Chapter 1271

The battle in the sky ended in the blink of an eye.

David stopped Moe and the gang's assassination of Nimbus and his family with a wave of his sword.

Then, during the other two black robed men's sneak attack, he stopped one of them using his fist and crippled the other with his sword.

The result was pretty splendid.

One had to know not anyone could fight these five.

They were at partial Eternal Realm, and they could even hurt the emperor after catching him off guard.

Everyone was shocked by David's actions.

'How strong.

'He's so strong!'

Countless people watched the figure in the sky and felt waves crashing against their hearts.

This young man did what Emperor Nimbus could not.

At this moment, the younger generation of all major forces in the Milky Way felt their shattered convictions rebuilding again.

Compared to Emperor Nimbus, they were now admiring the dazzling figure in the sky even more.

After all, Nimbus was always a legend.

He was caught off guard and severely injured the first time they saw him.

If David had not been here, the emperor would be history.

Moreover, David was not only younger than Nimbus, he was also much stronger than him.

The most important thing was their results.

As David fought the black-robed men who hurt Nimbus, he chopped off one of their arms and crippled another.

Therefore, he was surely the strongest man in the Milky Way.

To a lot of the youngsters, after David rose as a new star, an old powerhouse like Nimbus could retire and enjoy the remainder of his life.

Mia lifted her head and looked at the figure dazedly. She felt like she was walking on air.

When the other women saw her eyes, they could only feel envious.

Leaving the four fairies to follow David was definitely the best choice she had ever made.

Even the Barlowe family was stunned.

Nimbus and Wilfred were prepared to fight to their deaths when they saw Moe and the others charging at them.

They did not think David would have the time to save them after he was surrounded by the two black-robed men.

However, what David did next was too shocking.

Nimbus and Wilfred had to admit they could not do what David did even if they were in their prime.

David could fight five people the same level as him and even chopped off one of their arms all by himself.

It seemed that the position of the strongest person in the Milky Way should belong to someone else.

Draco, the black-robed man whose arm had been chopped off, was still wailing in pain.

"Ah! You bastard, I must kill you!"

"I want to eat your flesh and drink your blood!"

Gradually, his body started changing, and his loose robe started to expand.

David knew he was going to turn into a beast.

These black-robed men were Nine-Headed Serpents.

They were not the same as the Sangruil Sinners who fused with Nine Headed Serpent genes.

David wanted to see what these people looked like.

In addition, after he turned back into a beast, the other forces in the Milky Way could also see what they truly looked like.

After all, the Nine Headed Serpent Clan was not human. Even though they would move easier if they stayed in human form, their abilities would also be restricted.

Only by going back to their true form could the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan utilize their full power

However, Draco could not go back to his initial form.

Chapter 1272

The other three black robed men came over.

"Draco, calm down!" Severus said.

"I can't! I have to kill him! I want to eat him!" Draco said through gritted teeth.

His voice was filled with extreme anger.

"Do you know what kind of punishment you will get from the clan if you expose yourself and ruin the plan? Are you sure you want to do this?"

"I don't care! I have to kill him! Leave me alone!" Draco was furious.

The intense pain had confused him.

It was not just his body, even his soul was hurting

Normal people could not endure this pain, and they would have passed out early on.

The other three black-robed men felt curious as well.

According to logic, even if Draco's arm was chopped off and he temporarily lost most of his combat power, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan had strong regeneration skills.

He would regenerate his arm soon if he had enough energy

Worse come to worst, he would be weak for a few days

It would not reach the stage where he would lose his mind.

However, Draco seemed to be going insane.

What they did not know was that David's Evil-Splitting Sword was made from Nine Turning. Star Iron, the mortal enemy of all things evil in the universe

Coincidentally, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan was one such evil thing

If Draco's arm was chopped off in another way, he could regenerate it using his skills as a Nine Headed Serpent regeneration

However, if it was chopped off with David's Evil-Splitting Sword, he could not regenerate even despite his abilities.

Moreover, his soul and body would be tortured, which was why Draco was behaving like this.

The three black-robed men sensed something wrong and they realized they needed to stop Draco from changing back to his original form.

If not, they would also be implicated.

The three looked at each other before going forward to stop Draco.

Afterward, they placed a pill inside Draco's mouth.

After Draco took the pill, he calmed down and lost consciousness.

'What's going on?'

A lot of people were confused when they saw this.

'Why did they knock their own team member out?'

David lifted his Evil Splitting Sword to look at it. There was a faint redness on it.

Even though he had chopped off one of Draco's arms, there was no blood on the sword.

'Perhaps the Evil-Splitting Sword doesn't only slash all things evil,' David thought to himself.

After Draco passed out, another black robed man sent him to the warship that had retreated ten thousand kilometers away before coming back.

This distance was nothing to people on their level. It would only take a few seconds to travel it.

One of the four black-robed men had passed out, so only three of them were left. In addition to King Moe of Sanguil, there were now four partial Eternal Realms.

“Mr. Barlowe, you should take Astrid and the others down quickly. I might not have time to protect you all later,” David said.

Nimbus smiled bitterly.

He was the emperor of the Milky Way Empire and the strongest person in the Milky Way. He never expected to one day be protected by a young man.

Every dog truly had its day!

However, he knew he could not do anything if he stayed. Worse still, he might even impede David.

“David, be careful.”

After Nimbus said that, he left with his family.

Astrid turned her head to look at David. Then, she said loudly, “David, you have to be careful. I’ll wait for you down there.”

The Barlowes left.

Now, no one was in his way.

Moe and the others knew that if they did not kill David today, they would never have the chance to kill Nimbus.

Now, their main goal was to unite and kill David. Then, they would go and kill Nimbus.

Chapter 1273

The air fell into silence.

No one said anything, and they were trying hard to recompose themselves.

Since they were at this stage, it was no use saying anything else.

The two sides were now mortal enemies.

One of them had to die.

To be honest, David felt huge pressure facing the remaining four partial Eternal Realms. Just now, even if he was fighting five of them alone and chopped off one of their arms, reality, he was only fighting against two of them.

in

If five of them attacked David at once, David did not know what would happen.

Now, he was going to fight four of them at the same time.

Anyone at partial Eternal Realm would not be an easy opponent.

Furthermore, his mind power that never failed before had a limited effect on these people

He could only restrict them for a few moments before they escaped.

However, David noticed something from the black-robed man whose arm he had chopped off.

If he wanted to defeat those people, he had to rely on the Evil-Splitting Sword in his hand.

That sword had a strong effect against the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan.

If not, the black-robed man at partial Eternal Realm would not have looked so pained after one of his arms was chopped off.

“No matter who you are, you only have one ending if you dare to go against me, and it’s death!”

Severus looked at David from afar, his calm tone was laced with anger.

They were going to complete the task their clan assigned and help Moe seize control of the Milky Way. After that, they could enjoy their lives to their hearts’ content.

However, an accident like this had happened halfway.

Anyone would be furious.

“Everyone knows how to talk big, but you need to have the ability to actually do it!” David waved his sword and replied with a smile.

Severus looked at the long red sword in David’s hand. He also sensed something strange with that sword.

It was very sharp, but it seemed to be hiding an energy that he hated.

Worse still, after Severus’ arm was chopped off, he began acting very strange.

There must be something wrong with it.

However, Draco was already delirious and he was going to turn back into a Nine-Headed Serpent at that moment.

Hence, Severus did not have time to ask him what happened.

The battle was about to start soon.

Everyone on Gold Peak stared fixedly at the sky.

David faced the four partial Eternal Realms alone, and he could even stay so carefree and calm. Countless youngsters felt like they were burning with anger.

This was the final goal they were chasing after.

“Good luck, Master David! Defeat those Sangruil Sinners and return peace to the Milky Way!” Someone yelled excitedly.

“Master David, we will always support you!”

“Master David, we will always be your strongest support!”

The young people on Gold Peak started yelling at the sky.

At this moment, everyone knew that as long as David survived the battle, he would surely replace Emperor Nimbus as the strongest man in the hearts of everyone in the Milky Way.

He would be admired and respected by countless people.

David decided to make the first move as he faced four opponents of the same level.

He lifted his right hand and waved his Evil-Splitting Sword Woosh!

A red sword light broke the air before moving toward Moe and the others.

This time, David did not use the Evil-Splitting Sword Technique from his three top combat skills

This was because using a combat skill would exhaust a lot of his energy. The higher the level, the higher the power, and of course, the greater the energy it would exhaust.

The Evil-Splitting Sword Technique would not hurt an opponent of the same level if they were sufficiently prepared.

Besides, David had already used it twice today.

If he continued using it, his energy would be exhausted. Then, his combat power would also be greatly affected.

The red sword light moved very fast. In a blink of an eye, it was already in front of Moe and the others.

The four moved together to avoid the light.

Then, they charged toward David.

The Nine-Headed Serpent Clan was good at close combat.

They could use their strong body and sharp claws to tear their opponents into pieces.

David was not scared either.

His body disappeared from the spot as he charged toward his enemies.

During the process, David threw his Evil Splitting Sword at one of the men

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1274

Chapter 1274

What he did confused Nimbus and Wilfred who were nervously watching this battle from below.

Everyone knew David's greatest advantage was the long red sword in his hand.

How would he continue fighting if he threw the sword aside?

As for the others, they could not see what David did. They only knew the fight had restarted. Severus and the others were glad when they saw David throwing the sword. How would David fight them now that he lost such a threatening weapon? 'Is that kid stupid?'

The Evil-Splitting Sword was thrown toward one of the black robed men.

The black-robed man did not dare to act recklessly as he faced the sword.

In such proximity, he could feel the sharpness and the aura of the sword. It was making the skin under the black robe sting. This was definitely a very powerful weapon, and it could easily slice through the tough scales of the Nine-Headed Serpents.

As the black-robed man was moving, he turned his body and let the Evil-Splitting Sword zoom past him.

As

he thought he was safe and was about to turn around to grab the sword's handle, danger befell him.

When the Evil Splitting Sword zoomed past him, it stopped all of a sudden and did not continue moving. Instead, it chopped down on his body.

This sword terrified the black-robed man.

He still remembered how hurt Draco was.

The Nine-Headed Serpent Clan's strong defense could not stop this powerful weapon at all.

'If this sword slices my body, won't I be chopped in half?'

When David threw the Evil-Splitting Sword out, he was using his mind power to control the sword

That way, he could confuse the enemies and have two free hands to fight.

Even if David had less combat experience, he had a strong mind power and was smart.

Only he could think of such a wonderful plan.

The black-robed man watched the Evil-Splitting Sword slicing down on him.

In this critical moment, he used his big claw to stop it.

At this moment, not only his claws were covered in tough scales, but there was also a pair of shiny metal gloves equipped over them.

This was the Nine Headed Serpent Clan's combat weapon.

Since they were good at using their indestructible claws for close combat and tearing up their enemies into pieces, almost all of the Nine-Headed Serpents had the same metal gloves. After they put the gloves on, it increased their attack and defense greatly.

Even if the black-robed man was not confident in stopping the Evil Splitting Sword, the only thing he could do in this critical moment was to mitigate the amount of harm he would receive

If not, he figured he would be split in half if the Evil-Splitting Sword chopped down on him.

His claws that were in the metal gloves grabbed the blade of the Evil – Splitting Sword.

Ding!

An ear-piercing metallic sound could be heard

“Hiss!”

Soon, the black-robed man's sharp inhale could be heard.

The metal gloves only stopped the Evil-Splitting Sword for a few seconds before it broke the gloves and slashed the black robed man's claws

Then, it sliced apart the tough scales and reached his skin and flesh. However, the sword got stuck before it could break any bones.

Even though it could slash all things in the universe, it needed enough momentum. David was using his mind power to control the Evil-Splitting Sword, not his hands.

Hence, the amount of force used to slice downward was weaker. In addition to the subsequent breaking of the metal gloves and Nine-Headed Serpent scales, all its momentum had already been exhausted. Even so, the black-robed man was still in immense pain.

His body and soul were experiencing pure torture.

“Ah!”

The black-robed man went mad.

At this moment, David used his mind power to pull the sword back.

Woosh!

Five of the black-robed man's metal-covered fingers flew into the air alongside the sound. The Evil-Splitting Sword's blade rubbed against his finger bones, slicing them off directly.
