Married at First Sight Chapter 1628 – Serenity put Sonny down, and led him back into the house.

Zachary just came down from upstairs, when he saw Serenity and Sonny, he said with a smile: “The little guy runs really fast, and he slipped faster than a rabbit as soon as I helped him put on his clothes. Your sister is going back!”

Serenity: “Going back.”

Soon, the couple sat down on the sofa.

Sonny was playing by himself in front of the couple.

“Husband, about Sonny’s going to kindergarten, my sister said that if you can help Sonny enter Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten to receive preschool education, then she can do her a favor. Tell me how much it will cost, and my sister will pay for it. If I can’t help, I won’t ask you about it. I will cover it with me to ensure that your nephew can enter the Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten. There is no fee. Even if it is necessary, I will help my sister out.

“About the tuition fees...” Before Zachary could finish speaking, Serenity interrupted him, saying: “My sister said as Sonny is her son, and she should pay the tuition fees. That is her responsibility as a mother, and she can pay that money, so she will let Sonny go to the best kindergarten. If we compete with her, she will not let Sonny go to the best kindergarten. Husband, I think it is very difficult for me to complete the task you entrusted to me.”

Zachary thought about Liberty’s temper, and said, “That’s okay, we won’t compete with her, the villa for her, Definitely give it to her, let’s go to see the house when we have free time, look at the kind of fine decoration, don’t need her to spend time and effort on decoration.”

“Okay.” Serenity told Zachary that Mrs. Lewis had an appointment with Liberty tonight.

In this regard, Zachary was not surprised at all. If it wasn’t for her and the merchants, with Mrs. Lewis’s temperament, she would have forced Liberty to left Wiltspoon.

Zachary: “The matter between Sister and Duncan is up to them to settle it themselves. As long as Mrs. Lewis doesn’t treat sister forcefully, we won’t interfere.”

Serenity nodded.

Liberty returned to her rented house alone, and unexpectedly saw her ex-husband Hank waiting for her at the door of her rented house.

She frowned.

She somehow guessed the reason why Hank came here again.

“You’re back.” Hank asked politely, “Where’s Sonny?”

Hank still had two bags of things in his hand, one was snacks and the other was all kinds of small toys, bought by himself for Sonny.

Liberty: “Sonny lives in Serenity’s house, so it’s convenient for Jim to send him to class.”

Hank: “Sonny is preparing to go to kindergarten! Have you decided where you want Sonny to attend kindergarten? If it is not convenient for you to pick him up, I will gladly assist him.”

Hank thought that Sonny was his son, so if he could help as a father, he still needed to help.

Liberty: “No need, Jim will pick up Sonny. It hasn’t been decided yet.”

Before Zachary gave her a definite answer, Liberty would not tell Hank that she would send her son to the best kindergarten in Wiltspoon.

Liberty opened the door, pushed it open, and entered the room; Hank followed. Liberty did not close the door.

“I brought Sonny some food and something to play with. I was going to play with him tonight...I broke my promise.”

After Hank took Jessica out of the mall, he insisted on taking her to the hospital examine.

After the doctor’s examination, knowing that Jessica was fine, Hank knew that Jessica had lied to him. He was a little angry, but facing his pregnant wife, he finally held back his temper.

Married at First Sight Chapter 1629 – After coming out of the hospital, Hank accompanied Jessica to another shopping mall and bought what Jessica wanted to buy.

After returning home, he always thought of the intimate scenes between Duncan and Sonny, and was very irritable, worried that his son would really be snatched away by Duncan and call Duncan his father.

After Jessica had a rest, Hank went out quietly, bought some snacks and toys and went straight to Liberty.

Liberty didn't think about going over to get him back.

It was impossible for him and Liberty to open the bow without turning back.

But Sonny was his seed, how could he be as affectionate as the man who pursued his ex-wife? Duncan had seriously threatened his status as a father.

"Is the baby in your wife's belly okay?" Liberty asked lightly.

Hank said in embarrassment: "It's okay."

Liberty: "Sonny is not short of food and play now, you don't need to buy him so many things."

"I know he is not short, but after I left, did Sonny feel lost?" Hank felt sorry for his son.

Before, Hank spent too little time with Sonny. At that time, he happened to be having a heated fight with Jessica, and all his thoughts were on Jessica.

After the divorce, the number of times he spent with Sonny was even more rare.

Liberty: "Sonny is a little lost, but he will be fine soon."

Hank heard that Sonny would be lost because of his departure, so he was slightly relieved, at least his son still cared about him as a father.

Liberty poured Hank a glass of warm water.

After a moment of silence, Hank looked at Liberty and asked tentatively, "Liberty, you and Duncan..."

"What's wrong?" Liberty asked him back.

Hank: "It's nothing, I just don't think you and Duncan are suitable. If you want to remarry, I definitely have no right to stop you. But you are Sonny's biological mother. If you marry again, you will marry Sonny. If you don't marry well, I'm afraid My son was injured, so he would talk too much."

Hank made excuses for his jealousy.

Hank: "Liberty, you have to think twice and think carefully. Duncan is really not suitable for you."

Liberty was not angry, but said in a calm tone, "I don't dare to bother you with my feelings. Now, you can live your life well."

Hank worked as an online car-hailing driver, and although he didn't make much money, he did have a source of income.

It's just that the family life was very lively.

Liberty was too aware of the virtues of her ex-mother-in-law and her ex-aunt. Even if Jessica was pregnant, the mother and daughter would not make it easier for Jessica.

It was still unknown whether the child in Jessica's womb would be born normally.

It's fine if it's a son, but if it's a daughter, it's no surprise that the mother and daughter don't bother Jessica.

In short, Jessica's life would not be easy.

This was Jessica's retribution for destroying other people's marriages and stealing her husband.

Hank was embarrassed.

Liberty: "Mr. Brown, if you have nothing else to do, please go back. It's getting late, I have to rest, and I have to open the shop tomorrow for business."

Hank: "Liberty, I..."

"Mr. Brown, you came here without your wife's consent. If she knew that you secretly came to see Sonny, she might have trouble with you." Jessica said. She didn't like Hank caring too much about Sonny.

Liberty knew it well.

Married at First Sight Chapter 1630 – Before Jessica was not pregnant, she didn't like her in-laws to care about Sonny. Now that she was pregnant, she didn't like it even more.

Mentioning Jessica, Hank really couldn't sit still. He got up and left soon.

After seeing off Hank, Liberty closed and locked the door, feeling a little pleasure in her heart. It's because she saw how miserable Hank was after he remarried.

And the life of her and sonny was getting better and better, this was the best revenge for Hank.

For one night only, no more words. Another new day began with the rising of the sun.

In the days that followed, both Serenity and Liberty were very busy.

Duncan still went to the restaurant where he could eat breakfast every day, and gave Liberty flowers and various gifts. Even if Liberty didn't accept it, he insisted on it every day.

Zachary helped Sonny register in Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten. In September, Sonny would be able to enter Wiltspoon Central Kindergarten to receive preschool education.

The weather was getting hotter and hotter, and it would soon enter June.

In June in Wiltspoon, the weather was really hot.

Josh and Jasmine, who were on their honeymoon, came back in a hurry on June Day.

In order to spend more time with Jasmine, Josh asked Zachary for a two-month marriage leave.

When they went out for their honeymoon, the young couple also planned to play outside for two months before coming back, but after only one month, the couple came back.

Knowing that the couple had returned from their honeymoon ahead of schedule, Serenity had an intuition that something was wrong. When she received the news, she and Elisa came back from their hometown, and the sisters simply went to Bucham's house.

When they arrived at Bucham's house and found out that Jasmine was lying on the bed, the two sisters were startled, thinking that something had happened to Jasmine.

"Auntie, I'll go upstairs to see Jasmine."

Serenity was so anxious that she wanted to know what happened to her friend right away, but she was not polite to Mrs. Bucham, and she proposed to go upstairs to see Jasmine before the chair was warmed up.

Mrs. Bucham smiled and said, "Okay, I'll let you take the two of you up."

Because Josh was still upstairs.

Mrs. Bucham ordered a maid to lead Serenity and Elisa upstairs.

Elisa shook Serenity's hand, and said softly: "Serenity, don't be too nervous and afraid. I see Mrs. Bucham is in a happy mood and smiling so happily, Jasmine will not have any problems. Even if something happens, I guess it will be good thing."

The Bucham family was very satisfied with Jasmine, the daughter-in-law. When Josh was still pursuing Jasmine, Mrs. Bucham gave Jasmine the family heirloom of their house, that was, she recognized Jasmine as the eldest daughter-in-law.

If something happened to Jasmine, Mrs. Bucham would not be in such a good mood.

Serenity thought about it, and felt that it made sense, but she was concerned about it, so she didn't think about it.

If it's a good thing...

She whispered to Elisa: "Could it be that Jasmine is pregnant?"

If she was pregnant during the honeymoon, it would be a joy to enter the door.

If she was really pregnant, no wonder Josh brought Jasmine back in a hurry.

The maid took the two of them up to the second floor, came to the wedding room of Jasmine and Josh, and knocked on the door for them.

"Eldest Young Master, Young Mistress Hunt and Miss Stone have come to visit Eldest Mistress."

Josh, who accompanied his beloved wife in the room and insisted on Jasmine lying on the bed to rest, said to Jasmine after hearing what the maid said: "Serenity and Elisa are here, I will open the door for them, you should be careful and you can't get out of bed, you have to rest well."

Jasmine said to Josh: "I'm pregnant, not sick, I just got pregnant, and I don't feel it at all, it should be fine to continue traveling. I sent it back, and still didn't let me go to the ground."

It was as if Jasmine was a patient.
