Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1803 -Hayden: "There should be many suitors."

Kevin: "There are suitors, and I want to like them. If I don't like them, that's their business and has nothing to do with me."

Kevin admitted that he, too, had many suitors. In fact, their brothers had many suitors, and Rowan was still a teenager who received love letters from girls at school.

Hayden agreed with Kevin's words.

She had many suitors as well, but she didn't like any of them. She couldn't like them because she was a normal woman, and she would never accept those girls' feelings.

She just rejected a star's confession before going home.

"Mr. York, You're too good." Hayden praised Kevin, which was also true. Kevin was in fact quite good, and there was nothing wrong with the male members of their York family. They were all excellent and could stand on their own. Even without family support, they could maintain their own businesses.

Her father often boasted that the old lady of the York family would train her children and grandchildren, and that the children and grandchildren could become talents under the training and training of her old man.

'If you have a lot of wealth, you need to be excellent in the younger generation to keep it. If you don't have the ability, no matter how much wealth you have, it will be ruined.'

The children and grandchildren were capable, and the ancestors did not leave too much inheritance, and they could create more wealth.

"Mr. Queen, you're also very good. Mr. Queen, Do you have a girl you like?" Kevin asked Hayden.

"I haven't met a girl I like yet. I am overly occupied with work, and my daily schedule is full. I have no time for a serious relationship. Even though there are numerous suitors, they all like me. I don't like them because it's none of my business."

"I don't care about family background, of course I also want to have a good family of origin, I value the other party's family tradition very much, and I don't care about appearance, they say marrying a wife and a good man, as long as you don't look ugly, I can accept it."

Hayden was obviously a woman, and Kevin had a serious conversation with her about getting married. Hayden had been impersonating a man for more than two decades, and she feared she had forgotten she was a woman.

Kevin faced Hayden, and always treated him as a man, and it was really impossible to unite him with the delicate beauty.

“Mr. Queen, I think the same thing as you do. Men must marry good women when they get married. As long as we have a good heart, we don’t have to worry too much about how we look. When we marry a wife, we both value her family style, no matter how good ours is.”

Kevin said. After finishing, he turned his head to look at Hayden, and said, “Mr. Queen, Your family style is quite good.”

Mr. Queen and Mrs. Queen were the original husband and wife for decades. Mr. Queen resisted the temptation from the outside, unlike others That’s the way to raise the third and fourth children outside, and raise illegitimate children.

Parents’ single-mindedness and loyalty in their relationship and marriage would also affect their children.

Hayden: “Our family has established family rules since the generation of my great-grandmother. The younger generations must be loyal to the family and marriage. Anyone who violates the family rules will be expelled from the house, severed, and not allowed to share a cent of the family property.
