Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1851 -Callum asked casually, "Where did sister-in-law go?"

"I heard Serenity say that she will be on a business trip for the next two days." Since Harry was already here, Camryn didn't need to go there because she had poor eyesight; otherwise, she would have to travel frequently.

Camryn really wanted to go to the company. Considering that she couldn't see, it would be very troublesome to travel far away, unless she took a private jet, but her family didn't have a private jet, and her future husband's family did have a private jet, so Camryn didn't want to use it.

Zachary didn't explain.

Just be his wife on a business trip.

His wife wasn't home, either. He was depressed because the passage of time seemed to move very slowly and the sun was still hanging high in the sky and not even close to the center of the sky.

Not seeing each other for a day was like three autumns.

This was not true at all but Zachary had a taste of this.

Knowing that Serenity had gone to Jensburg, he wanted to go there immediately, but grandma flew away with Serenity again.

"Duncan, do you want to get out of the car?" Zachary asked.

After Duncan thought for a while, he said, "Please help me with Callum."

Zachary first moved the wheelchair out of the car, and then helped Duncan out of the car with Callum, and sat in the wheelchair.

"Young master Lewis." Hearing Duncan's voice, Camryn turned to him and greeted him politely.

Duncan: "Ms Newman, I want a bouquet of roses."

"Okay, let me wrap it for you." Camryn responded with a smile, then turned around and walked inside, helping Duncan wrap the bouquet skillfully.

Callum didn't help her and Camryn didn't need his help either.

Camryn could live a typical life in her shop where she was familiar. She was familiar with the route from her flower shop to York Corporation because Callum kept asking her to send flowers to him by name.

Now, Callum abducted her back to his home on occasion, allowing her to explore his territory and become acquainted with the surroundings.

Although Dr. Carden promised to come over to help her treat her eyes after giving birth, Callum was also planning for the worst.

After a while, Camryn came over with a bunch of flowers in her arms. Based on her feeling, she handed the bouquet to Duncan, and said with a smile, "Young master Lewis, the bouquet you wanted has been packed for you."

Duncan took the bouquet, Praise her: "Ms. Newman, thank you. You're excellent. You can't see it, but you can match and package the bouquet and the speed is fast."

Camryn: "Practice leads to mastery. In the beginning, I frequently picked the utterly wrong flowers or got pricked by rose thorns. I would also be cut by scissors while packing, but I persisted. After a long time, even if I couldn't see it, I am confident that I can do this effectively."

Duncan was thoughtful.

Camryn was blind, yet she was able to support herself through her flower shop.

As long as he persevered, God will be moved by him and let him stand up again.

After seeing off his eldest brother, Zachery and Duncan, Callum took his fiancée's hand and went back to the cash register to sit down, saying, "Brother Duncan's mentality is much better now, things happen, and we have to face the reality."

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1852 -"I can understand Young master Lewis's mood. In a car accident, he hurt his legs and couldn't stand up. It's normal for him to be unable to accept it for a while. He's not bad. Many people, who made more trouble than him, couldn't accept the fact that he was disabled. Back then, I walked through the gate of h-e-l-l, and when I woke up, my eyes were dark, and I heard my aunt Azalea's voice, so I asked my aunt if it was night, why didn't she turn on the light."

Recalling the time when she just lost her sight. During those days, Camryn was very calm, as if she was telling someone else's story.

“My aunt said it was broad daylight and the sun was very bright outside, so there was no need to turn on the lights. Soon, my aunt was frightened again. She asked me repeatedly if I couldn’t see. I said I couldn’t see. It was dark in front of my eyes. My aunt hurriedly called the doctor... I was blind, and my aunt hugged me and cried. I just felt that the sky was falling, and my eyes were dark, which made me panic because I couldn’t see. I lack a sense of pan-security and am always afraid. Let’s not talk about that, it’s all in the past, and now I have adapted to living in the dark.

School will start soon?” Camryn suddenly asked Callum.

Callum: “It’s about to start school, do you want to meet Trenton?”

Trenton was admitted to a key university, but that university is far away from Wiltspoon, and Camryn was not worried about her younger brother going to study so far alone University, but she felt that her younger brother was a very independent person who could take care of himself and didn’t need her to worry.

However, there was still a gap between the siblings.

Trenton and his aunt Azalea also came forward to discuss Camryn and Callum’s marriage with the York family. After the two held an engagement banquet, Trenton didn’t go home and didn’t see his sister.

“He probably still hates me, so he won’t want to see me.” Camryn sighed.

Camryn thought that she didn’t care about her younger brother’s alienation and indifference. As time passed, she still hoped that the siblings could talk before her younger brother returned to school.

Unfortunately, her younger brother didn’t want to see her. She searched for him a few times but found nothing, so she stopped looking for him.

Callum: “I’ll accompany you to find him. He’s staying at the Wiltspoon Hotel now.”

Every move of his future brother-in-law Trenton was under Callum’s control.

“Didn’t he live in a classmate’s house?” Camryn was surprised. She thought her younger brother was still living in a classmate’s house, did that kid really hate her that much?

“He can’t stay at his classmate’s house all the time. He stayed in Wiltspoon Hotel a week ago, but it was the cheapest room. I think, he chose Wiltspoon Hotel to avoid harassment from his cousins.

Even if the Chandler family and the Joyner family dare not trouble Camryn any more, they can’t see that Camryn is good, and a blind man can marry into the York family as the second young lady. This alone is enough to make the two families go crazy with jealousy.

They alienated the relationship between Camryn's sister and brother, and wanted to use Trenton to deal with Camryn. Camryn was so ruthless to them, and towards Trenton, who knew to protect her since she was a child, she still had some brotherhood.

Camryn's pretty face immediately turned frosty, and said coldly: "They still don't give up!"

Callum took her hand, pulled it up, brought it to his lips, and gently kissed the back of her hand.

"Because you have me, they are crazy with envy." Callum looked at his fiancée's eyes more and more fiercely, and said in a deep and affectionate voice: "Honey, I will make you an object of envy and jealousy, just like my sister-in-law."

As he spoke, Callum kissed her red lip.

Camryn hurriedly pushed him away, covered her mouth, and reminded him with a blushing face: "They are coming back."

The two shop assistants had sent flowers to the customers, counting the time, they were going to be back.

Callum turned his head to look at the entrance of the flower shop, and saw her assistant come back riding a scooter.

Callum walked away sullenly, and continued to water the flowers.

The assistant handed the received money to Camryn, and turned her head to look at Callum who passed by her. When Callum walked out of the store and was watering the flowers outside, she whispered, asked: "Boss, did I make a mistake?"

Camryn took the money handed over by the assistant, touched the few pieces of money, and made sure that there was nothing wrong. After hearing the assistant's question, she said: "No Ah, you're all fine, you didn't make any mistakes."

The assistant: "That's good. I thought I made a mistake, just now when I passed by the second young master York, the second young master York gave me a double stare."

After confirming that she hadn't made a mistake, the assistant breathed a sigh of relief .

Camryn complained about her fiancé in her heart, but she didn't show it on her face. She said with a warm smile: "You may be delusional, why would Callum stare at you, but when he is not smiling, he should look very serious. That way, you will feel that he is staring at you."

In front of her, Callum belonged to the gentle, but in front of others, she dared to say that he had another face.

It's just that she hadn't seen Callum before, and she didn't even know what he looked like.

The assistant: "Maybe I got confused. Boss, you are right. Second Young Master York is a gentle man in front of you, but he is extremely serious in front of others. He looks cold and difficult to get along with."

When the assistant said these words, she only dared to speak in a low voice, not too loudly, for fear of being heard by Callum.

Callum had good hearing, and he actually heard it, but he ignored it, allowing the assistant to comment on him like this, which could also prove that he was special to Camryn.

He also had a good temper in front of familiar people.

Camryn smiled, "He can't be said to be gentle in front of me, more often, he is like... a r*scal."

Callum: "..."

If he hadn't been a r*scal, relying on her, can the two of them get engaged?

He didn't know how long she would avoid him.

Grandma had said to him: 'when you are chasing your wife, what do you have to do with shame? After chasing your wife, you are still shameless in front of your wife.'

His aloof elder brother didn't know how many exceptions he broke for his sister-in-law, and he didn't care how many times he lost face.

"There is no order at the moment. Take a look at the store. I'm going out for a while. I have something to do."

Camryn said to the assistant.

The assistant smiled and said, "Boss, just go and do your work. I'm in the store, and Abby will be back soon."

Abby was Camryn's another assistant.

Camryn was very relieved. She went out and said to Callum who was watering the potted flowers placed in front of the store: "Callum, accompany me to the Wiltspoon Hotel, I will talk to Trenton."

Trenton was on his way out of Wiltspoon, He was going to college in a country he had never been to before. He wouldn't be back as often as when he was in high school. Camryn hoped that her younger brother and she would be able to talk to each other before her younger brother went to college.

"Okay." Callum immediately returned the flower pot to its original location, went into the store and brought her a crutch for the blind, assisted her into the luxury car he had parked outside the shop, and thoughtfully assisted her in fastening her seat belt; he had only just gotten in the car.

After they had left, two persons with binoculars were observing the spring blossoms from the roof of a building on the opposite side of the street. When Callum drove Camryn away, those two persons' eyes were still following Callum's car.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1854 -Spring Blossoms was in the downtown section, not far from Wiltspoon Hotel, the two soon arrived in Wiltspoon Hotel.

Trenton just came out of the hotel with a bag on his back. He didn't know where he wanted to go.

Callum hurriedly got out of the car, and said to Camryn: "Trenton is going out, I'll stop him first, get out of the car slowly, and be careful."

"Okay, go stop him. I can get out of the car on my own."

She was forced by Callum to often go out in his car, and she was already familiar with it, and she would not be tripped when she got in and out of the car freely.

Callum walked towards Trenton quickly, Trenton should have made an appointment for an online car-hailing car in advance, he walked towards a car parked in front of the hotel, opened the door and was about to get in the car.

“Trenton.”

Trenton turned his head to look at Callum who was walking over, and then looked behind Callum, and saw his elder sister walking towards him with a crutch for the blind.

Someone ran out of the hotel in a hurry and bumped into Camryn.

Instinctively, Trenton was about to run over, stepped out, and retracted.

Camryn was fine, the man kicked her blind crutch, and after finding out that she was blind, the other party apologized repeatedly.

“She can’t see, so you just watch her go?” Trenton couldn’t help but say something to Callum.

Callum turned his head to look at Camryn, he didn’t see the scene just now, he didn’t know that Camryn was almost hit by someone, he said: “Your sister has come here many times, walk slowly, it’s ok. She was also afraid that you would leave, so she told me to stop you first. Where are you going?”

Callum looked at his fiancée when he asked Trenton.

Trenton was a little angry. Callum didn’t see that scene just now, so he didn’t have to argue with Callum. Now that Callum saw his sister, Callum still stood here, so he couldn’t go forward to help his sister come over?

“Is this how you usually take care of her? Always let her walk by herself?” Trenton said with questioning and accusation.

Trenton was young, but he also knew that the York family was a good place. The eldest sister could be liked by Callum. The two got engaged and became a fiancé couple. He was happy for the eldest sister, but because of his parents and second sister. He and his eldest sister could no longer go back to the past.

The eldest sister was not wrong.

But those were his biological parents and his second sister. It was difficult for him to accept this ending, nor could he face his elder sister calmly.

His aunt Azalea also talked to him. It’s not that he didn’t understand, but it’s hard for him to face it.

The first trial of the parents would be held soon. Trenton did not hire a lawyer for his parents, but his two eldest aunts hired a lawyer for his parents.

He had heard two elder aunts discuss countermeasures, and they discussed behind his back, saying that they would try their best to help his father get rid of the charges, get his father out, kill the second uncle's charges, and plan to push everything to his mother body.

The two elder aunts said that his father did wrong things because of his mother, and now that something happened, his mother would be charged with all the crimes.

He had learned that even if they didn't put all the charges on his mother, his mother's crimes were serious, involving gangsters, suspected of child trafficking, and hurting others. If these kinds of crimes were added together, his mother would at least be charged. Sentenced to more than ten years, if severe, may be life imprisonment or even the death penalty.

Because what his mother did got a lot of attention and had a big effect on society as a whole.

Even though he felt that his mother deserved it, he was still very angry and sad when he heard that they were going to blame her for all the crimes.

The two eldest aunts wanted to return to their biological family to benefit from it, but it was difficult to do so because the eldest sister now also controlled the family's large home.

They also tried their best to discredit the elder sister in front of him.

Callum said: "Your sister is very independent and doesn't like to rely on me for everything. She is always afraid that she will drag me down. Under my nose, I can ensure that she is safe. She can do whatever she wants.

I helped your sister contact Dr. Carden to see her eyes, but we have to prepare for the worst. If Dr. Carden says there is no hope of recovery, your sister will only live in the dark for the rest of her life.

She actually has a little low self-esteem when she is with me, but she hides it very well, so I want her to feel that she will not drag me down and that she can take care of herself, so that she will have the confidence to spend the rest of her life with me. “

Trenton looked at him, and asked a little anxiously: “Didn’t it mean that Dr. Carden is the only apprentice of the genius doctor, she is his successor, and she is unparalleled in medicine and poison? She can’t cure my elder sister’s eyes?”

Elder sister was blind and it was caused by his parents. If the elder sister’s eyes were cured, Trenton’s guilt would be relieved.

“Dr. Carden is unparalleled in medicine and poison, but it is not convenient for her to come here to help your sister’s eyes. Now we can’t be sure that she will be able to cure your sister’s eyes. We always have to plan for the worst.

“Trenton, don’t worry, you and your aunt Azalea trust me so much, I will definitely make Camryn happy and protect her well.”

After Trenton was silent for a while, he asked: “You came here to look for me?”

Callum hummed.

“Where are you going?” Callum asked Trenton again.

Trenton answered him: “I will go to the school to report soon and buy something for myself.”

Before going back to school, his parents would help him clean up. Tell him to help him check whether he has brought all the things.

Now, he had to do everything by himself. Fortunately, he was very independent.

Father loved him the most. He always said that he was the only successor of the Newman family. He should be trained well. He should not be pampered just because he was the only son. He also said that if he did not work hard and was not strong enough, he would not be able to keep the family property in the future.

His parents raised him to be independent from a young age because they loved him but did not spoil him.

On the contrary, he pampered the second sister so much that the second sister didn’t know the heights of heaven and earth. In the end, it was because of the trouble caused by the second sister, which led to a series of things that made his parents pamper the second sister for him and for what they had done before.

“Have a good talk with your sister right away, Trenton. You are almost eighteen years old, and eighteen is the legal age of adulthood. You must face reality and accept reality; running away is a cowardly act. Go buy it later; I’ll go with you.” Callum said to his brother-in-law.

Trenton had a bad face, but he didn’t refute Callum. He apologized to the online car-hailing driver, he couldn’t leave for the time being, and asked the online car-hailing driver to pick up other people’s orders first.

Callum took out his wallet, took out $200 from the wallet and handed it to the driver, and said, “Brother, I’m sorry for wasting your time. He doesn’t need to take your car now. This is for you Compensation, I’m really sorry.”

Callum insisted on giving the money to the driver even though he didn’t want it. After the two of them repeatedly refused, the driver eventually accepted $200, thanked Callum, and started driving away.

Camryn walked slowly and said: “Trenton.”

She faced her younger brother and called him.

Trenton looked at his elder sister for a long time, then hummed, and said, “What do you want me for? It’s hot outside, go sit and talk in the coffee shop on the first floor.”

After finishing speaking, Camryn turned back to the hotel first.
