Chapter 1291

Of course, David knew that Moe and the others wanted to escape the Milky Way.

As he looked at the fleeing group, David said, "Nine-Headed Serpent Clan, since you dare to send people to cause chaos in the Milky Way, I will kill all four partial Eternal Realms you sent."

After David said that, David's Golden Body turned slightly to face the direction Moe and the others were fleeing in. Then, his right hand grabbed the void.

While he did that, a space crack appeared in front of his right hand.

Just like that, David reached into the crack in space.

On the other hand, a huge crack also appeared in front of Moe and the others.

David's hand reached out from this.

As Moe and the other four looked at the giant golden hand that suddenly appeared from the space crack before them, they were beyond horrified.

"W-What is this? Is it..."

Before Moe could say anything, another trembling voice said, "The Eternal Golden Body!" Severus widened his eyes and continued dazedly.

Before they could react, David's golden hand grabbed all five of them and pulled them all inside the space crack.

Then, the space crack closed as if nothing had happened.

On top of Planet Royal, David's Golden Body pulled his hand back from the space crack.

He had Moe and the four partial Eternal Realm Nine-Headed Serpents in his hands. They could not move and they all had horrified looks on their faces.

They tried their best to struggle and escape David's giant golden hand.

Despite this, no matter how much they struggled, it was still in vain.

How could they escape the Golden Body at Eternal Realm?

David could use his Golden Body to squeeze them into minced meat if he wanted to kill them. They would be completely dead by then.

All powerhouses on Plante Royal widened their eyes and dropped their jaws when they saw this scene. At the same time, they were feeling extremely shocked inside.

'David is so powerful after breaking through to Eternal Realm.

'He was evenly matched with the five partial Eternal Realms and both sides suffered.

'Now, they are billions of miles apart, and they do not even have a chance to escape before David captured all of them.

'Is this the power of Eternal Realm?

'How powerful!'

Nimbus and Wilfred, the two at partial Eternal Realm, had bitter smiles on their faces as they looked at David, who was like God right now.

'Eternal Realm! How many people dreamed of getting to this realm.

Today, they witnessed the birth of an Eternal Realm with their own eyes.

Severus and the others could not escape David's grip, so they could only scream for help. They did not want to die yet.

"Head, please save me!"

"Elder, save me!"

Right now, they could only find another person who was at Eternal Realm to save them from David, who was also at Eternal Realm.

Coincidentally, the head and elder of the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan were at Eternal Realm.

"No one can save you today!" David said.

As he was about to crush the few in front of everyone in the Milky Way...

Chapter 1292

Suddenly, he heard a voice.

“David, I am the senior elder of the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan, Serpentine. Please let those guys go for my sake. They are ignorant and offended the Milky Way. The Nine-Headed Serpent Clan is willing to compensate you.”

David looked toward the voice and saw a monster that was also using the Golden Body through the limitless void.

That monster had nine snake-like heads.

However, what was different was that there were two small horns on each of the heads.

This was the Eternal Realm powerhouse of the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan.

“Senior Elder, save us. We don't want to die yet,” Severus yelled.

Even if the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan were among the top ten in the Beast Galaxy, if four people at partial Eternal Realm died at the same time, it would be a huge loss even if it did not cause much direct damage.

They were at partial Eternal Realm and they were the backbones of the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan. These four were not irrelevant characters.

Moreover, they had enemies in the Beast Galaxy as well.

David looked at Serpentine and sneered, “The Nine-Headed Serpent Clan is just a bunch of mutts. You wanted to raise the humans in the Milky Way as food for a long time. Do you think we will accept your compensation? How preposterous!”

“David, the strong will always be superior to the weak. This rule has always existed. The weak will need to be prepared to get bullied. Everyone knows this rule, but since an Eternal Realm like you has appeared in the Milky Way now, we can live together in peace. However, please let those from the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan go before that. If not, everyone will suffer,” Serpentine said.

“Alright, I don't want to waste my breath with an old fart like you. I won't let these scumbags go, so don't even think about it. If I do, how would I face the humans in the Milky Way that died as their food?”

“David, please think twice!”

“I will f*ck your mother twice!” David could not stop himself from cursing. 1

After he said that, he exerted some force and crushed the five partial Eternal Realms in his hands.

Aside from King Moe of Sangruil, the rest were all Nine-Headed Serpents.

The reason David could not hold back from cursing just now was that he unconsciously saw the tragic state of the planet the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan had overtaken when he captured the five.

It was absolute hell.

Humans became food and were lined up to feed these beasts.

They had only taken over the planet for a few days and it had turned into such a tragic state.

If Sangruil successfully overtook the empire would the empire be peaceful?

Countless planets would become like this.

“David, you’re provoking the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan by doing this. Do you think you’re invincible just because you’re at Eternal Realm? Do you think you are immortal? Just you wait! My clan won’t spare you,” Serpentine roared angrily.

Clearly, David had enraged him after disrespecting him and crushing the four partial Eternal Realm Nine-Headed Serpents.

“Since I dared to do this, it means I’m not scared of you mutts. Show me what you got and I will block all of it,” David retorted fearlessly.

“Good! Very good! Splendid! David, my clan will remember you. You will regret this very soon.” After Serpentine said that, he was about to retract his Golden Body.

Severus and the rest were dead, so it was useless to continue talking.

This time, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan had utterly embarrassed themselves.

David had broken through to Eternal Realm, so even if Serpentine came and fought David, he could not kill him.

He would not act unless Serpentine had the confidence to kill David in one fell swoop. If not, no one at his realm would want to voluntarily become mortal enemies with another figure at Eternal Realm.

The cost would be too big.

As for what Serpentine said about making David regret this, he was just trying to protect his reputation.

Of course, if he had the chance to kill David, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan would not hesitate to do so.

Chapter 1293

Serpentine wanted to leave after pulling back his Golden Body.

However, David would not allow this.

He had just stepped into Eternal Realm and had not yet shown his strength.

Since Serpentine presented himself to David, he had to give it a try no matter what.

Furthermore, David wanted to see what was the difference between him and other Eternal Realm figures.

If he missed this chance, it would be hard for him to find another opponent of the same level.

David waved his hand and the Evil-Splitting Sword in the Royal Palace's courtyard flew into his hand.

As David held the Evil-Splitting Sword, a giant long red sword also appeared in the hand of his Golden Body.

He could also project the Evil-Splitting Sword just like how he projected his Golden Body.

A powerful weapon was powerful indeed.

"Evil-Splitting Sword Technique!"

David yelled inside his heart.

Then, he waved his sword, and his Golden Body also waved the sword.

A red sword light sliced across the sky in a blink of an eye and sped toward the Beast Galaxy.

The red sword light was very fast. The air around its route could not endure the pressure of the light and started collapsing.

Countless space cracks surrounded the red sword light, protecting it all the way to the Beast Galaxy.

The Void Wind produced by the Zone of Nothingness between the two galaxies could not stop the red light.

This was the most powerful strike David made yet. It immediately surpassed the restraints of space.

The senior elder of the Nine-Headed Serpents, Serpentine, did not expect this. 'David is a galaxy away and he dares to attack me?'

Moreover, the energy in the attack was making Serpentine feel chills down his spine.

'Didn't David just step into Eternal Realm?'

'How could he produce such a strong attack?'

'He is a lunatic! A monster! He doesn't play by the rules at all!'

How could an Eternal Realm powerhouse attack at will? Any attack from them would be earth-shattering.

The Universe Convention stated that an Eternal Realm could not attack at will in case they caused huge destruction.

David was too bold.

'How dare he go against the Universe Convention?'

'How did such a lunatic appear in the Milky Way?'

Serpentine did not have time to think and he quickly used his ultimate move to resist it.

The Nine-Headed Serpent with a Golden Body breathed out a ball of energy. After that, it gathered together and shot out.

At the same time, the red sword light was about to pass through the Zone of Nothingness via countless space cracks.

Coincidentally, Serpentine was at the edge of the Beast Galaxy.

His attack also entered the Zone of Nothingness and collided with David's red sword light.

Boom!

The collision sound resonated through the void.

Luckily Serpentine reacted in time.

If he was slightly late, the collision would have happened in the Beast Galaxy where the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan was.

By then, there would be huge damage.

Soon after, Serpentine roared in exasperation.

"David! You maniac! Are you trying to start a battle between the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan and the Milky Way?"

David looked over from Planet Royal and he could see one of the nine heads on Serpentine's Golden Body had been chopped off.

He could stop Serpentine's attack and chop off one of his heads from such a huge distance.

It seemed that the effect of this attack was pretty good.

A powerful weapon like the Evil-Splitting Sword in addition to the Evil-Splitting Sword Technique was so powerful.

"Nine-Headed Serpent Clan, this is a small punishment for you. If you dare to invade the Milky Way again, don't blame me if I go over there and have a fight to the death with you," David replied loudly.

"David, since you've already attacked, I believe you're done venting. This should be the end of this matter. The Nine-Headed Serpent Clan would not look into this anymore. In return, you will stop pestering us. What do you think?"

This time, the person speaking was not Serpentine, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan's senior elder. Instead, it was Lucius, the head of the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan.
