Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1807 -Hayden pretended not to see her parents' small movements.

She wanted her bodyguard to act as Kevin's driver and take Kevin back to the hotel.

Donald said: "Hayden, you let Kevin take your car. Kevin drank a lot of wine. Dad is afraid that he will feel uncomfortable on the road, and no one will take care of him."

Hayden: "... Got it."

She was definitely picked up by her parents.

For her siblings, her parents were not so considerate and caring.

At the request of her parents, Hayden had no choice but to invite Kevin into her special car, and the driver of Maybach of Kevin asked Queen's bodyguard to help him drive back to York's hotel.

After the car drove out of Queen's old mansion, Hayden turned her head to look at Kevin who was leaning on the back of the car seat and closed his eyes to rest after getting in the car.

Hayden: "Is Mr. York drunk?"

Kevin: "I'm not drunk, but the wine is giving me a lot of energy. It's making me a little dizzy, but I'm still awake."

Hayden said after a silence: "My parents like you very much. It was the first time I saw my parents love you so much, my dad took out the good wine he had collected for many years and drank it with you, The wine would be delicious to drink, but it has a lot of energy, and it's usually because you don't feel it when you drink it that you become drunk."

Kevin opened his eyes and looked at her twice, then closed his eyes again. The wine had a lot of energy, and he said: "Uncle Queen and Auntie Queen usually live a bit lonely, your brothers are busy with business matters every day, so they have little time to accompany them.

The most outstanding advantage of me is that I can coax people, that's why Uncle Queen and Auntie Queen like me so much."

Hayden smiled and said, "No wonder your York family's catering business has become a leader in the industry after you took care of it."

Kevin mouth was very good at deceiving people.

“Business people must be eloquent, otherwise how can we talk about business? Mr. Queen, you must be eloquent and eloquent at work, but in life, you’re habitually serious.”

Hayden stopped talking. She was hit by Kevin.

At work, she talked about projects with clients, and she could indeed talk freely.

But in daily life, she was a taciturn person who could not speak without speaking, mainly because she was afraid that if she talked too much, others would see through her fake man identity.

Kevin: “Mr. Queen, I can’t hold on any longer. I have to sleep for a while. When we get here, wake me up.”

Hayden: “Alright.”

Kevin quickly fell asleep.

Hayden turned her head to look at the night scene outside the car window, and didn’t want to stare at Kevin. It’s easy to get distracted by Kevin’s handsome face.

At Queen’s house, after Hayden sent Kevin away, Mrs. Queen pulled her husband to blow the evening breeze and said to him: “After drinking so much wine, blow the evening breeze to sober up.”

“Kevin’s drinking capacity is not bad.” Donald boasted.
