Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1816 -Grandma May smiled and asked Zachary: "Do you want grandma to cook a delicious soup for you now?"

Zachary's face was a little red, "The weather's hot, I don't want to have a nosebleed."

Grandma May: "Did you see Shawn Lowe?"

After a moment of silence, Zachary nodded and said, "The Lowe family sees that my relationship with Serenity has stabilized, and Shawn is also resigned, so they take Shawn out of the house."

The branch company was transferred back and re-entered Lowe Enterprise, and now acts as Mr. Lowe's secretary, following Mr. Lowe every day, and Mr. Lowe personally takes him and teaches him."

Lowe Enterprise would still be handed over to Shawn in the future.

Didn't even think about the offshoots of the Lowe family.

Shawn was Mrs. Lowe's biological son and Jasmine's cousin. After Jasmine married into the Bucham family as a young mistress, the offshoots of the Lowe family gave up their hearts and dared not think about the Lowe Enterprise anymore.

With a cousin like Josh around, if he dared to compete with Shawn for Lowe Enterprise, he would be courting death, he might as well be honest.

Otherwise, after Shawn came to power, he would eradicate dissidents like the eldest lady of the Newman family, and they would not be worth the loss.

Grandma May: "Mr. Lowe has only one son and one daughter. When his son is promising and capable of taking over the company, how could he raise his nephew and daughter? Shawn is a good guy, but you suppressed him because he likes Serenity."

Zachary defended himself, "Grandma, I never suppressed Shawn, it was his parents who sent him to the branch."

Grandma May laughed.

Zachary didn't suppress Shawn, but he suppressed the Lowe Enterprise. Mr. Lowe and his wife knew that Serenity's husband was Zachary, and after their son fell in love with Serenity, in order to protect themselves, they had no choice but to send their son to the most remote branch office.

It not only tempered his son's character, but also separated him and Serenity, forcing him to break up his relationship and give up his heart.

Grandma May said: "Now that he has come back and re-entered the Lowe Enterprise, are you unhappy seeing him? Serenity has known him for more than ten years, and because of you, he has become estranged, but in public, Serenity said a few words to him. If so, that's a very normal thing.

You, that heart is still like the eye of a needle. Serenity was unlucky to drink wine with other people's spices tonight, and you were the indirect harm, you provoked so many people. Analia brought Serenity a rival in love, so you have the nerve to blame Serenity for saying hello to Shawn."

Zachary: "...Grandma, I didn't provoke Analia. What did Shr say?"

Zachary opened his mouth, but couldn't refute.

Grandma May took out a piece of red paper and handed it to Zachary.

Zachary: "Grandma, what is this?"

Grandma May: "The dowry gift for Serenity is ready. These are a few good days. You pick a good day and send the dowry gift to Liberty's residence for her to have a look at. Remember to go to Mrs. Stone, she is Serenity's aunt, Serenity's natal family, and she cares most about Mrs. Stone and Liberty."

As for the relatives in her hometown, if Serenity were willing to invite them to the wedding regardless of the past, the York family would also treat each other with courtesy, but if they wanted to represent Serenity's natal family to see the bride price for Serenity, she probably wouldn't be willing.

She didn't look at the fact that her relationship with her grandparents in her hometown seemed to have eased a lot; in fact, the two sisters still had hatred in their hearts.

It's just that they got back what they deserved. In addition, their grandparents were getting old and had one leg in the coffin. The sisters didn't want to make trouble with them anymore.

Zachary had stopped suppressing their uncles and auntie, but their situation was deteriorating. They couldn't even estimate any business and were constantly losing money.

People in the village said that God is taking revenge on them.

No matter what the people asked them to do, nothing would go well.

Maybe it was the soul of the third son of the Hunt family who came back to punish his brothers, uncles and nephews.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1817 -Zachary had already prepared the bride price for Serenity, but the elders in the family had to add something to it, so he delayed until now and hadn't actually delivered the bride price.

He still saw a few good days selected by Grandma, and decided to use the most recent good day.

The betrothal gift had been sent, and the wedding had to be prepared.

He wanted to give Serenity a grand wedding that would cause a sensation in Wiltspoon, surpassing Josh and Jasmine's wedding.

Since Serenity was his wife, he refused to allow other women to touch him again. Outside, he would never like them.

"How are you and Serenity doing?" Grandma May asked casually.

"Very well, Serenity and I have always been very good, but Serenity is busy now and always ignores me. If I didn't remind her from time to time and show my presence in front of her every day, she might forget me.

Grandma, You really don't know. If Serenity is on a business trip, she really doesn't text or call me for days and nights. Instead, she plunges into her business. She's even more of a workaholic than I was before.

When Serenity is on a business trip, I stay in the empty room alone. It will be a long night, and I will not be able to sleep alone. If I don't send her a message or make a phone call for a day, I won't eat well or sleep well."

Zachary looked sad while he was talking.

Grandma May chuckled, and stabbed him with what he said before: "I didn't know who said that he didn't chase his wife before. The person who said this never thought that one day he would like to turn into a brown candy and stick to his wife all the time."

Zachary: "...Grandma, how long has it been, and you still stab me."

Grandma May: "As long as you can stab me, grandma can stab you. Haha, grandma like to see you being slapped in the face the most."

Zachary looked at his grandma helplessly.

Besides grandma who dared to treat him like this, there was Serenity.

After grandma laughed, Zachary asked her: "Grandma, you're done with work?"

Grandma May: "I'm not yet an adult, and I don't know if I can live to the day when I urge Rowan to get married."

Zachary didn't like to hear such depressing words from grandma, although grandma was over eighty years old and in good health and well maintained. That's right, she looked like she was in her early sixties, and no one could tell that she was that old anymore.

"Grandma, you're still young, and it won't be a problem to live for another few decades. Serenity and I will count on grandma to help us train us after we have a baby."

Grandma May said: "You grandma is not old at heart. Don't worry, she will be able to take care of your children and discipline them, and grandma will still be able to live until then."

She had a hunch that next year, at the end of next year at the latest, she would be able to hold her great-grandson, a great-granddaughter would be even better.

Everyone said that Zachary and his wife were destined to have both a son and a daughter, with the son coming first and the daughter following. Did this imply that after Serenity was pregnant, the first child might be a son, and the second child would be a daughter?

It would be even better if Serenity could be like the eldest grandma's family and have both children.

In this way, grandma could wake up smiling from her dream.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1818 -Zachary: "Besides, I have only Serenity alone, no matter how young and beautiful the women outside are, I only have Serenity in my eyes."

Grandma May nodded, "I still believe in myself, the grandson I trained by myself will not a ruthless person, and I also believe that Serenity still loves you, so she will guard her man and deal with her rivals outside. If she doesn't want to fight, control or defend, then it's against you to give up."

Zachary's face was dark, but he knew that what grandma said was the truth.

Serenity was not the kind of person who regarded love as everything. Whenever he had the slightest intention of cheating, Serenity would definitely break his love with a sword. She didn't need him to take the initiative. She would take the initiative to give him up to others, and she was too lazy to fight with others. She said that what could be taken away was not true love, since it was not true love, why should she keep it?

If you can keep people but can't keep your heart, it's better to break up with each other, and you don't have to make such an ugly mess.

"Grandma, I don't have any feelings for Analia. I haven't even looked at her. She posted it on her own initiative. Serenity insisted on fighting on her own, but I watched from behind. If she dares to confront Serenity, I promise to make her regret it."

Zachary still explained Analia's matter to grandma.

He knew that before he came back, grandma had already learned about that incident through Sam.

Analia's admiration was like a disaster to Zachary.

Grandma May smiled and said: "If she dares to attack Serenity, you don't need to do it. Serenity can beat her all over the place. Serenity hasn't practiced for a long time, and she is looking for someone to practice with."

Zachary laughed.

His wife would really do what grandma said.

Grandma May: "As long as it doesn't affect the relationship between the two of you, grandma doesn't care. If you dare to let Serenity suffer a little bit of grievance, don't blame grandma for being rude to you. I have too many grandsons, no baby, I am in need of a grandson-in-law now. It's a treasure, you can't lose it."

Zachary: "..."

His grandma was a typical example of wanting a granddaughter-in-law instead of a grandson.

"Zack, grandma is staying at your house for the past few days. When you two are free, you can take me back to the villa. And don't keep complaining that Serenity ignores you. Serenity works so hard for you, she could have lived a free and relatively relaxed life, because she was under a lot of pressure after marrying you, so she worked so hard.

If she didn't love you, if she didn't want to spend the rest of her life with you, she could completely let go. You don't need to work so hard, you have to understand her more, care about her, tolerate her, and help her when she needs help.

Marriage requires two people to work together, understand each other, and give each other, in order to grow. It's been a long time.

After all, you are also very busy with work. When you are so busy, you don't have time to accompany her. Has she ever made trouble with you? You, a dignified seven-foot man, always behave like a kid, relax your mind.

"It's all in the past that Shawn likes Serenity, and Serenity is good, that's why he likes Serenity, so you don't need to be jealous.

Get up early tomorrow, give me a loving breakfast. How long has it been since you prepared breakfast for her?"

Zachary: "...Grandma, I understand, you can stay as long as you want."

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1819 -Grandma May said: "The cabbage has been arranged for you, do you want me to chop it up and cook it for you and feed it to your mouth?"

Zachary's face turned dark.

As long as grandma mentioned cabbage, it meant that the brothers were like pigs.

Had Grandma ever seen a pig as good-looking as them?

Always treated them like pigs.

Grandma May yawned, and she stood up, "Grandma is sleepy, go to rest, and you go to bed early."

Zachary: "Good night, grandma."

Grandma May was about to go upstairs to rest, stopped after walking a few steps, turned around and asked Zachary: "Does Liberty still need to take care of Duncan after he is discharged from the hospital? That kid is also obsessed. He obviously loves her to death, but he pretends to let go."

“Sister leads the red line, hurry him to death!” Zachary hurriedly spoke good words for his friend, lest the old naughty grandma had no one to arrange for, so he went to worry about his friend’s affairs, he said: “Duncan just came home from the hospital, so many people in the family take care of him. He doesn’t need my sister to go to Lewis house to take care of him for the time being.

Duncan did that because he was afraid of dragging my sister down, but he is in more pain than anyone else. My sister has bought a restaurant now, and she is also busy with business matters. Duncan feels sorry for her being tired, no matter how uncomfortable it is, he will bear it in a short time.

If the rehabilitation took a long time and there was no progress, Duncan might lose his temper again, and only then did Liberty need to go on stimulating him.

Hank also had an accident. He was stabbed several times by his current wife, Jessica. He is still lying in the ICU. I don’t know if he can survive in the end. My sister still takes Sonny to the hospital occasionally.”

Grandma nodded and said, “Liberty is affectionate and righteous. For the sake of Sonny, she never said anything bad about her ex-husband in front of Sonny.”

Grandma May felt sorry for Liberty; if Duncan didn’t know how to cherish Liberty, she promised to introduce a good man to her so that her second spring would be a hundred times happier than the first.

Let both Duncan and Hank regretted it.

After being discharged from the hospital, Duncan, who was recuperating at home, sneezed a few times inexplicably.

Grandma Mya went upstairs to rest, and Zachary sat downstairs for a while, and then went upstairs to accompany his wife.

The following day, when the sun was at its highest, Serenity finally woke up.

After waking up, she felt that her waist was a little sore. While rubbing her waist, she picked up the mobile phone on the bedside counter, and saw a note pressed under the mobile phone.

She knew it was a note from her man without asking.

“Honey, I cooked breakfast for you myself. You eat breakfast when you get up, and I also made you a cup of tonic soup. You must drink the tonic soup. Grandma came over last night and will stay at our house for a few days.”

The signature was: Zachery who loves you.

Grandma was here?

Serenity's focus was on the arrival of Grandma May.

Why didn't she know grandma was here? She came here last night. She accompanied Zachary to a social event last night, and she was attending a banquet.

At the banquet, she met Shawn whom she hadn't seen for a long time. The two greeted each other, and she casually asked about Shawn's recent situation.

In any case, she grew up watching him grow up. She regarded him as her younger brother, and she was also a good friend's first cousin. Serenity felt that the few conversations she had with Shawn were the most normal.

But Zachary was obviously unhappy.

Serenity scowled as she recalled what happened the previous evening. How could she remember last night's events where she brought Zachary two glasses of wine, gave him one, and then drank one herself before convincing him to clink glasses with her and making him happy once more.

Then she drank and had no memory after that.

Novel Married at First Sight Chapter 1820 -This time Analia called Serenity.

The called ID name showing was 'No. 1 rival, Analia'.

Analia came to her door and asked for her contact information at the end. Serenity was ready to fight her love rival and was not afraid of Analia's contact, so she gave Analia her mobile phone number. She got a fake number and made a phone call in front of her.

Serenity made a note of Analia's mobile phone number, thinking that she would have more rivals in love in the future, so she numbered Analia as "1".

Let's see how many numbers her rival number could end.

Serenity answered Analia's call.

Analia: "Miss Hunt."

"Ms. Dawson, you asked me out for coffee?" Serenity asked Analia directly.

After Analia choked, she said with a smile, "Don't worry, I will definitely find time to treat you to drink the cup of coffee I owe you."

Serenity: "I'll wait."

Analia: "Miss Hunt, you seem to have just woken up."

Serenity's eyes flickered, and she said calmly: "Ms. Dawson, just say something."

"Miss Hunt, it's nothing, just explain to you that I have something urgent to go home that night, so I will miss the appointment."

Serenity Oh, let out a cry.

The two were rivals in love. When they were not arguing, there was really nothing to talk about.

After a moment of silence between each other, Analia broke the silence between each other and said bluntly: "Miss Hunt, I like Zachary and fell in love with him at first sight."

Serenity: "Ms. Dawson, You're going to confess to Zachary? Then you should go to Zachary, tell Zachary face to face."

At least not right now, Analia lacked the courage to confess to Zachary. She was free from her father's restrictions once the two businesses' cooperation came to an end, so she could pursue Zachary without hesitation.

Men are like cats, and she has cats that don't eat fish.

It's been a year since Zachary and Serenity got married, mightbe Zachary got tired of Serenity a long time ago.

Serenity had never been pregnant, and the two of them still hadn't tied the knot. In private, a lot of people claimed Serenity wasn't fertile.

Zachary was the eldest grandson and the head of the York family, which had a successful career. He must have an heir and be incredibly eager to have children.

This time was right, she pursued Zachary in hopes of winning his heart and convincing him to leave Serenity and marry her.

If she had Zachary and the York Corporation as her backing, she wouldn't have to worry about her cousins snatching the Dawson Group from her.

"When I have a chance, I will confess my love to Zachary. Miss, Hunt, I am better than you, and I am more suitable for Zachary than you. I am a person who will not give up until I achieve my goal. I have never been so interested in a man. I feel that I have never been married since I was single, and I don't have a boyfriend. I am just waiting to meet Zachary."

When the topic started, Analia said everything she wanted to say.

Serenity cursed shamelessly in her heart, but on the face she was very calm, and asked Analia: "Then what? Let me make room for you, Ms. Dawson? Or Ms. Dawson, you advise me to be more generous and share Zachary with you?"

Analia's face darkened, and she said, "I don't like sharing with others."

What she wanted was everything.
