Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1668 -Duncan always went to All You Can Eat to eat breakfast before 8 o'clock.

By staggering the time, she could avoid meeting Duncan.

Liberty asked Serenity for help.

After reading the message sent by Liberty, Serenity sighed inwardly.

After all, Liberty was forced to take the road of escape.

If she hadn't married Zachary, and the York family was in Wiltspoon, she would have stayed in Wiltspoon to live. Liberty might really do what Mrs. Lewis wished, and quietly leave Wiltspoon with Sonny, away from Duncan.

Even if Duncan traveled all over the world, he would find Liberty, but it would take time.

Serenity replied to Liberty that she respected and would help her with any decisions she made.

"A message from Liberty?" Zachary guessed.

Serenity hummed.

Zachary: "What did she say? You look so serious."

Serenity: "My sister is moving to a rented house now. She found a new rented house on the spur of the moment and moved to Dinshasa Community. It is a high-end community with a high level of security. You cannot enter without an access card. You can only go in unless the residents in the community lead you in. Moving to a rented house may not necessarily avoid Duncan, but at least keep him out of the Dinshasa community."

After listening to Zachary, her expression was indescribable.

Serenity: "...Zachary, I knew that Dinshasa District is developed by the Lewis & Co.."

The Lewis & Co. was involved in real estate and had indeed developed many real estate projects.

"It's a real estate developed by Duncan Company. It's sold well and has a high occupancy rate. The Dinshasa villa area and Dinshasa Community next to it are developed together. Duncan reserved a big villa for himself in the Dinshasa villa area."

“People in the community cannot pass through the villa area, but people in the villa area can come. The security level there is very high, and the security personnel hired by Duncan are all strictly trained and absolutely qualified security personnel. “

Serenity: “... My sister is throwing herself into a trap like this?”

The rented house was moved to Duncan’s site. Such these rich people had houses everywhere.

Zachary said: “Liberty wants to change the rent, I will arrange it for her. On our York’s site, She is safer. You tell her to quit the rent and don’t move to Dinshasa District.”

Serenity: “At that time, Duncan will ask Liberty’s whereabouts, can you keep your mouth shut?”

“Of course, even if Duncan finds out, I won’t admit that I arranged it. I’m so busy, how can I care about the broken locks of who rents out the houses developed by the company?” Zachary said, “Duncan may not be able to find out, as long as I don’t let Duncan find out, Duncan will not be able to find out.”

Serenity believed in Zachary, if he could say it, he would do it.

“I’ll tell my sister right now.” Serenity called Liberty and told her that Dinshasa District was a real estate developed by Lewis & Co., and told her not to rent a house there.

Liberty: “...”

She almost threw herself into the trap.

This time, Liberty accepted Zachary’s help very quickly. She said to her sister, “Serenity, tell Zachary that you must keep it a secret, and don’t let Duncan know.”

“Sister, don’t worry.”

Liberty: “Then please Zachary arrange a place for me, and you tell him that the rent will be paid.”

Serenity: “Okay, I told him to keep your rent, but it’s cheaper.”

Zachary said from the side: “Sister, I will keep the rent, so don’t worry.”

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1669 -Liberty thanked Zachary.

Zachary said: "Sister, we are a family, so don't be so polite."

He was afraid that Liberty would not accept his help.

Fortunately, Liberty was anxious to move the rented house and accepted Zachary's help.

With the arrangement and help of her brother-in-law, when Zachary left the company to drink with Duncan, Liberty also quickly moved to rent a house.

Except Zachary and Serenity knew about her new residence, not even Mrs. Stone.

In an elegant room of a certain hotel, the table was filled with dishes ordered by Duncan, and he also ordered several bottles of spirits.

At this moment, Zachary and Josh were sitting beside him, watching him drink one cup after another.

"Duncan, let's order some food."

Zachary ordered food for Duncan, probably because he felt that he chose to stand on the side of Liberty, and felt a little sorry for his friend.

It's not that he didn't want to help Duncan, it's because Liberty didn't love Duncan at all, and Mrs. Lewis looked like she didn't agree with it.

Zachary had no choice but to respect Liberty's choice.

"Duncan, let's have a bowl of soup too. You've been drinking non-stop since you came here. Drinking on an empty stomach makes you easy to get drunk. Don't drink too much. In case of alcohol poisoning, Zachary and I will be responsible for you." Josh filled Duncan with a bowl of soup, and at the same time advised Duncan to drink less.

"I'm annoyed." Duncan picked up the chopsticks and picked up the food in the bowl, which was picked up by Zachary for him.

After taking two mouthfuls of food, he picked up his wine glass and drank it down in one gulp, but it was like drinking plain water for such a strong wine.

Putting down the wine glass, he wanted to fill himself up again, but Zachary stopped him.

"Duncan, don't drink any more. You've already had several glasses. You don't feel much when you drink this kind of wine. It has a strong stamina. You'll get drunk soon."

“Zachary, I envy you.” Duncan patted Zachary’s shoulder, “I really envy you and Josh, you are all better than me.”

After Zachary was silent for a while, he said to him: “Duncan, my sister doesn’t want to develop with you, she really don’t want to remarry now, just give up, if this goes on, you will be the one who suffers.”

Josh also persuaded: “Yes, I think Sister Liberty really has no idea about this, your pursuit It has brought her a lot of trouble, and my aunt, Mrs. Lewis disagrees, and your most important family members are not optimistic about it, so just give up.”

Duncan looked at Zachary and then at Josh, and said, “How long have I been pursuing Liberty? If it has been ten or eight years, and Liberty still doesn’t accept me, it’s okay for you to persuade me to give up. I’ve just started, and you’re going to persuade me to give up... Yes, I know I’m going this way It’s hard to go, but no matter how difficult it is, I will go on. My mother will compromise sooner or later, and Liberty’s place, I believe that water drips through stone, and one day, Liberty will accept me.”

Zachary looked at Duncan and felt very guilty.

Duncan dragged his two friends and chattered for a long time, until he was really drunk, and Josh sent him home, and Zachary was going to attend an event.

After the event, when he returned home, Zachary lay on the bed with his beloved wife in his arms, silent for a long time.

“What’s wrong?” Serenity asked with concern.

Zachary: “Is my sister’s new home settled?”

Serenity: “There are people you have arranged to help, and it has been settled.”

Zachary buried his head on Serenity’s neck, and said in a low voice: “Seren, I always feel sorry for Duncan, I think, tomorrow, Duncan will find me and ask me about this matter, you say; how should I answer him?”

“Isn’t Duncan drunk? If he is drunk, he will have a headache tomorrow, so he probably won’t go to see my sister.” Serenity put her arms around Zachary, knowing that he was difficult to be a man.

Zachary: “He will come to me sooner or later. Alas, I don’t know when the two of them will have an ending, whether it’s good or bad. If there is an ending, we don’t have to be in a dilemma.”

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1670 -Serenity did not speak.

The people around her, Jasmine's love was the smoothest, without wind and waves, and soon entered the wedding hall.

There were many obstacles in Elisa's love and her sister's second spring.

She was lucky, she had conflicts with Zachary, the cold war, and divorce, and finally understood, respected and trusted each other, and was now happy.

Zachary quickly adjusted his mentality, and said softly: "Honey, go to sleep, don't think so much, let nature take its course."

Serenity hummed.

Husband and wife embraced each other and slept without talking all night.

At noon the next day, Duncan woke up.

After sleeping long enough, he woke up with no obvious headache except feeling hungry.

Finding that it was already noon, he got up immediately, took a shower, changed into clean clothes, and went downstairs.

Still on the stairs, he saw his parents sitting on the sofa in the lobby on the first floor.

Duncan's mood suddenly turned bad.

Hearing the sound of footsteps, Mrs. Lewis turned her head and saw her son on the stairs. She said, "Duncan, you are awake. You are hungry. You can eat."

Duncan went downstairs, walked over, and sat opposite his parents. Next, he asked coldly: "Did my parents come here to persuade me to give up? If so, you don't need to open your mouth. I won't give up on Liberty. I just like her and I just want to marry her."

Mrs. Lewis originally wanted to have a good chat with her son, but the words his son spoke made her angry.

Her face also turned dark in an instant.

"Duncan, I also said the same thing. If you want to be with Liberty, cut off the mother-child relationship with me first. After you are no longer my son, you can marry whoever you want."

“Wife.” Mr. Lewis disagreed called his wife.

Duncan and Mrs. Lewis looked at each other for a long time, stood up abruptly, turned around and left.

“Duncan, where are you going, are you looking for Liberty again? People don’t like you, so you still have to be cheeky...Come back to me!”

The son left without saying a word, Mrs. Lewis was so angry that she also got up and chased after her.

Seeing Duncan driving a car out of the garage, Mrs. Lewis wanted to stop the car, but was stopped by her husband.

Duncan drove out of the villa.

Mrs. Lewis immediately ran to her car, and Mr. Lewis had no choice but to follow.

Then, Duncan’s car was running fast ahead, and Mrs. Lewis wanted to stop her son from seeing Liberty again, so she chased desperately.

The two cars left the villa area one after the other, and soon merged into the traffic flow of the big road outside.

Duncan was still driving very fast, he kept overtaking other vehicles, mainly to get rid of his mother.

“Wife, slow down, stop chasing. There are so many cars on the road, it’s very dangerous. If you chase like this, your son will have an accident.” Mr. Lewis, who was sitting in the passenger seat, kept urging his wife not to get along with him. He also disapproved of his son’s pursuit of Liberty, but his son just liked Liberty, and besides, his son was 36 years old, so it was rare to have a woman he liked, so he thought, let’s make his son happy.

“Shut up, don’t talk...”

Before Mrs. Lewis could finish her sentence, she flashed double flashes and braked urgently.

“Bang! Bang!”

There were two loud noises in succession.
