

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1339

Chapter 1339

David got up to leave shortly after Celeste went back to her room.

Soon, he arrived at River City in South River Province.

Aunt Sally and Aunt Diana had moved to River City with their families.

Hence, David went to visit them one by one.

The families were excited about David's sudden visitation,

David was a legendary figure on Earth, so his statue was everywhere.

As David's aunts, Sally and Diana were happy and proud.

They watched David grow up, and their lives changed because of David. Now, their net worth was invaluable. They had fancy cars and lived in mansions. Back then, they never dared to think about this, but all these happened now. It could be said that David was the one who gave them everything they had now.

The two families acted within the norms as well.

They did not act arbitrarily regardless of the rules using David's name because they were relatives. They only lived their lives peacefully.

No one even knew they were David's family.

After all, David's data was classified after he joined Somerland National Special Task Force and Falcon.

David stayed for five days to talk to his aunts. At the same time, he asked if they needed anything.

Sally and Diana were happy with their current lives and did not want more or join any elite circles in Somerland.

It was nice living a peaceful life.

David was supportive of his aunts' decision too.

It was fine living their lives in River City. It might not be a good thing to want more, become famous, or enter the elite circles of Somerland.

Even though it would be easy for David to arrange that, he was about to leave Earth soon.

He might still be prestigious after he left, but perhaps no one would remember him decades later.

Diana and Sally's families did not have enough background.

Managing an eight-star hotel and getting a profit of billions annually would be enough for those families to live an enjoyable and carefree life forever.

It was not that David was stingy and did not want to give them more.

Money was just a number to him.

He was just worried that if he gave too much, someone might start targeting his family after he left.

If that happened, the gains would not make up for the losses.

Their situation right now was the most ideal.

As for his Uncle Bobby and Uncle Leslie, David did not pay any attention to them.

It was not that David was holding a grudge, but he still remembered the hurt Uncle Bobby and his family caused him like it was yesterday.

David knew Aunt Diana was secretly helping Uncle Leslie and his family, so he would keep one eye closed.

However, he would not forgive them.

Perhaps Diana also knew Uncle Bobby and his family went out of line back then, so she refused to help them every time they came to her for help.

Before leaving, David gave Diana and Sally a keepsake each. He asked them to find the person in charge of East League Capitals if they ran into something they could not solve.

If the person in charge could not do anything, they should go straight to Mason, the Chief of Staff of Somerland.

This counted as a safeguard for them.

After that, David left without worries.

After saying goodbye to Aunt Sally and Aunt Diana, David had no idea where he wanted to go when he was in the lively street.

Celeste gave everyone half a month to go back to prepare.

He only took five days.

The women would only go back when the time was up. After all, no one knew when they would come back after they left.

Hence, they would spend as much time as they could with their families.

If David went back now, he would have to spend time with Celeste alone. Davis was a little scared thinking about that.

His three roommates during university were now cores of East League Capitals.

They should be busy so David did not want to go disturb them.

He was in River City now, so he could go to the Luther family. However, he told Celia and the women he had something he had to take care of when they left, so he did not have time to go home with them. Therefore, it would not be appropriate to go to the Luther family now.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1340

Chapter 1340

He would not go to all of them for fairness' sake.

Now, he had nowhere to go. So, he could only wander aimlessly. He would just go wherever.

As he walked along the streets of River City, David reached South River University soon. Since he was too conspicuous now, he put on a disguise to prevent any trouble.

Anyone who was not close to him would not know it was him.

As he entered the university, he saw students bursting with vitality going around, and he could not help but recall his moments here.

As he came to the field, he saw a huge statue, and this statue was of him.

As David looked at the statue that was a lot taller than him, he laughed and turned to leave. Then, he came to the classroom where he used to have his class.

When he looked through the window, David was stunned.

He did not expect to run into someone familiar.

At this moment, the person teaching the class was the most beautiful in his class and one of the three campus belles, Ava Snowden.

After a few years, Ava looked less youthful and more mature now.

David did not think she would stay at South River University as a lecturer. She was even teaching the class they were in back then.

Even though David ran into someone familiar, he did not say anything to disturb her. After looking for a while, he turned to leave.

At this moment, Ava noticed David in the corridor.

Even though David had put on a disguise and only showed his side profile, Ava could still recognize him at a glance.

After all, they had been in the same class for three years.

Moreover, David stood out back then because he was the only student who worked part-time as a deliveryman.

David had already left.

Ava told the students in her class suddenly, "You should study yourself. I need to take care of something."

After she said that, she left the podium hurriedly and chased out.

When David was looking around in the corridor, he attracted the attention of some of the students in class.

After Ava left, the students started discussing amongst themselves.

"What is going on with Miss Snowden? Why did she leave halfway?"

"I saw a man in the corridor just now. I think she went to chase after him."

"No way! Is he Miss Snowden's boyfriend?"

“How is that possible? Isn't she single?”

“Who told you she's single? Maybe she's in a long-distance relationship.”

“Oh no! Oh no! My goddess has a boyfriend. My heart is breaking.”

“Right? Sigh... My Miss Snowden.”

“Alright, Miss Snowden won't even look at you lot. The man outside was so handsome.” “So what if he's handsome? What if Miss Snowden likes guys like me?”

The male student's statement caused the female students in the class to look at him in disdain.

“Pah!”

The male students were wailing inside the classroom, while the female students were talking about how handsome the man in the corridor was.

Right after Ava left the classroom and came to the corridor, she spotted David's back. So, she mustered up her courage and cried, “Wait!”

David turned his head and looked at Ava who had walked out of the classroom. He showed a small grin.

“Hello, Ava. We meet again.”

“Let's talk,” Ava said.

She did not call out David's name because she knew the power his name had on this campus.

His name was well-known around the world, let alone South River University.

“Alright,” David replied.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1341

Chapter 1341

A man and a woman were talking next to the woods next to South River University's field. Those two were David and Ava who just walked out of the academic building.

As David looked at the woods, he felt deeply moved.

Back then, Sarah, the girlfriend he dated for a very long time, dumped him right here in the woods.

In the end, he even vomited blood because his rival in love enraged him too much.

When he woke up he was in the infirmary.

That was the time he got the super lavish system.

It changed his life and also the lives of all earthlings.

Of course, David now knew that he would still get the system even if that thing in the woods did not happen, he was not dumped, and he did not vomit blood out of anger.

The old David from another timeline did so much just to send him the system at the point of his death.

Old David asked young David to change the Earth's fate and not get enslaved. David did this.

He even surpassed that and announced the ban on slave marks as a Master of the Milky Way.

"David, I haven't heard from you in these years. What were you doing, you influential figure and savior?" Ava asked.

"Ava, stop mocking me. I wasn't on Earth in the past year. I went to have a look in space and I just came back," David answered honestly.

"You weren't on Earth and you went to have a look in space? Don't tell me you were that voice not long ago. Did you become the Master of the Milky Way?" Ava widened her eyes, a look of disbelief on her face.

"What? You can recognize me but not my voice? We've been classmates for so many years!"

"I knew it sounded like you, but I wasn't sure. After all, that voice was too domineering and it wasn't like you at all."

"Yeah, it does not. Maybe I'm still that deliveryman to my classmates," David said with a chuckle.

“Don’t say that! You’re an influential figure now and you’re all earthlings’ savior. Did you see that statue? So many places have them, and if anyone dares to bad mouth you now, they would be attacked by so many people.”

Ava pointed at the statue in the middle of the field and said.

“That’s enough of me, Ava. What about you? Why are you a lecturer at SRU? I don’t remember you having this ambition. I vaguely remember you want to study abroad, right?” David asked.

“Will you believe me if I say I’m waiting for you?”

David was stunned. He said with a smile, “Hehe... Ava, stop joking.”

“David!” Ava cried seriously and suddenly turned to look at him.

David was a little confused.

“Huh?”

“I know you’re a nostalgic person. No matter how powerful you become or how high your status is, you will still come back to visit your alma mater. So, I chose to stay here in hopes that I can see you in the future. Of course, I don’t have any notions because I know we’re too different. In the future, this difference will be even bigger. Back then, I didn’t seize the opportunity so I might not have it again in the future. I hated myself for not having courage like Amelia.”

As David listened to such a raw confession, David had no idea how to answer.

“What’s wrong? Did I scare you?” Ava asked with a smile.

“Um... N-No...” David shook his head.

“David, you don’t have to feel burdened. I only want to tell you how I feel inside. If I didn’t tell you this time, I might not have had the chance. Now, too many girls admire, like, and even have crushes on you. I am just one of the unremarkable ones. However, I’m not the same as them because coincidentally, I know you.”

Ava sounded relaxed as she said that.

She did not feel awkward because she was saying that.

Perhaps she had rehearsed this many times before and had thought of David’s different reactions.

“Ava, why are you doing this?” David said with a bitter smile.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1342

Chapter 1342

“It’s nothing. Back then, my ego was too big so I didn’t dare to tell you. Now that I am older, I have thought things through. I know if I miss something, I’ve missed them for good.” “This should be a nice reunion, and now I don’t know what to say after you said that,” David said helplessly.

“Let’s talk about other things then. Amelia should be with you now, right?” Ava changed the subject.

“Please don’t spew nonsense. I have a girlfriend. Her name is Celia and she was my high school classmate. I got with her after Sarah dumped me. However, Amelia has been cultivating with Celia and the women,” David explained.

“Who are the women?” Ava asked curiously.

“Um... Just some close friends.”

“And they’re all women.”

“Uh... I guess. But please don’t misunderstand, Ava. We’re all friends and Celia is my only girlfriend.

David could only brace himself and answer.

At the same time, he emphasized he only had one girlfriend.

“David, not bad! Do you want one more?” Ava mocked.

“Ava, stop joking.”

“I am not joking, David. Now that everyone’s practicing martial arts. There are martial arts classes for primary school pupils and university students. Of course, I don’t want to be left behind,” Ava said seriously.

Ava had a huge ego.

If she did not run into David this time, she would hide those words in her heart forever.

Now that she had said it out loud, she had to fight for it to make up for her regrets.

Furthermore, Amelia had not succeeded either.

So, she would have a friend if she joined the women.

“Ava, we will leave Earth and even the Milky Way together this time to go to a strange place. We might not come back in ten years or even a few hundred years. Can you accept that? Are you willing to leave your family and friends behind? This departure might be forever,” David thought about it and said.

He said this because he did not think Ava could accept this.

After all, not everyone was willing to leave their family behind to seek longevity.

Of course, David was exaggerating.

Even if they went, David would still find a chance to bring Celia and the women back to visit their parents in twenty or thirty years.

However, he would not say this.

“You’re leaving Earth and you won’t come back in maybe tens or hundreds of years?” Ava asked in shock.

“Yes.”

“Why?”

“We’re looking for a higher form of martial arts so we can protect Earth after we master it.”

“Does it mean you’ll live longer if you are more powerful?”

“Yes. You can even live forever if you reach a certain realm.”

‘Live forever?’

Ava was stunned.

She never expected one could live forever after practicing martial arts.

‘Isn’t this something from a tv show or movie? Does this also exist in real life?’

What David said changed her worldview completely.