Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1686 -Mrs. Brown was also very angry, what Jessica cursed her two grandchildren just now was too poisonous.

But seeing Jessica holding her stomach and screaming for pain, she hurried over to support Jessica, and said nervously, "Sit down quickly, or go back to the room and lie down."

"Mom, she's just making it look like she's hurt." Chelsea didn't believe that Jessica's stomach hurt at all.

"Chelsea." Mrs. Brown said to her daughter, and helped Jessica back to the room, and lay down on the bed. She saw that her daughter-in-law's face was swollen from the daughter's beating, and she was worried that Hank would see her when he came back, so she said to Jessica: "Jessica, I'll come in and get some ice to help you apply it to your face."

Jessica touched her face, but didn't speak.

Mrs. Brown went out to help her get ice cubes.

Jessica was lying on the bed, thinking of her current life, she was so wronged that tears flowed down her face.

But this was the path she chose.

Who told her to intervene in Hank and Liberty's marriage?

Now, she couldn't go back to her mother's house, and she was wronged every day when she stayed at her husband's house. She had a top-notch eldest sister and partial parents-in-law. She was about to collapse.

If it wasn't for having a child in her belly, Jessica wouldn't be able to survive.

This child saved her from going to jail for the time being. Jessica was still very protective of the child, for fear of being harmed by Chelsea.

Suddenly, Jessica sat up from the bed.

She wanted to go to the bathroom.

Mrs. Brown came in with ice cubes at this time.

"Jessica, where are you going?" Mrs. Brown asked.

“Go to the bathroom.” Jessica entered the bathroom with her mobile phone.

Mrs. Brown sat down on the bed and waited for her.

Jessica sent a message to Hank in the bathroom and complained to Hank. Hank had just received an order to take a passenger to the airport, and after clarifying with his wife, he stopped replying to Jessica.

Not getting a reply from her husband, Jessica scolded: “Useless stuff, how could I like a man like you in the first place!”

She changed to watching videos.

The video became addictive as soon as she scrolled, she squatted in the bathroom for half an hour.

After squatting for a long time, her legs were numb. When she came out, she accidentally kicked the threshold of the bathroom, and she jumped forward.

Seeing this scene, Mrs. Brown instinctively got up and rushed over to help Jessica, but unfortunately she was two steps too late.

Jessica fell to the ground.

“Jessica.” Mrs. Brown was frightened and quickly helped her up.

After Jessica was lifted up, Mrs. Brown hurriedly asked her, “Does your stomach hurt?”

Jessica shook her head, feeling no stomach pain for the time being.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1687 -Mrs. Brown felt relieved and helped Jessica back to bed to lie down while talking.

But not long after, Jessica’s expression changed, she grabbed Mrs. Brown’s hand, and said in fear, “Mom, I have a stomachache.”

Hearing this, Mrs. Brown immediately rushed outside and shouted: “Chelsea, call 120 right away because her stomach hurts.”

Chelsea was biting an apple, and when she heard her mother’s cry, she swayed over, leaned against the door of the room, and said, “Mom, she can complain of a stomachache eight hundred times a day, don't believe it." calling 120 now, that's a waste of medical resources, let's save it for those who need it more."

"Jessica fell just now!" Mrs. Brown yelled, "Hurry up and call an ambulance."

Chelsea saw Jessica lying on the bed in pain, so she believed it was true, and hurriedly called an ambulance.

.....

It's 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

All You Can Eat was not like usual, the store was closed at noon.

Today, the store doors were open all day.

Liberty accompanied Sonny to watch cartoons in the store.

The two shop assistants had already left work, and occasionally someone would come in and want to eat, and Liberty would also cook for the guests.

At the moment, there were no customers in the shop, Sonny was enjoying watching cartoons, and Liberty was making dumplings beside him.

The glass door was pushed open.

Liberty looked over.

What she saw was Chelsea who hadn't appeared in front of her for a long time.

"Auntie." Seeing Chelsea coming in, Sonny called out for Auntie.

Chelsea walked over with a smile, hugged Sonny, "Sonny is watching cartoons."

Sonny nodded.

Chelsea put down her nephew and handed the bag of fruit she bought to Liberty.

Liberty took the bag of fruit and said, "Sister, whenever you come, there is no need to buy anything."

Chelsea: "I'm coming to see my nephew, and I always want to buy something delicious for my nephew."

Chelsea waited for Liberty to put it away, returned to the table and sat down to make dumplings. She couldn't wait to go over and sit down, and told Liberty: "Liberty, I have some news for you. The poisonous woman, Jessica had a miscarriage."

Liberty looked at her.

Jessica had a miscarriage?

Jessica had been pregnant for three months, and the pregnancy was stable. The miscarriage rate was not as high as the previous three months. Why did she have a miscarriage?

Being looked at by Liberty like this, Chelsea couldn't help but said: "Liberty, don't look at me like this, it's not my fault. Although I don't like her a hundred times and I usually quarrel with her, I also won't hit her in the stomach. Anyway, that child is also my brother's seed. Even if I can't help but slap her."

Chelsea explained: "It's her who went to the bathroom. Playing with the mobile phone in the bathroom, squatting for too long, her legs were numb, she accidentally kicked the threshold when she came out, fell down, and caused a miscarriage, this is her reason, and it has nothing to do with me."

Well, it did have some connection to it. If she hadn't picked on Jessica, argued with her, and even slapped her, Jessica's mother wouldn't have helped her get back to her room, and maybe this wouldn't have happened.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1688 -Of course, Chelsea refused to admit that this matter had anything to do with her.

It was Jessica who was poisonous, cursed Hank, and even cursed her two kids, and suffered retribution.

Jessica's belly was a boy, and after the flow out, it was known that it was a boy, and Mrs. Brown and Jessica cried to death.

Chelsea also felt uncomfortable for a while, and soon she didn't care.

Who told Jessica to have such a poisonous mouth, cursing that her two kids would not grow up, even if they were raised, there would be accidents or something, no, the accident happened, it happened to Jessica.

Chelsea firmly believed that this was retribution!

“Liberty, you don’t even know how poisonous that Jessica is. She saw the news and knew that Mr. Lewis had a car accident. The unscrupulous media speculated wildly and included you in it. Jessica said you were devil, because Mr. Lewis likes you, so you got Mr. Lewis into a car accident.

You also mocked us for wanting Hank to remarry you, saying that if you remarried, Hank would be in a car accident because of you, saying that Hank is now opening car-hailing service online who book a car are the most likely to have a car accident. Tell me, is this woman poisonous?”

Chelsea also repeated to Liberty the original words of Jessica cursing her two kids.

Afterwards, she said: “I didn’t keep the child. I can’t say I was gloating, but I really think this is the retribution of Jessica. She is too poisonous. I couldn’t see it before. She is so poisonous. She is simply a poisonous woman.

In that community, no one is willing to associate with Jessica. When children see her, they will stay far away, for fear of being harmed by her.”

Liberty, don’t worry about the news. If you belonged to devil, Hank would still be fine? Hank only had a successful career when he was with you, but when he was with Jessica, he would not be fine. It’s obviously devil is Jessica, she’s hard-fated, and she’s not going to give birth to a good boy.”

Regarding Jessica’s miscarriage, Liberty didn’t take pleasure in other’s misfortune, she said flatly: “The media can write whatever they want, I didn’t take it to heart.”

As for the matter of her devil, the comparison between Hank before and after the divorce could be seen by anyone with a discerning eye.

“Oh!” Chelsea sighed heavily.

Looking at Liberty making dumplings, Liberty, who had successfully lost weight, paid great attention to skin care. She looked as young and beautiful as when she first met Liberty.

Chelsea regretfully said: “Liberty, it’s all our fault. Hank and your family have been tossed away by us.”

Liberty said indifferently: “Isn’t it also your credit that his life is so miserable.”

Chelsea choked.

Her nature was hard to change.

She couldn’t change her tossing temper.

After a while, Chelsea changed the subject and asked Liberty: "How is Mr. Lewis's injury? I heard that he has become disabled and will be in a wheelchair for the rest of his life."

In this case, Duncan would not pursue Liberty again?

Jessica had a miscarriage, and when she conceived, she would definitely go back to the prison.

At that time, they would let Hank and Jessica divorce again, and then pursue Liberty again.

Leaving aside the fact that Liberty was backed by two men, just because Liberty now ran a breakfast restaurant and the business was still good, it had a bright future.

After the young couple remarried, they ran the breakfast restaurant together, so Hank didn't need to go out every day to drive online car-hailing.

After going through too much, after comparing before and after, as long as Liberty and Hank remarry, their family would cherish the blessings and won't make any troubles.

Liberty stopped making dumplings, looked at Chelsea, and asked, "Who said Mr. Lewis is disabled? Who said he will be in a wheelchair in his next life? Mr. Lewis will get better, don't believe other people's nonsense."

At the end, she added: "Don't even think about remarrying me and your brother, it will be impossible for me and him in this life."

Liberty didn't turn back!

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1689 -Chelsea smiled sheepishly, looked at Sonny twice, and said: "Sonny must have a father."

Liberty: "Doesn't Sonny have a father now? No matter how my relationship with Hank is, he is Sonny's father. This is a fact that will never be erased."

Chelsea: "No, no, I said the wrong thing, I think Sonny can only be happy if he grows up in a healthy family. I think Sonny is very happy now, and he is always happy at any time. Before, his father was busy going to work every day, busy with other Women play, and he hadn't been with him much, and now he comes to see him occasionally, what's the difference from before?"

Liberty: "Sonny has already adapted to the days without his father's company. With me and Serenity accompanying him, he Carefree, happy and healthy growth."

Chelsea was speechless. She also knew that it was useless to talk about Sonny.

Their family had never given up, and they had said countless times in front of Liberty, but there was always a result.

For Hank, he regretted it, but he knew Liberty well, and knew that even if he turned around and pursued Liberty again, there would be no advantage.

Liberty said to Chelsea: "If you are really good for Hank, stop meddling in the affairs of your natal family in the future, stop speaking ill of your sister-in-law in front of your parents, and stop picking apart people, then his little life will gradually get better, otherwise you will change a hundred sister-in-law are all the same result.

I don't know what you think, you have just a younger brother, and your parents are getting old. When your parents are a hundred years old, who will entertain them when you return to your in-laws's house? It's your brother, is it? Your sister-in-law, you are making such a fuss now, are you planning to stop returning to your natal family after a hundred years from your parents?

When you have a sister-in-law, it's best not to interfere in the marriage of your natal brother, don't talk so much, and don't unite with your parents to target your sister-in-law, and make your brother divorce once. Are you happy? How many more times do you want your brother to get divorced?

You have a son and a daughter yourself, your daughter is in her teens, and after ten or eight years she will get married. At that time, your daughter would often go back to her mother's house to make troubles and alienate her younger brother and sister-in-law, what do you think?"

Chelsea: "Liberty, are you trying to speak up for Jessica? She is so vicious. So bad, I almost took my little treasure away, I hated her so much, I swore I didn't want her to have a better life."

"I'm not saying good things for Jessica, I'm pointing out the real problem. Back then, Hank and I get to the point of divorce, isn't it due to your contribution? What happened to Jessica is the result of the choice she made in the first place. What you sow results in what you plant, and you can't blame others."

Chelsea blushed and was speechless. After a long while, she said: "Liberty, I went to buy something and then went back to the hospital. I told my mother to buy something and left the hospital. There is no one to take care of that poisonous woman now. Besides me and my mother, who cares about her?"

After Chelsea finished speaking, she hurried away without waiting for Liberty to speak again.

After watching her aunt leave, Sonny walked over to Liberty and asked, "Mom, what is Auntie doing here?"

Liberty: "Auntie didn't do anything, Auntie just came to see you."

Sonny snorted without doubting her mother's words.

Because his aunt treated him a lot better, at least she won't bring brother Lucas over to snatch his things.

Jessica had a miscarriage, and it was estimated that she would be punished by the law again soon. For this, Liberty really did not sympathize with Jessica at all.

She persuaded Chelsea like that just now, and she didn't know if Chelsea would listen to it. Based on her understanding of Chelsea, she probably wouldn't listen to divorce from Jessica.

Jessica chose Hank as a married man at the beginning, and she had come to today step by step. She had her natal family and couldn't go back. Her parents, brothers and sisters-in-law all blamed her.

It's hard for her in-law's family to stay any longer, she just played a good hand of cards badly.

In fact, Jessica was still capable at work, and she was young and beautiful. If she hadn't taken the wrong step of not getting involved in other people's marriages, not being a mistress, but choosing to stay away from Hank and marry a single man, her life would definitely be different.

It could only be said that Jessica wanted to settle down and take root in the city because of Hank's status at the beginning. She had no relationship with Hank at first, but when Hank and Liberty had a serious quarrel, she had a relationship with Hank.

Now that she had come to this point, it was her own fault, and she was not worthy of sympathy.

"Mom, why didn't Uncle Duncan come today?" Sonny asked his mother.

Remembering that he went to see Uncle Duncan in the hospital with his mother yesterday, he asked again: "Mom, is Uncle Duncan still recovering?"

Uncle Duncan said that he would recover soon.

Sonny thought that Uncle Duncan would recover today.

Liberty said softly: "Uncle Duncan will be healed after a while, Sonny, are you missed Uncle Duncan?"

Sonny nodded.

He was used to seeing Duncan every day, but suddenly he couldn't see him one day, and he felt very uncomfortable.

"Mom, can you take me to the hospital to visit Uncle Duncan?"

Liberty thought that Duncan didn't want to see her, but she didn't say she didn't want to see Sonny. She was also concerned about Duncan's injury, even though she was kicked out of Duncan's ward early in the morning, A day had not yet passed, and she felt that it had passed for a long time.

She hoped Duncan could recover soon.

Liberty: "Okay, mom will take you to the hospital to visit Uncle Duncan."

Sonny was very happy.

Liberty put the unfinished dumplings back into the freezer, cleaned up briefly, and left the breakfast shop with Sonny.

Sonny said to her, "Mom, I want to buy a bouquet of flowers for Uncle Duncan."

Sonny remembered that when his mother was in the hospital, everyone would send a bouquet of flowers to his mother when he came to visit.

He thought that as long as he went to the hospital to visit others, he would buy a bouquet of flowers.

"Okay." Liberty agreed to his son.

She drove her son straight to Spring Blossoms, and bought a bunch of flowers from Camryn.

"Sister Liberty."

When Liberty was about to leave, Camryn quickly stopped Liberty, and she said, "Sister Liberty, I just asked someone to buy some supplements, and I wanted someone to send them to Mr. Lewis. In general, if you go to the hospital now, can you help me bring these supplements to Mr. Lewis?"

I thought about going there by myself, but I can't see and it's inconvenient to go out, so I have to ask you."

Camryn and Duncan had no friendship, but the Lewis family and the York family had a very deep friendship, and Callum called Duncan to be his brother, and now she represented the Newman family, and she wanted to establish diplomatic relations with the big families in Wiltspoon, not only for Callum's sake, but also because of her desire to make friends, so Camryn bought these supplements.

"Why don't you go to the hospital with us?" Liberty suggested.
