I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1133

Chapter 1133 When Lucifer heard Callan agreeing to the battle without hesitating, the corners of his lips upturned into a strange smile. Both of them were the first heirs to their families. Since their families were in the same industries and were almost equal in strength, they would always fight, causing heavy grudges between the two. When they two saw each other, they would want to embarrass each other.

They always did this back then.

However, they were no better than the other and would reach a stalemate in every battle.

However, this time, Lucifer did not plan to let Callan go so easily He had been cultivating with the grandmaster all these years, and his strength had increased drastically. If not, he would not have been let out. As long as Callan signed the waiver of liability and entered the arena, then his life would not be in his hands anymore.

Coincidentally, he could check his result after cultivating with the old master for so many years.

Lucifer thought to himself while smirking coldly, 'Cally, you came to me, so don't blame me for being merciless. I didn't plan to take action against you so early. 'Unfortunately, you insisted on coming at me like that.'

"Cally, let's go down now. I want you to know the consequences of angering me," Lucifer snarled.

"Tch, are you trying to scare me? Do you think I'm scared of you?" Callan said in disdain. "I hope you can still be so stubborn later." "I will speak with my actions."

Lucifer ignored Callan and shifted his gaze to Mia. He said, "Dance Fairy, stay here. I'll take care of our business after I take care of Cally. I hope you won't think of escaping because you can't escape from Planet Staub."

'Dance Fairy? 'Dance Fairy from the four fairies?'

When Callan heard this name, he immediately turned to look at Mia, who was wearing a veil.

That perfect body did look like hers.

Although she was wearing a veil, one could still tell it was Mia if they looked closely.

'It is Mia from the four fairies in the Milky Way.

'Lucifer is still the same.

'He was just let out, and he's here bugging the Dance Fairy.

'He's not gentlemanly at all. 'What a loser among the major family direct descendants.' "Dance Fairy! I couldn't recognize you just now. It's such an honor to meet you at last. My name is Callan Elrod," Callan said politely to Mia. "You're too polite, Master Callan. It's also an honor for me to meet you," Mia also replied respectfully.

"Dance Fairy, you're hilarious. What honor do I have? You're one of the four fairies in the Milky Way, and I admire you a lot." "That was before, Master Callan. I've withdrawn from the four fairies," Mia corrected. "Right! My memory is getting weaker. I'm sure this is the person that you want to follow even though you had to withdraw from the four fairies, right?" Callan looked at David and said.

"Hello, my name is David Lidell. I am only a friend to Mia. She's not my follower," David said. "I understand! Hello, David! My name is Callan Elrod. You're amazing for taking down the Dance Fairy. Do you know how many men in the Milky Way are head over heels over her?" Callan reached out his hand voluntarily.

David also reached out his hand to shake Callan's. However, after they shook hands, Callan pulled David into a hug. Then, he whispered in David's ear, "David, let's get to know each other if we have time. Tell me how you get chicks. Don't worry, I can protect you in the Royal Region in the future. I can take care of Lucifer for you as a welcoming gift." David thought Callan wanted to give him a show of strength.

However, he did not expect Callan to say that.

David was between laughter and tears.

'My combat power is almost the same as the emperor. Do you think I need your protection? 'Won't I become a laughing stock if that were to happen?' However, David started to respect Callan after what he did. At least he was not arrogant and domineering like Lucifer. After Callan said that, he let David go without waiting for David to react.

Then, he turned his head to look at Lucifer. He said, "Lucy, David and Dance Fairy are my friends. Don't even think of bullying them with me around."

"You want to help them get out of this predicament, Cally?" Lucifer narrowed his eyes and said with murderous intent.

“You can say that. Moreover, it doesn’t just apply to today, you can’t bully them even in the future.”

“Are you sure you want to get involved in this mess?” “Lucy, don’t try to f*cking threaten me. Do you think I’m scared of you? Let’s go! Don’t you want to have a duel down there? I will tear you a new one today!”

“I hope you will still be this arrogant later. Let’s go.”

Chapter 1134

“Hmph!”

After Callan huffed, he turned to walk out the door.

At this moment, Lucifer looked at the old man next to him.

The old man understood at once.

He teleported next to David and slapped David to kill him first.

Who would Mia follow if David was dead?

Mia had been with David so long, so David had surely taken her virginity.

Lucifer had been seething at the thought of this.

Since David and Mia walked in, Lucifer had decided that David was a dead man.

However, Callan’s sudden arrival disrupted his plan.

Now, he could catch David off guard and kill him. Then, he would slowly take care of Callan and Mia.

If not, where would he go to find David if he ran away?

The old man’s sudden attack could not catch David off guard. A beginner Celestial Ranker’s speed was like a tortoise’s speed to David.

He did not need any preparation to kill the old man.

After all, their strengths were miles apart.

It was like an adult and an ant.

David chuckled coldly in his heart.

When he was about to kill that old man, he felt another energy quickly approaching him.

It was the old man next to Callan.

David gave up on his attack and took one step away to stand in front of Mia.

Boom!

After a loud sound, the entire room started shaking.

However, Mia did not feel anything behind David.

Mia was so close to the battle between two Celestial Rankers.

If it were not for David, the shockwave from the collisions would have immediately killed her. "Lucy! I knew you would do this. You really live up to your name, huh? You're like the devil, and you never change. You deserve your namesake," Callan sneered.

Lucifer's face darkened, and he walked out of the room without saying anything.

He was furious that he could not attack David in secret.

With Callan around, Lucifer knew he would not have this chance for the time being. With that, he decided just to leave. He would cripple Callan in the arena later, making his life worse than hell. He could only get rid of the anger in his heart that way. The two old men backed away and did not attack anymore. They were nearly at the same level. If they continued fighting, nothing would happen. The old man who attacked David also left with Lucifer. Before he left, he glanced at David. He was curious.

Just now, even though the attack was not directed at David and Mia, an ordinary person would not be able to handle the shockwave from a collision between two Celestial Rankers.

However, David was not affected at all. 'How peculiar! This young man is not simple.' He was not the only one thinking this. The other old man also looked at David thoughtfully.

Chapter 1135 After Lucifer brought his people out of the room, Callan walked to David's side and patted his shoulder. He said, "Don't worry, David. Lucy won't dare to do anything to you if I'm around." David smiled and did not say anything. What should he say? Thank you?

He did not think he needed to thank Callan.

That kid was showering David with affection this entire time. However, no matter what, Callan left a good impression on David. David would secretly help him repay his favor if he could not beat Lucifer. When Callan saw David not speaking, he shrugged and left. David and Mia were the only ones in the room.

"David, I'm so sorry. It's all because of me that you're in such a mess. I didn't know this was a trap. Lucifer had been bugging me for some time back then, but he disappeared for a few years, so I didn't think it'd be him," Mia said apologetically.

"You're indeed at fault today. You've made a huge mistake. I have to scold you. Don't let this happen again in the future. If not, I'll be mad," David said sternly.

Mia was stunned. She did not expect David to say that. She held back her tears and tried not to let them fall.

She said aggrievedly, "Tell me, David. I will listen to you and won't cause you any trouble again."

"If you run into something like this again in the future, I won't allow you to be so petty and low. Don't be scared of troubling me because I am not scared of trouble at all. Since you're with me, you can't embarrass me, nor can I afford for that to happen. You should curse someone like Lucifer to hell and not show him any respect. Curse at him, and if he dares to try anything, I'll help you." "Huh?"

Mia did not know how to react for a while. She was a little confused. She thought David would scold him, but it was not as she expected. "Huh? Do you understand?" David asked.

"Um... I-I understand," Mia replied blankly.

"That's good. Don't let this happen again in the future."

"I-I understand, David."

David looked at Mia. If he were not stern with her, she would still be restrained if she met the same situation in the future and would not do as she was told.

He was at partial Eternal Realm and the strongest in the Milky Way, but his person was as petty and lowly as an ant.

He would be so embarrassed if word got out. Therefore, David asked, "Mia, do you know how I got rid of my Tuffin family problem?" "No," Mia answered honestly. She lifted her head to look at David. She did not understand why he would ask her that. "I slashed Grandmaster Tuffin with my sword, and the Tuffin family fell apart just like that," David answered calmly.

"Oh! Huh? What?"

Mia came back to her senses and widened her beautiful eyes. She looked at David in horror, and her brain was a mess.

'What did David say? 'He slashed Grandmaster Tuffin with his sword? 'H—How is that possible? 'Grandmaster Tuffin is one of the oldest giants in the Milky Way, and he's an ancient that's been living for thousands of years. He's also an Infinity Ranker, so how can David kill him just like that? 'How old is David?

'Does a monster like him truly exist? 'Even though he was a Celestial Ranker when he crippled Fergus, it was still miles away from Infinity Rank!

Chapter 1136 Mia felt that this was impossible. However, David did not seem like he was lying nor did he need to lie about something like this.

Mia was confused.

She did not know if she should believe him.

To be honest, what David said was beyond what her understanding.

Not only that, but it was also something never before seen in the history of the entire Milky Way. No one like this had ever happened in the Milky Way before. "Why? Do you not believe me?" David looked at Mia's face and asked in confusion.

"I... I... I..." Mia did not know what to say.

"Well, you don't seem like you do. I should have brought you along that day," David said helplessly

He could not do anything if Mia did not believe him.

He could only show her how strong he was when he had the chance next time.

He could kill an Infinity Ranker with just a wave of his sword.

“I believe you!” Mia said solemnly.

Finally, she convinced herself to believe David.

“Really?”

“Yeah, really.”

“Then, you should know that if I can kill Grandmaster Tuffin, there are not many people in the Milky Way who can defeat me. So, you can do whatever you want next time. Don’t speak so humbly to those ants next time. I can even slash the force behind Lucifer with my sword, let alone him.”

David did not dare to say that his combat power was on the same level as Emperor Nimbus.

Mia was skeptical of him and finally convinced herself to believe him, so if he told her that, she might struggle even more to believe him. Hence, he would not tell her that for now.

Seeing was believing When they returned to Planet Royal, he would have a duel with Emperor Nimbus. Mia would believe him after watching that. “Alright. David, I understand. I won’t embarrass you anymore,” Mia answered. Even though she was still in disbelief, she started to gradually accept what David said. She had mixed feelings inside her.

Joy, excitement, shock, admiration, infatuation, and so on...

“Let’s go down then. I know you still don’t believe me, but I’ll show you when I get the chance. Honestly, an Infinity Ranker is nothing. They’re also humans, so they will get hurt and die too.” “Alright, thank you, David.”

“Let’s go. Tell me what kind of person Lucifer is and what the force behind him is like. I can kill the force behind him to avenge you if it’s on the way.”

“No need! You don’t have to do that, David,” Mia rejected.

“It’s not just to avenge you. Did you see how he wanted to kill me just now? Does he think i am weak? Does he think I don’t have a temper? I am also a strong man! Does he think I won’t be humiliated after getting shamed by an ant like him?”

“Oh! David, I’ll tell you. Lucifer is the first heir to the Grim family, ranked four among the eight prominent families. The Grim family is powerful...”

As the two walked, Mia told David about Lucifer and Callan.

Soon, they reached the bottom of the arena.

Lucifer and Callan were signing the waiver of liability.

After signing, they were about to enter the arena to start fighting.

The arena manager looked like he was about to cry as he stood at one side.

The heirs of the fourth-ranked and fifth-ranked families would fight in his arena and even signed a liability waiver.

Wasn’t this causing trouble for him?

He would be in trouble no matter who won. The manager hoped the two would stop the fight whenever they saw fit. Even though he knew it was a pipe dream, thankfully, the two masters each had people with them.

Therefore, someone would come to their rescue no matter which one of them was in danger. This was the manager’s only comfort.
