listen in, they could only wait on the outskirts of the planet.

Soon...

Boom!

A loud voice came from below.

Then, they could hear a roar.

"Santos, you're at mid-Infinity Rank? Nellie, come help me!" Before everyone could react, a red figure rushed out from another Milky Way Battleship belonging to the Dallarosa family. It broke the Milky Way Battleship and rushed to the planet below.

She was so fast that the naked eye could not track her.

Everyone could only see a flash of red.

The person who interfered right now was also a powerhouse. The new powerhouse of the Dallarosa family, Nelle Dallarosa!

No wonder the Dallarosa dared to attack the Tuffin family even when they knew Grandmaster Tuffin was still alive.

They had two Infinity Rankers.

At this moment, David was chatting with Mia in the Octagon.

Suddenly, he felt three powerful energies.

Even though they were a little far, David's Infinity level 10 mind power was no joke.

He could sense even the slightest movements.

"Mia, I need to take care of something, and I'll be back soon. Wait for me here and stop moving forward."

After he said that, his body disappeared.

Mia wanted to ask him what was wrong, but he was not there anymore.

However, she listened to David and stopped the Octagon here to wait for David's return.

Chapter 1115

Boom boom boom!

After Nelle joined the fight, loud booms were repeatedly heard from below. This, coupled with the shockwave of the intense battle, sent the four Milky Way Battleships flying, making them tumble a few times in the air.

"Back away!"

"Back away now!" Fidel and Orson yelled at the same time. After they steadied the ships, they continued to back away. They stopped once they were at a safe distance. However, they did not do anything and only stared at the battle below, quietly waiting for a result.

They knew the result of this collision would entirely decide the result of the battle between the grandmasters below.

Grandmaster Tuffin was a mid-Infinity Ranker, while the two from the Dallarosa family were just beginner Infinity Rankers. According to traditional logic, the two beginner Infinity Rankers could not defeat a mid Infinity Ranker.

However, Grandmaster Tuffin was more than a thousand years old, and was no longer in his prime.

as SC

The two from the Dallarosa family were in the prime of their lives.

If the two worked together, the battle became an even match.

Right now, the people from the Tuffin family were the happier of the two. They thought they were going to be doomed right now. Even the best case scenario would result in them losing their place among the eight prominent families.

However, the current situation excited them a lot. Their grandmaster, who should be old and weak, was so strong. If the second powerhouse of the Dallarosa family did not show up, the first would surely not have been the grandmaster's opponent.

However, the current situation was that even if the Dallarosa family had two powerhouses, they still could not do anything to Grandmaster Tuffin. On the contrary, the Dallarosa family was worried. They did not think that Grandmaster Tuffin would be so good at hiding his strength. They were confident that they could beat the Tuffin family this time. Firstly, Grandmaster Tuffin was old and was more than a thousand years old. So, he was considered an antique in the Milky Way, so his body was definitely not as strong as before.

More than ten years ago, he showed his strength, but he was just a beginner Infinity Ranker. He had not broken through at that age, and the Dallarosa family felt that there was no hope for him anymore. Secondly, it was Nelle's return.

Nelle was the current head Fidel's youngest aunt.

She was discovered to be highly talented when she was young.

Back then, the Dallarosa family was in a difficult situation. In order to ensure Nelle's safety and the family's future development, they secretly sent Nelle to Lunar Palace to be one of their disciples.

As one of the two palaces in the Milky Way, Lunar Palace's strength was evident.

Aside from the Milky Way Empire that controlled the entire Milky Way and the mysterious Meteor Chamber, Lunar Palace and Misty Palace were ranked third respectively, so one could see just how powerful it was.

Now that Nelle had become a powerhouse, she finished her studies and returned to the family.

The Dallarosa family wanted to become famous in a glorious moment that showed their strength, so they decided to take action against the Tuffin family and kick them out of the eight prominent families.

If they succeeded, the Dallarosa family would rise to fame in the Milky Way and become one of the eight prominent families.

However, plans went astray sometimes.

The Dallarosa family did not expect Grandmaster Tuffin to hide his strength and to have already risen to mid-Infinity Rank.

It would be easy for him to face the two powerhouses from the Dallarosa family.

Now, they were in a difficult position. However, they were not too worried.

After all, Nelle was from Lunar Palace. After she became a powerhouse, she had a pretty high position in Lunar Palace.

So even if Grandmaster Tuffin could win, he would not dare to kill her.

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1116

Chapter 1116 However, the Tuffin family's strength was nothing more than a slightly stronger ant in front of Lunar Palace. The two families had their own hopes as they waited for the result of the battle. The battle between powerhouses was so terrifying.

Even if they were far enough, they could still feel the suffocation brought about by the occasional intense shockwave.

'How powerful!

'We can't even resist the shockwave, let alone join the fight.'

Boom boom boom! Bang bang bang! All kinds of collision and rumbles came from below. No one knew the actual situation of the fight.

The Tuffin family members gradually calmed down from the earlier excitement.

The grandmaster was old after all. So, a long-drawn battle was not good for him.

The consequences would be unimaginable if something happened to the grandmaster.

While everyone was waiting nervously, a figure zoomed past from below at lightning speed.

It was so fast that everyone felt like they were seeing things. Then, they heard two loud sounds.

Boom!

Bang!

This figure crashed into the Dallarosa's Milky Way Battleship, catching everyone off guard. The huge impact destroyed the Milky Way Battleship immediately. Meanwhile, the Dallarosa family members on the ship had no idea what was happening before they were turned into dust, disappearing into the air.

Then, everyone saw a figure stopping where the Milky Way Battleship was. This person was disheveled, and there was blood on the corner of his lips. It was Grandmaster Kruz Dallarosa.

He seemed to be severely injured, judging from his appearance.

At this moment, two more figures appeared at the scene suddenly. The red figure stood next to Kruz. She had a gorgeous body that was wrapped in a long red dress. She was the newly-returned powerhouse of the Dallarosa family, Nelle. Even though Nelle did not have any visible wounds, her ample bosom rose and fell rapidly. Her beautiful eyes were staring straight at the white-haired old man not far away from her. Clearly, the battle just now shocked her greatly as well.

Another figure with white hair and gray clothes stood opposite them. It was Grandmaster Tuffin, a mid-Infinity Ranker.

"Cough cough... I didn't expect this! Santos, you've been hiding so well. We've miscalculated," Kruz said as he coughed a few times and shook his head.

Santos was a mid-Infinity Ranker and was already more than 3000 years old, but he did not show any signs of aging. However, he could still win against the two beginner Infinity Rankers, which was something Kruz never expected.

He should have gotten some kind of treasures of heaven and earth that could delay aging, which resulted in his current state.

It seemed that Santos was intentionally hiding decades ago.

"Grandpa, are you okay?" Nelle asked worriedly at one side. "Don't worry, Nellie. I'm fine." "Grandmaster!" "Grandmaster!"

The other Dallarosa family members called out worriedly as well.

Kruz shook his hand to tell them not to worry.

"I didn't think such a towering heroine was hiding in the Dallarosa family either," Santos replied with a fake smile.

"Welcome back, Grandmaster!" Orson cried excitedly. "Welcome back, Grandmaster!" The other Tuffin family members were excited as well. "Santos, since you're a mid-Infinity Ranker, we've offended you, and we'll leave right now. From now on, we won't go after your position in the eight prominent families," Kruz said.

"Grandmaster, the Dallarosa family kept suppressing us in the past few days, causing huge losses. We have no way to resist them, so that's why we came here to ask you for help," Orson cried.

"Kruz, do you think you can bully us like that? Do you think you can take action and stop whenever you want? What do you think I am?" Santos replied in a negative tone. "What do you want then? Do you want to kill all of us?" "Do you think I won't do that?"
