

Read Novel Married At First Sight

Read Novel Chapter 1737

Novel Chapter 1737 -Zachary was still worried that she would be angry, so he asked cautiously: "Are you really not angry, honey? Didn't you pretend? Apart from you, I will never like other women and I will never even give them a chance. I swear to God. You are the only person who can fit in my tiny heart; there is no room for anyone else."

"Husband, Since you are so good, it would be strange if no one liked you. In addition, the more people who like you, the more it proves my luck. So, really, I'm not angry at all. I am aware of how much incense must still be burned before I can marry you in this life." Serenity was really not angry.

Serenity had to mentally prepare herself for the possibility that she might occasionally experience a rival in love after marrying such a wonderful husband.

After all, not every girl had the same level of maturity as her cousin Elisa, who had the means to forgive.

After Serenity repeatedly assured that she would not be angry, Zachary was relieved.

After the couple finished talking, Zachary immediately called Josh and asked him to check for him.

Josh complained: "Zachary, can't you let me accompany my wife well? My wife is just pregnant, and my vacation is not over yet."

After complaining, he said straightforwardly: "I'll help you right away. You check it out, and then share it with my wife, so that she will always be at the forefront of eating melons."

Zachary: "..."

His response was to hang up the phone directly.

Such small things were easy for Josh to eat.

When Serenity took Sonny out together, on the way to Wiltspoon Hotel, Zachary received a reply from Josh, and some evidence that Josh sent to his mobile phone, which proved that the bouquet and clothes were sent by Analia.

Zachary didn't tell Mr. Dawson right away. When Serenity arrived at the hotel, Zachary said to Mr. Dawson: "Mr. Dawson, my wife is here. I'll go downstairs to pick her up."

Then he said to Kevin: "Kevin, you should stay here and talk to Mr. Dawson."

Mr. Dawson said with a smile: "Mr. York, please do what you want."

After Zachary got up and left, Mr. Dawson said to Kevin: "It can be seen that Mr. York really loves his wife."

Kevin laughed and said, "My elder brother is the most famous in Wiltspoon for doting on his wife. He won't change his mind for the rest of his life."

Mr. Dawson sighed, "I'm afraid no one can take the place of the eldest mistress."

His daughter fell in love with Zachary at first sight, and it was destined to be fruitless.

Thinking of his repeated persuasion, his daughter didn't seem to listen, and felt that Serenity was not worthy of Zachary, only she was worthy, and Mr. Dawson was very worried.

Although Dawson group and York Corporation had never met each other before, Mr. Dawson had heard a lot of rumors about Zachary, and his daughter, Analia had also heard a lot. Before meeting Zachary, Analia had no interest in Zachary.

Mr. Dawson had always taken his daughter by his side to study, and taught many things hand in hand.

After all, his daughter would eventually receive the Dawson Group as an inheritance. It would be wonderful if he could be a successor who would safeguard the nation because he had no expectation that his daughter would continue the Dawson Family.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-