Chapter 1404

Sure enough, birds of a feather flocked together.

The Nine-Headed Serpents were not exactly pleasant to the eyes, while these two guys were no better.

If they were on Earth, these guys would definitely make children cry in the middle of the night. Perhaps they might even play a role in warding off evil spirits.

Lucius looked at the two golden beasts joining the battle, feeling indignant.

They must have arrived long ago, but they did not make a move until now.

If David had not taken out the Soulbound Weapon, they might not have shown up.

'They're all profit-seeking b*stards.'

Lucius never thought that the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan was also the same.

They were all the same, no one was much better than the other.

Now, this was a four-against-three battle.

Although Serpentine suffered some injuries, he still had the strength to fight.

Although he was dissatisfied, Lucius still said politely, "Thank you for your help! If we can kill the foreign enemy today, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan will definitely thank you immensely."

"Haha... You don't have to do that, Lucius. Our races are friends. Now that the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan is in trouble, how can we just stand by and watch?" The Three-Headed Hell Hound that looked like a dog laughed.

"Ingolf, being friends is one thing. As the saying goes, brothers settle accounts clearly. The Nine-Headed Serpent Clan will never forget your help today. As long as you help me kill David, not only will the Soulbound Weapon in his hand belong to you, but I will also thank you immensely," Lucius said solemnly.

"Lucius, you are too courteous. If I refuse again, I will appear discourteous. Since this is the case, I will accept your offer," the Three-Headed Hell Hound said happily.

At this time, several other voices suddenly sounded in the surrounding void.

“David! You, a man from the Milky Way, dare to come to the Beast Galaxy to behave atrociously and cause so many casualties. Do you really think that the Beast Galaxy is weak? Lucius, don’t worry, I will help you.”

“David, you are a devil who has no regard for life. You caused countless deaths and injuries the moment you stepped into the Beast Galaxy. Don’t even think of escaping today. Lucius, I will also help you kill this foreign enemy.”

“Lucius, David’s actions have violated the Beast Galaxy’s bottom line. Let us help you kill this foreign enemy to maintain the stability and dignity of the Beast Galaxy. We cannot let other galaxies look down upon us.”

Several criticisms of David sounded one after another.

At the same time, more than a dozen giant beasts rushed toward the battlefield using their Eternal Golden Bodies.

Shortly after, they all arrived.

More than a dozen long and strangely shaped golden monsters surrounded David, Amadi, and the enormous tortoise.

Some of them were beasts with four feet, some were in human form with two feet, and some were even strange beasts with no feet or dozens of feet.

At that moment, David became public enemy number one of the Beast Galaxy.

Everyone wanted to get rid of him and celebrate their victory.

Upon seeing this scene, Celia and the others immediately trembled with fright.

Several women held hands nervously.

As they stared at David in the distance, their eyes overflowed with worry.

Even though David showed significant strength to defeat one of the beasts, he did it in a one-to-one battle.

Now, there were dozens of giant golden beasts around him.

David could not win no matter how strong he was.

Lorraine was also nervous.

She had two conflicting voices in her heart.

One of them wished David was taught a lesson for rejecting her back then.

The other one hoped David would display shocking combat power and defeat all his enemies.

The two conflicting voices kept ringing in her ears, making her confused.

Chapter 1405

“Celeste, will David be in danger? Celeste, please save David,” Selena said loudly.

Her words also reminded Celia and the others.

The only one who could save David now was the mysterious Celeste.

Everyone cried out to her for help.

“Celeste, please save David!”

“Yes, Celeste! Please save David...”

When everyone was urgently asking for help, Celeste’s voice rang in everyone’s ears.

“You don’t have to worry. With Amadi around, David will be fine. They won’t have the guts to hurt David.”

Upon hearing Celeste’s words, everyone was temporarily relieved.

However, they still stared nervously at David’s figure in front of them.

David looked at the dozen or so giant golden beasts around him inexplicably.

‘What’s going on?’

‘Just now, no one paid attention to Lucius’ words.’

‘Why did everyone suddenly change their minds?’

‘Did my blow just now spread too far?’

However, according to what David learned, these lofty Eternals did not care about the life and death of ordinary beings at all.

Now, there was no grief in their eyes, only excitement and greed.

‘What exactly is going on?’

Amadi next to him saw David’s puzzlement.

He smiled and asked, “David, are you wondering why these guys are suddenly attacking you?”

“Do you know? Please tell me,” David looked at Amadi and said.

“Of course, I know! Allow me to be blunt, where did you get the sword from? Of course, if it’s inconvenient for you to tell me, you don’t have to. After all, everyone has their own secrets.”

Upon hearing this, David raised the Evil–Splitting Sword in his hand, looked at it, and said, “This? It’s not inconvenient. I found it in a ruin. I think it’s pretty good, so I kept it as a weapon. Is this sword special?”

He did not say that it was produced by Nine Turning Star Iron through systematic forging.

He figured ruin exploration could explain everything.

“David, you are indeed a man of great luck. I can’t believe you could get such a treasure by entering some random ruins. This sword is not simple. It is a Soulbound Weapon, and it is also the best among the Soulbound Weapons at that. It is a treasure that can help Eternals engage in battles with stronger opponents. With it, leapfrog challenges against those of higher realms is no longer a dream. Moreover, a Soulbound Weapon is also something that every Eternal dreams of,” Amadi explained.

“So, that means that these guys surrounded and targeted me just for the Soulbound Weapon in my hand?” David asked.

“Of course! As the saying goes, don’t reveal your valuables inadvertently. David, if you take out such an important treasure, it will naturally attract others whether you have enough strength to protect it. I am even a little tempted by this sword, let alone those hill–billies,” Amadi said with a smile.

‘I see!’

David finally understood.

When there was no benefit, those guys would just let things develop naturally so long as it did not affect them personally.

Now that they saw the profit, they immediately started acting noble. The reasons they produced also sounded so lofty.

‘What hypocrites.’

“Thank you for clarifying, Amadi.”

“You’re welcome. It’s just a trivial matter! As long as you say yes to what I mentioned at the beginning, it will be the greatest thanks to me.”

David naturally understood what Amadi was saying.

Amadi just wanted him to join Star Mansion.

He had to go to Star Kingdom and understand the specific situation before he could make a decision.

If Star Mansion was an evil force that was involved in all kinds of evil deeds, David would not join.

However, according to the current situation, this should be unlikely.

After all, it was impossible for an evil force to become a Universe Enforcer and maintain the order of the universe.

The powerhouses of all races in the Beast Galaxy did not expect that the people around David would know about the Soulbound Weapon.

They thought it was impossible for someone like David who was born in the Milky Way, a low-level civilization, to know what a Soulbound Weapon was.

Otherwise, he would definitely not pull it out and use it so casually.

‘Isn’t this equivalent to swaggering around a bunch of gamblers with a basketful of money?’

However, since they already knew the truth, the beasts would not need to hide anymore.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1406

“David, now that you know the truth, you should be smart and hand over the Soulbound Weapon in your hand so that you can save your life. Don’t wait for us to do it for you, otherwise, you won’t be able to handle so many powerhouses fighting you at the same time even if you are an Eternal.”

“That’s right! David, as long as you hand over the Soulbound Weapon in your hand, we promise not to hurt you, and we will also escort you out of the Beast Galaxy safely. Otherwise, don’t blame us for being merciless.”

“We can spare your life if you hand over the Soulbound Weapon.”

Many Eternals spoke, demanding that David hand over the Evil–Splitting Sword in his hand.

Lucius sensed that something was wrong.

If David handed over the Soulbound Weapon, he would be able to leave the Beast Galaxy alive.

However, what about the Nine–Headed Serpent Clan?

Even after suffering heavy losses, he would not reap any benefits. Moreover, this would lead to more troubles in the future and could be taken as him sowing the seeds of calamity.

He could not let this happen!

‘I can’t let David hand over the Soulbound Weapon.’

At this moment, David suddenly said, “You can have this sword, but I have a request.”

Upon hearing David’s words, Lucius immediately felt something was wrong.

“Tell us. David, as long as your request is not too unreasonable, we will say yes.”

“If you want the sword in my hand, you can exchange it for Lucius’ life. Whoever kills Lucius will get the sword!” David said with a smile.

‘Um…’

All the powerhouses were collectively silent.

They were considering the pros and cons of this matter.

They could also get the Soulbound Weapon by killing David.

However, David had three Eternals on his side in addition to a top-quality Soulbound Weapon.

David's power with this sword has been proven, and he could easily defeat Serpentine, a late Ruler Ranker.

If this sword fell into the hands of the other late Ruler Ranker with David, it would be even more powerful.

There were only two Eternals on Lucius' side, and Serpentine was injured.

Obviously, it was easier to kill Lucius and Serpentine.

In a split second, they had already made up their minds.

They would kill Lucius and Serpentine as David requested.

They were not scared of whether David would honor the request in the end.

After all, they were in the Beast Galaxy.

When David said he had a request, Lucius felt something was wrong.

'Indeed, this kid wants to use the Soulbound Weapon in exchange for my life.'

Lucius' mind was rapidly spinning as he tried to find a way to break out of this dilemma.

The current situation was very unfavorable to him.

If he could not find a way to deal with it, he and Serpentine would probably be attacked from all sides.

Serpentine and he would undoubtedly die after facing the siege of more than a dozen powerhouses of the same level.

Lucius knew these guys from the Beast Galaxy guys too well.

'They only seek profit!

'A top-quality Soulbound Weapon is enough for them to jointly attack us

'What should I do?

'What should I do?'

Lucius thought nervously.

He did not have much time left.

'Wait, I got it!'
