Chapter 1167 "I'm sorry, I didn't control my strength, and I went overboard," Fergus said nonchalantly.

Even if he was apologizing, his tone and attitude were indifferent.

Beck was just an ant to him.

He would surely die after offending Fergus.

The Callisto family's hall was silent.

No one dared to say anything or speak up for Beck.

Fergus looked around.

The core elders did not dare to look into his eyes, especially the ones who used to support him.

Back when Fergus was crippled, they immediately went to others.

Now that Fergus had come back miraculously with good health and even become so powerful, their lives would be miserable if they did not think of a way to get Fergus' forgiveness.

After all, the grandmaster was supporting Fergus fully.

Fergus felt pleased as he watched the cores looking away from him. This felt great. The Callisto family was just the first step. Soon, the Milky Way would be crawling under his feet. He believed this day would arrive soon.

Planet Buck was a tiny living planet.

At the same time, it was Balu's planet. After it was discovered by the Grim family and a slave mark was planted more than three hundred years ago, this place had been an abyss of suffering.

Since Planet Buck was very far and tiny, and the people here had limited talent, the Grim family brought the head of the planet, who was also Balu's father, and his family away. The Grim family left some people on the planet and never paid attention to them.

Meanwhile, the people the Grim family left became the local tyrants of Planet Buck, ruling everything on the planet.

However, the Grim family also brought some advanced technology over, causing Planet Buck to be significantly different compared to how it was more than three hundred years ago.

Even the fastest Galaxy Warship would take more than a week to come here from the Royal Region.

On the other hand, it would take about four or five months for an Octagon to come here.

Time passed slowly.

David and the gang drove the Galaxy Warship to Planet Buck.

A month later, the Galaxy Warship approached Planet Buck. Balu started to get restless and anxious. He was worried that Planet Buck would become a wasteland. David could not comfort him regarding this. To be honest, if David faced the same thing as Balu and if Pavan planted his slave mark on Earth, he would be even more restless and anxious than Balu to return to Earth after hundreds of years. Two major things happened in the Royal Region this month. First, as time went on, the news of the Grim family being destroyed started fermenting in the Royal Region, attracting the attention of countless people. The Grim family was not ordinary. They were a big family with four Infinity Rankers and were ranked fourth among the eight prominent families. 1 They were not nobodies in the Royal Region.

In the end, they were wiped out so silently.

How could they not pay attention to this? Everyone was guessing who did this. Of course, there were a lot of versions of the story.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1168

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1168

Chapter 1168 The Milky Way Empire did not say anything about this. Before the enthusiasm of the Grim family being wiped out died down, more major news followed

The Callisto family, the second-ranked family of the eight prominent families, announced their head, Marco, would abdicate.

Fergus would now take over the Callisto family.

Once this news got out, the Royal Region erupted.

A lot of them could not believe this.

After all, how old was Fergus?

Even if he was a genius, he could not take over such a powerful family at such a young age.

Many of the chosen ones the same age as him were still fighting hard for the position of the first heir.

Yet, Fergus had taken a step forward and became the head of the Callisto family.

This was such a huge difference in ability.

Moreover, news came through the grapevine not long ago stating Fergus was a cripple and could only spend the rest of his life in bed.

Now, not only had he recovered, he had even become the head of the Callisto family.

This was quite unbelievable.

However, this was now fact.

The Callisto family announced this themselves, so it had to be real.

This time, Fergus was miles ahead of his peers and those older than him.

After Fergus took over the family, he started desperately looking for David.

Now, he had the strength and time to seek revenge.

Fergus would not be where he was if David had not crippled him, but Fergus would never forget the pain David brought him.

Fergus would only be happy if David endured the same or even more debilitating pain than him.

In addition, that woman Mia dared to treat him like this.

Fergus already knew what he would do to Mia.

He would capture and then torture her. He had to make Mia die with boundless fear. Right now, Fergus was turning more and more unhuman like. Instead, he was like a beast. After fusing with the Nine-Headed Serpent's genes, his strength increased by leaps and bounds, but at the same time, the side effect was also apparent.

After searching, Fergus got some clues as to where David was from some bounty hunters. He learned that David was last seen on Blue Star. However, he had left and was not there anymore.

From the clues, Fergus also knew about David's extraordinary relationship with Princess Astrid.

Princess Astrid even asked an important figure in the military, Ramos, to cripple his son Burke just to avenge David.

Now, it was not the time for Sangruil to declare war on the empire. Firstly, this was because the help from the Nine-Headed Serpents was not here yet. Secondly, Sangruil needed to win over more forces while Emperor Nimbus was recuperating before it could win in the final battle.

Fergus was not an idiot.

He knew Sangruil had given him everything he had now.

Of course, he would not ruin Sangruil's plan because of his private matters.

However, being unable to seek revenge for the time being and crush David into pieces made Fergus more and more brutal.

After he became the head, Fergus would constantly sneak into the prison to catch some of the prisoners. He could only temporarily soothe the anger in his heart by eating humans. This was also one of the side effects of fusing with Nine-Headed Serpent's genes.

Meanwhile, the five Callisto grandmasters had been corrupted by Sangruil and were now

Sangruil's lackeys. Initially, the grandmasters firmly refused. Wouldn't they be going against the empire if they worked with the Sangruil Sinners?

Once the empire found out, their entire family would be killed.

However, after the Sangruil Sinner Fergus brought to see the grandmasters showed his strength, the grandmasters had no choice but to agree. That Sangruil Sinner was a late Infinity Ranker. If they refused, they would have fight this battle. Even if the five grandmasters worked together, they might not be able to defeat a late Infinity Ranker.

Besides, after knowing that the king of Sangruil heavily injured Emperor Nimbus and the benefits Sangruil promised after overthrowing the Milky Way Empire, the Callisto family finally agreed to work with the Sangruil Sinners to overthrow the empire. Right now, the Callisto family was on the Sangruil Sinners' side.

Chapter 1169 Planet Drake in the Royal Region. This was the Drake family's planet, the first-ranked family among the eight prominent families in the Milky Way. The Drake family was not the same as the other families. They were not only the oldest, but they were also the ones with the strongest background. It was no exaggeration to say that even if the other seven families worked together, they would not be the Drake family's opponents. Such was the Drake family. Even if they were also among the eight prominent families, their strength was not on the same level as the other seven. Planet Drake was a massive living planet, and it was countless times bigger than the sun. The bigger the planet, the larger the gravitational pull. If an ordinary earthling were placed on Planet Drake, they would not even survive for a second. To live normally on Planet Drake, one had to be equivalent to a God Ranker on Earth. Which meant the ordinary folk on Planet Drake would all be legendary God Rankers if they were on Earth.

This was the difference between Earth and a massive living planet in the Milky Way. The current head of the Drake family, Gunnar Drake, was not only the chief of the Primo Institution of the Milky Way Battle Institution, but he was also the strongest chosen one in the Royal Region.

During the battle among the nine institutions, Gunnar even said he could defeat the other eight institutions.

He wanted to fight the other eight chiefs himself.

He was an influential figure among the younger generation of the Royal Region, making countless youngsters look up to him.

Outside Planet Drake, a few black-robed men suddenly appeared at this moment. "Our target this time is the Drake family. According to our information, they are stronger than our previous targets. This is also the first force with a late Infinity Ranker the Sangruil sinners will be trying to rope in. We have to be careful and not make any mistakes. The Drake family is an essential part of our plan, so we must take them down," one of the black-robed men said.

"Yes, Master," the others replied immediately. "Let's go."

Then, the men headed to Planet Drake. The black-robed men heeded forward and perfectly avoided all patrolling vessels on Planet Drake.

vessels could not detect them while they were at this level.

Once they were on Planet Drake, they came to the ancestral ground where the Drake family's grandmaster lived in seclusion following the information they got.

They approached the Drake family's ancestral ground. Then, they heard a voice before they entered

"Where did you all come from? What are you doing here? This is the Drake family's ancestral ground and sacred land. If you don't have any business here, please leave at once. If not, don't blame me for being merciless."

"I want to see Ragnar!" The black-robed man in the lead said.

"Who are you? Do you think you can see Grandmaster Ragnar just because you want to? Get lost now if you know what's good for you. If you take another step forward, don't blame me for killing all of you."

The black-robed man did not say anything.

Boom!

The black-robed man emitted his late Infinity Rank energy, causing the Drake family's ancestral ground to shake.

"W-Who are you?"

The black-robed man answered, "Sangruil!"

When the person from the Drake family heard that, his heart shook, and he blurted out, "Sangruil Sinners?"

"We're Sangruilians, not Sangruil Sinners," the black-robed man growled.

Clearly, the word 'sinner' triggered him.

Back in the day, Sangruil was on the same level as the Milky Way Empire. They controlled half of the Milky Way, and were very well-off.

Now, they were hiding everywhere like stray dogs.

They had suffered so many grievances and endured so much pain for many years just to regain Sangruil's glory.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1170

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1170

Chapter 1170 This was all so that they could stand on the top of the Milky Way and trample on the Milky Way Empire.

That day was not too far away now.

"You're Sangruil Sinners?"

"I'm telling you again, we're orthodox Sangruilians," the black-robed man emphasized again.

At this moment, he was seething.

If he were not on the Drake family's ancestral ground and to rope the Drake family into their plans, he would have killed this person.

"You are Sangruil Sinners. What do you mean by orthodox Sangruilians? The only orthodox one in the Milky Way is the empire. You're just stray dogs," the man from the Drake family said after he calmed down.

"Are you begging to die?"

The black-robed man gritted his teeth and said word by word. His voice sounded like it came from hell.

'How dare he insult Sangruil like that?

'No matter who he is, he must die!'

After that, the black-robed man waved his hand, and a cold black light shot out.

Even though it was just a casual attack, he was a late Infinity Ranker, so an average person would not be able to resist even a casual attack from him.

However, this attack that should have caused a lot of noise did not make any sound.

It was as if it disappeared without a trace into the void.

The black-robed man knew the master was here.

The only person who could block his attack without making any noises was someone on the same level as him.

There were a lot of grandmasters in the Drake family.

However, according to his information, only one was at late Infinity Ranker, and that was Ragnar.

Indeed, he heard another voice.

“Leave. Then I can pretend that nothing happened today.” “Ragnar, since we’re already here, we didn’t plan to leave so easily. Come out here and meet us,” the black-robed man said. “No need. You should leave. We are not interested in participating in the battle between you and the empire.”

“Ragnar, I know you want to put your safety before all else and only choose your side after the coast is clear, but I’m sorry, you must make a choice right now. You have to choose either the empire or Sangruil. If not, your family will be in hot water no matter who wins in the future. You have to think this through.” “Are you threatening us? What if I say no?” Ragnar asked in a deep voice.

“This is not a threat. I am just telling you the truth. I hope you will make the best choice,” the black-robed man said fearlessly.

“Aren’t you afraid I’ll choose the empire and kill all of you?” Ragnar asked.

“Ragnar, our king has heavily injured Emperor Nimbus. Right now, he’s recuperating on Planet Royal. The empire’s fall is inevitable. I believe you will make the best decision. If not, your entire family will be consigned to eternal damnation because of you.”

After the black-robed man said that, he changed his subject and continued coldly, “Also, do you think you have the ability to kill all of us? since we have the guts to come here, it means we’ve already made all the preparations.”

“We’re not scared of your measly strength.”

“You can try!”

Then, the two stopped talking. The air around them started to grow heavy. The rest of the black-robed men and the Drakes, aside from Ragnar, were all very nervous.

They knew that if they started fighting, both sides would surely lose. This was not something the Drake family or Sangruil wanted to see.

The leader of the black-robed men did not want this either.

However, he had no choice. If he wanted to deal with the Drake family, he had to show him how strong Sangruil was.

That way, the other party would be wary and not start conflicts so casually. If he showed any sign of weakness, the Drake family would be haughty once they caught sight of it.

After a moment, Ragnar broke the silence and said, "Come in."

The black-robed man in the lead did not say anything. He then brought the other black-robed man into the Drake family's ancestral ground.
