

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1335

Chapter 1335

The next day.

Selena, Celia, Pearl, Sandy, Julia, and Amelia all said goodbye to David and went home.

Celeste asked them to prepare quickly, and they should leave Earth with her after they settled their families. They would leave the Milky Way, go to a higher civilization, and join the Iridescent Sect so that they would have a chance to get into Eternal Realm in the future.

It was unknown when they would be back after they left.

It would also be unknown when they would see their parents again in the future.

Hence, they must go back and explain to their families first.

Even Pearl, who had a falling out with her family before, had to go back this time to settle his parents and younger brother properly.

Although her family used to exploit her, after all, they were her biological parents and brother who were related to her by blood.

This farewell might even be a lifetime.

No matter how much resentment Pearl had in her heart, it was almost gone.

Moreover, in the past few years, she did not care about anything in her house. She did not even pay attention or try to understand it.

They got the punishment they deserved.

Pearl felt that her parents and younger brother should have known their mistake.

After settling her family down, Pearl could leave with confidence and follow in David's footsteps.

If not, based on her personality, she could not leave just like that.

David wanted to go with them, but there were too many of them and only one of him.

Plus, he also needed to tell his Aunt Sally and Aunt Diana.

In the end, they went back to their own homes respectively.

Amadi could not stand the loneliness, so he brought his four maids to travel around Earth.

Before he left, he told Celeste to inform him when they were about to leave.

In the end, Celeste and David were the only ones in the courtyard.

“Celeste! I also have to go back, can you do it alone? How about I find a few people to serve you?” David said, looking at Celeste who was sitting opposite him.

“You were still a cell when I was wandering alone in the universe! Do you think I can’t do anything alone?” Celeste directly scolded David.

Now, David was such an eyesore to her.

If it were not for David, she would not be in this unpleasant situation.

After yesterday’s joining of the spirit, the desire in Celeste’s alluring body had been completely ignited.

As a result, she had to do all she could to suppress it.

She did not have much of her combat power left now.

Once she used more than 10% of her power, she would not be able to suppress the desire in her body.

Moreover, she could not blame David for this.

It was the charm of her own mind power that made David’s mind power go out of control.

If they wanted to look into this, David was the victim.

Women were sometimes unreasonable. It was obviously not David’s fault, but her own, yet Celeste refused to admit it and insisted on blaming David.

David did not know the truth.

Otherwise, he would definitely cry out for injustice.

“Celeste, I was worried that you’ll be bored and that you won’t have anyone to talk to or cook for you,” David said with a bitter smile.

Of course, he knew why Celeste was like this.

An old woman who had been alive for more than 1700 years had never touched a man before, and in the end, her virginity was taken by David in a fantasy.

Even though they did not have any physical contact, it was dreadful for a woman who remained chaste.

With Celeste’s strength, David should thank the Gods above that she did not kill him with one blow.

What more could David ask for?

It was more important to stay alive. He would think about the rest next time.

He was even secretly glad that Celeste was still single.

If she had a boyfriend or a husband, they might also be terrifyingly powerful.

If she exposed this secret, David might not be able to escape from this calamity.

“I don’t need it,” Celeste rejected.

“Since you don’t need it then I won’t look for it. You’re tired too, so you should rest for a few days. I still have to go back to take care of some business.” David wanted to bid farewell.

It was very stressful to be with a powerhouse like Celeste.

“David, wait. I have something to tell you,” Celeste took a deep breath and said after pondering.

“Go on, I’m listening.”

“Do you know why I’ve always been alone after a thousand years?” Celeste asked.

“I don’t.” David shook his head.

How would he know?

'Is she a lesbian?

'She's so beautiful too, what a pity.'

David sighed internally.

"I liked someone before, but because of my special physique, I can't have a man. So, that's why I've been single this whole time."

"How special?" David asked curiously.

"To put it bluntly, I can't have sex with a man, if not..."

"If not?" David asked.

He was more and more curious about what was going on with Celeste's body.

"If not, I will drain the man dry," Celeste said, feeling a little embarrassed.

Celeste had been living for more than a thousand years, but she still felt embarrassed saying this in front of a young man. However, this had nothing to do with her strength.

"Does this kind of physique exist?" David widened his eyes and asked.

This was the first time he heard of this.

'Isn't this something from a movie?

'For example, some women in a cult had some superpower that can absorb a man's vitality for their cultivation so they could improve leaps and bounds.

'But does this exist in real life?

'There are so many wonders in this vast universe!'

'Not only that, once I copulated with a man, the hidden desire in my body will be ignited. If I can't take care of it in time, I will lose my sanity and let my desire control me. You should know how strong I am now, so you should also know what will happen if I lose my mind.'

After Celeste said that, she stared at David to see what he would say.

David was stunned.

'Lose her sanity?

'Let her desire control her?

'What is going on?

'What will happen if Celeste loses her sanity at that level?

'Will the living creatures on Earth still have a chance to live?

'Not only Earth, but I'm afraid the entire Milky Way will also be affected.

'But what does this have to do with him?

'Shouldn't she have sex with a man for this to happen?

'Wait!'

David panicked.

Celeste must have a reason for telling him.

'Could it be...'

Chapter 1337

"C—Celeste, what do you mean by that?"

Even though David was trying his best to stay calm, his voice shaking.

It was because he thought of a possibility.

If it were real, then it would be troublesome.

He would be in trouble.

"You should have guessed it. That's right. What you did to me in the fantasy yesterday has already ignited the hidden desire in my body. Now, I only have a little of my combat power left. I need 90% of it to control the desire that was about to go out of control. If it went out of control, there would be dire consequences."

David's jaw dropped open when he heard what Celeste said. She confirmed his guess. "C—Celeste, didn't you say this will only happen if you sleep with a man? We only thought about that in our brains and we never touched each other. How did this happen?"

“David, you’re too naive. Even though what happened in the fantasy is not real, the feeling is almost realistic. Don’t you think it feels almost real?” Celeste said, not feeling ashamed at all.

‘U–U–Uh...‘

David could not wrap his head around this.

‘Why is this happening?’

‘Why is this incredible thing happening to me?’

However, Celeste was right.

What happened in the fantasy was almost the same as the real thing.

“Celeste, you’re not joking, are you?” David asked, a miserable expression on his face.

“David, do you think I have too much time on my hands? Why would I joke about this? If word got out, I would be utterly humiliated. At the end of the day, I am a beginner Sovereign Ranker in Eternal Realm. I am someone reputable in a high–level civilization,” Celeste frowned and said unhappily.

“No! No! Celeste, you misunderstood me. It’s not that I don’t believe you, but this is too unfathomable. I can’t make sense of this, can you give me some time to think about this?” David quickly explained.

“Hmph!” Celeste turned around and stopped talking.

Time passed slowly.

More than ten seconds later, David finally understood.

He said, “Celeste, you might not believe this. I genuinely didn’t do that on purpose. I still have no idea what’s going on now.”

“Are you saying I did this on purpose?” Celeste glared at David and asked bitterly.

“No! I didn’t mean that!”

David waved his hands and continued, “Look, since you told me that, you must have a solution. You can tell me what you want me to do. As long as it’s within my power, I will not say no. What do you think?”

“That’s more like it. I can barely hold myself back now, but I can’t use more than 10% of my power. I can’t continue my duty as a Universe Enforcer now and I need to go back to the Iridescent Sect as soon as possible. If I can't hold myself back halfway, I will need your help."

"You can tell me what you need me to do. I will do it well," David patted his chest and promised.

"If I can't hold myself back, you should release your mind power and... and do what you did to me yesterday."

After Celeste said that, she did not dare to look at David. So, she turned to look another way.

"Ah!"

David's brain could not register what was going on.

'What did Celeste ask me to do?

'Do what I did to her yesterday?

'Did I hear that correctly?'

"C—Celeste, can you say it again? I didn't hear you."

"If I can't hold myself back. You should release your mind power and do what you did to me yesterday. That way, I can remain conscious to control myself again. Do you understand?"

"I—I understand."

David looked at Celeste's blushing side profile.

Chapter 1338

He thought, 'Sovereign Rankers in Eternal Realm blush too.'

"David, listen here. You can't tell anyone about this, if not I will skin you alive. Plus, we'll only do this in the fantasy. This is for everyone's safety. If you dare to do this in reality, I will chop off your tool," Celeste warned.

"I got it, Celeste," David answered.

He thought, 'I don't want to even if you want.

'I don't want to die!'

Life was great, so David did not want to die in Celeste's hands.

Next, no one said anything.

The scene was a little awkward for a while.

David stole a glance at Celeste in front of him.

Celeste was looking at another side, so David would only see her side profile.

'Good Lord,' David murmured internally.

'I am not being unfaithful to Celia, right?'

'I am doing this for the safety of the lives on Earth and also the innocent lives in the Milky Way.'

'It's just a fantasy, we won't touch each other for real.'

'At most, this is just an emotional affair, right?'

'Plus, Celeste forced me.'

David comforted himself.

"Celeste, how long can you hold on?" David broke the silence and asked suddenly.

Celeste turned her head, looked at David, and asked with a smirk, "Why? Are you so impatient that you want to give it a try now?"

Naturally, she knew her body's charm to a young man.

Her alluring body and the elite mature charm she exuded were not something a young woman could compare.

From David's gaze, Celeste could see a hint of desire.

However, David was already the most tolerant young person she had ever met.

If it was others, they would have longed to devour her if they stood so close to her.

Celeste had lived for more than a thousand years, so she had encountered this quite several times.

When David saw Celeste exposing him, he panicked and explained, "No! No! Celeste, you misunderstood me. I have to go back for a bit. I was worried you can't hold on and create irreparable damage to Earth."

"Don't worry. I am fine for now. I'm just worried something will happen on the way back. As long as nothing happens, I can go back to the Iridescent Sect without your help. Then, I can take care of it myself."

"I see. I'll go back now then. If you need anything, you can contact me. I will rush over immediately," David said in disappointment.

"Okay!"

Celeste stood up after she said that. Afterward, she turned to walk back to her room, leaving David alone.

Her alluring body lived up to its name.

David could hold himself back in front of the seduction of Selena, Pearl, and the others. However, he almost could not hold back while being influenced by Celeste's alluring body. He would even have dirty thoughts voluntarily. 2

When he heard Celeste say she could go back to Iridescent Sect without his help, his first reaction was feeling disappointed.
