Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1790 -It was only past nine o'clock in the evening.

Analia usually stayed with her father, and both father and daughter were often busy until late at night before returning home, even on weekends.

A happy and sweet smile hung on Serenity's face, and she said: "Our Mr. York is now a model husband. As long as I don't accompany him, he will be home at around 9:30 every night. He said that no matter how important work is, they are not as important as me, and he is reluctant to let me wait for him to go home until late at night, and he also wants to get off work early and go home to be with me."

Serenity's smile made Analia feel dazzling, and after listening to Serenity's loving words, Analia's heart was on fire, and wanted to spew out a big fire and burn Serenity to ashes.

Fortunately, she walked around the business world with her father, she was a little more stable, and didn't vent the anger in her heart, or even show it in the slightest.

Analia: "Miss Hunt and Mr. York have such a good relationship."

Serenity smiled and said, "It's excellent. My husband is too nice to me. If he doesn't take care of me in the future, I won't be able to take it. But he said he would take care of me for the rest of his life, and if he had another life, he would take care of me there, too. His sweet talk is so sweet that it makes sense that everyone likes to hear it. However, he has always said what he means, and I think he will do what he says."

Analia was so jealous that he was going crazy.

She kept scolding Serenity in her heart for showing affection to stimulate her on purpose, and it was also a hint to her that Zachary would not change his mind, let her die.

Men, especially rich and powerful men, are cats. How can a cat not steal? She didn't believe that Zachary could guard Serenity for a lifetime without stealing!

Suppressing the jealousy in her heart, Analia also said with a smile: "Everyone likes to hear sweet words, but sweet words are often deceptive and cannot be trusted. Since Miss Hunt, you're not free now, I will ask you to chat another day."

"Ms. Hunt, I really want to friend with you, I hope we can become friends, after all, Dawson Group and York Corporation are cooperating on big projects, and we have contacts from time to time."

Serenity said: "My requirements for making friends are relatively high and I don't care about family background, but I really care about character, if character is not good, no matter how noble the family background is, I don't want to be friends with him."

Analia's face became a little cold.

She felt that Serenity's words imply that she was not good at character and was not worthy of being a friend of her.

"That's right, character is the most important thing." Even though Analia hated her very much in her heart, she didn't show it on the outside and didn't turn her back on her. Even though she thought Serenity was talking about her, Serenity didn't call her by name. That's the check-in.

Unexpectedly, she had a strong mouth and could speak well!

"Miss Hunt, can you give me your contact information, I will ask you out for a cup of coffee another day."

Serenity generously told Analia her mobile phone number.

Even Analia dared to come to her door. Sooner or later, the two of them had to confront each other. There was no need for her to shrink back and be afraid. She generously gave Analia her mobile phone number and waited for her rival to attack again.

Serenity was never afraid of soldiers coming to block, water coming and soil flooding.

Even if there wasn't Analia, there would still be other great people who would tell Serenity that Mr. York was too good. Men or women, wherever they went, they were the center of attention, like a big magnet that pulled in a lot of people.

The flowers don't want to attract bees and butterflies, but the flowers bloom so beautifully, those crazy bees, waves and butterflies come to the door by themselves, entangled endlessly, can anyone blame the flowers for being too beautiful?

Serenity wouldn't blame her husband for being too good; rather, she would feel very lucky that such a good man only liked her. The more potential love rivals appeared, the more it demonstrated how good Zachary was and how she was naturally gifted.
