Chapter 1423

David returned to the building on the back of the enormous tortoise.

Celia and the others all cast worried looks at him.

"Everyone, don't need to worry so much, I'm fine. With Celeste here, she will take care of everything," David comforted everyone.

Amadi also came in at this time.

"David, why did you let those guys go so easily? I was going to show them who they were messing with! It's just a level 5 civilization, how dare they have the guts to snatch my Soulbound Weapon? How reckless! Do they think Star Mansion is weak? If you didn't stop me, I would have already destroyed them just now," Amadi said, dissatisfied.

"Amadi, why bother? Benito and his clan have high prestige in the Beast Galaxy. If we force them into a dead end and they unite all the races of the Beast Galaxy to go against us, we may not be able to get away unscathed. Did you not see how Lucius and Serpentine didn't even have a chance before they were killed?" David persuaded him.

"Do you think he dares to do that? Are we the same as those two guys? Even if we lend Benito another ten guts, he wouldn't dare to attack us. Plus, with Ms. Celeste around, what can a measly level 5 civilization do?"

Amadi was still indifferent.

In his opinion, this was just a level 5 civilization.

Although he could not defeat it by himself, with Ms. Celeste, a strong Sovereign Ranker, why should he be afraid?

Would Ms. Celeste not do anything when he was being attacked?

There was no way this could happen.

Ms. Celeste and his mother were best friends for more than a thousand years, and they were even closer than most sisters.

"Amadi, there is a saying on Earth that says even a worm will turn. If Benito is faced with the threat of death, he will stake it all on one attack and go all out risking his life. Who are we? Why should we stoop to their level? Wouldn't it be better to come back to take revenge after we have the strength to crush them in the future?"

“No! David, I don’t understand whatever saying you have. Since when did I, Amadi Star, suffer such a grievance? And it’s coming from a little level 5 civilization! No! Even if I don’t kill Benito, I’m going to cripple him to give him a lesson he’ll never forget. Otherwise, I would not be satisfied, and I do not believe that he will have the guts to resist me.”

After Amadi finished speaking, he was about to turn around and go out.

David hurried forward to stop it.

“Amadi, you should bide your time and wait for the right opportunity to seek vengeance. There is no need to be in such a hurry!”

“That’s nonsense! I, Amadi Star, will always seek vengeance immediately. I can’t even wait for one day, let alone bide my time. David, don’t try to stop me.”

Amadi stormed past David and continued to walk outside.

It seemed that if he did not vent his anger today, he would not give up.

Just now, Amadi only came in because he did not want to refute David in public.

Now that he had made himself clear, he had to continue to do things according to his own heart.

Not even David could stop him.

David looked at Amadi’s determined expression. He knew that Amadi had made up his mind, and there was nothing he could do for a while.

Amadi came from a powerful force in a high-level civilization and he was even a noble first heir.

Hence, he would not bother about a level 5 civilization.

However, he did not know that he could not reverse the situation right now.

David knew Celeste’s situation, and understood that he was the one who caused it.

On the other hand, Amadi did not.

He might still think that Celeste would clean up his mess for him, so that was why he was so fearless.

‘Sigh, what is going on?’

Amadi was going to walk out.

David knew there were three scenarios if Amadi walked out.

First, the Beast Galaxy would still be scared of Celeste's voice from just now, so Benito would be willing to sacrifice himself to get Amadi's forgiveness and protect his race and the entire Beast Galaxy.

Second, Benito would be unwilling to surrender, but in order to live, the other races would kill Benito together like how they killed Lucius and Serpentine.

Third, Benito united all the races in the Beast Galaxy and fought back even if it meant that he would die.

To be honest, David felt that the first and second scenarios were the most likely.

The chances of the third one happening were near zero.

However, Amadi, who was born in a high-level civilization, was too arrogant.

The major races of the Beast Galaxy might think that he was going to attack the entire Beast Galaxy, and with Amadi's personality, he would not bother to explain even if he only wanted Benito to pay.

At that time, all the powerhouses of the Beast Galaxy might join forces to fight Amadi to death.

Since they were going to die anyway, why not fight it out?

That would be really troublesome.

'No!

'I can't let Amadi go out.

'I can't cause more trouble for Celeste!'

David walked quickly to Amadi's side.

Amadi thought that David was going to stop him again and just wanted to reject.

Unexpectedly, David said quietly, "Amadi, Celeste's situation is a bit worrying now. Let's not add to her troubles, otherwise, she will be mad if we can't clean up our own mess."

Upon hearing this, Amadi stopped in his tracks instantly.

He turned to look at David in shock.

'Ms. Celeste's situation is a bit worrying?

'What does that mean?

'How come I had no idea?'

"David, are you... Are you for real?" Amadi asked with disbelief.

"Yes," David replied seriously.

Amadi stared at David for a while, and said, "Okay, I believe you."

After finishing speaking, Amadi stopped moving forward, instead, he turned around and walked inside.

He believed that David would not joke about this.

If this were real, and something had happened to Ms. Celeste that made her unable to help, wouldn't he be asking for death if he went out to face all the Ruler rankers of the Beast Galaxy?

Amadi was arrogant, but he was not a fool.

He would not do such a stupid thing as to run to his death whilst knowing that he would be defeated.

David watched Amadi leave and let out a sigh of relief.

Then, he spoke to everyone.

"Everyone, go back and rest. The matter with the Beast Galaxy has been resolved. Next, we will start our journey, and it will take a long time to reach our destination."

"David, are you really okay?" Celia could not stop herself from asking.

"Do I look like I'm not okay? Don't worry! I'm fine. See? I'm alive and kicking."

"That's good. We won't bother you, and you should have a good rest." Celia turned around and went back to her room after speaking.

“Dave, you must be tired too. Have a good rest,” Sandy said and left.

After Pearl, Selena, Amelia, Julia, Goldie, and Ava spoke to David one by one, they all went back to their rooms to rest.

Lorraine gave David one last inexplicable look, turned, and left without saying a word.

David had no special feelings for this peerless woman who once stirred up a storm in Somerland.

They only met each other two or three times, that was all.

Everyone was gone, leaving only David standing rooted to the spot.

Now, he wanted to learn about Celeste’s situation and what was going on.

However, he felt that it would be too rash to do so.

In the end, he chose to go back to his room.

If something happened to Celeste, she should have contacted him.
