Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1666 -Duncan: "Mom!"

"It doesn't matter who you like or pursues anymore."

After finishing speaking, Mrs. Lewis turned around and left angrily.

Duncan was also very angry at his mother.

He didn't understand, mother obviously didn't hate Liberty, so why didn't she let go and disagreed with him being with Liberty?

He hasn't even caught up with Liberty yet. The mother's side was making such a fuss, which was holding him back.

Liberty, who didn't love him in the first place, would be frightened by his mother and dare not love him even more, and dare not accept his feelings.

Duncan looked up, he didn't go back to Liberty's rental house, but walked to his car, after getting in the car, he called Zachary and Josh, and asked them to come out for a drink now.

Regardless of whether the two friends agreed or not, he hung up the phone after he finished speaking, and then started the car.

Bucham family.

Josh looked at the phone that had been hung up, and after a while, cursed: "I'm still on wedding leave, and Duncan also asked me to go out for a drink."

He looked at the time, it was still early in the evening.

Duncan got nervous and asked him to go out for a drink.

After Josh thought about it, he called Zachary. After Zachary answered the phone, he asked, "Did Duncan ask you to go out for a drink? What stimulated him? He called me to go out for a drink, but he didn't give me a drink. I'm still on my wedding leave, and he also came to bother me. Zachary, are you free? You can accompany him to have a drink or two. I will go to Wiltspoon Middle School to accompany my wife."

After Zachary waited for him to finish speaking, he said: "He also called me just now, and he hung up without giving me a chance to refuse. Don't ask, it must be that when he pursued Liberty, he was stopped by his mother again. The mother and son must have happened again."

Mrs. Lewis was stubborn and unwilling to let it go.

Although Duncan was also strong, but that was his mother after all, and Duncan was also troubled by this.

Zachary slandered in his heart: his aunt, Mrs. Lewis didn't even accept Duncan's feelings.

Mrs. Lewis jumped up and down to stop Duncan, which affected the relationship between mother and child.

Josh frowned, "Didn't your aunt Lewis not agree to Duncan? She said that she doesn't like him and has no idea about him. What's the use of Mrs. Lewis's fuss? Duncan has no idea, so she is tossing, hoping to make Duncan give up."

Zachary sighed, "Drink two cups, let's drink two cups, we also persuade Duncan, let go."

He informed Duncan. If Liberty still refused, he advised Duncan not to bother her incessantly, lest he end up not being a friend at all.

He and Duncan had been good friends for many years, and they had a strong friendship, and it was also a dilemma to be caught in the middle.

Based on Zachary's understanding of Duncan, he certainly hoped that Duncan and Liberty could be together, so that Liberty would be happy for the rest of her life.

But Mrs. Lewis's resolute opposition made her attitude worse and worse, Zachary no longer supported Duncan and Liberty to be together.

After Josh was silent, he said: "We all know what kind of temperament Duncan is. The more you block him, the more he will not let go. There is rebellion in his bones. Unless he is willing to let go, no one of us can persuade him."

Even if Liberty left, Duncan would not give up and would not let go.

He would only go all over the world to find Liberty.

Liberty also saw the facts clearly, so she didn't think of escaping.

It's inevitable.

All she could do was move to the rented house, so that Duncan couldn't go to her rented house every day.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1667 -Zachary was also silent.

In Josh's words, they had known Duncan for so many years and knew Duncan very well.

Duncan looked rough and careless, as if he didn't care about anything.

In fact, he was very persistent in dealing with feelings.

Liberty never remarried for the rest of her life, and Duncan would really never marry for her.

If Liberty married someone else, Duncan would still not marry for the rest of his life.

Duncan was such a person, if he couldn't marry the woman he wanted to marry, he would rather be single for the rest of his life.

"If you can't get away, I'll go. I'll accompany him." Zachary thought that Josh was still on marriage leave, and Jasmine was pregnant again, so Josh must not be in the mood to do other things.

Josh said: "Jasmine is in the bookstore. I arranged for bodyguards to protect her. I'm fine. Let's go together."

Zachary hummed.

After finishing the call, Zachary looked at Serenity who was sitting on the sofa reading a magazine.

Serenity didn't pay attention to the conversation between the two, but only heard a few words, guessing that it was Josh who called.

Zachary looked at Serenity quietly, and felt that when she was reading the magazine intently, there was a tranquil beauty.

Although Serenity was naturally beautiful, under the nourishment of Zachary's love, she became more and more beautiful and her temperament became better and better.

Well, it's Zachary's fault.

Getting up, Zachary went around the desk and walked towards Serenity.

Hearing the sound of footsteps, Serenity looked up at Zachary, smiled, and asked him: "Are you done?"

To prepare for the evening's activities, she came over and waited for Zachary to go home together. When she came, Zachary was still there busy, she waited in his office.

"Not yet." Zachary walked in front of her, didn't sit down, but looked down at her.

"What's the matter?"

Serenity immediately sensed that Zachary had something on his mind.

She closed the magazine.

"Duncan made an appointment with me, Josh, to go out for a drink or two. I'll ask you for instructions."

Serenity smiled. She stood up and helped Zachary straighten his shirt and tie. "You can go if you want. You don't need to ask me for instructions. You're fine if you're not drunk."

Zachary brought a group of bodyguards with him when he went in and out, and even if he drank, the bodyguards would send him back, so he didn't have to worry about being picked up by other women.

"For no reason, why did Duncan invite the two of you to have a drink? Did he quarrel with Mrs. Lewis again?"

If Duncan and Mrs. Lewis quarreled, it must be because of her sister, Liberty.

Zachary's silence was tantamount to acquiescing.

After Serenity pursed her lips, she asked Zachary: "Can you persuade Duncan to give up? He is always very good, but Mrs. Lewis reacted fiercely, and she still couldn't accept my sister, and my sister didn't want to be with Duncan. It will continue to develop, but Duncan will not give up, he and you are close buddies, and my sister dare not go too far."

Zachary: "Josh and I were also discussing this issue just now, and I feel that there is little hope."

At this time, Serenity received a message from her sister, Liberty.

Liberty told Serenity in the message that she found a new rental house and planned to move now, and told her that the new rental house was in a high-end community with a high level of security.

Although the rent was also very expensive, in order to prevent Duncan from coming to her place every day, Liberty was willing to pay more for the rent.

In addition to moving to a rented house, Liberty also told Serenity that after such a long period of observation, the two shop assistants were real people and could take over her work. She decided to give the two shop assistants a little more salary and let them take care of All You Can Eat.

She reduced the number of times she went to All You Can Eat, and even if she did, she chose to go and have a look after 8 o'clock.
