

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1434

Chapter 1434

At this time, Celeste was having a fierce battle in her heart.

In her current state, she could barely suppress the desire in her body even after using all her strength.

She might be able to make it back to the Iridescent Sect if she did not make a move in the Beast Galaxy.

Unfortunately, she could not turn back time.

She had already done it.

A gap had also been created when she suppressed her desire at that time.

Over time, the gap grew bigger and bigger.

Now, the energy was about to break out of Celeste's body.

If she did not think of a way to let the energy erupt, the consequences would be very serious.

If she wanted to temporarily suppress this energy, she needed someone who was beyond Eternal Rank to forcibly suppress it.

However, she was not in Star Kingdom, so it was impossible to find a powerhouse of this level. Therefore, she could directly reject this idea.

Alternatively, she could have intercourse with a man to circulate this energy between the two bodies, and finally, achieve a harmonious effect between the male and female bodies.

However, when it came to the current Celeste, ordinary men could no longer save her.

After all, this energy was so powerful that not everyone's body could bear it.

Besides, based on Celeste's character, she had maintained her innocence for more than a thousand years, so she could not ask any random man to have intercourse, even to save her life.

She would rather die than do that.

Only David could save her now.

The two could have spiritual intercourse like last time.

David's mind power was very strong, so he would be able to bear it.

More importantly, the two had already connected spiritually.

It would be easier for Celeste to accept it if they did it again.

Every beginning was difficult. If there was a first time, there would be a second and third time for many things.

At the very least, Celeste would not hate David.

Besides, it was not real. They were just doing this in spirit.

Now the issue was that Celeste did not know how to ask for it.

A woman asking a man to have spiritual intercourse with her that would feel almost the same as real intercourse.

She was too embarrassed to say this out loud.

Celeste calmed down slowly as the desire in her body was on the verge of exploding. Her expression also began to grow firm.

3

Celeste decided to throw caution to the wind in order to save herself and the others.

Just when David could not hold it in anymore and was about to ask about this, he heard Celeste's voice again.

"David, I have already told you very clearly how you triggered my alluring body the last time, and I will not repeat the story now. I hope you can listen carefully to what I say next.

"After you triggered the alluring body, I needed to do my best to suppress the huge desire in my body and I wasn't able to relax in the slightest.

"However, in the Beast Galaxy, you two brats drove yourself to a dead end after causing such a huge kerfuffle. I couldn't just watch you two die in front of me, so I took action because I was forced to.

“This created a gap for the desire in my body to break through. Even though I immediately suppressed it with all my strength, it still didn’t help. As time went by, the gap became bigger and bigger, and finally developed to the stage where I couldn’t hold it back anymore. If we don’t find a solution in time, the consequences will be disastrous.

“Now, you are the only one who can stop the situation from continuing to develop. What you need to do now is use your powerful mind power again and have spiritual intercourse with me like last time to achieve a harmonious effect between the male and female bodies.”

Celeste might have felt awkward when she said this. So, she paused before continuing, “However, I have to tell you now. Even though you have strong mind power, this energy in my body is not weak as well. There will be a certain risk of you doing this. As for whether you’re willing, it’s up to you. I can’t force you in this kind of thing.”

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1435

Chapter 1435

David was completely dumbfounded by what Celeste said.

In fact, he also thought that Celeste might not be able to suppress her desire anymore.

However, when she spoke out and made such a request, David was still very surprised.

He did not know how to answer.

‘If I agree now, will it make me look too eager and casual?’

‘But it will be even worse if I reject her.’

‘It’s not just about saving Celeste.’

‘This is to save me, Celia, and countless lives.’

‘Who knows what Celeste will do once she is overwhelmed by desire?’

With her terrifying strength, Celeste was an invincible existence in a low-level civilization, and it was David who triggered the alluring body.

He was also the one who forced Celeste to take action, and he was also he who got them into this situation now.

David could not find any reason to refuse at all.

However, he still needed to think about how he should say it.

He could not seem too proactive, and he could not embarrass Celeste.

David thought things through in his mind, and only a few seconds passed.

However, these few seconds made Celeste feel like years had passed.

After she finished speaking, her eyes were fixed on David, waiting for his answer.

As a result, one second... two seconds... three seconds passed.

David still did not say anything. He only frowned, and he seemed to be unwilling.

Celeste felt very mad about what David was doing. She even felt as if she had been greatly humiliated.

She was the latest head of the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect, and she was someone who would make countless geniuses and monsters fall head over heels for her.

She was making such a humiliating request now, but David was unwilling.

If she were in Star Kingdom, countless big shots would swarm at her immediately if she let the word out that she was looking for a man.

Even powerhouses who were beyond Eternal Realm would come to her.

How many people in Star Kingdom had this power?

Not more than three.

And she, Celeste, was one of them.

David had gotten such a huge opportunity and he had no idea.

That aside, David was the one who triggered Celeste's alluring body.

It was also David's decision to go to the Beast Galaxy to crush his future worries.

In the end, he attracted the attacks of dozens of Ruler Rankers. Although Amadi was largely responsible for it. David was still at fault.

'Why is he showing such a reluctant expression now that I am asking him to do a little favor for me?

'Is this really such a hassle?'

Celeste clenched her teeth. At this moment, she wanted to slap him and teach him a profound lesson.

'Who is the one suffering a disadvantage here?

'I have been chaste for more than a thousand years, and David ruined it so easily.

'I was good to him for not making a fuss.

'How dare he frown?'

In Celeste's opinion, she finally mustered up the courage to make this request.

Hence, David should not have the slightest hesitation. He should immediately show a very excited expression and then accept it with gratitude.

"What? You... don't want to?" Celeste gritted her teeth and asked in a hostile tone.

In her current extremely irritable state, it seemed as if she would fly into a rage and attack David if she was not happy with David's answer.

She wanted to show David what would happen if he enraged a Sovereign Ranker.

David was still contemplating a suitable answer when Celeste's words pulled him back to reality.

He could also sense something wrong with Celeste's tone.

He immediately replied, "No! No! Celeste, you must not misunderstand me."

"Then why are you not talking for so long? You want to reject me, don't you? David, if you don't want to, you can just say so. I won't force you. At worst, we will all die together." Celeste's tone was still as hostile as ever.

David was left speechless.

'Have I been quiet for that long?

'It should have been less than ten seconds since Celeste finished speaking just now!

'Was that too long?

'Women are truly temperamental.'

However, David could understand Celeste's situation.

Before meeting him, she was a noble Universe Enforcer with terrifying strength.

However, she was not only taken advantage of in the fantasy after she came to the Milky Way and met David, but her powerful strength was also restricted and could not be utilized. In addition, she was in constant danger of being controlled by her desire.

Anyone would be in a bad mood if they got into this situation.

David did not want to enrage Celeste even more.

Even though Celeste had a high status and was very powerful, she was still rational.

If he ran into another more unreasonable person, he might have died a long time ago.

Moreover, he held most of the responsibility for causing this to happen.

"Celeste, you have misunderstood. I was just blaming myself silently in my heart just now, so that's why I forgot to speak for a while. I am extremely sorry for causing the situation you are facing now. At the end of the day, I was the one who caused this. If it weren't for me, how would someone of your noble status and strength get to this point? I really deserve to die," David said painfully.

One must admit that he put on a good show.

The only thing he did not do was burst into tears.

This was something Celeste did not expect.

She was originally furious.

However, at this moment, most of her anger dissipated.

"So, are you saying you'll do it?"

Celeste spoke in a much lighter tone than before.

"Yes! Yes! Of course! Even if I were crushed into ashes, as long as I can help you and get you out of your current predicament, I, David Lidell, will never utter a single word of complaint, let alone face some slight danger," David patted his chest and assured.

Celeste's remaining rage completely disappeared after David said that.

Even though David was not wrong, and he did cause this, Celeste's alluring body was the main culprit!

If not, why would David lose control of his mind power?

David's current attitude was what Celeste wanted.

Even though he was just putting on a show, what he said was pleasing to the ears.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1436

Chapter 1436

"Okay, stop the nonsense. It will be a little dangerous, but with your powerful mind power, it should be easy for you. Since you have agreed, then get ready. I can't hold on for long!"

After Celeste finished speaking, there was silence.

Obviously, she also needed to be mentally prepared for what she would face next.

"Okay! Celeste, I got it."

After David finished speaking, he hurriedly rummaged through the room. He found some clothes and prepared to take a shower.

Then, he suddenly froze again.

'We're not f*cking for real. It's just a fantasy. Why should I take a bloody shower?

'Fine!'

David threw the clothes aside. Then, he lay down on the bed to slowly recompose himself.

When he was ready, he released his powerful mind power, followed Celeste's guidance, and went to a strange place.

What caught the eye was a sea of red.

'Where am I?

'Is this Celeste's boudoir?'

At this moment, a voice said, "David, close your eyes."

David followed the sound and saw Celeste not far away.

At this time, Celeste was wearing a long red dress, showing off her superb figure.

Her face was flushed, and her seductive eyes were full of charm.

David's throat moved when he saw Celeste's appearance.

"I told you to close your eyes, didn't you hear me?" Celeste said again.

"Oh! Oh! Sure!" David came back to his senses, quickly closed his eyes, and replied.

He felt that this was a pity.

"David, what we are going to do next is just suppress the desire in my body that is stimulated by my alluring body. This desire is so huge that I am already quite powerless. Once it erupts, it will slowly control my reasoning, and eventually, I will become a person completely controlled by desire. Therefore, I need your help. As long as I find a balance and harmony between our bodies, I can temporarily suppress it. I hope you don't overthink too much and don't tell anyone," Celeste said slowly.

"I understand, Celeste. Don't worry, only the two of us know about this matter, and I promise I will never tell anyone else."

"Alright, that's good. Let's get started. You must keep your eyes closed the entire time, and you cannot open them, otherwise, you will suffer the consequences."

"Uh... Okay," David replied with his eyes closed.

However, he had some regrets in his heart.

Last time, since he did not understand what was going on, he was very nervous. Hence, he did not take a closer look at the view covered by Celeste's red dress.

He thought he could appreciate it this time.

Unexpectedly, he had to keep his eyes closed.

Since David's eyes were closed in the fantasy, he could only stand on the spot.

Not long after, David smelled a sweet fragrance.

He knew it was Celeste.

Then, he was hugged by a soft and plump body.

Celeste rested her head on David's shoulder, touched David's ear with her lips, and blew into it.

David's body trembled suddenly, and at that moment, he felt a burst of electricity spread throughout his body.

As he recalled Celeste's coquettish appearance, David felt like the most primitive desire in his body was about to be summoned. His skin began to heat up slowly.

This was Celeste's goal.

If she wanted to use David to harmonize the energy in her body and suppress it again, she had to draw out the desire in David's body too.

In reality, as long as David opened his eyes and looked at her current appearance for a while, she could achieve better results without doing these things.

Celeste thought of this too at first.

She figured she should close her eyes and let David do whatever he wanted.