Chapter 1981 Act According To The Plan

Once the matter had been settled, Maya looked at Davin and asked, "Uncle Davin, why are you here?"

He explained, "I'm here for a business meeting. There haven't been many customers patronizing the underground palace recently. I heard from Nina that Stephen had brought her to a very special place for her birthday celebration. It's a tastefully designed manor. I want to find out more. I'm wondering if I should move the underground business back up."

Maya recalled those gorgeous photos that Nina had posted on her social media. "Uncle Davin, that manor that Nina went to on her birthday was indeed gorgeous. The room was also very unique. Nowadays, there are lots of people who prefer lodgings with a theme. I feel that you should check them out. If you can incorporate the elements into your business, I'm sure it will become very popular."

"Themed lodgings?" Davin went silent for a while before saying, "All right. I will think about it."

Next, he turned around to the man standing beside him and asked, "You are a distant relative of Janice? What's your name?"

"Noah Shaw."

"Your family name is really Shaw? Are you related to Tilly Shaw?" asked Maya.

That man downstairs had mentioned Tilly to Maya. That was why she came here.

Noah told her, "I am not related to Tilly. Tilly has ever lent you an umbrella, and Janice overheard about it. This is just her way to get you to come here."

So, she overheard.

Janice has indeed gone through a lot of trouble to set me up. I can't believe I have treated her so well all this while.

"Noah, I need you to play along with Maya. I will send someone to follow both of you. If you dare to hurt Maya or attempt any stunt, I will torture you until you cry for your mom and wish you were dead!" Davin spoke with absolute seriousness.

Noah looked at him and said, "I am aware that I am just a lamb waiting to be slaughtered. I won't do stupid things that will cost me my life. Right now, I want to know if it is true that Janice will really want to kill both Maya and me!"

“Fine. Maya will prove it to you.”

Once Davin was done talking, he arranged for a few men who were highly skilled in combat to protect Maya.

“If you need anything, call me.”

“Sure. Thank you, Uncle Davin.”

After Davin left, Maya told Noah to carry out the plan accordingly.

Meanwhile, Janice had come to the Simpson residence after she got out of the hospital. She was ill at ease.

I wonder if Noah did it.

How is Maya right now?

She paced around the bedroom anxiously. The moment her phone rang, she picked up the phone, saw the caller ID, and answered it tentatively.

“Hello? How is it?”

“Janice, I did it. I have given Maya the memory loss medicine, and she’s now unconscious. Later on, I’ll take her to the seaside.”

“Really? You did it?”

When Janice heard that her goal had been achieved, she was so ecstatic that she could not believe it. She had to confirm it many times.

Noah told her in a firm voice, “Yes. When Maya heard that Tilly, who had lent her an umbrella before, wanted to meet her, she came into the room unsuspectingly. I managed to knock her out, and I... Janice, if Mr. Seet finds out about this, will he beat me to death?”

When Janice heard Noah’s story, she got so excited that her hands started to tremble slightly.

First, she reassured him, “Noah, don’t panic. As long as everything goes smoothly, Mr. Seet won’t kill you. Instead, he will see you as his daughter’s savior and thank you for it! Once you and Maya start to have feelings for each other, h-he will give you his blessing.”

Next, she continued with her instructions, "Right now, the most important thing is to act according to the plan." Janice paused before saying impatiently, "Noah, send me the video of you and Maya first!"

Chapter 1982 Convincing Evidence

Video?

Why is Janice so desperate to have the video?

How am I going to get the video for her?

Noah turned to look at Maya, and she nodded. Noah then spoke into the phone. "I'll send it to you in a while!"

Janice was thrilled to hear that.

"Fine. Noah, once you have sent me the video, take Maya to the beach. When you reach there, do you know what to do?"

"Yes. I'll dump her on the beach and hide. Once she wakes up and cannot remember who she is, I'll push her into the sea when she isn't looking. After letting her struggle for a while, I'll go and rescue her. When that happens, she'll think that I'm her savior. After that, I'll spend time with her. Once she has feelings for me, I'll take her back to the Seet family."

"That's right. Once you bring her back to the Seet family, it's only a matter of time before you become their son-in-law. You'll be rich by then."

Noah chuckled. "Yes. When that happens, I'll have you to thank."

"You're welcome. We are cousins after all. Of course, I wish you well. Noah, after you hang up the phone, send the video to me!"

"Sure."

They ended the call, and Noah asked Maya for her opinion on the video.

Maya thought about it and responded, "Don't send the video to her yet. Just send her a few edited photos."

Her words worried Davin's aides.

“Ms. Maya, even if the photos have been edited, the media will think they are real and turn it into a headline when Janice sends the photos to them. Once it becomes a trending topic, tons of people will believe that they’re real as well. Ms. Maya, this will hurt your reputation!”

Maya pondered on it and said, “During the editing process, make sure there are some minor flaws so that we explain that the photos have been edited later on. If we want Janice to believe that I have fallen for her trap, we need to show her some convincing evidence.”

Seeing that Maya had already made up her mind, the bodyguard nodded and found an expert to deal with the matter.

During the editing process, Maya specifically reminded them to show a clear view of her face. As for Noah, a back view of his would suffice.

The expert in charge of the task glanced at Noah and replied, “Yes, Ms. Maya.”

Soon, the photos were edited according to Maya’s request.

During the entire time, Janice had called to rush Noah for the video. Noah brushed her off by telling her that the waiter was there to check the room.

Once the photos were ready, Noah phoned Janice.

“Janice, I won’t give you the video yet. Let me send you a few photos. The video is too outrageous. I’m afraid that you will find it embarrassing to watch.”

“It’s fine. I won’t show it to anyone else.”

“I think it’s better I send you the photos first. Forget it if you don’t want them.”

“No, no. Photos are fine.” Janice hesitated, but she felt that it was better than nothing. “Send them to me then.”

However, she started to become suspicious. “Noah, you said the waiter was there to check the room just now. What happened?”

“Oh, earlier on, I bumped into a waiter and caused him to drop an expensive bottle of red wine. I think he must be annoyed with me. Now that I’m checking out of the room, he’s using the opportunity to make things difficult for me.”

“I see. These waiters are so petty. Noah, are you all right?”

“I’m fine.”

“How about Maya? Did they see her?”

“No. I put Maya in the car before checking out. All right then. Let me send you the photos.”

“Great.”

When Janice saw the photos, she gawked at them. True enough, the woman in the pictures was Maya. In two of the photos, a man could be seen carrying her. In another one, Maya looked as if she was asleep. A man lay on top of her with his back arched. One look, and anyone could tell what was going on.

A smile appeared on Janice’s face. If Wilbur saw those photos, she wondered how he would react.

Once Maya had “jumped into the sea,” she would find the right opportunity and send the photos to the media so that everyone could see for themselves the kind of person Evan’s daughter was.

Chapter 1983 Warn Him

“Maya, I’ll let you die a glorified death. Once you get to hell, you must remember to thank me.” Janice was so delighted that she laughed out loud. “What happened? Why are you so happy?”

Mabel’s voice rang out behind her and gave her a shock. Janice stopped laughing and turned to Mabel. “Nothing. Why didn’t you knock before you entered the room?”

“You didn’t close the door either! Furthermore, the Simpson residence belongs to me. I can go anywhere I want to! Why should I knock?”

What?

Janice glared at her angrily. Once I have Wilbur, I’ll make sure Mabel has nothing to do with the Simpson residence when Wilbur inherits everything. When that happens, I want to see how she is going to show off in front of me.

“I saw you looking at your phone earlier on. What were you looking at that makes you so happy?”

“Nothing. Just some random stuff.”

“Oh, I see. I thought... Janice, has it ever occurred to you that even if something happens to Maya, you will still never get Wilbur?”

“What do you mean by that? I told you before that it is up to me to win Wilbur’s heart. You don’t have to worry about me.”

“Even if you are capable, what if Wilbur...” Mabel gave her a meaningful look.

Janice’s heart skipped a beat. The smile on Mabel’s face was giving her goosebumps.

She stared straight at Mabel. “What are you trying to say?”

Mabel walked up to her and whispered into her ears, “All I want to say is if anything untoward happens to Wilbur, your dream will never come true. Enjoy the Simpson residence while you can. In the future, you may not get a chance.”

Janice was taken aback.

Mabel seemed to be insinuating something. Is she planning to hurt Wilbur?

“Are you planning to hurt Wilbur?”

“Don’t talk rubbish. I’m by your side all day long to look after you. Where will I get the chance to hurt him? Besides, he’s a grown man. How am I going to do that?”

Janice looked at Mabel and felt very unsettled.

Mabel threw her a smug glance before leaving the room. Once she left, Janice picked up her phone to call Wilbur.

At that moment, Wilbur was in a meeting at the office. When the caller ID indicated that the call was from Janice, he declined it impatiently.

Seeing that he did not answer her call, Janice became more panicky. She phoned him again, but he still declined her call.

What’s going on?

Did something happen to Wilbur?

Feeling unease, she gave Wilbur’s assistant a call. When Jeff saw it was her, he declined the call.

Why aren’t they answering their phones? Did something happen to both Wilbur and Jeff?

She was so anxious that she called again.

Jeff silenced the phone and had no choice but to walk out of the conference room.

“Hello. Ms. Moniker, what can I do for you?”

“Why didn’t you answer your phone just now? Where is Wilbur? Is he okay?”

Why won’t Mr. Simpson be okay?

Crazy woman!

Mr. Simpson is in a meeting right now. What can possibly happen?

“Ms. Moniker, you worry too much. Mr. Simpson is in a meeting right now. He is fine. If there’s nothing else, I’ll need to return to the meeting.”

“Tell Wilbur to be careful. Someone wants to hurt him.”

What did she say?

Jeff noticed that Janice sounded serious and secretive. He nodded and responded, “Sure. I’ll inform Mr. Simpson.”

Once the meeting was over and they returned to their office, Jeff passed her message to Wilbur.

“Mr. Simpson, Ms. Moniker wants me to tell you to be more careful. I guess she didn’t sleep well last night. Or, maybe, she had a nightmare and dreamed that something bad happened to you. That’s why she called us in such a hurry.”

Wilbur said nothing.

The other night when she was having dinner with Maya, Janice had already messaged him and warned him to be careful. Now, she called to remind him again. There must be a reason why she is doing this. Janice has been spending the past few days with Mabel. Perhaps, Mabel can’t wait to make her move against me?

Chapter 1984 Lover Suicide Pact

“I got it,” answered Wilbur calmly before he resumed his work. After going through one proposal, he suddenly thought of Maya. I wonder if she is at the hospital taking care of Janice, or has she gone to the food plaza?

He gave Maya a call, but her phone had been turned off. Why is her phone turned off?

He thought about it and decided to call Janice. When Janice saw that it was Wilbur, she was excited and happy at the same time. She answered the call in a sweet voice, "Wilbur, I knew you'd call me back."

Wilbur was rendered speechless, but he could not be bothered to talk too much with her. Instead, he asked directly, "Where's Maya? Is she with you at the hospital?"

I can't believe he called me to ask about Maya.

"No, she isn't with me. Maya went to the hospital to see me. I told her I was getting discharged, so she left to do her own things."

"You're discharged from the hospital?"

"Yes. After Maya left, Mrs. Simpson managed the discharge procedures for me. I'm staying at your house now. Wilbur, what time do you finish work? What would you like for dinner? I'll get the chef to prepare some food for you. I..."

Wilbur went silent. Once he heard that Maya had left the hospital, he was not in the mood to hear what Janice had to say after that. Hence, he ended the call.

"Hello? Wilbur! Wilb-" Before she could finish talking to him, he hung up the phone.

Will Wilbur become suspicious if he can't contact Maya?

No, this won't do. Before anything else happens, the plan must take place.

Janice immediately instructed her people who were hiding near the beach to act according to their plan.

"Do you know which shots to take?"

"Yes. When Noah pushes Maya into the sea and when he jumps into the sea himself."

"Good."

With those two shots, they would be able to claim that Noah was an admirer of Maya, and he forced himself on her. Later on, he was afraid of the repercussions, so he committed suicide together with Maya.

If they could not be together when they were alive, then they would die together! Ha! It sounds quite touching after all.

The photos that Noah had sent her were proof.

She would send the photos to the media anonymously. Once the images had been exposed, there would surely be an uproar.

In any case, Noah had had sex with Maya. Even if they found her body and performed an autopsy, she was not worried because that fact would never change.

When that happened, news of their scandal would spread like wildfires, becoming the top trending topic.

The Princess Of Seet Group, Maya Seet, Has Been Raped And Murdered!

Maya Seet Has Been Defiled Before She Died!

The Beloved Daughter Of The Seet family In A Lover Suicide Pact!

When that time came, the Seet family would be utterly embarrassed. Wilbur would find out about it, and he would be upset. However, after a period of grieving, he would definitely forget about Maya and gradually accept her.

In the end, Wilbur would still belong to her.

During that time, she must treat Wilbur with utmost care and use her gentleness to soothe his sorrow.

Janice started fantasizing and envisioned a beautiful future with Wilbur.

Meanwhile, Noah had brought Maya to the beach. The trusted men that Davin had sent were observing in secret.

The moment Maya was being pushed into the sea, someone captured the moment.

Once Maya was in the sea, Noah jumped in to save her. Again, someone captured the scene.

Afterward, a few men ran to the beach and stopped Maya and Noah from getting back on the shore.

Maya had anticipated all of these, and the situation was resolved very quickly.

Twenty minutes later, Janice received two videos.

One showed Noah pushing Maya into the sea, and the other one showed the former jumping into the sea by himself.

Janice watched the videos repeatedly. Once she confirmed that it was really Maya and Noah in the videos, she made a call to Noah. There was no answer.

Dead?

Are they really dead?

She started to get very excited. It was as if the biggest obstacle in her life had been removed, and she was able to see a bright future ahead of her.

A bright future with Wilbur in it.

Chapter 1985 Trending News

Hahahaha! Maya, you're finally dead! There's no way you can come between Wilbur and me anymore! Wonderful! Although Janice was happy, a wave of worry washed over her. She wasn't sure why she felt that way.

No, I'm sure it's because I haven't settled everything I need to. Yes! That must be it! I have to get someone to spread this news immediately. This will only be over after both of them are confirmed dead, that Noah killed himself after killing Maya.

With that, Janice carried out her plans. After half an hour, something that appeared on the trending search had gone viral.

It was a post with two videos: Two bodies were found in the sea! Does anyone know them? Please contact their families immediately! Not long after, it became the number one trending topic, and a lot of media were sharing it on their platforms.

It wasn't long before John saw this news and noticed that the girl looked like Nina and Maya in the photo. At that moment, he didn't know which one of the sisters was in the picture. All he knew was that Evan would be shocked by it when the latter heard the news.

Should I tell Mr. Seet about it? But there's a possibility that the woman in the photo is just someone who looks like them...

John forced himself not to think of the possibility that Nina or Maya was in danger despite his gut telling him that it must be either one of them.

He gripped his phone tightly and had a mixed expression on his face.

Suddenly, Evan called him, "John! Where's the proposal from yesterday?"

"I'll go look for it now, Mr. Seet!"

“You haven’t found it yet? Why are you sitting there and staring into space for then? Missing your wife or your daughter already?” Evan asked.

“Mr. Seet, I-I...”

Evan furrowed his brows when he saw how strange John was behaving. Usually, when he teased John, the latter would flash a happy grin and come up with something about him missing his wife. That’s odd. What’s wrong with him?

“Did something happen?” Evan asked.

“M-Mr. Seet, I saw something on the trending topics. I-It’s...” John’s voice trailed off as he lifted his head to look at Evan with a solemn expression.

“What did you see?”

“I saw that Ms. Maya or Ms. Nina had fallen into the sea.”

“What? Fallen into the sea?” Evan asked.

John nodded in response.

Evan didn’t really understand what John was saying, so he took John’s phone to look at the post. With a single glance, he saw that the woman in the video was Maya.

In the video, Maya looked like she was searching for something while wandering around the place. She looked lost. After some time, she stared at the sea in a daze. Then, a man appeared behind her and pushed her into the waters.

Shortly after, the man jumped into the sea as well.

Maya...

In that instant, Evan felt like he was going to pass out. John quickly caught him and held him steady.

“Mr. Seet, are you okay?”

“Hurry! We have to get to the beach now!”

“Y-Yes, sir!”

John knew Evan’s temperament very well, so he quickly called the driver.

“Mr. Seet, please calm down. I’m sure she’ll be okay.”

What's the matter with Mr. Seet? Is he rushing back to meet his wife? It's been a long time since he's in such a hurry. A few staff members thought when they saw how hastily Evan was walking to the parking lot.

"Did you see the news? Something had happened to Mr. Seet's daughter!"

"What?"

Soon, everyone in the company was talking about it and was keeping an eye on the latest updates.

Nicole and Nina were utterly shocked by the news, and they rushed to the beach as fast as possible to find out if it really was Maya.

Wilbur was in disbelief when he heard the news. As he watched the video, he kept telling himself, "No. It's not Maya... The woman isn't Maya. It's not Maya..."

Jeff had never seen Wilbur act that way before. Wilbur's entire face was drained of color, and his hands were trembling.

Mr. Simpson is really afraid of losing Maya... Jeff thought when he saw the look in Wilbur's eyes.

Chapter 1986 Evan And Nicole Arrived

Seconds later, Wilbur got up and dashed toward the garage. He wanted to see for himself that the woman at the beach wasn't Maya.

"Mr. Simpson, please be careful. I'll drive," Jeff said as he opened the door of the passenger seat for Wilbur.

At that moment, Wilbur's heart was beating frantically when the scene of Maya being pushed into the sea kept replaying in his mind. Therefore, he knew that he shouldn't drive in that state. Without wasting any time, he walked over and sat in the passenger seat.

As Jeff drove, Wilbur kept urging him to drive faster.

"Mr. Simpson, I'm driving as fast as I can. Please try to calm down. We'll get there in ten minutes."

"That's too long! We have to get there in eight minutes!"

Jeff was speechless. He took a glance at Wilbur. Is Mr. Simpson expecting the car to fly? This is a car, not a plane!

Suddenly, Wilbur's phone rang, but he didn't even bother to pick it up. While looking intently at the road, he prayed that it wasn't Maya.

"Why isn't he picking up?" Janice muttered as she stared at her phone.

She wanted to know if Wilbur saw the video and how he would react if he did.

Wilbur, don't be sad! Maya already got together with Noah before she died! I already have the photos on my phone, and I'll get the media to post them when the time is right. I'm sure you'll forget her very soon after seeing those pictures. Both of you aren't destined to be together, anyway. She will never be yours.

Janice tried calling Wilbur again. This time, he picked up almost instantly.

However, she didn't expect him to speak before she did. "Get lost!" Wilbur yelled.

She was completely stunned.

"W-Wilbur, I-"

Wilbur hung up before she even got the chance to say anything.

A vortex of anger swirled inside her. How can he treat me like this? Is something wrong with him? Or... Has he already seen the post? B-But even if he really did see it, he shouldn't treat me like this! Wilbur, just you wait! You'll apologize to me!

Meanwhile, Evan and John had arrived at the beach. Evan stared at the sea with his reddened eyes after getting out of the car.

"Is this the place?" Evan asked shakily from the pain he felt deep within him.

"Yes, Mr. Seet. Please calm down... Maybe that woman isn't Maya," John consoled.

"John, get a search and rescue team ready immediately. I don't care how much it costs; just make sure they find her!" Evan ordered.

"Yes, Mr. Seet!"

After a while, Nicole and Nina had reached the scene as well. Blood drained from Nicole's face as she looked at the sea. Suddenly, she felt dizzy, and she felt as if she was dreaming instead of being in the real world.

"Maya... Maya..."

“Mommy, calm down. I’m sure Maya is okay,” Nina comforted her.

Nicole was devastated. She looked at the sea as she prayed silently. Dear God, please don’t let anything happen to Maya! Please! She’s still very young! I’m willing to exchange my life with hers! Please make sure she’s okay.

Upon noticing Nicole, Evan immediately rushed toward her. He reached out his hand to steady her, and she lifted her head in response. “Maya’s not here. I’m sure she’s fine! Nothing bad will happen to her!”

“I know, Nicole. I believe that she’ll be okay too. She’s a kind soul, so I’m sure God will protect her!”

Nicole leaned against Evan’s chest and held tightly onto his shirt. At the same time, she continued to stare at the sea. As the water’s surface glistened from the sun’s rays, Nicole felt dizzy eventually. She hoped that this was all just a dream.

Nina looked at Nicole and Evan. Suddenly, she felt her heart ache when she noticed how much her parents had aged.

“Maya, you must be okay! For Daddy and Mommy’s sake, you must be!”

Chapter 1987 Settle The Score

Nina’s phone suddenly rang. She answered it right after seeing that it was Davin who had called. “Uncle Davin, did you see the news too? We’re at the beach now. You should come.”

“No, no. Nina, I’m just calling to tell you that Maya’s with me right now.” “Maya’s with you? Are you sure, Uncle Davin?”

“Yes. I’m positive. If you want to know what happened, go to the Simpson residence. I’m there with Maya already.” The Simpson residence?

“Okay, Uncle Davin. We’ll head over now,” Nina said. After she hung up, she told Evan and Nicole what Davin had said. Evan, Nicole, and John were surprised at what they heard. Could it be that Mr. Davin was fishing by the sea and saved Ms. Maya when he coincidentally saw her? John thought.

Meanwhile, Evan had no clue what Davin was up to. “Let’s go to the Simpson residence,” he said. “Yes, Mr. Seet.” With that, the few of them rushed to their destination.

Meanwhile, Davin asked Maya, Noah, and Louis to stay in the car as he walked up to the Simpson residence with his assistant. Louis was the one who worked together with Noah to lie and deceive Maya.

The butler and Mabel were surprised to see Davin at their doorstep.

What is he doing here? Shouldn't he be looking for Maya or her body after seeing the news? However, it's best that I don't mention anything about it so that I don't accidentally make him unhappy since our family still wishes to work together with the Seets. Mabel thought.

After considering her options, Mabel welcomed Davin into her house warmly.

"I'm here for business, so I won't beat around the bush with you. Janice is here, isn't she?" Davin asked.

Why is he asking for Nicole? Mabel's expression changed slightly at his question.

She nodded. "Yes. She's still recovering from her miscarriage. Her health hasn't been in good shape ever since she saved Maya and lost her baby..." Mabel paused slightly before smilingly, "Of course, Nicole's glad that she could save Maya. Hence, her baby's sacrifice wasn't for nothing. So, Mr. Davin, do you have any good news for her?"

They'll bring up the miscarriage every time they see us. I wonder if they'll still do that after knowing about the truth, he wondered.

"Whether or not the baby's sacrifice was worth it, you'll know soon enough! Where are Rodney and Nicholas? Call them out. Oh, and Janice too since she's Nicholas' fiancée now. Besides, she's living with you too. So, whatever matters that concern her, concern the Simpson family too."

Mabel was speechless when she saw Davin's darkened expression.

This is not good. Janice has hated Maya for as long as I can remember. What did she do to Maya? Could it be that Davin found out about something? Wait, is he here because he found out that Janice bullied Maya in the hospital and is here to get even with her? Is this really necessary?

Mabel continued to think about the possibilities in her head. I'll just see how things go later. If it's good news, Janice will still be Nicholas' fiancée. But, if things turn out badly, we won't help her at all. Since Maya was the cause of Janice's miscarriage, I'm sure he'll remember that good deed.

"What a coincidence, Mr. Davin! Rodney has just returned from meeting Desmond. I'll go upstairs and call him. Please wait a moment. Oh! Nic should be on his way back too because Rodney called him to come home a while ago," Mabel finally replied.

As soon as her words fell, Nicholas arrived home.

“Hi, Mr. Davin. What are you doing here? This is a pleasant surprise!” Nicholas looked at Davin puzzledly.

“I’m here to settle the scores.”

“Huh? If it’s about the company, you should look for Wilbur since he’s the one in charge of all the partnership matters with Seet Group,” Nicholas replied.

“It’s not about the company. I’m here to settle the score for Maya!” Davin responded.

Nicholas was surprised because he didn’t know what Davin was talking about. However, he had a bad feeling about it. Despite that, he gestured for Davin to take a seat respectfully.

Chapter 1988 Janice Was Slapped

Rodney came downstairs after Mabel went to get him. “Hi, Mr. Davin! It’s an honor to have you here!” Rodney greeted courteously. “Mr. Simpson, you don’t have to speak so formally with me. I don’t really like pleasantries.”

“Of course, of course, Mr. Davin! You’re really easy to talk to! I’ve already recommended your underground palace to many of my friends, and they are more than willing to go there,” Rodney responded.

Davin chuckled at that. “I’m not here to talk about my underground palace or the company today. Where is Janice? Call her out!”

“Is something wrong?” Nicholas asked as he looked at Davin curiously.

“Oh, yes. Something is very wrong, indeed,” Davin replied.

“Go get her,” Rodney commanded.

Meanwhile, Janice was sprawling on her bed as she intently scrolled through the top trending topics. She read the comments section of the post related to Maya’s incident happily.

Oh, Maya. You’re really famous now. Everyone cares more about this incident than they ever did about your status as the privileged daughter of the Seet family. I still have the photos that Noah sent to me. Once I expose them to the media, you’ll be even more famous! If you want to thank me for this, why don’t you say that to me in my dreams? A lot of people are wondering about your relationship with Noah. I'm sure you'll be thrilled when you see those comments because everyone knows your name now!

Knock! Knock!

"Who is it?" Janice's irritated voice sounded from the bedroom.

"Ms. Moniker, Mr. Simpson asks you to go to the living room."

Why does he want to see me? Could it be that he wishes to kick me out by giving me the ten million he promised? But now's not the time! My relationship with Wilbur is just starting! So, what should I say when I go downstairs? Janice pondered as she made her way downstairs.

Once she arrived in the living room and saw Davin, her heart immediately sank.

What is he doing here? Is it because of Maya? N-No... There's no way he knows what happened.

Despite her thoughts, she was still a little nervous.

"Janice, Mr. Davin said that he wants to settle some score with you. What is that about?" Nicholas asked as he stared at her.

Janice was puzzled and at a loss for words for a split second.

"Settle the score? Could it be that you're mistaken, Mr. Davin?"

Davin scrutinized Janice. This b*tch bullied Maya in the hospital, wanted to tarnish her reputation, and even schemed to kill her. There's no doubt she's the devil.

The next second, he glanced at his assistant, and the latter immediately walked toward Janice. Just as everyone was staring curiously at Davin's assistant, the latter slapped her across her cheeks.

Janice was taken aback by what happened and fell to the ground. She lifted her hand and covered her burning cheek as she raised her head angrily.

"Why did you slap me?" she yelled as she glared at the assistant.

"It's because you deserved it! Consider it a greeting gift," Davin answered instead.

Looking aggrieved, she asked, "Mr. Davin, what do you mean? Have I done anything to offend you? Do explain!"

Davin let out a chuckle. "Wow! You still have the nerve to ask me that? Don't you know what you've done?" he asked with a faint smile, but his eyes were filled with murderous intent.

Janice kept quiet, and her chest tightened. Could it be that he knows how Maya died? N-No... That's impossible!

However, she couldn't think of anything else.

"Janice, what did you do that made Mr. Davin so angry?" Mabel asked anxiously.

"I-I didn't do anything." Janice tried to talk herself out of it. The next moment, she turned to look at Nicholas. "I'm your fiancée, which means I'll be part of the Simpson family. Why aren't you saying anything when he disrespects your fiancée like this?"

In that instant, the only thing she could think of was to use Nicholas as a shield to protect herself from Davin's wrath.

Chapter 1988 Janice Was Slapped

Rodney came downstairs after Mabel went to get him. "Hi, Mr. Davin! It's an honor to have you here!" Rodney greeted courteously. "Mr. Simpson, you don't have to speak so formally with me. I don't really like pleasantries."

"Of course, of course, Mr. Davin! You're really easy to talk to! I've already recommended your underground palace to many of my friends, and they are more than willing to go there," Rodney responded.

Davin chuckled at that. "I'm not here to talk about my underground palace or the company today. Where is Janice? Call her out!"

"Is something wrong?" Nicholas asked as he looked at Davin curiously.

"Oh, yes. Something is very wrong, indeed," Davin replied.

"Go get her," Rodney commanded.

Meanwhile, Janice was sprawling on her bed as she intently scrolled through the top trending topics. She read the comments section of the post related to Maya's incident happily.

Oh, Maya. You're really famous now. Everyone cares more about this incident than they ever did about your status as the privileged daughter of the Seet family. I still have the photos that Noah sent to me. Once I expose them to the media, you'll be even more famous! If you want to thank me for this, why don't you say that to me in my dreams? A lot of people are wondering about your relationship with Noah. I'm sure you'll be thrilled when you see those comments because everyone knows your name now!

Knock! Knock!

"Who is it?" Janice's irritated voice sounded from the bedroom.

"Ms. Moniker, Mr. Simpson asks you to go to the living room."

Why does he want to see me? Could it be that he wishes to kick me out by giving me the ten million he promised? But now's not the time! My relationship with Wilbur is just starting! So, what should I say when I go downstairs? Janice pondered as she made her way downstairs.

Once she arrived in the living room and saw Davin, her heart immediately sank.

What is he doing here? Is it because of Maya? N-No... There's no way he knows what happened.

Despite her thoughts, she was still a little nervous.

"Janice, Mr. Davin said that he wants to settle some score with you. What is that about?" Nicholas asked as he stared at her.

Janice was puzzled and at a loss for words for a split second.

"Settle the score? Could it be that you're mistaken, Mr. Davin?"

Davin scrutinized Janice. This b*tch bullied Maya in the hospital, wanted to tarnish her reputation, and even schemed to kill her. There's no doubt she's the devil.

The next second, he glanced at his assistant, and the latter immediately walked toward Janice. Just as everyone was staring curiously at Davin's assistant, the latter slapped her across her cheeks.

Janice was taken aback by what happened and fell to the ground. She lifted her hand and covered her burning cheek as she raised her head angrily.

"Why did you slap me?" she yelled as she glared at the assistant.

"It's because you deserved it! Consider it a greeting gift," Davin answered instead.

Looking aggrieved, she asked, "Mr. Davin, what do you mean? Have I done anything to offend you? Do explain!"

Davin let out a chuckle. "Wow! You still have the nerve to ask me that? Don't you know what you've done?" he asked with a faint smile, but his eyes were filled with murderous intent.

Janice kept quiet, and her chest tightened. Could it be that he knows how Maya died? N-No... That's impossible!

However, she couldn't think of anything else.

"Janice, what did you do that made Mr. Davin so angry?" Mabel asked anxiously.

"I-I didn't do anything." Janice tried to talk herself out of it. The next moment, she turned to look at Nicholas. "I'm your fiancée, which means I'll be part of the Simpson family. Why aren't you saying anything when he disrespects your fiancée like this?"

In that instant, the only thing she could think of was to use Nicholas as a shield to protect herself from Davin's wrath.

Nicholas glared at her for a moment, but he still did what he needed to do. "Mr. Davin, what exactly did she do? Can you please tell us in detail? Otherwise, wouldn't it be inappropriate for you to come here and slap my fiancée?"

Davin shot Janice a cold glare and demanded an explanation from her. "Janice, how did you bully Maya back in the hospital?"

"I-I didn't bully her. Maya was the one who volunteered to take care of me." "Do you really think she would do that if you didn't guilt her into it with your miscarriage? Are you even worthy of her time?" Davin asked.

"That's really horrible for you to say that! C-Can't I even speak the truth now? My child's gone because I saved Maya." Davin gave her a cold sneer. "Are you sure that it's because of Maya? Why don't you listen to this?"

With that, he played an audio recording that he got from Kyle. It contained the statements of the men who bullied Maya in the parking lot.

Janice's expression changed after she heard that. "T-They're slandering me! It's fake! That's not true at all! There's no way I'd kill my own child! I loved my baby! There's no way I'd do that!"

"The police will find out if it's true or false. This is an audio clip given to me by the previous president of Cloud Corporation. Those gangsters that you found pretended that they were from Cloud Corporation and used it to hurt Maya! Cloud Corporation has already sued you. I'm sure the truth will be revealed soon."

Janice stared in stunned silence as her face turned ashen.

She didn't expect Davin to find out the truth about that incident.

What will happen to me if they prove that it's really me? Will it affect my relationship with Wilbur?

She thought her plan was perfect, but she had not foreseen Davin's interference.

Maya... You're really lucky, aren't you? You have parents who love you, and your uncle's treating you so well too! Why? Who gives you that right? This is too unfair!

Rodney and Mabel exchanged glances. At first, they planned to use the miscarriage incident to be on good terms with the Seet family. However, it looked like it wasn't going to happen anymore.

Davin noticed their strange behavior. Why aren't they shocked at what they heard? Shouldn't they be angry and demand an explanation from Janice for being so cruel? Could it be that they knew the truth all along?

Nicholas noticed Davin staring at them and could guess what the latter was thinking. The next moment, he turned toward Janice and questioned angrily, "Is what Mr. Davin said true?"

Janice immediately denied it and continued to talk her way out of it.

"Mr. Davin, since the investigation result from the police isn't out yet, there's still a possibility that those men were lying on purpose. Don't you think it's too hasty to jump to conclusions based on the voice recording alone?"

"Oh? Fine, we'll wait for the police's investigation on this matter then. Now, let's talk about the worst thing that she did!"

Mabel was speechless as she turned to look at Janice in shock. What else did she do?

Rodney and Nicholas were surprised by that remark too. She just came back from the hospital. What else could she have done?

"Mr. Davin, what else did she do?" Nicholas asked.

"Do you know some guy named Noah?" Davin asked.

Upon hearing that name, Janice's eyes widened as her face turned even paler. It took her a few seconds to answer the man's question. "No, I don't know who he is."

"You don't know who he is? His mom and your mom are cousins, yet you're telling me you don't know him?"

"I don't really know him! It's been ages since I last spoke to him. I've already forgotten that such a person existed before you mentioned him!"

"You forgot? Are you sure? Or are you thinking that you can forget everything you've done, and no one will be there to tell the truth after he dies?"

Janice was frozen to the spot, and her heart pounded rapidly. How did he find out so quickly about Maya's death? How is it possible?

"What do you mean, Mr. Davin?" Rodney asked. He couldn't comprehend what was going on at all.

"Janice used Noah to kill Maya! I'll make sure she pays for what she's done!"

Chapter 1990 Keep Him Alive

Davin's words sent waves of shock to everyone present in the room. Mabel, Rodney, and Nicholas looked at one another in confusion. Meanwhile, Mabel was cursing Janice silently in her heart. Janice, you b*tch! How dare you go overboard? Nic already told you not to try anything funny on Maya! Look what you've done!

Nothing good will follow when the Seets find out! I can't believe you'd do something like that! I'm glad Nic doesn't like her and that the baby's gone. Anyway, what happens to her doesn't concern our family. So, I'm not going to go against the Seet family for her. You're on your own, Janice.

Rodney was shocked to the core because he used to think that Janice treated Maya better than how one would treat one's own sister. Who would've thought that she'll do such a despicable thing to Maya?

But why? Is it because she wanted to avenge her unborn child? N-No... That's not it. She's the one who caused the miscarriage, so it had nothing to do with Maya. Then, why would she treat Maya like that?

On the other hand, Nicholas stared at Janice in disbelief. She's digging her own grave for doing such a thing on the day she was discharged from the hospital. This woman has gone mad for Wilbur!

He narrowed his eyes the moment he thought about Wilbur. He wasn't interested in what Janice did. However, the thing he was most interested in was becoming the successor of the Simpson family's business.

He coughed and came up with an excuse after he thought of something. "Please excuse me. I have to use the bathroom for a bit."

When he managed to isolate himself, he dialed a number on his phone.

"Yes, Mr. Nicholas? What can I do for you?"

"I'm sure Wilbur is devastated by the news of Maya's death. Make sure you take good care of him when the opportunity arises..."

"Mr. Nicholas, we've been following him as per your command for the past few days. His car will reach the beach soon. Should we..."

"The beach? Do you mean the one where Maya was? Tsk. Tsk. Tsk. Oh, Wilbur, I can't believe he wishes to jump into the same ocean that Maya died in. He's really deeply in love with her, isn't he?"

"Jump into the ocean?" the person on the other end asked.

After a short while, the person on the phone understood what Nicholas meant. "Mr. Nicholas, please leave it to us. We'll help Mr. Wilbur with that."

"Keep him alive. After all, we are brothers. I'd be merciful and let him live his life on a thread."

"Yes, Mr. Nicholas. You're really kind. As for the drug that you mentioned earlier..." The person's voice trailed off.

"Use it when you should. It'll make him forget all of his worries!"

"Yes, Mr. Nicholas. We got it."

Nicholas let out a sigh after ending the phone call. He was conflicted and sad about what was going to happen to Wilbur.

Wilbur's presence was like the fully lit moon at the company, yet he was a firefly that no one cared about. Everyone looked up to Wilbur, but all of them mocked him in secret.

We're both from the Simpson family, but why is he the company's successor while I'm just a plain side character that everyone looks down on? Why should we be treated differently when both of us have the same dad?

Other than that, Mabel had a grudge against Wilbur's mother before the latter died. Mabel did something stupid once and caused Angelique's death. Nicholas didn't dare to think about what Wilbur would do if the latter were to discover that.

If I were Wilbur, I'd definitely make my mother's killer pay for what they'd done! That's why I have to act first in order to secure my future and Mom's life. Wilbur, please don't blame me for this.

If you really have to blame someone or something, blame it on fate! There can only be one winner in the end. If there's already you in the family, why did God give me the chance to become the other son in our family? I don't have a choice!

Perhaps, Nicholas knew what he did was wrong, so he could only use this as an excuse to get rid of the guilt he was feeling. After taking a deep breath and keeping his phone in his pocket, he left the bathroom.
