Chapter 1381

"D-Did you say you met Universe Enforcers? A-And they're waiting for you?" Nimbus stammered. Apparently, he too was taken aback by what David said.

"Yes," David gave a one-word answer.

"Then, where are they now?"

"They are near Planet Royal, but they're in the space crack so that's why you can't see them."

Nimbus and Wilfred looked at each other, and both of them were shocked.

According to what David said, those two Universe Enforcers might have taken a fancy to David's talent, so they invited him to develop in a high-level civilization.

After this, David requested to bring some people whom he shared good relationships with along so that they would have a greater chance of breaking through to Eternal Realm and gaining an endless lifespan.

The key point was that the two Universe Enforcers agreed despite that condition.

This was somewhat unbelievable.

How talented was this kid David to make the Universe Enforcers agree to the condition of him bringing others along?

Despite this, on second thought, the two were relieved.

David was able to become an Eternal and the Master of the Milky Way at such a young age, so how could ordinary geniuses compare to him?

The scene fell into a brief silence.

At this time, David said, "Mr. Barlowe, don't worry! Before leaving, I will take the two Universe Enforcers to the Beast Galaxy. I will first charge the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan some interest from and shock the surrounding powerhouses. With the Universe Enforcers with me, I don't think anyone will attack the Milky Way in the future."

David's words once again verified what Nimbus thought.

'This kid's talent is absolutely terrifying.

‘Otherwise, how would the Universe Enforcers take a fancy to him? Not only did they agree to his conditions but they are also helping him solve his problems.’

“David, if this is the case, then we have nothing to say. We can only wish you a smooth journey and hope you can achieve greater achievements in other high–level civilizations. Don’t forget that the Milky Way is your birthplace.”

“I will, Mr. Barlowe! No matter where I am, the Milky Way is my home. When I leave, the Milky Way will be yours again.”

“No problem! As long as the Nine–Headed Serpent Clan doesn’t come to make trouble, I guarantee that the Milky Way will always be harmonious. It will still look the same as the day you left.”

“Father, Mother, Grandpa Wilfred, I also want to go with David,” Astrid interrupted suddenly.

The three immediately looked at Astrid.

Astrid looked at the three of them without fear.

She could not show the slightest timidity at this moment.

Since she had made up her mind, she must work hard to pursue her own happiness.

“Astrid, what did you just say?” Nimbus asked, looking at her.

“I said I want to leave the Milky Way with David,” Astrid said firmly.

“Do you know where they are going? How long will it be till you come back? Are you willing to leave us and your brothers who love you?” Nimbus’ expression turned a little unpleasant.

In truth, logically speaking, he should be happy that his daughter wanted to follow David, an Eternal, to a high–level civilization.

After all, the opportunities out there were much greater there than in the Milky Way.

It’s possible that the next time she came back, Astrid would also be an Eternal.

However, as a father who loved his daughter to death, Nimbus could not accept Astrid’s choice of following David and leaving her family behind.

It was said that all daughters were apples of their fathers’ eyes.

Now, Nimbus felt that his apple was about to be taken away by David.

How could he be fine with that?

“Father, I want to go! I hope you can let me,” Astrid whispered.

“You...”

Nimbus was about to speak when he was interrupted by Gamora.

“Astrid, have you decided that you want to go with David no matter what?”

“Yes, Mother! I have already decided. I hope you can let me go, and I believe you don’t want me to return. to the state I was in a few days ago, right?”

Chapter 1382

“Astrid, you have grown up, so your father and I can’t keep you by our side forever. You will have your own life in the future. Now that you have decided, we will support you, but no matter where you go, you must remember your home is here and many family members are waiting for you to come back,” Gamora patted Astrid’s head and said.

“I got it. Thank you, Mother. Thank you, Father. No matter where I go, I will always think of you,” Astrid said with a sob.

“Astrid... You... Sigh...”

Nimbus still had a lot to say, but after seeing Astrid’s face, his words eventually turned into a sigh.

‘Just like what Gammy said just now, Astrid has grown up.

‘As parents, we can’t keep our daughter with us all the time.

‘Since Astrid has better choices, a bigger stage, and better development, we should fully support her instead of holding her back.

‘Not everyone has the chance to follow David to a high–level civilization.

‘If she misses this chance, she might never have it again in this life.

‘The chances of her becoming an Eternal while staying in the Milky Way are really slim.

‘With Astrid’s talent, it’s basically impossible.

'She will only have a chance if she goes to a high-level civilization.'

"David, I am handing Astrid over to you. You must treat her well in the future and not bully her. Sometimes she may have a little temper, but it's a result of us spoiling her. I hope you can tolerate this," Gamora said to David as she looked at him.

David was now at a loss for words.

He only agreed to bring Astrid along because he saw how pitiful she was.

'Great, I have become Nimbus and Gamora's son-in-law now.

'Whatever!

'I can't explain this at all.

'The more I try to explain, the more confusing it becomes.'

David looked at Astrid.

He saw a trace of expectation and pleading in her eyes,

'This is the woman who is loved by thousands of people in the Milky

'It's estimated that in her more than 20 years of life, she only ever experienced joy and happiness, and she has no idea what pain is.

'She only became like this and had experienced so many ups and downs after she met me.

'If I explain everything clearly, Nimbus and his wife will definitely not agree to Astrid coming with me.

'If that happens, she will go back to not eating and drinking.

'Thus, it's better to just accept.

'It's my fault that I'm so soft-hearted!'

"Don't worry, Mrs. Barlowe! I will take good care of Astrid and won't let her be wronged," David said, bracing himself.

"I'm relieved! With you around, I believe Astrid will be okay," Gamora said with a smile.

However, anyone could see that she was smiling through tears.

The daughter that she had raised for more than 20 years and loved the most was about to leave her.

Who would be happy in this situation?

However, if Astrid could develop better with David and break through to Eternal Realm one day in the future, then everything would be worth it.

Nimbus wanted to say something harsh.

He wanted to say that if David dared to bully Astrid, he would definitely not forgive him.

However, it suddenly occurred to him that he could not beat David.

Hence, he could only dismiss this thought.

For a while, he did not know what to say.

Chapter 1383

"David, can we meet the two Universe Enforcers?" Wilfred asked suddenly.

"I'm afraid this will be a bit hard. They don't like to show their faces," David replied.

"Don't worry, we walk. We just want to see the face of the Universe Enforcers. They are legendary figures who only exist in the historical records of the Barlowe family. If we don't see them this time, we probably won't have a chance to see them ever again in this lifetime. I hope you can help us to fulfill our wish."

"Alright, I'll think of a way to let you meet each other," David thought for a while and agreed.

He knew Wilfred still did not quite believe what he said.

That was why he insisted on meeting the Universe Enforcers. David figured he could fulfill this request for them to meet.

"Thank you," Wilfred thanked.

"You're welcome. I can't confirm whether it will happen or not! You should have a family reunion first. I still have something to deal with, so I will come back before I leave."

After speaking, David stood up and was about to leave.

“David!” Astrid yelled suddenly.

She looked at David with a trace of fear. It might be because she was afraid that David would not come back after leaving.

“Don’t worry! Since I promised you, I won’t break my promise,” David looked at Astrid and comforted her. “Okay, I believe you.”

David smiled and did not speak anymore. He tore open a space crack casually and stepped into it. The crack closed immediately after as if it had never existed, and David disappeared without a trace.

Nimbus and Wilfred watched David leave with envy.

Although they knew that Eternals could walk in space cracks and could greatly shorten their travel time, it was still shocking when David did it in front of them.

There seemed to be only half a step between partial Eternals and real Eternals, but in truth, it was miles apart.

After David left, Nimbus looked at Wilfred and asked, “Uncle Wilfred, do you think David is telling the truth?”

“He should be. With his status as Master of the Milky Way, there is no need to lie about such things. However, why the Universe Enforcers suddenly appeared in the Milky Way galaxy is still unknown. According to the historical records of the Barlowe family, the Universe Enforcers wouldn’t pay much attention to low-level civilizations,” Wilfred replied

“Is it possible that David’s breakthrough into Eternal Realm caused a huge commotion, which just happened to alarm the passing Universe Enforcers? Then, they found him, took a fancy to his talent, and invited him to join the high-level civilization?”

“It’s very possible!”

Blue Star.

Mia was busy with the affairs of East League Chamber of Commerce in the ancestral home of the Concord family.

Since David handed over East League Chamber of Commerce to the Concord family for management, Mia had to do her best for David. Since David asked her to wait, she would wait quietly.

Mia believed David would not forget her.

Whenever she remembered that the master she followed had stepped into Eternal Realm and become the Master of the Milky Way, Mia was so excited that she could not sleep all night.

She only wanted to look for a man to settle down with.

At that time, David actually had no advantage over those who pursued her like Fergus.

However, David saved her.

In addition, Mia felt very comfortable and relaxed with David, and she did not feel oppressed as she did with other big shots.

Based on her intuition as a woman, Mia figured David was a trustworthy person.

Therefore, she chose David without hesitation.

Unexpectedly, David's performance later shook up her world again and again.

First, he wiped out the Tuffin family, the last-ranked family among the eight prominent families.

Then, he wiped out the Grim family, the fourth-ranked family among the eight prominent families.

In the end, under the watchful eyes of the entire Royal Region, he broke through Eternal Realm, wiped out the Sangruil Sinners, and became the Master of the Milky Way.

Chapter 1384

The current David was undoubtedly the number one in the Milky Way. Even Emperor Nimbus would need to respectfully salute him when he saw him.

As David's maid, Mia's current status had also risen accordingly. No one in the Milky Way dared to offend her.

This was something Mia never dared to think about."

Until now, she was still grateful for her original decision.

This was an opportunity God had given her to change her destiny, and fortunately, she seized it.

Otherwise, she would definitely regret it for life.

While Mia was concentrating on her work, a space crack suddenly appeared in the study where she was sitting.

David stepped out of it and did not deliberately hide his energy.

Therefore, the moment David showed up, Mia spotted him.

“David!” Mia stood up quickly and cried in surprise.

“Mia, thank you for your hard work,” David said with a smile when he saw Mia working.

“It’s nothing. It’s a blessing for me be able to work for you.”

“Put the work aside for now, I have something to ask you this time.”

“Okay, David, please sit down!”

After Mia finished speaking, she moved to give up her seat to David.

David also walked over to sit down unceremoniously.

Right now, he did not need to be polite.

The more polite he was, the more nervous others would be.

“Mia, you’ve been with me for a long time. I’m here to give you two choices,” David said after sitting down. “David, do tell,” Mia stood beside David and replied respectfully.

“I will leave the Milky Way soon to develop in a higher-level civilization. You can follow me, or you can stay and help me manage East League Chamber of Commerce. No matter what you choose, I will support you. You can think about it first before answering me.”

“David, I don’t have to consider. I choose to leave with you,” Mia replied without hesitation.

Although she did not understand why David wanted to leave the Milky Way, Mia had made up her mind.

From now on, no matter where David went, she would choose to follow him unless David no longer needed her.

If that happened, she would have no choice.

Otherwise, Mia would definitely not choose to leave David.

“Mia, you may not understand yet. I don’t know when I will come back this time. If you choose to go with me, it means that you will have to leave your relatives and friends. When you come back again, things may have changed. Don’t worry even if you choose to stay, I won’t blame you.”

“David, from now on, unless you no longer need me and want me to leave, I will never leave you. No matter where you go, I will follow you,” Mia said firmly.

David looked into Mia’s determined eyes.

He knew she had made a decision, so he stopped persuading her.

“Well, you should go and say goodbye to your family. I’ll wait for you here. Hurry up and make arrangements, we’ll leave right away,” David said.

“Okay, David! I’ll head out first.”

“Okay, go ahead.”

With David’s consent, Mia turned and left.

Mia left to say goodbye to her family while David stayed in the study.

When Mia came back, he took Mia to pick up Astrid. After they met up with Celeste, they would take off.

In the Royal Palace on Planet Royal,

Nimbus and his family were still in the room.

“Astrid, are you really sure you want to leave with David?” Gamora looked at Astrid and asked seriously.

“Mother, I want to gamble on this. Please let me go, otherwise, I am afraid that if I miss this opportunity, I will regret it for the rest of my life,” Astrid begged.

“Astrid, logically speaking, as parents, we should support you instead of holding you back when you have this kind of opportunity. However, you have been spoiled since childhood. I am afraid that you will not be able to adapt to life out there if you leave us.”

“Don’t worry, Mother! I have grown up, so I will take care of myself, and David will take care of me too.” “Actually, I can tell that David and you don’t have that kind of relationship, and he doesn’t particularly want to take you with him. I’m afraid you will be wronged in the future.”

“Mother... I...”

“Okay! I understand! You have the right to pursue your own happiness, but you have always been the jewel of the empire, and you should be favored by all humans in the Milky Way instead of pursuing this on your own initiative like you are doing now,” Gamora said, feeling distressed.

“Mother! I am doing this voluntarily. I like David. From the moment he saved me, he has held a place in my heart where he has been deeply imprinted.”

Nimbus looked at Astrid, who had made up her mind, with a complicated expression. He felt uncomfortable on the inside.

He had raised and doted on his daughter for so many years, but in the end, David stole her just like that.

The worst thing was that his daughter was sacrificing herself for him.

Judging by David’s behavior, he also seemed to be reluctant to accept her.

‘What the hell?’

‘Who does he take me for?’

‘If it’s not because I can’t defeat him, I would have taught that punk a lesson.’

Blue Star.

David had not waited in the study for long when the door was pushed open and Mia came back in. When she returned to the study, she was a little out of breath. She only briefly explained what was happening to her family.

David was still waiting in the study, and Mia could not keep David waiting for long.

“Why did you come back so soon?” David asked suspiciously.

“David, I just needed to inform my family. They all support me unconditionally,” Mia replied while panting.

“That’s fine. We’ll go pick up Astrid as she’ll be leaving with us too.”

“Okay, David!”

Mia was not surprised that Princess Astrid would come along.

David tore open a space crack and walked in with Mia.

J

Then, they went to where Nimbus stayed on Planet Royal.

Astrid and her family were still in the room.

David walked out of the space crack and said, “Mr. Barlowe, let’s go! I’ll take you to meet the Universe Enforcers.”

“Thank you,” Nimbus replied.

After David finished speaking, he walked out of the room with Mia.

Astrid and Gamora followed.

Nimbus and Wilfred glanced at each other before following suit.

When they came outside the room, David flew up first, and the others followed.

After he reached the sky above Planet Royal, David stopped and waited for everyone to arrive.

After everyone arrived, David said, “Astrid, we are leaving soon. Are you sure you want to go with us?”

Astrid glanced at Gamora and Nimbus before saying firmly, “Yes, David, I’m sure I want to leave with you.” “Okay then!”

After David finished speaking, he waved his hand and tore a crack hundreds of kilometers long in the void in front of him.

It was different from the small space crack David tore open that could only fit one person.

A wave of chilling aura emanated from the huge space crack.

The knife-like wind that blew out was no joke.

If one were not an Eternal, one's body would not be able to endure it.

Partial Eternals might be able to resist for a while, but not for too long.

Moreover, various cracks would also appear from time to time there. Once it swallowed someone, that person would very likely be torn into pieces.

Even if they survived by luck, it was unknown where they would be teleported to.

The huge space crack began to peel off from two sides, revealing the scene inside.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1386

Chapter 1386

It was pitch black!

Nimbus and others carefully looked around the space crack.

'Huh? What is this?'

In the darkness, they noticed a spot of a different color.

This point was particularly conspicuous in the space crack.

"Celeste, please come out for a while," David shouted at the space crack.

After David shouted, that dot started to rapidly expand!

Almost in an instant, it came to the edge of the space crack and also turned into a huge island. The space crack that was hundreds of kilometers long happened to be about the same size as its body.

'Is that a tortoise?'

Nimbus and the others looked in shock at the enormous tortoise that had appeared not far away.

'This... What kind of tortoise is this?'

'How could it grow so big?'

In addition, the aura emanating from its body terrified Nimbus and the others.

Moreover, this big guy could walk freely in space cracks.

If they guessed correctly, this enormous tortoise was at Eternal Realm..

‘How scary!’

This was the second Eternal that Nimbus had met.

The first one was naturally David.

The tortoise came to the edge of the space crack, squeezed out, and appeared in front of David and the others above Planet Royal.

At this time, a mocking voice came from the tortoise.

“David, you punk, you’ve brought two more close friends again? Not bad! You’re so young, but you have so many lovers! If you do this again, the Iridescent Sect won’t have the capacity to them.”

Nimbus and the others looked for the source of the sound, only to see that a beautiful middle-aged woman had appeared on the back of the enormous tortoise at some point.

There was also a crowd behind her.

Aside from a young man, the crowd consisted of all women, and they were all very young.

“David, not bad! You’re just like me. Haha!” Amadi laughed loudly.

At the same time, he gave David a thumb’s up.

When Nimbus and Wilfred saw Celeste, they were astonished.

An unknown fear started spreading all over their body.

That woman was definitely the strongest person they had ever met.

Nimbus could feel an energy more terrifying than David’s coming from her.

She was just standing there, but they could feel a bone-piercing chill.

‘Is she a legendary Universe Enforcer?’

‘Indeed, knowing somebody by their reputation can’t compare to meeting them in person.’

“Celeste, Amadi, stop teasing me. They are just my friends. We’re not at that stage yet,” David said, forcing a smile.

“Friends? Only idiots would believe you. If they are just friends, why are they all women and are all so beautiful? Have you ever had a male friend after living for so many years?”

Celeste immediately exposed David’s lie.

‘Um...‘

David could not fight back.

Celeste seemed to be right.

All of the people David wanted to take with him were beautiful women.

There was no man in sight.

However, David felt aggrieved.

Aside from Celia, who was his girlfriend, the others were indeed just friends with him.

They might be more than friends, but they were not boyfriend and girlfriend yet.
