

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1111

Chapter 1111 A few days passed. Mia had been paying attention to every aspect of the Dallarosa and Tuffin family's movements. When they were about to reach the heart of the Royal Region, David got an update from the Meteor Chamber.

The Tuffin family dispatched a Milky Way Battleship. All of the cores were heading to the planet where Grandmaster Tuffin was living in seclusion.

Something big is indeed happening in the Tuffin family, and they're going to seek help from Grandmaster Tuffin.

'Since all of the core members are going to where Grandmaster Tuffin is hiding, why don't we head straight there so I can eliminate all of them in one stroke?

'I can even avoid hurting any innocent people.

Good idea. I'll do this.

'However, I don't think just anyone knows where Grandmaster Tuffin is living in seclusion.'

David thought about it and contacted the Meteor Chamber.

He bought the location of Grandmaster Tuffin from the Meteor Chamber.

Unexpectedly, this information was actually pretty valuable, and David got a lot of lavish points for it.

However, it was nothing compared to how much he needed.

After he got the location, David told the commander of the Octagon to head to the planet where Grandmaster Tuffin was staying.

However, Mia stopped him just as he was leaving the room.

"David, I have great news for you!" Mia said excitedly. When David saw how happy Mia was, he could guess what was going on. She might have gotten the news that all of the core of the Tuffin family were heading to Grandmaster Tuffin. Mia did not know that as soon as the Tuffin family made a move, David was already aware. The information from the Meteor Chamber was amazing. After all, he had spent so much money on it. However, David pretended not to know anything and asked, "What made you so happy?" "The Tuffin family is making a move. They dispatched a Milky Way Battleship to head to Grandmaster Tuffin's location. They must be going to ask for help. Also, the Dallarosa family dispatched three Milky Way Battleships shortly after that. Even though we don't know what they're doing, judging from the route they're taking, they should also be heading to Grandmaster Tuffin's location. The two families are going to collide, and it's going to be amazing," Mia said with a look of joy.

"Really? That's great! Thank you, Mia," David answered with a grin. He did not expect the Dallarosa family to follow the Tuffin family. 'This is good. If they start fighting, it'd be great if the Dallarosa family could wipe out the Tuffin family so that I don't have to do anything.

'If both sides lose out, I can even take action in the dark to destroy the cores of the Tuffin family and blame it on the Dallarosa family.'

"You're welcome, David. It's only right that I do this. I'm happy to be able to help you. What should we do now? Are we still going to Planet Tuffin?"

"Let's go to Grandmaster Tuffin's location is to watch this grand event."

"But we don't know where that is."

"It's fine. I know where he is. The Tuffin family is my mortal enemy, so of course, I would know."

Then, the Octagon changed paths from going to Planet Tuffin to going to the planet where Grandmaster Tuffin was located.

In the void of the Royal Region, a Milky Way Battleship was flying full speed ahead.

That ship belonged to the Tuffin family.

This was the second time they were heading to Grandmaster Tuffin's location in such a short period.

Back then, they never came here.

They would only come by annually to report the family's current situation. The last time they came was after Adan went to Earth and died there, causing huge turbulence in the family. This time, it was because the Dallarosa family kept suppressing the Tuffin family, seemingly wanting to start a fight with them. Now, they had received news through the grapevine saying the Dallarosa family might attack the Tuffin family soon to eject them from the eight prominent families. This news was even worse than the last, as the Tuffin family might face a life and death situation.

Chapter 1112

If Grandmaster Tuffin were not around, the Tuffin family would not be able to resist the Dallarosa family with their current strength.

Inside the Milky Way Battleship, all the cores were gathered to discuss countermeasures.

They were talking over each other.

Only the head of the family, Orson, was sitting in place and allowing them to talk. He had never said one word since the beginning, and it was unknown what he had in mind.

“Lord Orson, according to reliable sources, the Dallarosa family has sent three Milky Way Battleships after us. I think they’re serious this time. What should we do? Should we continue or go back?”

“Do they have a way to handle the grandmaster and want to catch us all in one fell swoop?”

“No way! Their grandmaster is just a junior compared to our grandmaster. He’s 1000 years younger than the grandmaster, so how can he defeat the grandmaster? Impossible!”

“How is it impossible? His Majesty isn’t even as old as the grandmaster, so are you saying His Majesty can’t defeat our grandmaster? I feel like Grandmaster Dallarosa has broken through a new realm and intends to use us as sacrificial lambs to demonstrate his strength.”

“How can the Dallarosas compare to His Majesty? Were you dropped on the head when you were born? His Majesty is the number one in the Milky Way! Who can compare to him?”

“It’s just an example! Even if Grandmaster Dallarosa can’t defeat our grandmaster alone, don’t you think he’ll seek out help? I suspect that the Allaband family is also in on this. If the two work together, they can catch all of us in one fell swoop.”

After the person said that, no one dared to say anything.

They all turned their heads to look at Orson.

This was possible, and it was quite likely.

If this was the case, they were in danger.

The Tuffin family was wholly dependent on Grandmaster Tuffin. They would all be safe if he were alive, but the Tuffin family would fall apart if something happened to him.

The scene fell silent for a while.

Orson lifted his head to look at the cores.

“This is possible, so do you have any ideas on how we should counter this? Tell us, and we’ll discuss it,” Orson said.

The cores looked at each other, but no one said anything.

This was related to the life and death of the entire family, so who would dare to say anything recklessly?

Orson glanced at the crowd. He sighed internally when he saw no one speaking.

The Tuffin family was indeed suffering a temporary deficit in terms of both manpower and resources.

Right now, none of the younger generations of the family could do anything

When Orson was about to say something, someone among the younger generation stepped forward and said, “Lord Orson, I think we should go back immediately and stop heading toward the grandmaster.”

“Oh? Why?” Orson asked.

“If we go to the grandmaster now, we might all be captured by the Dallarosa and Allaband family. If that were to happen, we will never have the capital to make a comeback. If we head back now, they won’t be able to find the grandmaster’s location and won’t dare to do anything to us. If not, they will suffer if the grand master loses his mind after learning that the family has been destroyed. This is also why the Allaband family never dared to do anything to us in the past.”

The cores’ eyes lit up.

This was a good plan. If they did not expose the grandmaster’s location, everyone who wanted to take action against the Tuffin family would remain hesitant.

“What do you all think?” Orson asked. “Lord Orson, I think it will work.”

“I agree as well. Even though it can’t completely solve our crisis, it can ensure we’re safe for the time being.”

“I second the motion!”

“I second the motion!”

The cores all expressed their opinions.

Even though they came this time to ask the grandmaster for help, they could not continue anymore after they learned of the possibility of the Dallarosa and Allaband families working together

This was because Grandmaster Tuffin might die if both of the families sent their powerhouses at the same time,

Grandmaster Tuffin had to be safe so that their family could also remain safe. “Alright, we’ll go back at once,” Orson said decisively.

Chapter 1113 Time passed slowly, and David’s Octagon trudged forward. Since they were a little further away, they needed more time to arrive. The Tuffin family had decided what to do, but they got into trouble on their way back. They ran into the three Milky Way Battleships the Dallarosa family had sent to chase after them.

The three Milky Way Battleships surrounded them when they met.

It was clear they were coming for the Tuffin family.

“Lord Orson, where are you going with all these people?” The head of the Dallarosa family, Fidel Dallarosa, laughed and asked.

“Fidel, I know what you want. You want to follow us to find our grandmaster, right? Listen to me, stop dreaming. We’re going back now, so don’t think of ever finding out. I don’t think you dare to do anything to us too, hahaha...” Orson replied while also laughing.

“Orson, you’re too naive. Do you think we won’t know where Grandmaster Tuffin is without you leading the way? We just weren’t looking for him,” Fidel replied calmly.

“What do you mean?” Orson asked.

“What do I mean? You seem to forget that there’s a force that can get you anything you want as long as you have the money.” Orson stayed silent for a while. Then, he suddenly remembered something and roared, “Fidel, are you insane? How dare you deal with the Meteor Chamber? Did you forget the empire’s rules? No one is allowed to deal with the Meteor Chamber, if not, they will be severely punished once discovered!

You're digging your own graves! If I spread news of this, you'll be finished. Plus, the Meteor Chamber is not omnipotent."

"Orson, calm down. Of course, I know this. However, the rules are dead, and I am not. Do you think the empire's rules can govern everyone? You're the head of one of the eight prominent families, so how can you be so naive? As for whether they are omnipotent, you can give it a try yourself. I didn't have them deal with this themselves because the price they asked for was too high. Besides, I wanted to see your reaction firsthand. I forgot to tell you, you can't spread anything right now," Fidel said confidently. The Tuffin family's Milky Way Battleship was in chaos right now. They seemed to be trying to contact the other Tuffin family members. However, they found that they indeed could not send any messages. The Dallarosa family must have done something to block their communications. "Fidel, what are you trying to do? Do you want to force us into a dead end?" Orson asked in anger.

"Don't you know what I am trying to do? Why do you think I'm backing you into a corner? Where should I start? I don't want to be your enemy, but you have to give us your position in the eight prominent families, and then we can talk about the rest." "Stop dreaming! Fidel, let me tell you, don't even think of taking our place!"

"Oh yeah? Orson, let me be honest with you. My family will eventually be taking your place. Today. I am here to talk to you and your grandmaster. I don't want to have a fallout with you, but if you still disagree, then I'm sorry. I will carry out the next step and kill all of you. I will get your grandmaster's location from the Meteor Chamber no matter how high the price is. Then, I'll work with the Allaband family to eliminate your family. It's up to you what you want to do. You might live, or you might die. Is your position or inheritance more important? Think this through."

When the Tuffin family members heard what Fidel said, their psychological barrier collapsed immediately

At this moment, no one from the Tuffin family was willing to step forward to fight with the Dallarosa family to protect their family and honor.

Such was the tragedy of the Tuffin family.

As the family became weaker and weaker, their honor started decreasing, and their unity also diminished.

If a family did not have honor and unity, then their family would soon be finished. Orson looked at the cores around him. There was no resolution in their eyes as they faced death. Instead, they showed a never before seen terror. He knew his family was doomed. They could not return to their former glory of when they first got into the eight prominent families.

His family would fall under his rule.

Orson would soon be a sinner of the family. “Fidel, is your family really not working with the Allaband family?” Orson asked. “Not now, but if you keep being stubborn, we will soon. It’s up to you. After all, we only want your place. We don’t want to have a life and death struggle with you,” Fidel replied.

“Alright, I’ll bring you to see our grandmaster. If you can convince him, we will submit our position to you.”

“Haha! How straightforward. This will be the best decision you’ve ever made. Your family won’t blame you for choosing inheritance.”

Four Milky Way Battleships headed to Grandmaster Tuffin’s location. David did not know what had happened to the Tuffin and Dallarosa family.

They were still heading over as far as they could.

A few days passed, and Orson brought the Dallarosa family to where Grandmaster Tuffin was located.

“Grandmaster, I, the unfilial head of the family, Orson, have something to tell you. It’s about the survival of the family, so please show yourself!” Orson yelled into the sky.
