

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 1813

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1813 -Grandma May was not worried at all, she just showed it to Kevin.

After Kevin hung up the phone, Grandma May contacted a master and asked the master to arrange for his apprentice to fly to Jensburg. Round-trip air tickets, board and lodging were all included.

The master readily agreed.

After arranging the affairs of Kevin, Grandma May was in a happy mood, and ran to the eldest grandson's house at night. Sam heard the doorbell and ran to open the door. Seeing that it was Grandma May, he was a little dumbfounded, and opened the door for her and asked: "Madam, if you want to come here, don't call us in advance. We will pick you up. Did you take a taxi?"

Grandma May had no trouble driving, but as she was getting older, her children and grandchildren always asked the driver to pick her up when she came in and out.

"I asked the driver to take me here, and I asked the driver to go back after getting off the car." Grandma May responded, "I don't need you to pick me up, and I don't need to call in advance. Are Zack and Serenity back?"

It was late at night, In fact, it was only around 9:00 p.m.

Sam replied: "Young Master usually arrives home at 9:30, and Mistress usually arrives home before Master comes back, but tonight Mistress is accompanying Young Master to socialize, so she may not come back so soon."

Grandma May walked to the villa Said: "The young couple is getting busier."

Sam said: "Compared to before, the young master is much more relaxed. It is the young mistress who is getting busier. The young mistress is busy with her business and also takes care of the young master's business."

Grandma May hummed.

After entering the house, Sam asked the old lady: "Do you want something to drink, Madam?"

"Just give me a glass of warm water." Sam poured the old lady a glass of warm water.

"Sam, I just came here to take a look when I was bored. I have nothing else to do. Sit down and let's chat." Everyone was at ease in front of Grandma May, who had a good temper, and they acted as though they were old friends.

Sam sat down.

Sam: "Recently, eldest young master and eldest young mistress are okay here. they haven't been back to the villa for a while. eldest young master just asked the eldest young mistress to write a love letter to him, or to ask the eldest young mistress to coax him in various ways."

The old lady laughed and said: "Zack is a arrogant and coquettish guy, only Serenity can tolerate him."

Sam: "Madam, there is something, I don't know whether I should tell you."

Grandma May: "Since you have opened your mouth, just say it, don't tickle my curiosity and don't say it."

The old lady picked up the water glass and drank half a cup of warm water. She said to Sam with a good temper: "Don't worry that Zack will blame you. Even if you don't tell me, I can still find out what I want to know. Zack knows my skills and won't suspect you."

Sam: "A young beautiful miss is following to our young master."

Sam immediately felt sympathy for the eldest young mistress. The eldest young mistress occasionally had to deal with the sudden appearance of a rival in love, and she was unable to relax until she was old.

Grandma May said without the slightest surprise, "With his face and status, many girl like him. Although Zack has a firm relationship, he loves Serenity very much, and will not betray their marriage, but I also said that his love luck is very prosperous, and when he is fifty or sixty years old, his love luck will be weaker."

Grandma May asked, "By the way which daughter has taken a fancy to your young master this time? Does Serenity know? When Serenity comes back, I will talk to her and teach her how to deal with rivals in love."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-