

I Want A Lifetime With You Chapter 536 - 540

Chapter 536 Dispute Between Sisters

Shen Shixiu's pupils moved slightly. In spite of that, he did not reply to Shen Qianan. "It's late. Jiang Zhan and I will send you back!"

Clearly, the former did not want to answer Shen Qianan's question. Shen Qianan understood Shen Shixiu's character perfectly, so she obviously realized that. Hence, no matter what Shen Qianan did, her brother would not give her the answer she sought. Thus, she did not probe further. "Do help me to look after Yu then. I'll be back soon!"

Shen Qianan went down the stairs and saw that Jiang Zhan was waiting for her. Hurriedly, the latter opened the door for her and said, "Ms. Qianan, please board the car!"

Shen Qianan nodded. However, the moment she went into the car, she regretted it. However, the woman comprehended that at that moment, she could not change her mind. She still wanted to see Shi Nuan. She wanted to visit the person who had a similar fate as her, which was the younger sister whom she had been separated from for more than twenty years.

Shen Qianan had never known that she had a biological sister, so she found the entire situation very intriguing. She recalled that not long ago, they had even been hostile toward one another due to Fu Chengyan.

In hindsight, that was not the case. Shi Nuan had always been extremely calm, while she had been like a clown that showed off her strength in front of the other party. Suddenly, Shen Qianan wanted to find out how Shi Nuan viewed her.

"Ms. Qianan, we are here!"

Jiang Zhan stopped the car outside the hospital's entrance and opened the door for Shen Qianan. Thereafter, he trailed behind her.

"Mr. Jiang," Shen Qianan said, after a moment. She quickly stopped in her tracks and turned to look at the assistant. "You don't have to follow me."

"Oh, okay!" Jiang Zhan nodded. Then, he added, "Ms. Shi is in this hospital room!" After passing the paper slip to Shen Qianan, he remarked, "You can visit her by yourself. I'll wait for you downstairs!"

"All right. I'll return swiftly. I'm sorry for troubling you, Mr. Jiang!"

Subsequently, Shen Qianan approached the hospital building.

Previously, Shi Nuan was openly kidnapped while she was in the hospital, so Fu Chengyan ordered his men to surround the hospital this time. He dispatched many subordinates to guard the area around Shi Nuan's hospital room and to hide in obscure places near it.

Therefore, Fu Chengyan had heard the news the minute Shen Qianan had set foot in the hospital. Actually, Shen Shixiu had called him earlier on to tell Fu Chengyan that Shen Qianan was visiting Shi Nuan.

After that, Fu Chengyan commanded his men who were protecting Shi Nuan to retreat. He did not want to disturb Shi Nuan and Shen Qianan as they conversed.

When Shen Qianan arrived at the hospital, she discovered that the place was very quiet. The lady was unaware that everyone who entered the hospital then was observed by Fu Chengyan's troops, so she could not do anything to Shi Nuan.

Shen Qianan was a little nervous. Clenching her fists, she noticed that the corridors of the hospital were unusually silent.

Inhaling deeply, Shen Qianan stopped walking when she reached the door of Shi Nuan's room.

Standing outside, she peeked at the window and noticed that Shi Nuan had awoken. One of her hands had an IV drip attached to it, and the other hand was holding a magazine that the latter was reading intently. She did not appear to have detected Shen Qianan's presence.

Perhaps Shi Nuan was tired, for she stretched her neck. Nonetheless, she immediately felt tremendous pain in her body. This caused her to hunch over in agony. Consequently, the magazine in her hand dropped onto the floor.

Shen Qianan looked at Shi Nuan through the window. The latter appeared to suffer greatly as she held her stomach with one hand and pressed a button with another hand.

Shi Nuan seemed very uncomfortable. Standing outside the room, Shen Qianan had also appeared to feel the pain her sister felt. It tormented her to the point that she almost stopped breathing.

The door was speedily pushed open. Shen Qianan rushed into the room and asked, "Are you all right?"

Hearing the clear and melodic voice above her, Shi Nuan was stunned. She instantly raised her head and locked eyes with Shen Qianan. When she realized who the person in the room was, the agony in her eyes was replaced with confusion. "You..." Why did Shen Qianan come here?

Before Shi Nuan finished speaking, she bent over in pain. The lady seemed as if she was suffering a lot.

"Are you okay? Did your disease flare up again?"

"Flare up?" Shi Nuan stared at Shen Qianan and questioned, "What do you mean?"

Then, she explained, "It's just fetal activity. The child in my body is very mischievous!" Shi Nuan glanced at Shen Qianan worriedly. Following that, the worry turned to confusion. "Why're you here?" she asked.

Shi Nuan did not expect to interact frequently with Shen Qianan. Of course, she assumed that the latter did not know about their kinship. Hence, Shi Nuan was clueless as to why Shen Qianan would visit her.

However, she felt as if Shen Qianan was looking at her oddly, so she continued speaking. "I'm pregnant with twins, so my belly looks much bigger than normal. The two kids are very naughty, so..."

"Oh!" Shen Qianan exclaimed. She thought that Shi Nuan's illness had started acting up again. Nevertheless, is Shi Nuan kept in the dark about her ailment?

As Shen Qianan thought about it, she looked at Shi Nuan once more. The expression on her face changed.

Meanwhile, Shi Nuan turned her away from Shen Qianan and sucked in a deep breath. Her fingers clenched into a fist and she forced herself to ignore the pain. After a long pause, she overcame the agony while gritting her teeth.

Shi Nuan grinned at Shen Qianan and said, "So, what's the purpose of your visit?"

"I... I heard that you had gotten into an accident, so I came to visit you." Shen Qianan did not know how to talk to Shi Nuan at the moment. When she gazed upon her sister's face, which looked similar to hers, she felt a strange feeling in her heart.

Initially, when she was unaware that Shi Nuan and her were sisters, Shen Qianan felt resentful. This was so because they looked similar to each other, and she was a replacement for Shi Nuan.

Nonetheless, the minute she realized Shi Nuan was Shu Qing's daughter, an indescribable feeling grew in Shen Qianan's heart. Yet, she still did not like the other woman. Presently, when she saw Shi Nuan again, Shen Qianan thought that everything did not matter to her anymore in the face of life and death.

Hence, she said, "I've discovered the truth."

Thereafter, Shi Nuan flinched. She raised her head to look at Shen Qianan again.

After that, she burst out laughing abruptly. "I see!" So that's why Qianan has been looking at me weirdly.

At first, she thought that the other party was pitying her, but since Shen Qianan had told her what had happened, she was relieved. "How did you find out about it?"

"Shen Shixiu spoke to me!" Calmly, Shen Qianan stared at Shi Nuan and inquired, "Well, did you realize it a long time ago?"

Shi Nuan shook her head. "I only found out about it recently." She thought that Shen Shixiu would inform Shen Qianan eventually, but she did not know that the man would tell her that then. "So, I'm sure the purpose of your visit isn't just to check up on me, right?"

Actually, Shi Nuan was not as serene as she had presented herself to be. After all, the person in front of her was her older sister. They had been separated for many years, but they did not interact with one another for a long time. Although there was no affection between them, they were still related by blood. Hence, she wanted to know how Shen Qianan viewed her.

Shen Qianan gripped her fist tightly. Upon witnessing Shi Nuan's calm demeanor, she uttered, "Honestly, I admire you quite a bit. Back then, I was jealous of you. Now, I admire you."

Uncertain, Shi Nuan glanced at Shen Qianan. The other woman smiled at her. "At that time, I was so dedicated to Fu Chengyan, but he did not like me at all. In truth, why would I be unaware that he didn't love me? However, he was willing to have me by his side, so I thought that I was different from others. Hence, I wouldn't care who was with him because I told myself that I would just get rid of them. He pretended not to know what was happening and seemed to approve of what I was doing. Naively, I assumed that I was special in Fu Chengyan's eyes due to that."

She added, "I thought that even if he didn't love me, I'd be contented to stay by his side like this. However, later on..."

"Later on?" Shi Nuan paused. Then, she seemed to have realized something and said, "You met Yu's biological father after that?"

Shen Qianan was briefly astounded at Shi Nuan's words. Following that, she chuckled helplessly. "Aren't I funny? I said that I loved Fu Chengyan but birthed someone else's child later on. I don't even know what that man looks like."

As she spoke, Shen Qianan's gaze was a little self-deprecating. "However, I had no choice. When I met him, I was undergoing a painful period. Ironically, it was also my happiest period at the time." Shen Qianan glanced at Shi Nuan and continued speaking. "You're lucky. Although your parents have abandoned you, you had two grandfathers who loved you. You even had Fu Chengyan! What about me? The person kidnapped me to threaten Fu Chengyan. I was just a part of his game."

Shi Nuan peered at Shen Qianan and asked, "Do you love him?"

In response, Shen Qianan jerked back slightly. Subsequently, she shook her head and muttered, "I don't know."

"Why did you return to the country then?" Shi Nuan questioned.

The other party replied, "I wasn't happy. Why was I the only victim in the kidnapping case four years ago? Thus, I needed to seek out Fu Chengyan."

"So you returned. You returned to Yan because you wanted the perpetrator to come back?" Shi Nuan did not know if her guess was correct, but when she observed Shen Qianan's face, she thought that her assumption was spot on. "You love that man," Shi Nuan remarked.

Unexpectedly, Shen Qianan chortled. "Maybe!" She did not retort nor confess her feelings to Shi Nuan.

Love?

Shen Qianan was unsure if she actually loved that man. Yet, she could not comprehend how she could continue living her life like this. Sometimes, when she gazed at Yu's face, she wondered if that man had a similar face as her son.

"Shi Nuan, do you hate me?" Shen Qianan pondered aloud.

Shi Nuan trembled slightly. "Why would I hate you?"

Shen Qianan moved her lips wordlessly. Thereafter, she began speaking. "My obsession with Fu Chengyan has vanished after all these years. In spite of all that, I envy you, for Fu Chengyan kept me by his side because I looked like you. Moreover, he was repaying me for rescuing him that year." As she thought about it, Shen Qianan found the situation very laughable. She voiced out, "I hated you."

Shi Nuan fell silent. She did not expect her to say that.

"I-"

"The person who took you away was wearing a mask, right?" Shen Qianan interrupted Shi Nuan's words. Shi Nuan hesitated for a while before nodding quickly. "Yes," she said.

"Okay." Shen Qianan stood up. She declared, "I'm at ease now since you're all right. It's late, so I'll have to return and look after Yu! If he doesn't see me when he wakes up, he'll cry."

I Want A Lifetime With You Chapter 537

Chapter 537 What Are You Doing

Shen Qianan had a heavy heart after she came out of Shi Nuan's room. A figure suddenly appeared in front of the former, and she looked at the man, surprised. Zhou Zheng nodded slightly and said, "Ms. Shen, Mr. Fu would like to see you."

"Okay," she replied with a nod. She took a glance at the ward and added. "Um... it seemed like Shi Nuan had an episode just now." Zhou Zheng nodded. "Mr. Fu is already aware of that. Don't worry, Ms. Shen. There's nothing to be worried about for now."

Shen Qianan heaved a sigh of relief after hearing that. "Please bring me to see Fu Chengyan right away, Mr. Zhou." The truth was, Fu Chengyan had been in the ward next to Shi Nuan's the entire time. Because he couldn't help but worry, he had arranged for security to guard Shi Nuan's ward while he sat next door.

Zhou Zheng pushed open the door and signaled Shen Qianan to enter. Shen Qianan saw Fu Chengyan sitting on the couch with his eyes glued to the surveillance monitor. As she walked toward him, she saw the monitor was a surveillance image of Shi Nuan's ward.

Shi Nuan struggled to lie back down after Shen Qianan left. Fu Chengyan watched as both his hands clenched into fists. He raised his head to look at Shen Qianan and pointed to the chair opposite him. "Please, have a seat."

Shen Qianan hesitated for a moment before she nodded and took a seat in front of him. "Were you the one who asked Shen Shixiu to bring me here? Tell me, what do you need me to do?"

Shen Qianan knew that if it wasn't for Shi Nuan, Fu Chengyan would definitely not want to see her again, let alone be in the same room as him.

Fu Chengyan was surprised by how calm Shen Qianan was acting. He waved his hand, signaling Zhou Zheng to leave the room and watch Shi Nuan closely. Then, Fu Chengyan's eyes were pinned on Shen Qianan. "May is your biological sister."

Shen Qianan pinched her palm. "Yeah, so what? You didn't even bother to seek me out before, Mr. Fu. Yet, you want to see me now. Unless--"

"Fu Sijue." Fu Chengyan interrupted. He took a pack of cigarettes from the pocket of his pants and took one out of the packet. However, he didn't light it and only held it between his fingers.

Shen Qianan knew that this was one of the few actions Fu Chengyan used when he was in deep thought. She often saw him do that when they were still together. He usually only does this when being met with a tricky situation. Not to mention Shi Nuan's pregnant now, so he should've already quit smoking. It must be something really difficult for him to act like this again.

Shen Qianan suddenly became stunned when she heard Fu Chengyan mention Fu Sijue. She looked at Fu Chengyan dumbfounded as she clenched her fists. "What are you implying?"

"The masked man who kidnapped you was the same man who kidnapped May. I'm sure you're aware of this by now," Fu Chengyan said, staring at Shen Qianan.

Shen Qianan wasn't sure what Fu Chengyan's motive was, but she couldn't help but think of Jue when she heard Fu Sijue's name. She didn't think it was a coincidence at all. He refused to tell me his name when I was with him back then and only asked me to call him Jue.

Hence, she subconsciously thought of Jue when she heard Fu Sijue.

Shen Qianan pursed her lips without saying a word. Fu Chengyan on the other hand, was pinning his gaze on her, unwilling to miss any change of expression on her face.

"Have you heard of Fu Sijue before?"

Shen Qianan shook her head. "Nope!" she replied, looking away – her eyes afraid to meet Fu Chengyan's.

His stern eyes fell on Shen Qianan's body and seeing how anxious she was, Fu Chengyan was more sure than ever.

"How about J? I'm sure you know him!"

Shen Qianan couldn't help but tighten her grip as her face fell pale. "Just tell me why I'm here, Fu Chengyan."

He laughed and said, "I'm a businessman; I'm sure you should know me very well by now. One thing I love is to make deals with someone smart." Seeing the confused look on Shen Qianan's face, he stood up and put his hands in his pockets.

Standing with his back facing Shen Qianan, he looked out the window. "Fu Sijue is from the Fu clan. I'm not sure why he had to do that to May, but regardless of what happened now or him kidnapping you back then, he just wants to provoke me."

"So what? Fu Chengyan, you should understand if it wasn't for you back then, I wouldn't have been kidnapped!" Shen Qianan wasn't easily fooled.

I might not know what his next move is, but he must have a plan in mind if he sought me out. In the past, I probably would've done everything for him. Alas, I'm no longer the Shen Qianan I used to be. I don't love him anymore, and Yu still needs me.

"Not only May, but even Pei Huan and Bao were injected with the virus by him." Fu Chengyan turned around and his eyes fell on Shen Qianan's face, which looked uncannily like Shi Nuan's. Squeezing his fists, he asked, "How much do you think he cares about you?"

"What do you think you're doing?" Shen Qianan's face abruptly drained of all color.

"He hurt my sister, my child, and now, my wife. What do you think I'm going to do?"

Shen Qianan was flabbergasted by how calm Fu Chengyan looked. "Yu and I... are innocent, Fu Chengyan!"

"I don't wish to hurt the both of you, but only you can goad him out right now." Fu Chengyan walked to the coffee table and handed a document to Shen Qianan. "It wasn't Shen Shixiu and me when you got into trouble in C Country!"

Shen Qianan fell stunned. She took the document from Fu Chengyan's hands and after going through the first sheet, she threw it away with her hands trembling.

Suddenly, she started laughing and eventually began to cry. "Fu Chengyan, you're a coldhearted man." He knew what happened four years ago was like a thorn in my heart. Even if I refused to admit it, I can't ignore the relationship I had with Jue. Whether it was love or hate, he's still the man I care deeply for.

"Aren't you afraid that once you've given me this information, I'd refuse to help you and side him instead?"

Fu Chengyan frowned and his dark eyes fell on Shen Qianan's body once more. As he kept silent, the room was terrifyingly quiet. Shen Qianan preferred Fu Chengyan angry, compared to how he acted before. At least it makes him seem like any other ordinary person.

However, the way Fu Chengyan was gloomily staring at Shen Qianan made the latter panic and anxious. I doubt he realizes how much of a cold force he has.

Shen Qianan could feel her fingertips shaking and tried clenching her fists to calm herself down. "He's Yu's father."

"I'm sure you'll agree with what I want to do." With that, Fu Chengyan stopped staring at Shen Qianan.

Standing there, Shen Qianan saw Fu Chengyan heading toward the door of the ward about to leave and called out, "Fu Chengyan!"

He held the door with one hand without moving or turning around.

Shen Qianan clenched and loosened her fists repeatedly. The ward was so silent that she could hear her ears ringing. Finally, after taking a deep breath, she muttered, "It's late now, so I'll be here in the morning to take my blood test."

"Okay." Fu Chengyan's expression was slightly more relaxed. "But you need to promise me something!"

Shen Qianan paused for what felt like forever and uttered, "Yu's my life."

"Wonderful."

Shen Qianan began laughing. Her laugh might not be very loud in such a quiet ward, but Fu Chengyan couldn't help but turn around to look at her.

Shen Qianan also looked at him and said, "Sometimes, I'm really jealous of Shi Nuan to have a man who loves her so much. But, Fu Chengyan, does she know what you look like when you're staining your hands with blood?"

Fu Chengyan narrowed his eyes. "No, she doesn't, and she will never need to know."

Shen Qianan smiled again and lowered her head, hiding the loneliness in her eyes. "Thankfully, I stopped loving you way back then. Who knows what I would've become? You should go see her now. I think she had an episode earlier," Shen Qianan spoke softly.

Fu Chengyan furrowed his brows after hearing those words and immediately disappeared from Shen Qianan's sight.

Zhou Zheng knocked on the door. "Ms. Shen, let me take you home."

"There's no need for that. Jiang Zhan's waiting for me downstairs!" Shen Qianan refused Zhou Zheng's offer and smiled. "I'll get going now."

Zhou Zheng watched as Shen Qianan slowly disappeared from the corridor. He couldn't help but frown after noticing something was wrong with Shen Qianan.

Shen Qianan's eyes were brimming with tears when she walked out of the hospital. Under the dim light, no one would've noticed her expression if they didn't pay attention.

Naturally, Jiang Zhan didn't notice it either. Shen Qianan walked to the car and quickly hopped in after opening the door. "Let's go, Mr. Jiang."

There was a hint of a nasal tone when she spoke, but Jiang Zhan wasn't paying attention.

Shen Qianan kept her head low the entire time, and no one knew what she was thinking about. Once they arrived below her apartment, Jiang Zhan opened the door for her. Without saying another word, Shen Qianan went upstairs with her head still down.

She opened the door to her house, and there was a small light on that wasn't very bright.

After changing her shoes at the entrance, she walked in and saw Shen Shixiu sitting in the living room. The latter sat motionless in the slightly dim living room, staring at her intensely.

Shen Qianan felt a little uncomfortable when Shen Shixiu looked at her. Touching her hair subconsciously, she pinned the messy hair behind her ear and walked over to him. "I'm back. Thank you for minding Yu for me."

Although her voice was very soft, Shen Shixiu could tell something was off. He frowned slightly and nodded. "How was Nuan?"

Shen Qianan nodded as her eyes flashed. "It's getting late. If there's nothing else, I'd like to get some rest."

"What did Nuan say?" Shen Shixiu asked, interrupting Shen Qianan.

Pursing her lips, she answered, "It seemed like she wasn't aware of her virus." She paused for a moment before she continued. "I'm going to take a blood test at the hospital tomorrow!"

I Want A Lifetime With You Chapter 538

Chapter 538 Dream

Shen Qianan did not sleep well that night. Her head felt heavy, and her mind was confused as if someone had replaced her brain with something. She kept thinking about her identity and relationship with Shi Nuan and Su Huaibei.

The connection between everyone in her dream was not clear, nor did she know what she wanted to do, but she could picture their faces vividly. She saw Shi Nuan, Shen Shixiu, Su Huaibei, and Shu Qing. Many people flashed across her mind in her dream and disappeared without a trace after a split second.

She wanted to chase after them, but they were moving too fast. She failed to catch up to them even as she sprinted. Shen Qianan felt as if she was shrouded in a thick fog, staring at their figures getting further away.

Then, she ran faster and saw Yu. Yu smiled sheepishly at her amidst the dense fog, waving her over. She could hear him calling her “Mommy” in his sweet voice. She jogged toward him in exhilaration but noticed that Yu was gone when she got closer. Instead, a tall and muscular man appeared before her.

She could not discern that man’s face even though he was not wearing a mask. Shen Qianan thought she was standing too far, so she went a little closer. However, regardless of her attempt to get nearer to him, that man would always take a few steps back, keeping a distance from her.

She stretched out her hand and lurched forward to grab him, but her effort was for naught.

Shen Qianan lay on the bed with her eyes shut. She felt as if she was undulating on the surface of the sea. That sensation gave her the false impression that she was floating on clouds. She went after that man, desperate to move forward, but merely felt herself landing heavily on the ground as if she was free-falling while taking an elevator.

Finally, she was able to see that man’s face clearly. He had a chiseled jawline and distinctive facial features. She walked up to him, wearing a dazzling smile. “Jue,” she called him by his name. The word slipped out of her mouth naturally in her dream.

When that man heard her voice, he stopped abruptly and stood rooted to his spot, fixating his eyes on her. “Qian!”

Shen Qianan shuddered. Before she could say another word, the scenes around her suddenly changed. A woman who looked exactly like her stood in front of her. A man was restraining that woman. Shen Qianan instinctively stepped forward to separate them. She saw that man taking out a gun and pointing the muzzle at the woman who shared her appearance. Without a second thought, she rushed ahead hysterically and stood in front of the woman. “Shi Nuan!”

She was taken aback when the bullet went through her body. Subsequently, that man came running in her direction and called her, "Qian." His voice rang distinctly beside her ears. She fell into his arms, grinning. "Fu Sijue."

Blood gushed out from the wound on her chest, staining her entire body and his torso. He held her tightly in his arms. Then, a knife materialized in her hand. She stabbed the knife right into his heart. It was a gory sight.

"Ahh!"

Shen Qianan sat up on her bed all of a sudden. She gazed ahead of her in a daze.

Sunlight was already pouring in through the window. She was shivering, and her hands were trembling.

Shen Qianan finally accustomed her eyes to the brightly-lit room before shifting her gaze to look at her hands.

Her hands were still shaking. That response seemed to be her body's reflexes of telling her that what she imagined in her head earlier was not just a dream.

Shen Qianan stared dumbfoundedly at her hands. Although she knew that it was a dream, the scenes were simply too realistic, to the extent that she could not erase those images from her mind, nor could she convince herself that it was merely a dream.

That man who had appeared in her dream had seemed so real. He had called her Qian.

Qian!

A grin spread across Shen Qianan's face.

Her whole life, people had referred to her as Ms. Qianan, Shen Qianan, or Qianan. Even during that period when she was closest to Fu Cheng Yan, the latter had at most addressed her as Qianan. Qian was the name used only by that man.

She placed a hand over her forehead and shut her eyes.

In fact, Shen Qianan had not thought about her kidnapping incident four years ago after so many years had passed. She was reluctant to recall how she had survived those few months. Still, the memories inexplicably resurfaced within her mind after she met with Shi Nuan yesterday and was informed of all those things, including the news that he had been secretly keeping an eye on her while she was at C Country in the past few years.

Shen Qianan did not know the proper way to handle those emotions. She felt at a loss for having to face all these issues all of a sudden.

"Mommy!"

Yu held Shen Qianan's finger with one hand while rubbing his groggy eyes with the others. Evidently, he had just woken up.

Shen Qianan was pulled back to reality. Warmth filled her chest at the sight of Yu's adorable demeanor. She had temporarily tossed her dream to the back of her mind. "You're awake, Yu?" She reached out to pinch his nose. He clicked his tongue in response and stretched his arms wide. "Mommy, hug me."

Shen Qianan agreed to hug him. She held Yu in her embrace, and the latter wriggled mischievously in her arms. "Mommy, I'm hungry."

"Get up then. I'll bring you to meet someone today."

"Who's that?" Yu blinked his eyes at her. Shen Qianan's heart softened at that sight. She thought he was the cutest boy ever. She patted his head and said, "Your aunt. I'm bringing you to meet your aunt!"

"Aunt? What is an aunt?" Yu was very young and had been living with Shen Qianan since he was little. He was not familiar with the word "aunt" because he did not grow up with any other relatives.

She was momentarily dazed before she let out a chuckle and pinched his nose. "My younger sister is your aunt. She's your biological aunt."

"Mommy's younger sister?" Yu blinked at her. "When did you get a younger sister?"

"Yes, that's right. I reunited with her yesterday. Are you happy, Yu? Your aunt is my younger sister, and she's related to me by blood. However, we've never known or met one another before. I'll bring you to see her today. What do you say, Yu?"

"All right. Sure. I like Mommy, and I'll like my aunt too!" Naturally, Yu was delighted upon hearing that.

Yu did not have many friends since he was small, so he was thrilled to learn that he had an aunt now.

Shen Qianan helped Yu get washed up and brought him to have his meal at a breakfast shop outside. Then, the two of them went to the hospital leisurely.

She was able to locate Shi Nuan's ward very quickly because she had visited that place yesterday.

Before going to the hospital, Shen Qianan deliberately brought Yu to a flower shop and purchased a bouquet of baby's breath. The flower had a faint fragrance and was not overly striking in appearance.

Shen Qianan held Yu with one hand while holding the bouquet of flowers in the other hand. Yu wanted to have his own flowers, too, when he saw his mother having one. Therefore, she purchased a small bouquet for him to hold too. The two of them walked on the corridors inside the hospital, turning heads in their direction on their way to the ward.

Fu Cheng Yan knew Shen Qianan was coming that day. He instructed his bodyguards to stay hidden nearby, so the room was no different from an ordinary ward.

Shen Qianan chatted casually with Yu along the way. He wore a coy and shy expression, holding his mother's hand as they strolled. "Mommy, will my aunt like me?"

"She will. You're so adorable, so she will definitely like you." Shen Qianan crouched down and punched Yu's nose. "Remember to greet your aunt when you meet her later, all right?"

"Okay. Since my aunt likes me, I like her very much too!"

"You're so cheeky!" She could not help but smile in response. She hesitated briefly before she knocked on the door when they arrived in front of Shi Nuan's ward. Still, she pushed open the door and walked inside.

Shi Nuan was awake at that moment. She was reading a book in silence while Fu Chengyan was staring at his laptop, handling work-related matters on a couch placed in the corner of the room. Shen Qianan felt a pang of envy, taking in that scene although the couple was not engaged in a conversation.

They appeared harmonious together. Even though Fu Chengyan was absorbed in his work, his demeanor was gentle and relaxed. He did not seem cold and distant, as he usually did whenever he was with Shen Qianan.

Shen Qianan slightly pursed her lips and entered the ward while holding Yu's hand.

Shi Nuan placed the book in her hands down. She was slightly astounded to see Shen Qianan and Yu's arrival. "You're early?"

"I know, but Yu has been pestering me to bring him to meet with you." Shen Qianan lowered herself into a half-squat and tugged her son's hand. "This is your aunt. Did you not promise me that you would greet your aunt when you meet her? Why are you being so quiet now?"

Her voice was soft. She caressed Yu's head and said, "You can move closer to your aunt."

Yu had seen Shi Nuan before, but they were at the Fu residence. Moreover, Shen Qianan had not specifically reminded him to greet Shi Nuan. Children tended to be forgetful. When Yu saw Shi Nuan's face, he blinked his eyes and cocked his head in perplexity. "Mommy, why does my aunt look exactly like you?"

Yu hesitated. He gazed at Shen Qianan as if to seek his mother's assurance.

Shen Qianan beamed at him. "Go ahead."

Yu stepped forward and handed the tiny bouquet of baby's breath to Shi Nuan in embarrassment. "Aunt Nuan, this is a present from me. Do you like it?"

"Of course. You're such a good boy, Yu." Shi Nuan bent down, picked Yu up, and placed him at her bedside.

Fu Chengyan was silent all along. However, he furrowed his brows when he saw Shi Nuan holding Yu up.

Shi Nuan sensed the changes in Fu Chengyan's expression. She was bewildered for a split second before shifting her gaze onto her stomach. "I'm fine. Yu is very light."

Fu Chengyan was unconvinced. He continued to wear the frown, seemingly in displeasure. Nonetheless, he did not blatantly express his dissatisfaction.

Shen Qianan felt a little awkward. At that moment, Shi Nuan piped up, "Don't just stand there. Take a seat." Then, she looked at Fu Chengyan. "Yan, pour a cup of water for my sister."

After the words left Shi Nuan's mouth, she felt as if the air had gone completely still inside the ward. Shen Qianan stood rooted to her spot in silence. She did not expect Shi Nuan to address her in that manner. Fu Chengyan fell into a daze after listening to Shi Nuan too, but he swiftly recollected himself and nodded. "Please take a seat. I'll pour you a glass of water."

He really stopped focusing on his work while uttering those words and got up to pour Shen Qianan a glass of water. After that, he gazed at Yu, who was standing next to Shi Nuan, and asked, "Have you had your breakfast?"

Chapter 539 Sisters

Shen Qianan was taken aback by Fu Chengyan's actions. That was because he would never ask her such things even when they had no ill feelings toward each other. It was no wonder that Shen Qianan thought she had seen a ghost when Fu Chengyan talked to her so politely.

However, Shen Qianan thought about it and figured it was because of Shi Nuan. Shen Qianan nodded. "I have. How about you and Nuan?"

"We have." Fu Chengyan nodded as well. Maybe it was because of his presence that the surrounding atmosphere was a bit weird. Shen Qianan still had a complicated relationship with him that she could not describe. Although she did not have any feelings toward him anymore, she felt awkward around him for she used to be crazy in love with him.

Fu Chengyan was not someone who did not know how to read the atmosphere. He turned his head to look at Shi Nuan, who nodded. "I feel like having some dessert. Could you buy some cake for me, Yan?"

Fu Chengyan looked deeply into Shi Nuan's eyes. She scratched her head when she noticed how he was staring at her. Mirth bloomed in Fu Chengyan's eyes and he nodded. "I'll be back!" he said as he held Shi Nuan's hands.

Fu Chengyan then glanced at Shen Qianan and Yu before leaving.

Shen Qianan was instantly relieved when Fu Chengyan left. Her reaction was noticed by Shi Nuan, who smiled. "Um... Come and sit, Qianan."

Although they have already accepted each other as sisters, both of them still found it weird. However, neither of them thought that this change was a negative one. To be honest, after talking about it, things were not as awkward anymore.

Shi Nuan looked to be someone who adored kids. Before this, Shen Qianan had seen how Shi Nuan interacted with Cheng An. She knew that Shi Nuan would treat any child well.

Shi Nuan lightly pinched Yu's hands. It was soft and warm. His hands were not the same as Cheng An's daughter's but were pretty similar to Bao's. Bao was probably around the same age as Yu. Upon thinking of that, Shi Nuan's gaze toward Yu softened.

When Shen Qianan saw their little interaction, she was delighted. She started talking about her childhood to Shi Nuan. Everyone was smart enough to avoid speaking of bad experiences.

Shen Qianan spoke about how she was actually treated very well by the Shen family. All of them were nice to her. It was only after she grew up that she found out she was the daughter of a mistress. Therefore, there was a period of time when she was very rebellious. Moreover, Shen Qianan was very afraid of Shen Shixiu when he returned. After causing a ruckus in the Shen family, Shen Qianan ran away.

Shen Qianan was young then. There was nothing she did not dare to do. However, after coming out and experiencing more, the world struck her.

"What about you? How did you and Fu Chengyan meet?" Shen Qianan was actually curious about why Fu Chengyan was so adamant about marrying Shi Nuan. Shen Qianan had been by Fu Chengyan's side for many years and had experienced many things together with him. She thought that she knew Fu Chengyan like the back of her hand. However, Shen Qianan realized in the end that she did not know him at all.

Moreover, Shen Qianan had no idea when Fu Chengyan and Shi Nuan met. Logically, they should have met before Shen Qianan met him. That was because in the few years that she knew Fu Chengyan, she was well aware of the people who had been trying to pursue him. Fu Chengyan had also given her his consent to sort out her affairs. Therefore, Shen Qianan was confident that she did not know about Shi Nuan during that time.

Thus, the only logical explanation was that Shi Nuan and Fu Chengyan met before Shen Qianan did. That would explain why Fu Chengyan was dumbfounded when she saved him. Although he did not say anything, he really treated Shen Qianan well during that period of time. Fu Chengyan would always agree to whatever she wanted.

Shen Qianan looked at Shi Nuan firmly. However, Shi Nuan was pretty confused about it herself. Because according to her own memories, Shi Nuan should have met Fu Chengyan after being betrayed by Fu Xicheng. Before that incident happened, Shi Nuan actually did not have any recollection of Fu Chengyan.

Shi Nuan was confident that her memory was not that bad. With how brilliant Fu Chengyan was, there was no way that she would not remember her first encounter with him.

Shi Nuan pursed her lips. She looked kind of anxious.

When Shen Qianan noticed Shi Nuan's look, she quickly said, "It's all right if you don't want to talk about it. I don't have to know. I was just asking." At that moment in time, Shen Qianan had already put those things behind her.

Shi Nuan shook her head instead. "It's not something that I can't talk about. It's just really odd because I can't remember the first time we met. According to Yan, he had known me for a very long time, but the only memories I had of him were a year ago."

The more she tried to think about it, the more tangled up her thoughts were. Shi Nuan was a bit troubled by it. Furthermore, Shi Nuan realized that after being released from her abduction, her memory sometimes became muddled, and would forget things every once in a while. However, she would also recall memories that were unfamiliar to her. Those fragmented memories frightened Shi Nuan a little. She did not tell Fu Chengyan about these.

Now that Shen Qianan had brought it up, Shi Nuan would feel a headache whenever she tried to think about it.

"Maybe Fu Chengyan knew you, but you didn't know him?" Shen Qianan quickly poured a cup of warm water for Shi Nuan. "Have a cup of water and relax. Don't force yourself to think when you can't remember."

"You probably didn't know this, but Yan was Granddad's student. Granddad used to be a lecturer at Jing University. Yan was incredibly brilliant and skipped a few grades. He was only around fifteen or sixteen when he enrolled in the university. Granddad said that Yan left the country after studying for a year or two. I think I might have known him during that time. But I was probably around twelve then?" Upon speaking, Shi Nuan's face had turned pale.

"Okay, you don't have to remember if you can't. You look happy with him right now. There's no need to remember things that don't matter." When Shen Qianan saw how frustrated Shi Nuan was, Shen Qianan could not bear to let Shi Nuan think about it any further.

With a pale face, Shi Nuan nodded. "I'm sorry."

"What nonsense are you speaking?" Shen Qianan smiled. "To be honest... I'm the one that's feeling embarrassed in front of you."

"Why?" Shi Nuan was surprised.

Shen Qianan looked at Yu climbing onto the bed. He clung to Shi Nuan and tugged her finger. "Aunt Nuan, you look as pretty as Mommy!"

Shi Nuan paused in shock for a moment before laughing. "You're right. That's cause I'm your mommy's sister. If Mommy is pretty, I will be pretty too!" Shi Nuan could not stop herself from pinching Yu's nose. However, Yu was unfazed by her explanation. Instead, he was slightly annoyed. "Why are you pinching my nose as Mommy does?"

Shi Nuan was dumbfounded, and she looked up at Shen Qianan. The latter had a similar expression but soon snapped out of it. "That's 'cause you're adorable Yu," Shen Qianan said.

Shi Nuan reached out and pulled Yu into her embrace. She gently stroked Yu's cheeks and forehead. "Qianan, Yu's father..."

Shen Qianan fell silent for a moment. "I don't know who he is."

Shi Nuan nodded and no longer dwelled on the topic.

The sisters continued chatting the entire morning. Their conversations were random and bizarre. However, they seemed to grow closer to each other after it, no longer as estranged as how they were previously.

Meanwhile, Fu Chengyan and Su Shaoqing were in the room beside them watching the two women and the young child on the screen. It was rare that both of them had remained silent.

Su Shaoqing was holding Shi Nuan's medical report in his hands. There was also a file at his side that contained the analysis of Su Huaibei's blood sample. "Shu Qing is not here yet. I guess we can't count on her anymore. Uncle Huaibei's blood should be all right at the moment, but you have to know that his body won't be able to—"

"I know." Fu Chengyan interrupted Su Shaoqing's sentence. "Why would I bring Shen Qianan over if I didn't?"

Although Su Huaibei wanted to make it up to Shi Nuan, his body was not as good as he thought it was. If Su Huaibei was really going to force himself through this, there was a chance that not only would his body be affected, Shi Nuan would be as well. Fu Chengyan had always been someone who would only act if he was absolutely confident about it. If there was even a one in a million chance that things would go wrong, Fu Chengyan would not take the risk at all.

Su Shaoqing understood Fu Chengyan's worries. "But you need to know that I haven't tested this method out before. In other words, I don't even know what the virus' weak spot is. I'm not very confident about using this method on Nuan." Moreover, Shi Nuan was pregnant with twins at that moment.

Fu Chengyan's eyes darkened as he listened. "But I can't afford to wait any longer."

"If that's the case, let's go. We'll first draw Shen Qianan's blood to test if she's compatible or not." Su Shaoqing got up. He then suddenly thought of something and turned to look at Fu Chengyan. "Are you sure? To test it on her? You know that if we fail, Shen Qianan's body might..."

Although Su Shaoqing was not very fond of Shen Qianan, she was still Su Huaibei's daughter in the end, as well as Su Shaoqing's sister.

Both Shi Nuan and Shen Qianan were his biological sisters. Su Shaoqing felt that this solution was kind of cruel.

Fu Chengyan's eyes glinted darkly. "If we don't do this, Fu Sijue would not show up."

"Are you sure that by doing so, Fu Sijue will show up? Don't forget that he had abducted Shen Qianan all those years ago. Although Shen Qianan had given birth, Fu Sijue did not even reappear after so long and left Shen Qianan and their child by themselves. It's clear that this man's self-control is very powerful." Su Shaoqing was not afraid of anything. However, he thought that Fu Sijue was mentally very strong. With how he was able to endure so many years of being deployed, it was clear that Fu Sijue was not an impatient person.

Fu Chengyan's method might not even bring Fu Sijue back. Instead, it might harm Shen Qianan.

Fu Chengyan glanced at Su Shaoqing coldly. "There is no other way," he said sullenly. It was rare that he did not get angry.

"If he was able to pay so much attention to Shen Qianan and Yu during these three years, the two of them are definitely his weakness. You don't have to persuade me anymore, Shaoqing."

I Want A Lifetime With You Chapter 540

Chapter 540 He Will Be An Amazing Father

"What are you guys talking about?" Su Shaoqing was the first to walk through the door. Shi Nuan and Shen Qianan were chatting, and the mood between the sisters appeared amiable.

Fu Chengyan followed behind the doctor, a plate of chestnut cake in his hand. As he approached Shi Nuan, his eyes landed on the child in her embrace. His expression softened instantly. Shi Nuan caressed Yu's little cheeks. When she noticed Fu Chengyan and Su Shaoqing's entrance, she smiled. "It's nothing. You men need not know about girl talk."

"You've got that right!" Fu Chengyan nodded as he brought the chestnut cake over to them. He picked out a couple of slices and handed them over to Shi Nuan. "I've checked with Yu Qing. You can have these, just not too much!" With that, he gave two pieces to Shi Nuan and the rest to Yu.

When Yu first spotted Fu Chengyan, he became timid, as if he dared not speak. Then, when he saw the encouragement in the eyes of Shi Nuan and Fu Chengyan, Yu extended his hand to pick up a piece of chestnut cake, then stuffed it into his mouth.

Perhaps it was because the treat was so delicious that Yu could not help it when he reached for another piece once he was done with his first. Yet, he was still observing Fu Chengyan warily.

Fu Chengyan chuckled at the boy's behavior as he stretched out his long arm. "Go on, eat!"

Yu swiftly took a piece, then instantly retreated into the comfort of Shi Nuan's arms. Yu pecked away, the contented look on his face appeared cute to the others.

Fu Chengyan laughed. "If it's that yummy, then just take them all!"

"Thank you!" Yu thanked the man shyly.

A grin formed on Shi Nuan's face. "Yu, this is my husband. You should call him Uncle Chengyan."

"Huh? He's not Daddy?" Yu gaped at Shen Qianan.

Shen Qianan did not expect Yu would say that. Instantaneously, the air stood still.

Shen Qianan looked awkwardly at Shi Nuan and Fu Chengyan. Shi Nuan appeared unfazed, with a smile constantly on her face. Contrarily, Fu Chengyan's expression darkened within an instant.

"Would you prefer it if Uncle Chengyan is your father?" Shi Nuan squeezed Yu's hand. "If so, you can call him Dad!"

Shi Nuan smiled at Fu Chengyan and he stared back at her.

His cold gaze stooped toward Shi Nuan. It was a rare instance where he was no longer in a foul mood. Fu Chengyan said nothing and merely studied Shi Nuan with his eyes.

Shi Nuan just smiled lightly, not saying anything as well. Instead, it was Shen Qianan who was the one to be quick to explain, "Yu, Uncle Chengyan is Uncle Chengyan, while Daddy is Daddy! They're not the same person."

"But..."

"It's fine!" Fu Chengyan said softly. His eyes carried a hint of helplessness when he saw Shi Nuan shaking her head lightly. He walked toward Yu, then picked him up. "Since you like calling me Daddy so much, then how about I take you as my godson?"

Fu Chengyan examined Shi Nuan as he spoke those words, and he noticed the tiny smile forming on her face.

Meanwhile, Shen Qianan breathed a sigh of relief. She was worried that Fu Chengyan might abruptly burst out in rage. Shen Qianan recalled how she allowed Yu to call Fu Chengyan "Daddy" during the days they were at the Fu residence. The Fu Chengyan back then was terrifying.

Yet, when Shi Nuan was around, the hostile air that typically surrounded Fu Chengyan had disappeared into thin air.

"Haha! Yu, I am your uncle!" Su Shaoqing chimed in and started to tease Yu. "I'm your mother's elder brother!"

Yu cocked his head as he peered at his mother. It appeared as if he was questioning her.

Shen Qianan hesitated for a split second, then ultimately nodded her head. "Yu, go ahead and say hi to him!"

"Hi Uncle!"

Su Shaoqing elegantly rubbed his nose when he heard the little boy. "Good boy! I'll buy some sweets for you later!"

A few moments passed, then Su Shaoqing glanced toward Shen Qianan. "How about now?"

Shen Qianan faltered. Realization soon dawned on her when she comprehended Su Shaoqing's question. She then nodded. "By all means, whenever you please!"

"All right then! Follow me!" Su Shaoqing replied.

It looked like Su Shaoqing had something to say to Shen Qianan. Shi Nuan called out to them when she saw her sister leaving. "What's the matter?"

"Ah! I'm only taking Qianan to the lab first, just to understand the situation. There's no need to worry!" Su Shaoqing had no intentions of hiding the truth from Shi Nuan. "Qianan is your biological sister. Your blood type should match hers the most."

Shi Nuan had a complicated look on her face. She gazed at Shen Qianan, then said, "Qianan, actually..."

"It's all right. Can you and Chengyuan help look after Yu for a while? I'll be back soon!" Shen Qianan caressed Yu's cheeks. "Yu, the doctor and I have something to discuss. You go ahead and play with Aunt Nuan and Uncle Chengyan, okay?"

"Mommy, where are you going?"

"I'll still be in the hospital, and I'll return before you know it!" Shen Qianan pinched Yu's cheeks. "I have my phone with me. If you start to miss Mommy, you can call me on the phone!"

"Okay then!"

Shen Qianan comforted her son, then left the hospital room with Su Shaoqing. Shen Qianan took a deep breath and smiled faintly at Su Shaoqing.

The doctor's eyes focused on Shen Qianan. "To think that you and Shi Nuan are biological sisters!"

Su Shaoqing knew Shen Qianan from long ago, but back then, Shen Qianan was afraid of him. It had to do with Su Shaoqing's temper, which was too good to be true. The doctor always had a smile in front of everyone, but on occasion, that smile of his was exceedingly terrifying.

Then and there, as she understood the way Su Shaoqing viewed herself, the fear Shen Qianan had of the doctor dissipated completely.

Shen Qianan nodded. "I never thought it possible either!"

"Let's go. First, we'll have to draw your blood at the lab to find out to what degree your blood type matches with Nuan's."

"How confident are you with that?"

It was not that Shen Qianan did not trust Su Shaoqing. In fact, she knew that Su Shaoqing was an exceptionally skilled doctor. The problem was that the matter had to do with Shi Nuan's safety, which prompted Shen Qianan to ask her questions.

"Truthfully? I actually don't have a single shred of confidence!" As the doctor caught sight of the astonishment deep within Shen Qianan's eyes, he tugged at the corner of his mouth. "This disease is extremely rare, and it's the first time I've ever encountered it. This is why I cannot discern the rate of success whatsoever."

"But..." Shen Qianan stuttered. If that is so, then why are we doing this in the first place?

Her expression darkened. "The baby in Nuan's tummy won't be affected, right?"

"For now, no!" the doctor replied.

Su Shaoqing pushed the lab door open. Perhaps it was because that Su Shaoqing had made a request in advance, the lab was completely empty.

In the spacious lab, there was only Su Shaoqing, alone together with Shen Qianan. The doctor poured the woman a cup of water such that she might loosen up with a drink. He then assembled his tools. "You can close your eyes if you're afraid of blood."

Shen Qianan chuckled. "I'm no longer a child!"

Su Shaoqing wavered for a second, then responded, "You're right!"

Su Shaoqing was quick with his work. Once he was done drawing Shen Qianan's blood, he passed her a piece of cotton. "Press on this first, and try not to move. We took a lot of blood, I'm worried you might be dizzy." As Su Shaoqing spoke, he took a piece of coconut candy out of his pocket and held it out for Shen Qianan.

Dumbfounded, Shen Qianan stared at Su Shaoqing. The doctor then peeled open the wrapper and gave Shen Qianan the candy. "Eat something before you get dizzy!"

Shen Qianan bobbed her head in a daze. She then opened her mouth and ate the candy.

She gawked at Su Shaoqing. Her eyes carried a trace of bewilderment.

Conversely, Su Shaoqing carried on nonchalantly. After all, Shen Qianan was then part of the Su family, and she had never done anything too criminal in nature. Furthermore, the doctor bore no grudges against Shen Qianan. In truth, he was secretly happy from the bottom of his heart when the relationship between Shen Qianan and Shi Nuan took a turn for the better.

"We should wait for a moment before we head back. The lab results would only come out tomorrow, at the latest. Also, I cannot guarantee that the results would be promising." said Su Shaoqing.

Shen Qianan nodded. The sense of light-headedness she experienced before eased after she had the candy. She set the cotton down, then peered at Su Shaoqing. "Um... About the viral shot that Fu Chengyan mentioned..."

Su Shaoqing gaped at Shen Qianan, stunned that she would be the one to have brought the matter up. "You..." Su Shaoqing hesitated. "You can say no. If Nuan found out, she wouldn't agree to it either!"

To the doctor's surprise, Shen Qianan shook her head. "Don't let Nuan know!"

"But..."

"Don't worry, I'm fine. I've discussed it with Fu Chengyan before."

"Still..." Su Shaoqing understood then that no matter what he said, Shen Qianan had already made up her mind. He smiled apprehensively. "That would still have to wait. We have yet to take Nuan's blood. And besides, it'd still take some time before I could get my hands on the shot."

"Okay!" Shen Qianan nodded.

Meanwhile, at Shi Nuan's side, Yu asked to be set down the moment Shen Qianan left the room, and Fu Chengyan complied. Yu then wobbled on his short, tiny legs over to Shi Nuan and climbed into her embrace. His hands wrapped around Shi Nuan's abdomen. "Aunt Nuan, why is your tummy so big?"

His gaze was fixed on Shi Nuan's stomach, and there was a definite sense of curiosity emanating from him. Shi Nuan ended up chuckling due to Yu's childish behavior. She then guided Yu's hand and rubbed her lips gently. "That's because there are two cute little babies in my tummy!"

"Little babies?" Yu blinked repeatedly. The little boy's eyes shone brightly. "Are they like me?"

"That's right! They're cute little babies just like you!"

Shi Nuan beamed. "But they're slightly smaller than Yu. They're your little brother and sister!"

"Really?" Yu grinned from ear to ear at Shi Nuan's words. "Then Aunt Nuan, when will they come out?"

"Ah! About that, we'll need to wait for a few more months. Then, the little babies can come out!" Shi Nuan reached out and pinched Yu's nose. "Once they're out, hopefully, you will love them!"

"I do! I love them a lot!" The little boy bobbed his head profusely. "I don't have any friends to play with. Can your babies play with me one day, Aunt Nuan?"

"For sure!" Shi Nuan's smile grew wider. The sunlight shone into the room, falling on Shi Nuan and Yu.

Fu Chengyan looked on from their side. A singular expression of joy and tenderness took form on his face as he observed the interaction between his wife and the little boy.

As for Shen Qianan and Su Shaoqing, they were standing at the doorway then and had witnessed the exchange. There was a touch of red in Shen Qianan's eyes. The entire situation, wherein Yu and Shi Nuan were getting along as well as Fu Chengyan who stood attentively by them, felt somewhat foreign to Shen Qianan.

The three of them together seemed like a happy family, peaceful and happy.

Apparently moved by that scene, Shen Qianan merely waited by the door and watched on, a smile of relief on her face.

Su Shaoqing's eyes twinkled. "Looks like Chengyan will be an amazing dad one day!"
