

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1401

Chapter 1401

Serpentine and Lucius also saw the Soulbound Weapon in David's hand, a strong look of possessiveness appeared in their eyes.

They wanted it too.

However, the two knew very well that based on the current situation, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan stood no chance.

To them, David's use of Soulbound Weapon was still a very good thing.

Both of them had joy in their eyes.

'Great, even God is helping us.'

'David using the Soulbound Weapon now is like suicide.'

Lucius was still thinking about how to persuade everyone to take action against David.

Now, the opening had arrived.

Who in Beast Galaxy would not want the Soulbound Weapon in David's hand?

Any Eternal with it would have the possibility of challenging someone with higher ranks than them.

No one could refuse such temptation.

If Lucius said the word now, he could guarantee many would want to take action against David.

As long as they killed David, the Soulbound Weapon in his hand would have no owner.

In that case, everyone would have a chance to obtain it.

David still did not know his Evil-Splitting Sword had already aroused the attention of many strong spectators around him.

However, even if he knew, he would not care.

With Celeste, the terrifying Universe Enforcer, as his backer, why would he need to be scared?

By this time, Serpentine's attack was ready.

Boom!

A super-large energy ball was launched toward David at such a high speed that even the space it passed began to collapse.

It was evident how powerful it was.

David was not to be outdone either.

He waved the Evil-Splitting Sword in his hand vigorously.

'Evil-Splitting Sword technique!'

Woosh!

A red sword light slashed towards the super-large energy ball.

The combination of the Evil-Splitting Sword and Evil-Splitting Sword technique did not exist independently.

Its power could be superimposed.

Everyone's eyes widened as they stared carefully at the attacks launched by the two.

Needless to say, Serpentine was an Eternal Realm late Ruler Ranker.

The full blow he sent out was so powerful that it was one of the most powerful attacks even in the entire Beast Galaxy.

Although David was only an Eternal Realm beginner Ruler Ranker, what he had in his hand was a legendary Soulbound Weapon.

This was a weapon capable of closing differences in strength.

The head-to-head confrontation between the two gained a lot of attention.

The powerhouses watching the battle secretly did not want to blink, for fear of missing the moment of collision.

They wanted to know whether it was Serpentine who would have the upper hand, or whether the Soulbound Weapon in David's hand was more powerful.

Boom!

Woosh!

The super-large energy ball and the red sword met in the void.

The catastrophic scene they imagined did not happen.

They did not even hear any sound.

Under everyone's wide eyes and dropped jaws, David emitted a red sword light from his Evil-Splitting Sword and slashed Serpentine's super-large energy ball in half. Then, he slashed downward in Serpentine's direction.

'What...'

Everyone was in shock.

'How is this possible?'

'Did David just block a full-forced attack from Serpentine, an Eternal Realm late Ruler Ranker?'

'Does David have this strength?'

'Of course not!'

'He just got into Eternal Realm.'

'The only variable is the Soulbound Weapon in his hand.'

'That weapon is so amazing that it allowed David to skip ranks and stop Serpentine's full-blown attack.'

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1402

Chapter 1402

How incredible.

Even the two powerful races with Soulbound Weapons in the Beast Galaxy were shocked at that moment.

The Soulbound Weapons they had did not have this kind of power to cross two small realms to help its users to win in a battle.

It could just skip one level at most.

The Soulbound Weapon in David's hand was obviously much more powerful than the ones in their hands.

Countless spectators showed greedy expressions.

Serpentine looked at the red sword light that stopped his full blow and continued to move toward him.

He was also a little confused.

The last time David chopped off one of his heads with a sword, he thought it was because he was hasty and had no time to accumulate energy.

This time, he acted first. Nine of his heads gathered energy at the same time and unleashed his strongest attack. He was determined to avenge himself for the last blow David caused him.

Unexpectedly, he still met the same result.

For a moment, he could not accept this.

Half of the red sword light's energy that David swung was consumed after breaking Serpentine's super-large energy ball, hence it no longer moved as fast as it did at the beginning.

Despite this, it still reached Serpentine in an instant.

Just when the red sword light was about to cut Serpentine's Eternal Golden Body in two in one fell swoop, a beam of light suddenly appeared. It blocked Serpentine's body and collided with the approaching red sword light.

Boom!

The reaction caused by this collision was much larger.

A deafening sound resounded through the void.

The shockwave of the collision spread and sent Serpentine flying.

Boom boom boom!

The aftermath even shattered many planets in the distance.

Brilliant fireworks were set off in the void.

Since Serpentine was closest to the collision, the damage done to him was also quite substantial.

At this moment, his Eternal Golden Body was already half-crippled.

David's blow caused too much damage to the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan.

This was their territory, and it was surrounded by planets inhabited by the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan's cores.

This blow not only hurt Serpentine, but it also destroyed many living planets where the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan lived, causing them heavy losses.

Lucius saw all of this.

The anger in his heart went straight to his head.

No one expected such a result.

Obviously, David was still at a disadvantage at the beginning and should have been utterly crushed by Serpentine.

In the end, it was David who almost took out Serpentine with one blow.

The tables turned so quickly that it shocked the well-informed Amadi from a high-level civilization.

Even if David was using a Soulbound Weapon, he did not think that David would defeat Serpentine, a late Ruler Ranker, in such an overwhelming way.

Originally, he thought that the two sides would be stuck in a tie at most.

It seemed that he still underestimated David.

David won.

Of course, the happiest people were none other than Celia and the others.

When David was being attacked, they were all so worried for David.

Now that David had won, they were all happy for him.

Lorraine was hiding the monstrous waves under her calm expression.

This was the first time she had seen this kind of terrifying battle between Eternals.

In the aftermath of this battle, planets would only become fireworks, and they had no effect other than adding a little brightness to the dark void.

'Was this the David who once refused to marry me?

'He became so scary.

'No wonder he didn't even want to look at me at the beginning.

'Perhaps in his heart, cultivation was the most important thing!

'Otherwise, he wouldn't have such strength.

Lorraine looked at Celia and the others who were elated because of David's victory.

'If I had just humbled myself back then, would I be one of them now?

'Impossible!

'Who am I?

'I am Lorraine Lovewood!'

Her arrogance would never allow her to do such a shameful thing.

Only men had ever been infatuated with her.

It was impossible for her to be infatuated with any man.

Although she admired David very much now, she would never throw everything away to be with him.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1403

Chapter 1403

David's Soulbound Weapon not only caused heavy losses to the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan, but it also caused them to be utterly humiliated in the Beast Galaxy.

"David, you insufferable bully! This is the Beast Galaxy, not the Milky Way. Do you want to start a big war?" Lucius stared at David in the distance and said through gritted teeth.

David turned the Evil-Splitting word in his hand. After putting it away, he replied with a sneer, "Lucius don't threaten me. You can't speak for the entire Beast Galaxy, and just now I only casually counterattacked. That wasn't my fault, since you asked for it."

"You..."

Lucius was speechless after hearing what David said.

Then, he turned his head and said loudly to the void, "Everyone! David, an outsider, has been committing atrocities in the Beast Galaxy, causing countless deaths and injuries to the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan. In order to avenge my people and protect the dignity of the Beast Galaxy, I, Lucius, implore everyone to help me kill David. The Nine-Headed Serpent Clan will be extremely grateful."

After Lucius finished speaking, he waited quietly.

He believed that with the temptation of a Soulbound Weapon, these guys would definitely not be as indifferent as they were just now.

They would pounce on it like a hungry cat.

No one in the Beast Galaxy, including the two powerful families that already have Soulbound Weapon, did not want to take the powerful Soulbound Weapon in David's hands.

No one would complain about having too many of these weapons.

The moment David revealed his Soulbound Weapon, his fate was sealed.

Even if he had two helpers, it would be useless.

There were dozens of Eternal Realm Ruler Rankers in the entire Beast Galaxy, while David only had three on his side.

The huge gap in numbers ensured that David would not be able to escape the calamity today.

The only pity was that although David, a powerful threat, could be eliminated, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan might not have the chance to get the Soulbound Weapon.

When Lucius invited other powerhouses of Beast Galaxy to help kill David, he had already lost the right to compete for the Soulbound Weapon.

This was inevitable.

If he did not get help from other races to deal with David, the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan would be on the brink of extinction even if they were not completely exterminated.

David was not bothered by Lucius' plea for help at all.

He felt that since no one was willing to come forward just now, no one would do it now since they had seen how powerful he was.

However, what David did not expect was not long after Lucius finished speaking, someone responded immediately.

"Lucius, my friend, I'm really sorry. I was busy when I received your message and that's why I got held up and came late. I hope you don't mind. Today I will help you kill your foreign enemies."

The moment the voice spoke up, another continued.

"Haha! Lucius, your race and mine have been friends, so how can I miss out on this? Since someone dares to insult the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan, it means they're looking down on us Three-Headed Hell Hounds. I'm here to help you as well."

After that, two gigantic golden beasts rushed over from the void.

Soon, they arrived at the battlefield.

The two golden beasts were strangely shaped and looked ferocious. David could not tell what species they were.

In short, there was definitely no such things on earth.

One looked a bit like a dog, but it had three heads and looked much more ferocious than a normal dog. This should be the so-called Three-Headed Hell Hound.

The other had a red face and long fangs. If one insisted on comparing it with creatures on Earth, it looked a bit like a wild boar.

However, its fangs had grown to the top of its head.

David suddenly remembered that when he first arrived here, his mind power picked up Serpentine's secret distress signal. Now, it seemed that these two vicious guys were probably the ones he was contacting.