Chapter 1351

What Celeste said pulled Lorraine back to reality.

'Three people?

'What does she mean by three people?'

She still did not know what was going on.

A woman suddenly appeared in her office and said so many unfathomable things. She even said she was an alien.

"Celeste, can you explain more?"

"Basically, I am from a very high-level civilization. My job is to maintain the stability of all civilizations to stop any large-scale wars that will cause mass extinctions from happening. When I passed this place, I found someone who had broken through to Eternal Realm in the Milky Way, so I followed them and came to Earth. Then, I met you, who has the same physique as me. I will leave soon and I hope you can leave with me."

'Someone broke through to Eternal Realm?'

Lorraine suddenly remembered that voice of the Master of the Milky Way who claimed he had broken through to Eternal Realm. She asked, "Is the person who broke through to Eternal Realm David from Earth? What is Eternal Realm?"

"That's right! The first person to break through to Eternal Realm was that punk David. As for what is Eternal Realm, your level is too low now and you will find out in the future. This is a realm that can give you an endless lifespan and be immortal. If nothing terrible happens, you'll be able to live forever."

Celeste's words were like bombs detonating in Lorraine's brain.

'I can live forever if I get to Eternal Realm?'

'David, the person who won the ten-year appointment and should have married her but turned her down, broke through to Eternal Realm and is now immortal and can live forever?'

Lorraine had mixed feelings toward David.

Initially, David won the ten-year appointment and he could be the number one among the younger generation in Somerland. According to the initial rules of the ten-year appointment, he should marry Lorraine.

However, he turned it down.

This was the first time Lorraine suffered a defeat in front of a man, and this was also the first time she was rejected by a man.

All of the men around her were utterly charmed by her.

Including her senior Grant and Fred, the two chosen ones from The Krums. Whenever they saw her, they looked as if they wanted to eat her.

As Lorraine grew stronger and older, the charm Lorraine exuded was more charming to men.

However, it was useless to David.

When David rejected her, Lorraine did not mind too much due to her confidence and pride.

It was because she was used to being pampered and admired.

She would never humble herself to go to David.

Even if she thought only David was the one for her, her ego would not allow her to do that.

Who knew after David won the ten-year appointment, he started to stand out as conspicuously brilliant? His strength also improved by leaps and bounds.

Soon, he became the first person on Earth.

Now, The Krums were just an unremarkable little sect to David.

Lorraine also felt very remorseful.

According to her sect, David won the ten-year appointment and became the number one among the younger generation in Somerland, so it was equivalent to getting the entire Somerland's luck.

He would also be the key to counter the catastrophe.

In the end, it was verified. David saved the Earth by himself.

This made Lorraine feel even worse.

Chapter 1352

Back then, she started the ten-year appointment because she did not want to offend the Warner and Zimmerman family.

In the end, it became a stage for the fight for the number one among generation in Somerland.

the younger

Unexpectedly, the winner was David.

Lorraine, the person who started this, did not even get any benefits.

Just like that, she watched David prosper.

If David followed the rule of the appointment and married her, she would be able to follow David. If that happened, she would not just be a general manager in Krum Group.

“Celeste, did you say one would be immortal if they reached Eternal Realm? Are you saying that David is not restricted by his life anymore? He will never die?” Lorraine asked in astonishment.

“That kid is indeed not restricted by his lifespan anymore. However, it doesn't mean he won't die. If I want to kill him, I can do it with just one slap,” Celeste said lightly.

“Celeste, are you an Eternal too?”

“Of course! There are three ranks in Eternal Realm. David is on the first rank while I'm on the third. You will know all this soon. If I tell you now, I will only affect your frame of mind.”

“I understand.”

"That's good. I will leave Earth a few days later and go back to my hometown. I hope you can come with me. We have the same physique, so I am the only one who can give you the best planning and utilize your talent to the fullest. I believe you will achieve even bigger things than me in the future," Celeste said seriously.

"Celeste, who are the three people you mentioned just now? Are there other people leaving Earth with you?"

"Aside from you and David, there is another girl named Selena King who has a special physique too. They will all leave with me. Earth is too small and you can't exhibit your talent to the fullest here."

"Alright. I got it, Celeste. However, I have to discuss it with my family. Can I tell you before you leave?" Lorraine asked.

She did not accept nor reject.

She only said she needed to discuss it with her family.

Even though Lorraine could not find any loopholes in what Celeste said and she believed

Celeste in her heart, she still had to verify this.

She had to at least tell her sect and her family before she made a decision.

"Sure, but you have to think clearly. If you miss this chance, you will be trapped on this small planet forever. You will have to experience sickness and turn old. Also, you can't even touch men. As long as you leave with me, your true worth will be achieved."

"Don't worry, Celeste. I will consider this carefully."

"Good. I will come to you again before I leave. I hope you choose a path that you will take responsibility for. There are a lot of special physiques in the universe, but for now, only you and I have the alluring body. I am just a work in progress, so I hope I can build you into something that will surpass me."

As Lorraine was about to reply, she noticed Celeste was gone, leaving only her voice resonating in her ear.

'This woman is so powerful!'

If Lorraine only believed Celeste 80% just now, she now believed Celeste almost 90%.

A lot of people could defeat Lorraine, but there were not many on Earth who could come and go so quietly and without a trace in front of her.

Plus, they were all reputable big shots.

Lorraine was sure Celeste was not among them.

‘Perhaps this woman is indeed from outer space.’

If Lorraine wanted to get rid of the last 10% doubt, the best way was to contact David directly.

However, Lorraine did not have his contact.

Chapter 1353

As Lorraine was contemplating...

Knock knock knock!

There was a knock on the door and it pulled Lorraine back to reality.

“Come in!”

The office door was pushed open.

A man in his thirties walked in.

This person is Grant, the chief disciple of The Krums.

“Lori, what happened just now? I knocked on the door for a long time and there was no response. If you still don’t make a sound, I will break the door open,” Grant asked suspiciously after entering the door.

“Oh, I’m fine. I was just thinking about something and got distracted,” Lorraine replied.

“Are you still worrying about the company’s development? Lori, you’ve done a good enough job, and now Krum Group is more and more prosperous in your hands. Among the hidden sects and families, only the King family is stronger than us, and the others can’t keep up with us.”

“You speak too highly of me, Grant. The Krums have cultivated me for so many years and this is my duty. Plus, what I do is still not good enough! I still need to continue to work hard and learn. By the way, do you need anything from me?”

“Lori, an elite circle in Capital City will hold a banquet in two days and I want you to attend with me. Do you have time?” Grant looked at Lorraine expectantly and asked.

At the same time, he did not hide his possessiveness in his eyes.

Maybe it was because of the long contact with Lorraine.

As a result, Grant and Fred never found other women until now. They might think that except for Lorraine, other women were just ordinary and unrefined.

Furthermore, over time, the current conflict between the two brothers was beginning to become more and more intense. They were like fire and water now.

Both of them were trying to cultivate their own forces and find their own circle to win over Lorraine in the future and kick the other out.

“I’m sorry, Grant! I’ve been so overwhelmed by the company recently, I really can’t find time to accompany you to the banquet. Why don’t you find another female companion?” Lorraine shook her head and refused.

How could she not understand what her seniors had in mind?

It was only after the ten-year appointment ended that these two seniors, who were once outstanding among the younger generation in Lorraine’s heart, slowly began to blend into the crowd.

Especially after the Earth survived the catastrophe and David distributed the genetic drugs he obtained, many young talents were starting to rise.

However, these two seniors seemed to be unable to keep up with the pace.

They were obsessed with fighting over her and for the heir to The Krums.

They did not care much about cultivation at all.

Naturally, Lorraine was reluctant to give her life to people like that.

The key was that David was still the benchmark.

The two of them looked so bleak.

David had raised the standard of a partner for countless girls too much, making countless men far inferior to him.

Lorraine was no exception.

Because David was the man who had rejected her.

Even if she wanted to find another man, she had to find a man better than David.

In the past, it was almost impossible to find someone better than David.

However, it was different now.

The arrival of Celeste ignited Lorraine's heart again.

If she could not find one on Earth, she would look elsewhere.

In short, she would either not find anyone or find someone better than David, or at least not worse than him.

Otherwise, Lorraine would rather be single forever.

Her ego would not allow her to humble herself.

"Lori, you should put the company's affairs aside for a while! You have sacrificed so much for the company in recent years, so you should take a good vacation and rest," Grant said unwillingly.

Chapter 1354

If Lorraine could accompany Grant to the banquet this time, not only would he look good, but he also promised those guys that he would bring Lorraine to meet them.

It would be very beneficial to make and win more friends with status and reputation in the future if he wanted to compete with Fred for The Krums. At the same time, it could also satisfy his vanity.

Currently, Lorraine was a well-known strong woman in Capital City and even the whole of Somerland.

In addition, this beautiful woman had never been with a man, which made countless people seek after her even more.

However, The Krums were supporting Lorraine, so no one dared to have any ideas about her.

“Sorry, Grant! I really can’t go. The company is in my hands, so I have to do my best. I can’t embarrass The Krums and the head. You should find someone else.” Lorraine remained unmoved.

She was not in the mood to think about any banquets now.

Her mind was filled with words such as the alluring body, Eternal Realm, and immortality.

If what Celeste said was true, then she was definitely willing to leave Earth with Celeste, leave the Milky Way, and go to a higher and more prosperous civilization to realize her value.

“Lori! Can’t you really spare any time? Can’t you just show your face? You can leave after you show your face. I will not stop you.”

Seeing that Lorraine was unmoved, Grant could only settle for second best and let her show her face.

He had already promised others that he would take Lorraine there.

If he could not achieve this, how could he ask others to help him in the future? How would he dare to continue showing his face?

“Grant! Stop it, I won’t go to this kind of banquet, okay? I still have a lot of company matters to deal with. If there is nothing else, please leave! I won’t see you off.”

Lorraine directly asked Grant to leave.

If she faced Grant before Celeste came, even if she refused, she would be more euphemistic to protect Grant’s ego. She would not be so straightforward.

However, right now, she just wanted to take the time to find out if Celeste’s words were true.

She was not in the mood to waste time with Grant here.

Maybe she would be leaving soon.

When she came back again, the entire earth, and even the entire galaxy, would be kissing her feet.

'Um...'

Grant was taken aback by Lorraine's words.

Lori had never spoken to him in this tone before.

'Why is this happening now?'

Grant was startled.

'Could it be that... Lori has already chosen Fred?'

'Impossible! Impossible! This is absolutely impossible!'

'I am better than Fred in every way!'

'How could Lori choose Fred?'

'I must be overthinking.'

Grant shook his head quickly, throwing the thought away.

"Since you're busy, I'll leave now. You have to take care of your health and don't get too tired."

Grant decided to investigate this before making a decision.

"I got it. Thanks for the concern, Grant."

"Goodbye!"

JJ

After Grant said that, he got up to leave the office, leaving Lorraine all by herself.

She wanted to use all of her connections to contact Selena from the King family.

She was one of the three Celeste mentioned.

So she must know the authenticity of this matter.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1355

After David left Dark Cape, he went to many places and met a lot of people he knew well, so he could say goodbye to these people.

He did not know when he would come back after he left Earth and the Milky Way with Celeste.

It was estimated that it might be ten or even twenty years at least.

It was hard to say whether he could still see a lot of them.

David stepped into Springfield with three days left before Celeste's half-month period.

David made an appointment with two acquaintances once he came to Springfield, one was Hugh, who had sold him the hotel and recruited him to join SCC, and the other was Clinton, one of the three major bosses of SCC.

David was not one to forget his roots.

Although the two of them were just small characters to him now, David still chose to meet them before leaving.

After all, when David had just obtained the system and was still very weak, Hugh and Clinton could be considered to have helped him.

David came to Springfield's landmark and the tallest building in Springfield according to the agreed location: Springfield Tower.

After arriving at Springfield Tower today, David went directly to the top floor.

Clinton and Hugh were already waiting by the elevator door.

As soon as David got out of the elevator, the two hurried up to meet him.

However, to David's surprise, there was one other person besides Clinton and Hugh.

It was Goldie, one of the three major bosses of SCC.

David was also quite impressed with this woman.

At the ten-year appointment meeting, Goldie fought with the Dominic family and was eventually injured.

In order to save Goldie, David had seen all of her upper body.

Although it was to save her, he had indeed seen it.

One must know that David had only seen Goldie's body beside Celia's.

He saw Celeste's body in a fantasy and not in reality, so it did not count.

"Mr. Lidell, you're here. Come in now. We have been waiting for a long time," Clinton greeted him and said politely.

He knew from the beginning that David was not a simple person. How many years had it been? Now, David had grown to a level that Clinton needed to look up to.

It was a great honor for anyone to meet David in person these days.

"Hello, Mr. Lidell," Hugh and Goldie also greeted.

However, the expressions of the two were somewhat different.

Hugh was excited and delighted.

He was the one who recruited David into SCC back then. As David rose, he was quickly appreciated by Clinton. Now he had entered the core layer of SCC and had become a powerful big shot in the eyes of many.

Today's SCC was not the way it used to be.

Although it was basically impossible for David to appear in various activities of SCC, his name was still in the SCC, and based on this alone, no one dared to provoke SCC. Furthermore, countless rich kids were scrambling to get in.

Compared with the beginning, SCC had expanded to the entire Somerland, and even the world, utterly suppressing T Faction from the Capital City.

It was the first organization of the younger generation.

Goldie, on the other hand, looked resentful and conflicted.

David saw almost all of her during the ten-year appointment. However, he disappeared in the end and did not want to take responsibility at all.

This made Goldie begin to doubt herself.

Was she so unbearable?

Goldie felt that even if she could not compare to Lorraine, a woman of peerless elegance, she should not be too bad, right?

She had everything that she should have, and the things that should be big were big enough too.

Too bad, David was a piece of wood who did not understand flirtatious expressions. After that, David stood out and became the savior of Earth.
