I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1144

Chapter 1144 "You yourself said it's David who will offend them, not me. Before you know someone, it's better to be their friend than their enemy. Who knows if he's hiding an incredible power or identity? Let's go. We have to go back now. I finally made my family proud. I want to see how they will reward me."

Callan left after he said that.

The old man followed behind him.

Inside the Octagon that just left Planet Staub.

"David, are we going to Planet Royal now?" Mia asked.

"No, we'll go to the Grim family first," David answered. "The Grim family?" "Yes, the Grim family." "Why?"

"We're going to demand for an explanation. Lucifer lied to me just now. Not only did he waste my time, he even tried to disrespect you. How can we let this go?"

"David, forget it. The Grim family is ranked five among the eight prominent families. You can't compare them to the Tuffin family, who's about to drop off the list. We might not achieve anything if we go."

After Mia said that, she remembered something and added, "David, it's not that I am looking down on you. I know you're powerful, and you're not scared of them. However, I don't think it's necessary. After all, we didn't lose anything." "What do you mean? I lost so much time. Also, didn't you see how Lucifer wanted to kill me? I can't stand this. Of course, I have another purpose."

"What is it?" Mia asked.

"Since you've decided to follow me, I should show you how powerful I am so that you won't be scared and nervous to do anything in the future.

"I'm sorry, David. I've embarrassed you," Mia whispered apologetically.

"Alright, you don't have to apologize to me. Just listen to me. We'll go to the Grim family to get an explanation, and then we'll head to Planet Royal," David decided.

"Yes, David," Mia answered.

The Octagon started driving toward the planet where the Grim family stayed.

At this moment, Lucifer was in a Milky Way Battleship heading back to his home. Even though the two ships left one after another, the time between their journey did not differ much.

However, the Milky Way Battleship was much faster than the Octagon.

Right now, Lucifer was awake.

However, he still could not accept the reality of getting defeated by Callan.

He still could not wrap his head around it.

Why did Black Demon Palm, the combat skill that his grandmaster taught him, lose its effect? His grandmaster checked his Black Demon Palm before he left the family, and it had indeed reached entry level.

If he could hit Callan with a sneak attack, he would not be able to handle the Black Demon Poison

Moreover, he had used Black Demon Palm so many times, but Callan was still alive and well. He was not affected at all.

It was either something was wrong with his Black Demon Palm, or Callan had the skill to combat the Black Demon Palm.

If it were the former, it would be easy.

He could ask Grandmaster to look at it after he returned.

If it were the latter, then it would be troublesome.

He had to tell Grandmaster as soon as possible.

Grandmaster's threat to them would diminish if the Elrod family had a way to combat Black Demon Palm. This was good news to the Grim family.

Chapter 1145 Three days later. Planet Grim. This was where the Grim family, one of the eight prominent families in the Milky Way, stayed. The Grim family was ranked fourth among the eight prominent families. They were very powerful, and a declining family like the Tuffin family could not compare to them. The Grim family was one of the giants even among the Royal Region.

A Milky Way Battleship descended on Planet Grim.

The moment Lucifer got out, the people who were waiting for him brought him to the main residence.

The cores of the Grim family were waiting for him here.

After three days, they learned about Master Lucifer's battle with Master Callan in an arena on Planet Staub.

In the end, Callan defeated Lucifer and was even stepped on and humiliated. This matter had spread all over the Royal Region.

The two families were close in ranking. One was ranked fourth, and one was ranked fifth, so they had been enemies for a long time.

This was not just a fight between the two first heirs, it was also a fight between their families.

However, the result shocked everyone.

Unexpectedly, Lucifer suffered a crushing defeat. Now, the Grim family was the laughing stock of the entire Royal Region.

Everyone would talk about this during their chats. How could the first heir of the Grim family be so weak? Did this mean they did not have any more promising descendants now?

Anyway, Lucifer had completely humiliated the Grim family.

Even though he could not change the fact that he had lost, his family still needed to know what had happened.

Lucifer had been cultivating with the grandmaster these years, so how would he lose to Callan?

If Grandmaster found out about this, he would be fuming.

Back then, you were evenly matched with Callan, and now you're easily defeated after cultivating with me for so many years?

'You even let him step on you?

'Won't that tell the world that I am a horrible teacher?'

Lucifer was brought to the hall.

The hall was filled with people. It was like they were going to have a joint hearing.

There were a lot of direct descendants in a huge family like the Grim family.

Right now, the ones at the scene were just some of the more important elders. As the eldest son, Lucifer was feeling terrified by such a stern situation.

"The unfilial son, Lucifer, is here to see you all."

Lucifer stood in the middle of the hall. He placed his hands together, bowed, and said respectfully. As the eldest son and the first heir, he did not need to kneel.

If other children made such a serious mistake and humiliated the entire family, they would be kneeling on the ground begging for mercy.

The scene was quiet. No one was saying anything. The head of the Grim family, Derry Grim, did not say anything as he sat on the main seat. Of course, the others would be tactful not to speak before him. Lucifer knew he had embarrassed his family and did not dare to be rash anymore.

"I've humiliated the family and caused irreversible damage to the family name. I beg the family's elders to punish me," Lucifer spoke again. "It's good that you know you've humiliated us. Do you know how long it's been since we've been humiliated like this? Plus, you, the eldest son and first heir of the family, were the one who caused such huge damage to the family name and made us the laughing stock of so many in the Royal Region. How do you expect us to face the family's ancestors?" Derry scolded loudly. "Grandpa, I was wrong! I'm willing to accept punishment," Lucifer lowered his head and mumbled.

"Do you think you can reverse the damage by saying that? I don't mind you losing to anyone else, but you lost to that Elrod punk. You were always evenly matched with him, but now that you've followed Grandmaster for so many years, you can't even fight back? Are you telling everyone Grandmaster is a horrible teacher?" "Grandpa! I am also unable to make heads or tails of how I lost. Until now, I still can't figure it out!"

"You better tell me everything in detail." "Yes, Grandpa!"

Chapter 1146 Next, Lucifer told Derry everything.

However, he did not tell Derry how he set a trap to lure David and Mia over.

He only said he had been locked up for so long, so after he accomplished Grandmaster's task and was let out, he wanted to come out and clear his head.

Then, he came to Planet Staub's arena to have fun.

Unexpectedly, Callan had also come over.

After that, the two started arguing, and then the argument turned into a fight...

The hall was silent after Lucifer stated what had happened. "You said you used Black Demon Palm on Callan, but it didn't do anything?" Derry asked.

"Yes, Grandpa. Grandmaster examined me after I learned Black Demon Palm, and that's why he let me out. However, it was useless to that punk Callan," Lucifer said aggrievedly.

"Are you telling the truth? I'm telling you, you better not lie. If not, don't even think of taking a step out of these doors." "It's true, Grandpa. Believe me. Why would I lie about this? Even though I am usually a bit of a rascal, I wouldn't lie about such a serious matter," Lucifer patted his chest and promised.

"If that's the case, do you have any guesses about the cause? You're the party involved and the only one who knows what happened in the fight."

"Grandpa, there are two possibilities. It's either something's wrong with Black Demon Palm Grandmaster taught me, or the Elrod family has a way to counter it," Lucifer answered.

After Lucifer said that, Derry scolded, "You bastard! What nonsense! Are you doubting Grandmaster?"

"I'm just saying it's a possibility. If Black Demon Palm is not the problem, then it'll mean the Elrod family has a way to counter Black Demon Palm. If not, why would it not work on Callan? I didn't just use it once. I used it many times, but it never worked. That's why I was exhausted and gave that punk a chance to defeat me," Lucifer roared. He knew he had to shift the family's attention. Only by doing this could he escape. If not, the grandmaster would not spare him so easily after causing such huge damage to the Grim family's reputation. If he could confirm that the Elrod family had a way to counter Black Demon Palm, he might even be rewarded!

After all, the families were mortal enemies. It would be no joke if the Grim family's enemy found a flaw in their combat skill. It would be better to find out and tackle it earlier than to find out when the two families were in battle.

If that happened, everything would be too late. Indeed, after Lucifer said that, the hall became noisy.

The core elders of the Grim family started to discuss among themselves.

They all knew that this was not a laughing matter if Lucifer was telling the truth. The two families would fight sooner or later. If the Elrod family hid this information and only exposed it when they fought, the Grim family would suffer a considerable loss.

The Elrod family might just turn the situation around and severely damage the Grim family.

Lucifer was a good example of this.

Before he knew the Elrod family's secret, he exhausted a lot of his energy every time he used Black Demon Palm.

If Lucifer used Black Demon Palm two or three times and still did not cause any damage to the enemy, he would surely lose.

Unless the enemy also used their combat skill to resist him.

If that were the case, he would have a chance since both sides would be equally exhausted.

However, Lucifer was clearly not talking about this. Callan did not use any combat skills to counter his Black Demon Palm.
