Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1671 -It was not Mrs. Lewis who rear-ended the vehicle in front, it was Duncan who rear-ended a large truck, and the car that followed Duncan. Although he braked urgently, he still rear-ended Duncan's car. Mrs. Lewis braked in time, so she didn't continue to rear-end.

After Mrs. Lewis parked the car, she immediately unbuckled her seat belt, opened the door and got out of the car.

Mr. Lewis had not reacted yet, he had been trying to persuade his wife not to chase after his son.

Mr. Lewis: "Wife."

"Duncan's car rear-ended." Mrs. Lewis said a word to her husband, and she ran forward.

She passed the car in front of her. That car rear-ended Duncan's car. The front of the car was damaged. The people in the car didn't move yet, so they must have been scared out of their wits.

Duncan's car was much more tragic.

The front half of his car almost crashed into the bottom of the truck, leaving only the back half outside. Duncan was also injured and lost consciousness.

"Duncan, Duncan..." Mrs. Lewis felt dizzy and couldn't stand still when she saw her son chasing after her tragically.

Mr. Lewis quickly helped her up. He was also pale, but he was a man, and he was more stable than his wife. He hurriedly called 120 for an ambulance, and then called the police.

"Duncan, Duncan." Mrs. Lewis broke away from her husband's support and wanted to rescue her son.

Mr. Lewis also followed, but the two of them did it in vain.

Traffic police, fire rescue and ambulance rushed to the scene quickly.

"Save him, save my son..."

As soon as Mrs. Lewis saw the doctor, she clung to the doctor's clothes and begged.

The doctor said reassuringly: "We will try our best to treat the injured as soon as possible."

Mr. Lewis pulled his wife away so as not to affect everyone's treatment of his son.

Mrs. Lewis cried and fell into her husband's arms. She was so regretful that her intestines were green now. If something happened to her son...why would she stop her son from looking for Liberty? He could find whomever he wanted, her son was 36 years old, and she knew what she wanted. At her age, she should have lived a life of caring for her grandchildren at home, so why bother with her younger son?

Duncan's affairs had never been allowed to be taken care of by her mother, and she still insisted on taking care of it.

What about divorced women?

Allow him to go as long as he liked her and was willing to marry.

But like a ghost, she disagreed life and death, and the relationship between mother and child became worse with her obstruction. The worse the relationship, the angrier she became, and she vowed to stop her son from pursuing Liberty, and even threatened her son to pursue Liberty.

It's all her fault, she hurt Duncan.

Mr. Lewis was also very scared and worried, but at this moment he could only hold his wife's shoulders and comfort his wife in a low voice.

Thinking of something, Mr. Lewis took out his mobile phone, called the other three sons, and told the three sons: "Come here quickly, Duncan was in a car accident."

He told the three sons where the incident happened.

When the three masters of the Lewis family heard that the younger brother had a car accident, they immediately left their work and rushed to the scene of the accident.

When they arrived at the scene of the car accident, Duncan had already been rescued and rushed to the hospital for emergency treatment.

Mr. Lewis and his wife also went to the hospital.

The three masters of the Lewis family called their parents again, knowing that his younger brother had been sent to Wiltspoon People's Hospital for emergency treatment, and they rushed to Wiltspoon People's Hospital without stopping.

Soon after, Zachary also received the news.

It was Josh who informed Zachary.

The news of the Bucham family was the most well-informed.

Zachary was still waiting for Duncan to settle the score with him after he woke up, because he helped Liberty once and arranged a new rental house for her.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1672 -Duncan would go to Liberty's rented house to look for her every day, Zachary counted the time and thought that Duncan will wake up at noon, and then go to Liberty, and will find that Liberty has moved.

In the end, what Zachary waited for was the news that Duncan had a car accident.

"Where did he have a car accident? Did he hit someone else or someone else hit him? How is the injury?"

When Zachary received a call from Josh, he happened to be on his way to Wiltspoon Middle School and was going to have lunch with Serenity.

Jasmine couldn't come to the bookstore today, but yesterday afternoon she stayed at the bookstore all afternoon. Josh felt sorry for her being tired, but in fact she wasn't tired at all, but the man who doted on his wife said that when his wife was tired, she was tired.

Today, no matter what, Jasmine was not allowed to go out again.

Jasmine, who was already a national treasure in the Bucham family, could only stay at home honestly, video chatting with friends from time to time, complaining about many restrictions when she was just pregnant, how would she live in the next few months.

"On the road near the Phoenix Villa area, he was the one who rear-ended a large truck and was seriously injured, especially his legs... I don't know if he can save it." Josh learned from Young Master Bucham. When the news came out, his mobile phone fell to the ground. He didn't believe that his best buddies would encounter any accidents, so he hurried to the hospital and notified Zachary at the same time.

"Which hospital is Duncan at now? I'll go there right away." Josh told him.

Zachary immediately ordered the driver: "Don't go to Wiltspoon Middle School, go to the Wiltspoon People's Hospital, hurry up."

Driver: "Young master, you can only turn around at the traffic light ahead."

Zachary didn't speak, and acquiesced to turn around at the intersection ahead, no matter how impatient he was, he had to abide by the traffic rules.

Ten minutes later, Zachary rushed to the hospital.

Duncan was still in the emergency room.

His parents, brother-in-law, and some members of the Lewis family were standing guard at the door of the emergency room, all of them looked nervous and worried.

Mrs. Lewis's eyes were swollen from crying, and she blamed herself to death.

She kept doing worship movements, praying that God would not take the life of her youngest son.

She promised that she would never care about Duncan's relationship again as long as Duncan lived. She accepted his desire to marry a man and return home.

She only wanted her son to live!

Josh also arrived at this time. After he and Zachary met, the two walked quickly together.

"Uncle, Auntie." Zachary and Josh first greeted Mr. Lewis and Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. Lewis was only sad and blamed herself, and did not respond to the two people's greetings. Mr. Lewis nodded.

"How is Duncan?" Zachary asked with concern.

"Still being rescued, his legs are the most seriously injured." Mr. Lewis's face was also as pale as paper, and he held on, telling himself that he couldn't fall down now.

He didn't know if his son was alive or dead.

"Dad, Mom, Duncan will be fine, he will be fine." Older Young master Lewis comforted his parents.

In fact, they were also worried and scared.

The three young mistresses of the Lewis family accompanied her mother-in-law, comforting her in a low voice.

After knowing the main reason for Duncan's car accident, everyone wanted to blame Mrs. Lewis, but seeing Mrs. Lewis crying into tears, she blamed herself a lot. At this time, no one wanted to blame a mother.

The person who suffered the most and regretted the most was none other than Mrs. Lewis.

Serenity on the other side, after finishing her work, found that Zachary hadn't come yet, so she called Zachary, who went to the side to answer the phone.

Serenity: "Honey, didn't you say you wanted to come and dine with me? The hotel has already delivered the food you ordered."

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1673 -After hesitating for a while, Zachary still told the truth to Serenity.

"Serenity, I don't want to go. After the food is delivered, you can eat it yourself. I'm here...I'm in the hospital, and Duncan had a car accident."

Hearing this, Serenity's expression changed, and she asked quickly: "How did the car accident happen? Did it happen when you and Mr. Lewis were together? Did you two drink again? Drunk driving?"

Zachary hurriedly explained: "No, we didn't drink today. We did drink yesterday. Neither of us was driving. I don't know what's going on. Josh informed me and I went to the hospital immediately. Duncan is still in the process of rescue. He said that his legs were the most seriously injured. I don't know if he can save legs."

At the end, Zachary's tone was low and his speech speed became slow, looking sad.

Serenity: "I'm done with my work now, close the store, and I'll go to the hospital too."

Zachary didn't stop Serenity from coming, he told: "Drive slowly."

"I'll let the bodyguard drive, don't worry too much, nothing will happen." Serenity could only comfort Zachary.

Zachary hummed, "It will be fine!"

He believed that Duncan would survive.

"Serenity, come back after you have something to eat."

Worried about his friend, Zachary also reminded Serenity to come back after eating. He would not be in the mood to eat when he came to the hospital. Serenity followed suit and starved.

Serenity: "Okay, how many people are guarding in the hospital, I will pack fast food for everyone."

"No need, you can eat by yourself, I'll send someone out to buy food." With Zachary's arrangements in place, Serenity felt relieved.

After finishing the call, she ate some food as quickly as possible, and then hurriedly moved the shelves at the entrance of the store into the store.

The bodyguard found that she was about to close the shop and came in to help.

A few minutes later, Serenity got into the car, and the bodyguard drove her to Wiltspoon People's Hospital.

On the way, she thought about it for a long time, and finally got through to her sister's cell phone.

"Auntie." The person who answered the phone was Sonny.

Serenity: "Sonny, where is Mom, tell Mom to answer the phone."

Sonny: "Auntie, don't you miss me? I miss Auntie. Auntie, Mom and I have moved to a new house. Do you want to come and live with us? I-I want to live with my aunt and mother."

As before, Sonny could see his aunt every day.

When Serenity was still living in her sister's house, Sonny had a good memory, and she had a little impression of her.

Serenity: "Sonny, Auntie has something urgent to tell mom. Give mommy the phone first."

Sonny snorted, walked into the kitchen with the phone, and said to Liberty who was washing the dishes: "Mom, auntie's call."

Liberty took the phone, turned on the speakerphone, and asked her sister while washing the dishes: "Serenity, what's the matter?"

Serenity: "Sister, something happened to Mr. Lewis."

Hearing this, Liberty was stunned and asked: "What happened to him?"

"Zachary said that Mr. Lewis had a car accident. I don't know what caused it. The injury is serious. He's still in the hospital for rescue. I'm on my way to the hospital. When you had an accident, he also ran up and down to help a lot, and even guarded you in the hospital all night. I don't think this matter can be kept from you, so let me tell you."

It was Liberty's decision whether to go to the hospital or not.

Liberty didn't even wash the dishes, and said: "I'm going to the hospital now."

It had nothing to do with feelings, she and Duncan had known each other for nearly a year, and Duncan had always taken care of her.

When she had an accident, Duncan also guarded her in the hospital.

Because of these favors, Liberty also went to the hospital to wait for Duncan to wake up.

Serenity: "Sister, if you decide to go to the hospital, I'll turn around and pick you up right now."

Liberty: "No, I'll drive there by myself."

Serenity reminded: "So, sister, be careful when you drive, and will you go to the hospital with Sonny?"

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1674 -Liberty: "Take him there with me."

Now there was no one to help her take care of Sonny, so she simply took Sonny with her and went to the hospital together.

Liberty quickly hung up the phone, picked up Sonny and walked away, saying to him, "Sonny, we have to go to the hospital now, your Uncle Duncan was in a car accident, let's go see him."

"How is Uncle Duncan? Uncle Duncan will be fine, right?" Sonny thought of a lot of blood when he heard that Duncan had a car accident, and his face turned pale.

When Liberty had an accident back then, her whole body was covered in blood, which was more or less left in the shadow of Sonny. Now when he saw a lot of blood, he would faint.

"Uncle Duncan will be fine." Liberty was comforting her son as well as herself.

Sonny hugged Liberty's neck tightly.

He hoped Uncle Duncan was fine and didn't bleed a lot like his mother.

In the hospital, there were more and more people guarding outside the emergency room.

When the Serenity arrived at the hospital, Zachary also asked the bodyguards to buy a meal and asked everyone to eat something first, but Mrs. Lewis couldn't eat it.

No matter who persuaded her, Mrs. Lewis couldn't eat it.

When she picked up the chopsticks, her tears kept falling, dripping on the lunch box, her throat seemed to be blocked by something, making her unable to eat.

Finally, she put down the lunch box.

"Have you not come out yet?" Serenity walked to Zachary's side and asked in a low voice.

The longer the rescue time, the more serious the injury, and the danger of life at any time.

With a serious face, Zachary shook his head.

"It'll be fine." Serenity held Zachary's hand.

When Mrs. Lewis saw Liberty, her expression was complicated, and she wanted to say something, but she couldn't say a word.

She suddenly grabbed Liberty's hand and held it tightly.

Liberty was stunned for a moment, and then comforted her: "Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Lewis has his own personality, so he will be fine."

Mrs. Lewis kept nodding with tears in her eyes.

Duncan could go after Liberty if he was healthy enough to do so. Liberty won't be stopped by Mrs. Lewis.

Mrs. Lewis wanted her son to live more than being in the same family.

At this time, the door of the emergency room opened.

Everyone immediately gathered around.

"Doctor, how is my son?"

“Doctor, how is my brother?”

The Lewis family father and son asked the doctor at the same time.

The doctor said: “The injured is out of danger, but his injuries are mainly on his legs. After our rescue, his legs were saved, but it will take a long time to recover. If the recovery is not good, he will only sit in a wheelchair in this life.”

Duncan’s main injury was in his legs, and he lost too much blood, so his life was in danger.

Now that he had been rescued, the follow-up rehabilitation of the legs was the most difficult.

It might be disabled because of this, and he would need a wheelchair for the rest of his life.

If the injured person has a firm will, a good mentality, and can persist in rehabilitation, there is still a great hope that he will return to normal.

The recovery time is extremely long. Many people have suffered such misfortunes, their mentality has collapsed, and they have given up on themselves, so it is difficult to recover.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1675 -Mrs. Lewis’s body swayed, and her two daughters-in-law hurriedly supported her.

“Mom.” The two daughters-in-law cried out worriedly.

“It’s a good start if Duncan’s life is not in danger, and he will recover slowly.”

Mrs. Lewis beat her chest remorsefully, and said remorsefully, “It’s all me, it’s me who killed Duncan, why did the car accident happen? I’m not the person? I’d rather be the one who got into the car accident.”

“Mom, Duncan will be fine. The doctor said he will recover.” Older Young Master Lewis also comforted his mother.

With a serious face, Mr. Lewis said to his son and daughter-in-law: “Help you go back to rest. Duncan is here with me.”

"I won't go, I won't go, I will wait for Duncan to come out, and I will take care of Duncan."
Mrs. Lewis refused to leave.

Duncan's operation was over, but he had not been released yet, so she was worried.

Her son's misfortune was caused by her being too extreme as a mother. How could she leave?

Mrs. Lewis's self-blaming words were heard by everyone, and Zachary and others wanted to know exactly how the car accident happened.

Seeing the sad look of the Lewis family, Zachary and others endured it for the time being.

After Duncan was pushed out by the doctors and nurses and transferred to the ward, Zachary and Josh asked Mr. Lewis why.

Mr. Lewis looked at Mrs. Lewis who was sitting in front of the hospital bed crying, sighed, and said softly to Zachary and Josh: "Let's go outside and talk."

When Mr. Lewis turned around, he saw Liberty holding her son and Serenity together. After entering, Mr. Lewis paused, and said to Liberty in a pleading tone: "Miss Hunt, can you wait here until Duncan wakes up?"

He felt that his son would feel better when he woke up and saw Liberty.

Liberty said softly, "Uncle Duncan, I will."

Mr. Lewis thanked her.

Liberty hurriedly said: "Uncle, you don't need to thank me, Mr. Lewis and I are also friends."

After looking at Liberty for a while, Mr. Lewis walked out of the ward without saying anything.

Zachary and Josh followed and saw that Mr. Lewis had come to the end of the corridor. He had already taken out a cigarette, lit it and was smoking.

Seeing two people approaching, Mr. Lewis handed them each a cigarette.

Two people took the cigarettes, but did not smoke.

Even though Zachary could smoke, he didn't do it very often because Serenity didn't like the smell of tobacco.
