Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1792 -The driver asked a bodyguard following Serenity.

Sam thought for a while, and said: "I have been with the young mistress to protect her for several months, and I know the young mistress fairly well. I don't think she will offend the young master. Ms. Dawson posted it. What did the young mistress blame the young master for?"

"That's good, what I'm most afraid of is that the young mistress gets angry and doesn't talk to the young master, then we will be out of luck."

When Zachary got angry, it made it hard for everyone.

But the first to suffer were those who could often see Zachary.

Because the driver often drove Serenity, he was already a person who could often see Zachary, so it was normal for him to be worried.

After Serenity entered the room, she sat down on the sofa, and within a few minutes, she heard movement outside, knowing that it was Zachary who had returned.

Zachary's car didn't stop until it drove directly to the door of the main house.

Serenity sat still on the sofa, not as usual, whenever she heard the sound of the car, she would go out to greet him.

Zachary got out of the car with a few bags containing new clothes from a well-known brand, which he presented to Serenity. Serenity's status and attention were at an all-time high at this point. She dressed up, went out for a few laps, or attended a banquet, which was a mobile advertisement.

In the past, only male brands approached Zachary. When Zachary got married, female brands flocked to him.

After Zachary got off the car, he didn't see his beloved wife coming out to greet him, and he didn't even see Sam, so he felt abnormal.

Instead of entering the house in a hurry, he called Sam and asked him: "What happened at home before I came back? Is your young mistress in a bad mood?"

Sam replied softly: "Master, Please enter the room and ask the young mistress; this is a private matter between the young master and the young mistress; we are not good at conversing. Young master, we can take the day off. Let us go first, Young Master, and have a good night."

Sam quickly slipped away. And the other bodyguard and driver were also smart enough to withdraw before Sam slipped away.

Sam said it was something.

Zachary looked at Jim and the others.

Jim said: "Young master, we have been following you, and we don't know what you don't know."

Zachary didn't say anything, he just glanced at them, and didn't ask them, so he didn't need to be so quick.

He strode into the house with several bags.

As soon as he entered the room, he yelled: "Honey, I'm back."

Serenity responded to him: "I heard the movement a long time ago and knew you were back. What did you buy for me?"

With the bag in his hand, he bought things for her, and what he needed was for her to buy things for him.

"A brand of women's clothing has released new products. Their general manager personally sent you a few sets of new products. I brought them back for you. You can see if you like them." Zachary walked over, sat down next to his wife, and handed several bags to her.

Serenity said helplessly: "I already have a lot of new products from brands in my cloakroom, and I can't even wear them."

He gave her so many clothes that she could become a fashion model.

Zachary put his arms around her shoulders and said with a smile: "Don't force yourself to wear something if you don't like it; instead, wear it if you do."

Taking out those new sets of clothes to have a look, Serenity took a fancy to two sets and said, "I like these two sets of clothes, and I will wear them the next time I go to an event with you. Send it to me first when it comes out on the market, and always give others the benefit of the doubt."

Zachary: "If you want to wear it, go ahead; if not, don't worry about how it makes them look. You are being used as advertising, and you are dressed in their attire. Attend the event, and they will explode if they introduce new products."
